

SILVERTON HAS SPECIAL PLANS FOR MUSIC WEEK

Silverton—Among the further plans for music week that have been announced by Mrs. Gertrude Cameron, general chairman for the Silverton programs, are the appointments of committee chairmen for the various events to feature the pleasures of the music loving public.

On Monday evening, following the individual Sunday morning programs at the various churches, Miss Ruth Lawrence will be in charge of young people's night at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Miss Marion Umphlette will supervise the various programs during the day, Wednesday, at the Eugene Field auditorium, on which the youngsters of the grades, of which Miss Hannah Olson is principal, will appear in numbers indicative of the work of American composers.

The "Evening of Orchestra and Song," at the Eugene Field auditorium, Thursday night, is under direction of Fred Baker, local concert orchestra leader and director of the junior choir of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mrs. J. P. Dullum of the Immanuel Lutheran church will sponsor the arrangements of the program of the united churches of Silverton at the Eugene Field auditorium Sunday evening, with numbers furnished from each denomination. Mrs. M. G. Gunderson was to have served on this committee, but has been unable to do so on account of ill health.

A complimentary program which promises to be one of the best will be given at the Eugene Field auditorium on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the union of all the choirs of the North Pacific district of Luther Young People, who are to be gathered here for the three day convention at the Immanuel Lutheran church. G. O. Edwards will direct the large chorus which will feature the following special numbers: "O Morn of Beauty," by E. Eaton; "How Amiable," by E. Eaton; "Beautiful Savior," by Christiansen; and "Land Sighting," by Edward Grieg.

LOGGERS TO FETE SILVERTON BAND

Silverton—An entertainment has been planned for Silverton school band members and their leader, Hal Campbell, to be given at the armory by the 4-L organization Saturday evening. The young musicians will be special guests of the loggers for a social hour following the program. The public is welcome to attend the entertainment.

The committee in charge has tentatively arranged for J. Ford of Portland, 4-L field man, to be the speaker of the evening. Musical numbers are also being planned. The band has brought home three cups, winning two state championship contests.

Among those serving on the committee are E. Boesch, W. L. Morgan, E. J. McCall and J. H. McCullough, who have chosen assistants.

Shower Is Offered For Talbot Woman

Talbot—A shower was given Mrs. Myron Baker at the Talbot schoolhouse. The program consisted of a piano solo by Mrs. Fred Jorgensen; reading, Kreta Calavan; vocal solo, Mrs. John Calavan; reading, Phyllis Cole and Virginia Belknap. The prize for the game was won by Mrs. E. Freeman, consolation going to Artie Baker. A lunch was served at a late hour by the younger set.

Those present were Messrs. Jess Monroe, Al Cole, Frank Brown, Gilbert M. Belknap, Ernest Freeman, Albert Davidson, John Calavan, Ole Jorgensen, Fred Jorgensen, Fred Wintermantle, David Turnidge, Nute Nave, George Potts, Marie Baldwin, W. H. Widman, Helen Doty, Miss Phyllis Cole, Virginia Belknap, Kreta Calavan, Irene Blinston, Naomi Brown, Betty Wintermantle, Shirley Jorgensen, Irene Jorgensen and the honor guest, Mrs. Myron Baker.

Community Guild Will Hold Bazaar

Hubbard—The Women's Community guild met at the home of Mrs. Pearl Bates Wednesday. After the usual devotional hour led by the president, Mrs. Neva McKenzie, the members sewed for the annual bazaar to raise funds for general church purposes. At the social hour Mrs. Bates was assisted by Mrs. Margaret McManis and Mrs. Ethel Johnson, the latter now a resident of Salem. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alice Adams with Mrs. Katherine Sittlerheart assisting.

FINAL SERMON SERIES SUNDAY

Dallas—The closing sermon of the series "Christ: Messages to the Modern Church" which is based on the book of Revelation will be delivered by the pastor of the Dallas Christian Church Sunday morning. The message of Christ which will be considered is directed to "A Lukewarm Church." The choir will sing an anthem.

At the evening church hour the pastor will use a sermon topic "Abiding in God." This message will be based on the messages of the Apostle John in his first epistle. There will be special music by members of the choir.

The teachers and officers of the Bible school will meet at the church Sunday noon for a covered dish dinner and council meeting. Plans will be discussed for the summer work.

WOODBURN TEACHER IS GIVEN SURPRISE

Woodburn—Jack Kennedy, 7th and 8th grade teacher of the Washington junior high school, was given a surprise party Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan C. Beers by the 8th grade class. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were invited to attend the evening at the Beers home and on their arrival found the home filled with the young people. Games of various kinds were enjoyed during the evening. The room was decorated with brilliant tulips and yellow blossoms. Refreshments furnished by the pupils, were served by Mrs. Beers, assisted by Mrs. Myrtle Clark, Elizabeth Pollard, Lois Walker and Leo Miller.

Present were Mildred Howe, Edna Mattison, Irene Jones, Evelyn Block, Jean L. Beers, Muriel Beckman, Marybelle Adams, Sylvia Teble, Oneta Harr, Elizabeth Pollard, Margaret Tanager, Lois Walker, Charlie Kaufman, Ralph Scherer, Ray Treadler, Howard Van Houten, Glenn Ainsworth, Jack Holcomb, Roger Anonby, Davis Paul Kenneth White, Donald Berick, Kenneth Pomeroy, Fred Hall, Leo Miller, Mrs. Myrtle Clark, Mrs. Ivan C. Beers and Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy.

Mill City Music Program Planned

Mill City—The community musical program will be held at the Hammond hall Friday evening, May 5. An extensive and varied program is being prepared by members of the Woman's club, the boys' chorus, and the churches of this city. Harbo Thompson will be in charge and lead the singing.

Billie Utley Wins

Brush College—Billie Utley, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Utley, won first place in his division in a contest conducted by the Oregon Federation of Music clubs at the Benson hotel in Portland. He sang "Angel Bright and Fair," Handel, and "Year's at the Spring." Billie had won first at a similar contest in Salem April 15.

Law Officers Meet

Independence—Judge McIntosh and Verd Schunk, district constable, went to St. Helens Thursday afternoon with Sheriff T. B. Hooker to attend the law enforcement officers' convention. These meetings are held every three months, the membership includes district attorneys, sheriffs, judges, city marshals and recorders and state traffic police.

CHAMPOEG PARK MEETING READY

Champoeg—The 90th anniversary of the Champoeg meeting which was held May 2, 1843, will be held at Champoeg park May 6. At the request of the Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers will assume control of all meetings hereafter to be held at Champoeg park in commemoration of this historic event.

George W. Caldwell, president of the Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers will make the introductory speech. The affair will be in the nature of a statewide picnic with a basket dinner from 12 to 1:45 p.m. after which a program of speeches and singing will be held in the auditorium.

The organization urges school children, students of history and the general public to attend. Special invitations are extended to pioneers, and their children. A general mobilization of pioneers from the state of Washington, formerly a part of the Oregon country, is publicly extended.

SALES TAX PROTEST VOICED AT ALBANY

Albany—Ray Gill, master of the Oregon state grange, charged in an address before the Albany chamber of commerce Wednesday that the proposed Oregon sales tax is a part of a national movement to lift the burden of taxation from the rich and powerful onto the backs of the average citizens and that it is a menace to Oregon business men and farmers.

Gill is an exponent of the income tax, saying "the income tax is the fairest tax because it exempts persons unable to pay. But there are no exemptions to the sales tax, poor families must pay the tax the same as the wealthy."

UNUSUAL PROGRAM GIVEN HOME ROOM

Silverton—An unusual program was given at the assembly hour of the junior high school today by members of home room No. 5 in the Eugene Field building, carrying out the idea of a tour on an ocean liner.

At the start the crew and passengers sang sea songs. Music, readings and dances were given on the boat for the amusement of the idle-rich passengers; the second class passengers gave a stunt for the pleasure of the party given the last night on board; the immigrants from several countries sang play in the gymnasium; and the students went through the boiler and engine rooms.

The final morning on board the group went through the necessary inspections for health and luggage, and a sea song told that the cruise on liner "Room 5" was over.

Dallas Choir Will Sing at Tillamook

Dallas—The choir of the Dallas Christian church has received an invitation from the Tillamook Christian church to journey to that city early in May and present the Easter cantata which the Dallas choir sang on Easter. Last year the Tillamook choir was the guest of the Dallas church. If the necessary arrangements can be made the Dallas choir will likely accept the invitation.

Communion Offered

Sublimity—A large number of children received their first holy communion Sunday morning at the 8 o'clock mass at St. Boniface Catholic church. Those making their first communion were Doris Albers, Dorothy Lalay, Herman Hendricks, Dickie Huhberger, Doris Sussauer, Velma Lalay, Maxine Kintz, Edward Splinter, Ruth Lalay, Donald Calum, Allen Baal, Anthony Gescherpacher and Clifford Laus.

Powder Is Cause Of Limb Injury

Lincoln—Claude Smith, grandson of Mrs. Alice Simpson, was home Sunday from Independence where he has been employed by his cousin, Harold Gwinn, who operates a hop yard at Oak Point. Claude was painfully burned about his legs between the knees and ankles Thursday from powder used to dust the hops for downy mildew. He is under the care of a physician at Independence who says he has never seen anything like this trouble. He is getting about on crutches.

TERM STUDENTS ON HONOR LIST

Silverton—F. J. Roubal, principal of the junior high department of the schools, has announced the personnel of the scholarship honor roll for the six-week term just completed.

Those receiving all "A's" are Opal Boine, Esther Lockren, Alma Tension, Wilma Mills, Alice Thorkildson, Ruth Maurer and Alice Miles. Pupils receiving no grade less than "A" are Juanita Gatz, Olive Green, Lester Ludviksen, Mildred Dack, Edward Erickson, Carl Shuster, Velma Van Clave, Ed Newton, Graham Preston, Ronald Reed, Robert Arthur, Clare Jarvis, Eleanor Hawes, Clarence Reed, Jimmy Busch, Beryl Fletcher, Bennie Johnson, Billie Nelson, Phyllis Tweede, Marjorie Anderson, June and Jean Bowman, Agnes Brenden, Evelyn Charpiloz, Garnet Down, Earla Garver, Verna Gilchrist, Elizabeth Hall, Ruth Hanson, Arlene Marquand, Maxine Morgan, Zelma Myers, Mary Jane Nofsker, Hazel Olson, Enid Paulson, Irene Shields, Hildur Thorildson, Evelyn Torvord, Robert Zocum, Frances Hignbotham, Helen Lambert, Helen Lockren and Marie Madsen.

Scoring in results for the six weeks in scholarship, citizenship and cleanliness of rooms across follows: home room 8, first, 487 points; room 3, second, 357 points; room 5, third, 321; room 4, fourth, 276; room 36, fifth, 257; room 7, sixth, 240 points; room 2, seventh, 231 points, and home room 34, last, 142 points.

AUMSVILLE CLOSING PROGRAM OF SEASON

Aumsville—Tuesday night will be the last community club meeting until fall. The program will begin with May festival exercises before the 7 o'clock dinner. The winding of the Maypole will be on the front school lawn.

This being 4-H club achievement day the club work will be on display in the gymnasium. There will be judges and prizes will be awarded the winner in each division. The women who were losers in the community program contest, are preparing this dinner for the men. The dinner will be followed by a short business meeting and the 4-H club Achievement Day program. The officers for the community club will be elected at the first fall meeting.

The last two meetings, the men and women contest programs, brought out the biggest crowds of the year.

Council Will Meet

Marion—The Sunday school council of religious education of the Jefferson district will meet at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock. A program consisting of music, talks and addresses is being arranged by Rev. Robert Smith of Marion.

Lyons—Stanley Brown of Oakland, Calif., arrived at the home of his parents, L. D. Browns, Wednesday for a few days visit.

HAYTER TALKS TO LODGEMEN

Independence—Oscar Hayter, attorney of Dallas, spoke before the members of Lyon Lodge, A. F. & A. M. Wednesday evening on ancient craft masonry.

There was a good attendance of members present, among them being a few who had not been regularly in attendance. Mr. Guthrie of Corvallis lodge was among the visiting members present and he was extended the courtesy of the lodge. W. V. Fuller of Dallas, accompanied Mr. Hayter to Independence and spoke briefly expressing his pleasure at being present.

The father's and son's banquet which was being planned was called off indefinitely following the report of the committee on arrangements. Religious services will be conducted at the Masonic and Eastern Star home the latter part of May with Lyon lodge and Adah chapter furnishing the program for the afternoon. A large delegation is expected to go from other lodges in Polk county and a basket dinner will be held in the oak grove in Forest grove just preceding the services to which all are invited.

PLAY AND BASEBALL DEMAND ATTENTION

Silverton—Two school events that promise to be of special interest Friday are the ball game with Chemawa on the Eureka avenue diamond and the senior class play. Silverton hopes to even up on the visitors for the game early this week in which Chemawa handed the local team its first defeat.

The annual dramatic event is the ushering in of the completion program for the senior class, being the first public program of the commencement exercises. Miss Lou Ann Chase is faculty advisor and director of the play, which is a comedy that promises an evening of laughs. The title is "Second Childhood" and deals with the imaginary and mistaken powers of an elder that is thought to have been the cause of the rejuvenation of an elderly professor. The cast includes a large number of the dramatic students. Pre-sale of tickets indicates an exceptionally large audience.

Ag. Course Study Will Be Planned

Silverton—Warren E. Crabtree, head of the high school Smith-Hughes department, will be a member of a committee to arrange a state course of study in agriculture to be the guide for vocational agriculture teachers for a number of school terms. The group plans to meet at the office of Mary L. Fulkerson, superintendent of county schools, in Salem Saturday afternoon. The course will include outlines, aims, purposes and content of subjects to be taught, and general arrangement of work.

Girls Selling Tags

Silverton—Members of the junior high school girls' league held a friendship day Friday, selling tags for a few pennies to finance their trip to Corvallis last week. The plan was a success, according to Miss Edna Spunker, dean of junior and senior high school girls and advisor for the league.

Independence—On account of the illness of Mrs. McIntosh, the missionary tea which had been arranged Friday afternoon at her home was held in the Methodist church. A good program of entertaining features had been arranged. Mrs. Alden of Salem was the speaker.

Spring Assessing Work Nearing End

Zena—Roy E. Barker will finish assessing this week. He is covering more territory this year, but has less bookkeeping to do. His districts include 4 and 14 instead of 23, 18, and 4 which he had last year. This covers the North Spring Valley district, Zena and Lincoln districts and through the Bethel hills toward Perrydale. Last year his territory included West Salem and from Lincoln City south to Eola and the local districts.

RICKEY SCHOOL HAS CEREMONY

Rickey—Rickey school will this year graduate a class of eight girls from the eighth grade. Graduation exercises have been set for Tuesday night, May 16 at the Rickey schoolhouse.

Those graduating are Gladys Crabb, Francis Flood, La June Gesser, Edna Hensel, Hazel Magee, Dorothy McElroy, Hazel Dell Sheridan and Neta Taylor. Gladys Crabb, Hazel Magee and Hazel Dell Sheridan were members of the class when it began its school life in 1926 with Miss Cora Beardsley as their teacher. Since the spring of 1928, at which time these three girls were the only members of the third grade, the class has been represented in the county speaking contest, never failing to at least bring home a certificate for a hundred per cent in the written test, twice winning the silver medal and last year winning the gold medal.

Gladys Crabb represented the class at the spelling contest in 1928 and brought home a certificate. Since then the class has been represented by Hazel Magee who in 1929 won a certificate in 1930 and 1931 won the silver medal and in 1933 won the gold medal.

In the years of 1928, 1929, 1931 and 1932 a member of this class, Hazel Magee has represented the Rickey school in the county speaking contest. The class has had as their teachers since beginning school in 1927 Cora Beardsley, Clara H. Reed, Margaret Veltun, Evelyn Kronberg, Irene Begin, Madeline Persyn, Charlotte Kruse, Audrey Ecker, Marian Bowen, Rosamond Kossler, Delphine Ebner, Ursula Keber, Mary Grosjacques, Olive Klinger, Georgianna Bourbonnais, Jean Barnum, Agnes Walker, Jolene Brockhaus, Claudia Dennelly, Mary E. Weiss, Henrietta Salfeld, Constance Hanning, Mary Louise LeDoux, Rosalia Welton, Helen Pinnett, Lucille Manning, Rita Ferschweiler, Eugenia Hemshorn, Anna Nag, Pauline Nag, Germain Sprauer, Enda Lee Moore, Bernice Gilles, Adeline Manning, Leona Schiedler, Adele Zollner, Dorothy Blake, Rose Renner, Mary Seelig, Anna Lauby, Adrey Terhaar, Mary Kaufman, Mable Digerness, Diana Moore, Arlene Simon, Ardith Drake, Blanche Horsey, Louanna Hanning, Doris

The stage and schoolhouse will be decorated for the exercises by green and white will be carried out in the decorations.

CASES IN SESSION
Sublimity—A number of Catholic Foresters motored to Portland from Sublimity and Stayton to attend a Catholic Order of Foresters meeting and also put on an initiation.

ACADEMY CLUB OFFERS PARTY FOR MT. ANGEL

Mt. Angel—Members of the Mt. Angel academy vocal club were hostesses at a party given in the academy auditorium Wednesday evening. They had as their guests the normal and collegiate singing class and the orchestra.

The evening was opened with a short program consisting of a rully by the club members, the music to which was played by the academy band, with Miss Georgianna Bourbonnais as major-domo. The address of welcome was given by Miss Charlotte Kruse. Other number included a vocal duet by Miss Agnes Walker and Miss Marie Grosjacques, with Misses Anna Bigler and Ursula Keber at the flute and piano. A metropolitan choir with Miss Jolene Brockhaus as director, consisted of Misses Jean Barnum, Olive Klinger, Adeline Manning, Margaret Welton, Audrey Terhaar, Louann Hanning, Ursula Keber and Eleanor Schmidt. A dialogue was given by Miss Edna Lee Moore and Miss Eugenia Hemphorn, and a reading by Miss Marian Bowen. Following the program a banquet was served in the academy dining hall. Father Alcun, O. S. B., acted as toastmaster, and talks were given by Rev. Father Vincent, O. S. B., Sister M. Beatrice, Misses Eleanor Schmidt, Louanna Hanning, Rustelle Bauman, Dorothy Schwab, Anna Bigler, Diana Moore and Arlene Simon. Dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening and the music was furnished by the academy dance orchestra.

Those present for the evening included Rev. Father Alcun, Rev. Father Vincent, Mother Mary Edith, Sister M. Beatrice, Sister M. Madeline, Sister M. Eustelle, Misses Eleanor Schmidt, Clara Keber, Helen Eberle, A. Gorman, Bertha Blockoff, Anna Dooper, Rustelle Bauman, Dorothy Schwab, Anna Bigler, Emily Koutney, Winona Jette, Justine Hart, Margaret Veltun, Evelyn Kronberg, Irene Begin, Madeline Persyn, Charlotte Kruse, Audrey Ecker, Marian Bowen, Rosamond Kossler, Delphine Ebner, Ursula Keber, Mary Grosjacques, Olive Klinger, Georgianna Bourbonnais, Jean Barnum, Agnes Walker, Jolene Brockhaus, Claudia Dennelly, Mary E. Weiss, Henrietta Salfeld, Constance Hanning, Mary Louise LeDoux, Rosalia Welton, Helen Pinnett, Lucille Manning, Rita Ferschweiler, Eugenia Hemshorn, Anna Nag, Pauline Nag, Germain Sprauer, Enda Lee Moore, Bernice Gilles, Adeline Manning, Leona Schiedler, Adele Zollner, Dorothy Blake, Rose Renner, Mary Seelig, Anna Lauby, Adrey Terhaar, Mary Kaufman, Mable Digerness, Diana Moore, Arlene Simon, Ardith Drake, Blanche Horsey, Louanna Hanning, Doris

Those present for the evening included Rev. Father Alcun, Rev. Father Vincent, Mother Mary Edith, Sister M. Beatrice, Sister M. Madeline, Sister M. Eustelle, Misses Eleanor Schmidt, Clara Keber, Helen Eberle, A. Gorman, Bertha Blockoff, Anna Dooper, Rustelle Bauman, Dorothy Schwab, Anna Bigler, Emily Koutney, Winona Jette, Justine Hart, Margaret Veltun, Evelyn Kronberg, Irene Begin, Madeline Persyn, Charlotte Kruse, Audrey Ecker, Marian Bowen, Rosamond Kossler, Delphine Ebner, Ursula Keber, Mary Grosjacques, Olive Klinger, Georgianna Bourbonnais, Jean Barnum, Agnes Walker, Jolene Brockhaus, Claudia Dennelly, Mary E. Weiss, Henrietta Salfeld, Constance Hanning, Mary Louise LeDoux, Rosalia Welton, Helen Pinnett, Lucille Manning, Rita Ferschweiler, Eugenia Hemshorn, Anna Nag, Pauline Nag, Germain Sprauer, Enda Lee Moore, Bernice Gilles, Adeline Manning, Leona Schiedler, Adele Zollner, Dorothy Blake, Rose Renner, Mary Seelig, Anna Lauby, Adrey Terhaar, Mary Kaufman, Mable Digerness, Diana Moore, Arlene Simon, Ardith Drake, Blanche Horsey, Louanna Hanning, Doris

Those present for the evening included Rev. Father Alcun, Rev. Father Vincent, Mother Mary Edith, Sister M. Beatrice, Sister M. Madeline, Sister M. Eustelle, Misses Eleanor Schmidt, Clara Keber, Helen Eberle, A. Gorman, Bertha Blockoff, Anna Dooper, Rustelle Bauman, Dorothy Schwab, Anna Bigler, Emily Koutney, Winona Jette, Justine Hart, Margaret Veltun, Evelyn Kronberg, Irene Begin, Madeline Persyn, Charlotte Kruse, Audrey Ecker, Marian Bowen, Rosamond Kossler, Delphine Ebner, Ursula Keber, Mary Grosjacques, Olive Klinger, Georgianna Bourbonnais, Jean Barnum, Agnes Walker, Jolene Brockhaus, Claudia Dennelly, Mary E. Weiss, Henrietta Salfeld, Constance Hanning, Mary Louise LeDoux, Rosalia Welton, Helen Pinnett, Lucille Manning, Rita Ferschweiler, Eugenia Hemshorn, Anna Nag, Pauline Nag, Germain Sprauer, Enda Lee Moore, Bernice Gilles, Adeline Manning, Leona Schiedler, Adele Zollner, Dorothy Blake, Rose Renner, Mary Seelig, Anna Lauby, Adrey Terhaar, Mary Kaufman, Mable Digerness, Diana Moore, Arlene Simon, Ardith Drake, Blanche Horsey, Louanna Hanning, Doris

Those present for the evening included Rev. Father Alcun, Rev. Father Vincent, Mother Mary Edith, Sister M. Beatrice, Sister M. Madeline, Sister M. Eustelle, Misses Eleanor Schmidt, Clara Keber, Helen Eberle, A. Gorman, Bertha Blockoff, Anna Dooper, Rustelle Bauman, Dorothy Schwab, Anna Bigler, Emily Koutney, Winona Jette, Justine Hart, Margaret Veltun, Evelyn Kronberg, Irene Begin, Madeline Persyn, Charlotte Kruse, Audrey Ecker, Marian Bowen, Rosamond Kossler, Delphine Ebner, Ursula Keber, Mary Grosjacques, Olive Klinger, Georgianna Bourbonnais, Jean Barnum, Agnes Walker, Jolene Brockhaus, Claudia Dennelly, Mary E. Weiss, Henrietta Salfeld, Constance Hanning, Mary Louise LeDoux, Rosalia Welton, Helen Pinnett, Lucille Manning, Rita Ferschweiler, Eugenia Hemshorn, Anna Nag, Pauline Nag, Germain Sprauer, Enda Lee Moore, Bernice Gilles, Adeline Manning, Leona Schiedler, Adele Zollner, Dorothy Blake, Rose Renner, Mary Seelig, Anna Lauby, Adrey Terhaar, Mary Kaufman, Mable Digerness, Diana Moore, Arlene Simon, Ardith Drake, Blanche Horsey, Louanna Hanning, Doris

Those present for the evening included Rev. Father Alcun, Rev. Father Vincent, Mother Mary Edith, Sister M. Beatrice, Sister M. Madeline, Sister M. Eustelle, Misses Eleanor Schmidt, Clara Keber, Helen Eberle, A. Gorman, Bertha Blockoff, Anna Dooper, Rustelle Bauman, Dorothy Schwab, Anna Bigler, Emily Koutney, Winona Jette, Justine Hart, Margaret Veltun, Evelyn Kronberg, Irene Begin, Madeline Persyn, Charlotte Kruse, Audrey Ecker, Marian Bowen, Rosamond Kossler, Delphine Ebner, Ursula Keber, Mary Grosjacques, Olive Klinger, Georgianna Bourbonnais, Jean Barnum, Agnes Walker, Jolene Brockhaus, Claudia Dennelly, Mary E. Weiss, Henrietta Salfeld, Constance Hanning, Mary Louise LeDoux, Rosalia Welton, Helen Pinnett, Lucille Manning, Rita Ferschweiler, Eugenia Hemshorn, Anna Nag, Pauline Nag, Germain Sprauer, Enda Lee Moore, Bernice Gilles, Adeline Manning, Leona Schiedler, Adele Zollner, Dorothy Blake, Rose Renner, Mary Seelig, Anna Lauby, Adrey Terhaar, Mary Kaufman, Mable Digerness, Diana Moore, Arlene Simon, Ardith Drake, Blanche Horsey, Louanna Hanning, Doris

Sunbeam Thimble Club Entertained

Monmouth—Mrs. Lockie Cooper entertained Wednesday for the Sunbeam Thimble club. The day was pleasantly spent in quilting for Mrs. Cooper. At noon a pot-luck dinner was served to the following members: Mrs. W. L. Mason, Miss Madeline Riley, Mrs. L. Sharrow, Mrs. E. Hamer, Mrs. A. Calbreath, Mrs. Ray Derby, Mrs. C. W. Price, Mrs. Frank Murdock, Miss Nadine Masop and the hostess, Mrs. L. Cooper.

MUSIC TOURNAMENT CALLING STUDENTS

Woodburn—Woodburn high school will be represented at the annual music tournament at Forest Grove Friday and Saturday by a soloist, the boys' quartet and girls' quartet. On Friday Peter Larson will sing, "Deep Water Song", by Mary Helen Brown as a solo for low voice. Saturday the boys' quartet will sing, "I Passed by Your Window," (Brube-Lucan) and the girls' quartet will sing "In the Heart of the Hills" (Kerr-Lee). The personnel of the boys' quartet is Wesley Eby, Carrol Olson, Dennis Froemke and Peter Larson. In the girls' quartet are Daisy Shrock, Hazel Shrock, Helen Woodfin and Vera Culp. Miss Nelma Saylor will direct the singers and Miss Vera Huber is accompanist.

HUBBARD REBEKAHS OBSERVE FOUNDING

Hubbard—Thalia lodge, Rebekah, celebrated the 150th anniversary of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at their monthly meeting. Guests for the evening included 15 members from Woodburn, five from Aurora and one, Mrs. Anna Byers, a former resident of Hubbard, from Sutherland. The program included readings by Mrs. Ida Garland, Mrs. Ave Malors, Mrs. Marie Claypool and Mrs. Byers. Miss Hazel Wells and Mrs. Esther Moon played several piano duets. After the program a pot luck lunch was spread and served by Mrs. Mina De Wolf, Mrs. Wilma Leffler and Mrs. Ida Garland. Mrs. Edith Painter, noble grand, presided.

Power Line Gains

Lyons—Mountain States Power men are busy this week east of town extending the power line a mile farther up the valley. This will connect the John Jungworth, Aldred Martin, Carl McGee and Bane Martin residents with electricity.

Cannon, Marguerite Persyn, Amanda Schwab, Marjorie Dehler, Veronica Lauby, Irene Zollner and Eva Renner.

Schilling Drip

How to make good coffee every-time!

This is the new coffee and the new way to make it. Moneyback. Try the Schilling Combination offered below. Try it for a week—for a month. If, morning after morning, for the first time in your life your coffee is not just the same, delicious and crystal-clear—your money back from your grocer or from us.

If your grocer cannot supply you, send his name and $1.20 to A. Schilling & Company, San Francisco. The Drip Maker and the Drip Coffee will be sent to you direct.

The Schilling Drip Maker shown above, is of sturdy enamel endorsed by "The Good Housekeeping Institute". The color is rich ivory, trimmed in pastel green—in keeping with the finest table service.

Special Model DRIP Coffee Maker and 1 lb. of Schilling DRIP Coffee both for only 20¢ at your grocers.

For Percolator or ordinary coffee pot use Standard Schilling Coffee as usual.

WARNER BROS. EL SINORE

TODAY AND SATURDAY TWO FEATURES

HE WAS PAID TO LEARN THE WORST! HE RUINED REPUTATIONS FOR A WAGE... But he paid for it all when he saw the woman he loved through

The KEYHOLE

KAY FRANCIS GEORGE BRENT

ALLEN JENKINS GLENDA FARRELL Monroe Owsley, Helen Ware, Henry Kolker

AND

BACK AGAIN to thrill you as you've never been thrilled before!

JOHN WAYNE

and DUKE the Miraculous Horse

TELEGRAPH TRAIL

A Home Owned Theater HOLLYWOOD

TODAY & SATURDAY Two Big Feature Pictures First Showing 7-11 p.m.

Ken MAYNARD

with the Wonder Horse 'TARZAN' Come On Tarzan and our Second Feature Something New in Thrills!

PAYMENT DEFERRED

CHARLES LAUGHTON Maureen O'Sullivan Verree Teasdale Dorothy Peterson Also Cartoons, Comedy and News

Mickey Mouse Matinee

Saturday, 1:30 p.m.

Majestic REFRIGERATORS

WITH REFRIGERATING UNIT ELECTRO-SEALED FOR LIFE

$99.50 to $229.00

Unquestionably, you will want to see the Majestic FIRST! Get all that Majestic offers. See the new models. Easy Terms

Isolator Wall Construction "Stay-Kold" Defroster Elast Finish "Stay-Brite" Shelves

Salem Hardware Co.

120 North Commercial Street Phone 4906