

LIBERTY GRADE ROOMS PRESENT CLUB PROJECTS

Liberty—The Liberty school celebrated achievement day Friday. Wayne Harding, 4-H club leader, and County Superintendent Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson assisted in judging the various 4-H club projects.

In division 1, cookies, Opal Norland first; Peggy Browning, second, and Mary Copley, third; division 2, cakes, Charles Cunningham, first; Patsy Dusch, second; Melvin Cleveland, third; bread, Margaret Copley, first.

Camp cookery, division 1, biscuits baked by campfire, Victor Gibson, first; Wayne Harding, second; Mary L. Fulkerson, third; Margaret Copley, fourth; division 2, biscuits, Margaret Copley, first; Victor Gibson, second; Wayne Harding, third; Mary L. Fulkerson, fourth.

Rowena Westenhause and Patsy Dusch demonstrated how to make an angel food cake and Ruth Saladay and Margaret Copley demonstrated the art of making bread. Mrs. Fulkerson presented Florence Copley with a gold medal which was won for the best bread last year as her bread won first prize at both the county fair and the state fair.

The first and second grades, with Miss Florence Berndt as teacher, had Holland as the theme for their program and many of their decorations included the following: reading, Katherine Holder and Millie Bailey, dressed in Dutch costumes; song, "Holland," Patsy Brown, Teddy Gordon, Ethel Anderson, Elsie Turner, Ralph Weidner, Clark Hamner, Johnnie Strohmeier, Anabel Vickers and Ernest Smith; skit, "We Like Windmills," Merle Rains, Elsie Turner, Teddy Gordon, Patsy Brown, Ralph Weidner, Clark Hamner, Johnnie Strohmeier, Anabel Vickers and Ernest Smith.

The third and fourth grades, with Frances Shogren as teacher, gave a short play, "A Trip Around the World." Jack Mudd and Philip Foster in a make-believe airplane visited parts of Norway, Holland, Greenland and Arabia, which other pupils were dressed in costumes to represent the fifth.

Pupils of the fifth and sixth grades, in Mrs. Pruitt's room, gave a historical pageant of the first wedding in Oregon. The cast was as follows: Jason Lee, James Rowland; Daniel Lee, Paul Free; Mr. Rowe, Dallas Spencer; Cyrus Shepherd, Edward Strohmeier; Roger Lewis, Irving Kura; Donald Eschenlund; half-breed daughter of Captain McKay, Lillian Davis; Miss Downing, Junette Anderson; Miss Pittman, Marjorie Deneer; Mrs. White, Patsy Dusch; Mrs. Johnson, Rowena Westenhause; Miss Biers, Mildred Lusk; Indians, Ivan Blingenheimer and Echo Sargent.

Several boys put on a skit of happenings during their campfire, and included Roger Lewis, James Rowland, Timmon Houser and Roy Foster. Ed Strohmeier sang old-time songs and Dallas Spencer gave a guitar solo. Donald Eschenlund played the Jew's harp and Irving Kura the harmonica. A number of the pupils sang, "Oregon, My Oregon."

Jack Dashi, Joe Williams, Jr., and Felix Foster of the seventh and eighth grades, put on a demonstration showing how to use a mimeograph machine.

Two ball games brought the day to a close, one with the girls and the other with the boys from Hayesville school. Liberty won both games with a good margin of scores.

DALLAS KIWANIS HEAR FIRE EXPERT

Dallas—J. R. Beck, county agent, was in charge of the program at the room luncheon of the Kiwanis club Friday and introduced L. B. Davis, assistant state fire marshal as the speaker for the occasion. The address was devoted to 4-H club work and two outstanding club workers were honor guests for the meeting.

They were Otis Smith and Eunice Powell. Smith received a scholarship and a gold medal for fire prevention work while Miss Powell received a gold medal. The scholarship awarded to the former was the only one awarded in the state. Judge George L. Hawkins will be the speaker next Friday, taking as his subject, "County Agents."

A delegation of Kiwanis club members and their wives were guests of the Oak Grove community club Thursday at a banquet and entertainment. The affair is an annual one and is always greatly enjoyed by the visitors. The club, according to E. J. Page, is still maintaining an excellent attendance record and is well up in the northwest attendance contest.

Relief Crew Busy

Macley—M. M. Magee, in charge of the relief work in this district, has had an average of 30 men working for him this week. This is the largest group of men that Magee has yet had employed on the road. This week's group has been so large that it has been necessary to use two trucks in transporting the men to and from Salem.

LECTURE SUNDAY NIGHT

Jefferson—Sunday evening at 8 o'clock M. F. Ackley of Eugene, field representative secretary of the anti-cigarette league of Oregon will give a lecture at the Methodist church. The lecture will be illustrated by slides.

Gervais Men Will Cook, Serve Meal

Gervais—An interesting program has been prepared for the P.T.A. meeting to be held in the auditorium Monday evening. A 7 o'clock dinner has been planned by the men members of the organization. They will prepare and serve the meal. Mr. Wadsworth, chief chef; John Buchanan, head waiter. The meeting is open to the public and preparations have been made to feed 100. An entertaining program has been arranged, one main feature to be "The Lone Star Camp," directed by Mrs. Ray Deroshea.

LEGION DOING MUCH WELFARE

Silverton—The Marion county council of the American Legion met with the Silverton group Friday evening at the armory, with Irl McSherry, Salem, secretary of the council, presiding in the absence of Keith Powell, Woodburn, president. George Duncan, of Stayton, acted as secretary. All member posts of the legion were represented. These include Silverton, Salem, Woodburn and the county.

The report of past activities showed that they were all doing much for welfare or relief work in their separate communities. Noted activities in junior baseball and Boy Scout are being encouraged. A committee composed of the post officers was appointed to arrange for a relief fund of the county.

The joint social affair with auxiliary members was enjoyed in the basement dining room and club rooms following the individual business sessions. Charles Johnson, past commander, acted as toastmaster for the Silverton group. Oliver Carpenter played a banjo solo and the four Norzema gave a number of vocal selections. Talks were made by C. J. Towe, Silverton, McSherry, Salem, Mrs. Jack Eakin of Dallas, Mrs. J. T. Delaney of Salem, Mrs. Verna Dodge of Woodburn, and Mrs. Nola Henderson of Salem.

Next meeting of the council will be in Salem the second Friday in July.

DISTRICT PYTHIAN SISTERS TO MEET

Independence—The district convention of Pythian Sister lodges will convene in this city May 4, at the main street in the Sloper hall on Main.

Six grand officers from Portland are to be in attendance and there will be a school of instruction starting at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, this to be followed by a dinner at 6:30 o'clock in the Campbell hall. Mrs. Chester Sloper, president of the local temple will preside. There are six other temples in the district, viz: Dallas, Salem, Silverton, Astoria, Hubbard and Oregon City.

BETHEL PLAY CAST DEFEATS SUNNYSIDE

Turner—Two three-act plays were presented by Bethel and Sunnyside dramatic clubs in the elimination contest Thursday night in the high school auditorium before an estimated audience of 350. Bethel group presented "The Little Clodhopper," with Mrs. Roy Marchand taking the leading role of the Little Clodhopper. Other characters were portrayed by Mrs. A. I. Eoff, Mrs. H. H. Boles, W. L. Creech, J. G. Lundeback, Junior Hamrick and Josephine Zak. Mrs. J. R. Carruthers directed the play.

Sunnyside club gave the presentation of "Between the Acts," with Jack Heckart playing the main character of the world bridge room. Kenneth Cole, Wilma Johnson, Ed Heckart, Ruth Pemberton and Carl and John Neuwander were other members of the cast. Keith Dyer announced the characters and synopsis of the play.

Judges were Mrs. Inez Rieksnyder, Mrs. Arthur Bates and Mrs. Fred Duncan. They awarded first place to Bethel, with 80 points, over Sunnyside with 70 points. Henry Ahrens, president of the Turner Community club, presided. E. L. Moor, president of the County Federated Community clubs, was also present.

Mehama Residents Busy With Quilts

Mehama—An all day quilting was held Thursday at the church by the Willing Workers club. They have several orders for quilting as well as orders to make quilts and are continually receiving more orders so they find it necessary to devote much time to quilting in order to get the orders out on time.

The club was organized last August and in the eight months in which they have been quilting they have put out 40 quilts and made approximately $100. A few of these quilts were made and donated to the needy the past winter. The money has been used to fix the church, for charity and for building walks.

The quilt which was just put out is owned by a woman's organization in Portland who expect to make $450 on it to help furnish a fraternity in Corvallis.

Thursday some of the men gathered to lay the sidewalk between the service station and post office and were treated to dinner by the women.

DRIVE FROM COLORADO

Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Kirsch, son Leo and daughter, Mrs. Louise Dunbar and baby daughter, Dora Lee, of Akron, Colo., are visiting at the home of Mr. Kirsch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Kirsch, east of town. They expect to visit here most of the summer. The trip was made by auto, covering about 1500 miles in three days and nights.

PAST OFFICERS SHERIDAN STAR ACCORDED RITE

Sheridan—Sheridan chapter No. 29, O. E. S., did honor to past matrons and past patrons Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of the organization in the Masonic hall.

Frank S. Baldwin, grand worthy patron of Oregon, was the honored guest. He was introduced and escorted to the east by Mrs. John Burgess, conductress and seated at the left of the worthy patron, W. Ross Neely.

The following past matrons were present: Mrs. Guy Smith, Mrs. Loll Hammett, Mrs. Harry E. Allen, Mrs. George Censky, Mrs. George Aaron, Mrs. Henry C. Smith, Mrs. Otto W. Heider and Mrs. Allison G. Fry. The following past patrons were present: P. K. Montgomery of Independence, J. F. Walton of McMinnville, Loll Hammett, Otto W. Heider, and Clem M. Howard. The conductress and associate conductress escorted the past officers in front of the altar and introduced each one and then gave them seats at the right of the worthy patron. Mrs. Herman Wilson and at the left of the worthy patron. Corages were presented each past matron and red carnations presented each past patron.

A beautiful memorial service was given in memory of Mrs. Fred W. Daniels, who passed away at her home April 18. The altar was draped with red and white flowers and a huge bouquet of pink carnations and forget-me-nots placed upon it by the associate matron, Mrs. Rollin J. Merrifield, W. R. Neely, W. R. read the memorial record of her life and Clem M. Howard and Mrs. W. H. Smith sang "Fare, Fare, Each Earthly Joy," accompanied by Mrs. W. R. Neely at the piano. Many tributes were given Mrs. Daniels, who has served as a worthy matron of the chapter and for a long number of years as the organizer.

Mr. Baldwin gave a splendid address before the chapter, stressing the lessons of the five star points. Following his address talks and greetings were given by Mr. Montgomery, Mr. Walton, Mr. Heider, Mr. Hammett and Mr. Howard. Mrs. Loll Hammett gave a history of the past matrons and patrons and their work from 1900 to the present time, reading letters from Mrs. W. O. Sims of Portland, Mrs. Ben R. an of Stevenson, Wash., and Mrs. Mrs. Clyde Niles of Coquille, and Mrs. Otto W. Heider was the only past matron who addressed the chapter. At the close of the chapter entertainment was given to the honored past officers by a group of Linfield college students, accompanied by their dramatic coach, Mrs. Eugenia Story. The group presented a clever little skit, "The Wedding," in which Miss Florence Macy was the bride; Paul Dunbar the groom; Jimmy Kent the best man; Fred Good the usher; Roberta Hunstock the mother of the groom; Lawrence Tichenor the father of the bride and Bernice Youngberg the aunt. Proceeding the play Paul Dunbar sang "Without a Song," accompanied by Miss Jean Jarrett at the piano.

STAYTON AUXILIARY SPONSORING GROUP

Stayton—The American Legion auxiliary is sponsoring a camp fire group. They have selected Olynkora as the name. There are six girls in the group and Miss Birden Yeoman will act as guardian.

The following officers were elected: Doris Crabtree, president; Frances Pounds, secretary; Lois Pounds, treasurer; and Madeline Adams, scribe. Betty Korinek and Cleo Schaefer are also members.

The girls went for a short hike in the woods and picked wild flowers at their last meeting. The next meeting will be held Tuesday and the girls are to have a winter roast.

MONMOUTH BEATEN BY DALLAS, 6 TO 3

Dallas—The locals registered their first win in the high school county league when they defeated Monmouth 6-3. McMullan set the visitors down one, two, three on their first trip to the plate and then was spotted to a three run lead when his teammates collected enough hits to bring in the rallies. The second inning saw three Monmouth batters go out in order while the home team garnered another counter. The third frame produced no runs for Monmouth and two for Dallas. The second half of the game the tables were turned, the visitors holding the home team scoreless and bringing in three runs of their own, with the sixth their best inning. MacMillan turned in a classy pitching performance with 13 strikeouts to his credit. Snider, on the mound for Monmouth, also turned in a good performance, but was accorded poor support.

COUPE IS WRECKED
Jefferson—Kenneth Dorman of the Parrish Gap district escaped serious injury a few days ago when the radius rod of his Ford coupe came loose, causing him to lose control of the car which landed on its nose in the ditch a short distance from town on the Marion road. The coupe body was badly damaged.

GROWERS' CLUB RESTS
West Stayton—The Growers club held its last meeting of the season this week. The next meeting will be the second Wednesday in October. Refreshments were served to the few members that remained after the business meeting adjourned.

Women of Macley Will Offer Play

Macley—The women of the Macley grange are now busily engaged in learning and rehearsing parts in the play, "How the Story Grew," which will be presented at the regular grange meeting Friday, May 5. Those taking part in the play are: Mrs. J. Amort, Victoria police department, Mrs. J. Amort, Mrs. M. M. Magee, Margaret Magee, Mrs. Harry Martin, Mrs. Albert Mader and Mrs. Mable Patton.

BANQUET PLANS ARE COMPLETED

Dallas—The annual matrons and daughters banquet is slated to be held in the social hall of the Methodist church May 3. The dinner will be prepared and served by the men of the Brotherhood. Mrs. Jean Johnson of the Portland police department, Mrs. J. Amort, Mrs. M. M. Magee, Margaret Magee, Mrs. Harry Martin, Mrs. Albert Mader and Mrs. Mable Patton.

The Epworth Leaguers held a special "around the world" Friday. The favorite dishes of the various countries were served cafeteria style at a small charge. The "Poppy" quartet and readers from Willamette university provided entertainment. Two special sermons are being prepared for delivery Sunday by Dr. G. W. Bruce, the morning subject to be "Second Coming of Jesus," and the evening topic "The Three-Store House." Special music will be provided by the choir on both occasions.

GRANGERS HEAR DEBATE ON TAX

Chemawa—At the last regular meeting of the grange a sales tax debate, which was more in the nature of a discussion by grangers among grangers, was held. Earl Fisher of the tax office and one of the writers of the bill, gave a very thorough exposition of the workings of the bill, for the affirmative and Seymour Jones for the negative side, tore it apart and showed how, as usual, the little fellow is going to foot the bill.

Deputy State Master Brown paid an official visit and announced that a meeting of the officers training school will be held at Red Hills on the evening of Wednesday, May 3. The next meeting of the home economics club will be held at the home of Mrs. D. B. Kiehnge on the afternoon of Wednesday, May 3.

The extra meeting which is held each month during the winter has been dispensed with and in lieu thereof Mrs. H. W. Bowden was selected to arrange for a social evening some time during May. Mrs. W. E. Savage, Mrs. D. B. Kiehnge and Mrs. Arthur Holden are on the retirement committee for the regular meeting May 25.

ANTIQUES AT DAVIS HOME ARE AUCTIONED

Turner—Many out-of-town people attended the auction sale conducted by Attorney S. M. Endicott, administrator of the estate of Cornelius Ann Davis, at the spacious Davis home here. Many rare and beautiful antiques were sold, among them being a three-legged walnut table 75 years old, a living room suite of six pieces of similar age and beauty and many old fashioned quilts made by Mrs. Davis and her mother, Judith Ann Turner, and more than 75 years old. These articles were sold mainly to relatives as family heirlooms.

A beautiful marble-top dresser with high oval mirror and five drawers was another rare piece of furniture sold. The large plate glass mirror, seven by five and a half feet, with gold leaf frame that hung on the south wall of the Davis living room, was sold to John Thill of Ventura, Calif., whose wife is a relative of the late Mrs. Davis. Perhaps the most antique piece of valued furniture was the mahogany and walnut organ of Scholer make, with bells and over 100 years old. Hand carved musical instruments in matching woods adorned the top of the organ. Only two organs of this type were ever brought to the Pacific coast and the Turner Davis family purchased one of them. The latter piece of furniture was also bought by Thill. Spool beds and quilt stand tables also went at auction prices.

Display Of Poppy Posters Planned

Dallas—The members of the American Legion Auxiliary of Carl B. Penton post are planning an attractive display of "Poppy" posters during the week of the Brown Building which was formerly occupied by Mrs. Gregory's ladies ready-to-wear. The exhibition, which is under the direction of Mrs. Jack Eakin, state vice-president of the organization, includes posters from the schools in all parts of the state and is unique in the wealth of variety and originality displayed by the children. The exhibition will be open all day and citizens of this community are urged to take it in without fail.

HEWITT GIVES TALK
West Stayton—Roy Hewitt of Salem spoke Thursday evening at the school house on the sales tax question. He portrayed conditions in different foreign countries comparing them to the American people.

REPAIRING CHURCH
Falls City—Richard Paul and son, Byron began the work of repairing the Methodist church the first of the week. They plan to have the job completed by Sunday.

VALLEY YOUNG PEOPLE RALLY CHURCH OF GOD

Woodburn—A rally of the young people of the Willamette valley will be held at the Church of God Sunday beginning at the Sunday school hour. The young people and adult classes will meet in the main auditorium with Mrs. Clarence Elliott from the First Church of God, Portland, as leader of the discussion. The intermediate, junior, primary and beginner's classes will adjourn to the basement, where they will meet with their regular teachers or some visiting teacher.

Regular preaching service will be held at 11 o'clock with the pastor, Rev. C. W. Hatch, speaking on "The Man on Main Street." At 12:30 o'clock a picnic dinner will be held on the Church of God camp ground. Professor James T. Matthews of Willamette university will be present for the afternoon service, which starts at 3 o'clock. From 6:30 to 7:15 o'clock will be the evening service worship period and will be followed immediately by an evangelistic message by the Rev. U. G. Clark of Portland. Special music will be given throughout the day.

At the Methodist Episcopal church, J. D. Woodfin will bring the morning message and announcement will be made as to the evening service.

Rev. Boudinet Seeley will preach at the Presbyterian church on the topic "Signs." Miss Vera Culp will sing. Rev. Seeley will preach at Bethel in the evening, his topic being, "Rejoicing in Tribulation." Evangelistic services are being held at the Four Square church by Charles MacLeaning of Iowa and will close Sunday evening. He is assisted by his wife, Pearl Leaming, and Rev. Wilbur Sterrett of Pasadena.

Regular services will be held at the Free Methodist church, the Christian church, the Lutheran church, St. Luke's Catholic church and the Christian Science society.

SILVERTON LODGES HOLD SOCIAL HOUR

Silverton—The Knights of Pythias Home Lodge No. 33 and Home Temple No. 21 of the Pythian Sisters, held their regular joint social session at the local hall Thursday evening with a dance and supper. Serving on the committees in charge were E. Z. Kaufman, E. O. Lee, Fred Mehl, Mrs. Lavonne Bowen and Mrs. Harry Benton.

Among the program numbers were orchestra selections by the Silverton Cadets; the Four Norsemen, Elvin and Cliff Alquist and Conrad and Thorkild Thorkildson, in medleys and popular numbers; darkey skit, "Some Speed," H. Amundson and Oscar Spacht; piano solo by Fern Davenport; yodeling solo by Elvin Alquist playing his own guitar accompaniment; skit, "The Train to Mauro," Fred Mehl, agent, Myrtle Mehl, Mrs. Butterworth, and Ed Kotek, Jr., as Johnnie Butterworth; a double violin number by Beryl Ottorway accompanied by Mrs. Fern Davenport, and a reading by C. W. Cain.

Birthday Surprise At Humphreys Home

Shaw—A surprise party was given by a group of young people at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Humphreys Wednesday evening. The occasion was the 21st birthday anniversary of Clair Humphreys and the 16th of George Sherman. Two large

TOMORROW AFTER THE BALL

Ken MAYNARD
with the Wonder Horse 'TARZAN'
Come On Tarzan
and our Second Feature Something New in Thrills:
PAYMENT DEFERRED
CHARLES LAUGHTON
Maureen O'Sullivan
Verree Teasdale
Dorothy Peterson
Also Cartoons, Comedy and News
SUNDAY, MONDAY
AND TUESDAY
Continuous Performance
Monday, 2 to 11 p.m.
What this country needs is a darn good laugh! This picture is no laugh - IT'S A SCREAM!
THEY JUST HAD TO GET MARRIED
SLIM SUMMERVILLE
and ZASU PITTS
Also Harry Langdon in "Tired Feet" News and Act

ESTHER BASIL RATHBONE A Spicy Comedy Drama That's Too Charming to be Naughty —And Too Naughty to be Misled Last Day PHANTOM EXPRESS with William Collier, Jr. Sally Blane RELEASED BY FOX GRAND

Ken MAYNARD
with the Wonder Horse 'TARZAN'
Come On Tarzan
and our Second Feature Something New in Thrills:
PAYMENT DEFERRED
CHARLES LAUGHTON
Maureen O'Sullivan
Verree Teasdale
Dorothy Peterson
Also Cartoons, Comedy and News
SUNDAY, MONDAY
AND TUESDAY
Continuous Performance
Monday, 2 to 11 p.m.
What this country needs is a darn good laugh! This picture is no laugh - IT'S A SCREAM!
THEY JUST HAD TO GET MARRIED
SLIM SUMMERVILLE
and ZASU PITTS
Also Harry Langdon in "Tired Feet" News and Act

birthday cakes with candles were presented the honor guests. Working jig-saw puzzles and playing games were the diversions of the evening. At a late hour refreshments were served to Irene Davis, Eva Humphrey, Helen Sherman, Sylvia Shupka, Jessie Davis, Cyril Crabtree, Harold Pendleton, Arthur Sandner, George Sherman, Hugh Johnson, Marion Schoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sandner, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Basal, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Humphrey and Mrs. Jack Johnson.

NEW OFFICERS NAMED BY COF

St. Angel—The Catholic Order of Women Foresters held installation of officers Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Madeline Huber. The newly elected officers include Mrs. Margaret Smith, chief ranger, who succeeded Mrs. Rose Ebner; Mrs. Bertha Schwab, vice-chief ranger who succeeds Mrs. Henrietta Ebner; Mrs. Rose Ebner, financial secretary who succeeds Mrs. Josephine Barr; Mrs. Magdalen Miller, re-elected, recording secretary; Mrs. Katherine Buchholz, re-elected treasurer; and the following trustees: Mrs. Anna Zack, Mrs. Phil Lutz and Mrs. Mary Wachter who succeeds Mrs. M. J. Dardis; Mrs. Valeria Begin and Mrs. Frank Mehl.

The new chief ranger appointed Mrs. M. I. Meyers as inside assistant; Miss Marie Ebner as outside assistant; and Miss Mary Wachter as conductor. The sick committee for the year were appointed and include Mrs. Mary Schaub, Mrs. Mary Toolman and Mrs. M. J. Dardis. Following the business meeting "309" was enjoyed by the members. High score honors were received by Mrs. Clara Thomas and the draw prize was won by Mrs. Josephine Barr.

After luncheon the retiring chief ranger, Mrs. Rose Ebner, received a beautiful gift from the members in appreciation of her work during the past year. The assisting hostess for the evening was Mrs. Barbara Schaefer.

EDITORS OF CLASS PUBLISHING PAPER

Hubbard—One more issue of the school paper, "Hubbard Hi-Ways," will bring to a close the contest between the four classes in the high school. Each class is trying to put out the best paper of four class issues. The next one will be in charge of the Freshmen with Junior Hagginbootham as editor. The other editors and their editions were Marion Carl, senior; Crawford Bates, junior; Antonio Carl, sophomore. The judges are Frank Roberts, district manager of the Dito machine; Mrs. Ada Ross, head of the English department of the Salem high school; Walter E. Dillon, principal of the Moloka grades; Dr. P. O. Riley, editor of the Hubbard Enterprise and Dr. A. F. de Lespinaise, chairman of the school board.

FARM UNIT CALLED
Bethel—Bethel local of the Farmers' Union is to hold its regular monthly meeting Monday night. Ronald Jones of Brooks who is well informed on the subject will speak on the sales tax.

Ken MAYNARD
with the Wonder Horse 'TARZAN'
Come On Tarzan
and our Second Feature Something New in Thrills:
PAYMENT DEFERRED
CHARLES LAUGHTON
Maureen O'Sullivan
Verree Teasdale
Dorothy Peterson
Also Cartoons, Comedy and News
SUNDAY, MONDAY
AND TUESDAY
Continuous Performance
Monday, 2 to 11 p.m.
What this country needs is a darn good laugh! This picture is no laugh - IT'S A SCREAM!
THEY JUST HAD TO GET MARRIED
SLIM SUMMERVILLE
and ZASU PITTS
Also Harry Langdon in "Tired Feet" News and Act

WARNER BROS. ELSNORE NORTHWEST PREMIERE SHOWING

MIDNIGHT SHOW TONIGHT 11:30
AND SUN.—MON.—TUES.

AIR MONARCH CRASHES AT SEA IN STORM-TORN NIGHT

See what really happens when a sky giant plunges to its doom!

Ken MAYNARD
with the Wonder Horse 'TARZAN'
Come On Tarzan
and our Second Feature Something New in Thrills:
PAYMENT DEFERRED
CHARLES LAUGHTON
Maureen O'Sullivan
Verree Teasdale
Dorothy Peterson
Also Cartoons, Comedy and News
SUNDAY, MONDAY
AND TUESDAY
Continuous Performance
Monday, 2 to 11 p.m.
What this country needs is a darn good laugh! This picture is no laugh - IT'S A SCREAM!
THEY JUST HAD TO GET MARRIED
SLIM SUMMERVILLE
and ZASU PITTS
Also Harry Langdon in "Tired Feet" News and Act

RICHARD BARTHELMMESS IN CENTRAL AIRPORT

With SALLY EILERS—TOM BROWN

You know this famous adventurer. Now find out why he carries a wedding ring that has never been worn

Last Times Today
Two Features
Ray Francis and George Brent in
"KEYHOLE" also
"TELEGRAPH TRAIL"

Ken MAYNARD
with the Wonder Horse 'TARZAN'
Come On Tarzan
and our Second Feature Something New in Thrills:
PAYMENT DEFERRED
CHARLES LAUGHTON
Maureen O'Sullivan
Verree Teasdale
Dorothy Peterson
Also Cartoons, Comedy and News
SUNDAY, MONDAY
AND TUESDAY
Continuous Performance
Monday, 2 to 11 p.m.
What this country needs is a darn good laugh! This picture is no laugh - IT'S A SCREAM!
THEY JUST HAD TO GET MARRIED
SLIM SUMMERVILLE
and ZASU PITTS
Also Harry Langdon in "Tired Feet" News and Act

WARNER BROS. ELSNORE NORTHWEST PREMIERE SHOWING

MIDNIGHT SHOW TONIGHT 11:30
AND SUN.—MON.—TUES.

AIR MONARCH CRASHES AT SEA IN STORM-TORN NIGHT

See what really happens when a sky giant plunges to its doom!

Ken MAYNARD
with the Wonder Horse 'TARZAN'
Come On Tarzan
and our Second Feature Something New in Thrills:
PAYMENT DEFERRED
CHARLES LAUGHTON
Maureen O'Sullivan
Verree Teasdale
Dorothy Peterson
Also Cartoons, Comedy and News
SUNDAY, MONDAY
AND TUESDAY
Continuous Performance
Monday, 2 to 11 p.m.
What this country needs is a darn good laugh! This picture is no laugh - IT'S A SCREAM!
THEY JUST HAD TO GET MARRIED
SLIM SUMMERVILLE
and ZASU PITTS
Also Harry Langdon in "Tired Feet" News and Act

Ken MAYNARD
with the Wonder Horse 'TARZAN'
Come On Tarzan
and our Second Feature Something New in Thrills:
PAYMENT DEFERRED
CHARLES LAUGHTON
Maureen O'Sullivan
Verree Teasdale
Dorothy Peterson
Also Cartoons, Comedy and News
SUNDAY, MONDAY
AND TUESDAY
Continuous Performance
Monday, 2 to 11 p.m.
What this country needs is a darn good laugh! This picture is no laugh - IT'S A SCREAM!
THEY JUST HAD TO GET MARRIED
SLIM SUMMERVILLE
and ZASU PITTS
Also Harry Langdon in "Tired Feet" News and Act

WACONDA CLUB TALKS PICNIC

Waconda—An interesting meeting of the Waconda Community club was held at the home of Mrs. Ed Scharf, west of Waconda on the Wheatland market road, in an all-day session with a pot-luck luncheon served at 1 o'clock.

Needlework of various sorts and piecing quilts for the needy occupied the group during the day. The annual club picnic held for club members and their families and friends was discussed, the time and place for the picnic to be decided at the next regular meeting. Three more meetings will be held before the picnic for the summer.

Special guests for the day included Mrs. Robert Bolter, Mrs. R. E. Chittenden, Miss Gayle Larkins and Mrs. Bohannon stood the trip wonderfully well, making as much as 400 miles a day on the trip. Don returned by stage on his return trip stopped to visit relatives in Humboldt county, Calif., and in Coos county. They found the highways in very excellent condition, the long stretch across Arizona and New Mexico being particularly fine, traffic light so that good time was made on the entire trip.

LAW OFFICERS SELECT SALE

Independence—Those attending the Northwest law enforcement officers' convention at St. Helena Thursday evening from this county were Sheriff T. B. Hooker, Dallas; Elmer E. Barnhart, district attorney from Independence; Verd Schirnak, co-sheriff from Monmouth; W. W. Williams, deputy sheriff, Dallas; and J. G. McInnis, justice of the peace for fifth district, Independence.

The Polk county aggregation were taken to St. Helena by Sheriff Hooker and arrived in time for the banquet served in the K. of P. hall at 6:30 o'clock after which a program of music, speeches and discussions was carried out. Representatives from almost all the counties of the district were present.

Dr. Ferguson of Astoria, a Presbyterian clergyman, and Martin Perry of Salem were the principal speakers. Earl Knott, district attorney of Yamhill county, president of the