Among those motoring to Portland Saturday were Mrs. LaMoine R. Clark, Miss Ola Clark and Miss Beryl Holt.

Birthdays Celebrated Jointly

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Weisser entertained with a charmingly appointed dinner in their residence Sunday in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Freeman of Portland and Karl Weisser, in celebration of the birthdays of the two honor guests.

The dinner table was centered with an effective arrangement of yellow spring flowers and tall yellow taper-tulips in the soft pastel shades were used about the living rooms.

Covers were placed for Miss Freeman and Mr. Weisser, the guests of honor, and Miss Margaret Freeman of Portland, Miss Helen Schulz, Miss Erma Weisser, Paul Rely, Harold Richardson, Oliver Glenn, Junior Carter, Lee Weisser, Jack Weisser, Karl Weisser, Sr., and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Weisser.

Sheridan Study Club Meets Thursday

Sheridan—Sheridan Woman's study club met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Harriett Strand of Willamina as hostess.

Mrs. Rollin I. Merrifield was leader and gave a very interesting review of E. C. Wagoner's "Jenny Lind," the day being the beginning of the club's celebration of National Music Week. This was followed by a broadcast from KOAC given at the request of the president, Mrs. C. F. Schulenburg.

The broadcast consisted of a review of Jenny Lind's life and work; and two solo numbers, Jenny Lind's favorite songs, "Believe Me If All Those Dearest Young Charming" and "Home Sweet Home." This is the third year KOAC has broadcast for the Sheridan club and the members feel greatly indebted to the station for its ready cooperation to bring to the club a broader information and music interpretation than can be obtained from local talent.

The club will observe Music week, as has been their custom for a number of years, by two programs: one on Sunday, May 7, in the Methodist church, in the form of a vespers service at three o'clock, participated in by the choirs of the churches of the town; and one on Wednesday evening, May 10, held in the high school auditorium in the form of a "community sing." Mrs.

George Crisp is general chairman of both events. Mrs. Strand, assisted by Mrs. Otto W. Heider and Mrs. Wm. Brandt, Jr., served refreshments after the program. Those present included: Mrs. Wm. Brandt, Jr., Mrs. Henry Funk, Mrs. Andrew Haugen, Mrs. Otto W. Heider, Mrs. Howard Houser, Mrs. Per Mark, Mrs. Rollin I. Merrifield, Mrs. Harriett Strand, Mrs. Otto J. White, Mrs. Robert L. Eskridge, Mrs. Homer Frick, Mrs. B. T. Myers and Miss Lols Puqua.

The next meeting of the club will be held May 11, with Mrs. Andrew Haugen as hostess. The study will be on Oregon history and will consist of two book reports: C. J. Bronson's "Jason Lee, Prophet of the New Oregon" and "Before the Covered Wagon." Only three meetings remain for the year, the last on June 8th will be the annual picnic, which will be held at the country home of Mrs. W. H. Brandt, Jr. and following which will be the election of officers.

Hesseman-Knutson Nuptials Announced

Gates—Heinold Hesseman and Miss Myrtle Knutson of Niagara were married at the First Methodist church of Salem Friday morning, with Rev. B. F. Parker officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Delford Stitt and Mrs. Lola Hennes accompanied the young couple. Mrs. Hesseman is a student in the Gates high school and will finish her senior year here on May 19. Both young people are well known in this community.

The Missionary society of the First Christian church will meet at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the reception rooms of the church with Don Schmidt, who was born in China, will speak on the Orient and exhibit a collection of curios. Mrs. A. D. Wagner will lead the devotions. Mrs. Irene Wirt is chairman of the hostess committee. All women of the church are invited to attend.

Hubbard—Mrs. Bert de Lespinasse spent the week end at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. P. de Lespinasse, arriving Thursday morning and leaving Sunday. Her home is near
