WOODBURN HAS CHURCH RITES; MINISTER BACK

Woodburn—Rev. Glenn S. Hartung, who is convalescing from a tonsil operation expects to be able to resume his regular duties Sunday and has chosen for his morning subject, "Easter Echoes." For the evening service he will preach on "The Rural Church and the Agricultural Situation." Two events in the near future which are being planned are Mother's day on May 14 and the 44th anniversary of the establishment of the Epworth League May 21.

A very successful rally of the Willamette valley young people was held at the Church of God last Sunday with a large representation from the various churches. Services for this Sunday will be as usual with Sunday school at 10 o'clock with Mrs. S. Shanbeck as superintendent. The preaching services will be at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. with the pastor, Rev. C. W. Hatch bringing the sermons. At the Presbyterian church Rev. Boudnot Seelye will preach on the interesting topic, "Getting Along With Each Other." In the evening Rev. Seelye will preach at Bethel, his subject being "The Cup Which My Father Gave Me."

At the Four-square church Rev. Hart Armstrong will preach at 11 o'clock on "One Thing Thou Lackest." His subject for the evening service will be "God's Clock of the Ages" which will be illustrated.

Regular services will be held at the Free Methodist, Christian, Lutheran, St. Luke's Catholic and the Christian Science churches.

TURNER LACKS BEER VENDORS

Turner—The city council of Turner met in regular session Tuesday night in the city hall with all members present. A. E. Robertson, water commissioner, was ordered to inspect the water main near the reservoir, to hire labor from users that are delinquent on their water rent. If necessary Robertson will order new pipe to make needed repairs.

First reading of a beer ordinance was introduced by one of the councilmen. The proposed ordinance provided for a license fee of $10 per year for retailers, $15 per year for wholesalers and one cent per quart from wholesalers on delivery to retailers in the city. Up to the present no applications have been received by the council for either wholesaling or retailing beer.

H. R. Peetz, city recorder, was authorized to notify a local farmer to keep his livestock out of the streets, following complaints made. Several current bills were allowed and ordered paid by warrants. The treasurer's report read at the meeting showed a balance of several hundred dollars of city funds. Mayor Crane was present. STAYTON SCOUT TALKS OFFERED Stayton—O. E. Palamater, Boy Scout troop organization chairman, of the Cascade area, was present at the regular meeting of the troop Wednesday night. Herman Brown and Leon Brown, scout committee, from Capital Post, Salem, were present.

Most of the evening was devoted to discussion of successful troop committee organization and operation. The visitors brought valuable information, based upon the successful Legion scout work in Salem. Troop No. 25, under the sponsorship of Stayton Post, the American Legion, is progressing very nicely.

Comrade Earl Allen of Lyons arranged for the transportation of the eight scouts from there and assistant scoutmaster, Wales. Many profitable meetings are held by the patrols in their patrol dens and each Wednesday evening they all gather at the new club rooms in the Women's Community clubhouse. On June 2 in Salem the area rally will be held. There will be many different types of competition for the scouts from the counties. The local troop committee under the leadership of Dave M. John, plan to enter in several of the events and teams are now being trained by R. G. Woods, scoutmaster. The entire troop plan to attend. The boy scout committee consists of Dave M. John, chairman; J. L. Jordan, Earl Allen, L. H. Wright, W. R. Dean, Dr. W. V. Adams and Floyd Crabtree.

Rain Hinders Play Dallas Ball Teams

Dallas—Weather conditions completely put a damper on the grand opener of the Twilight league baseball, which was slated for Thursday with the Legion Hares and the Mill as the attraction. With the prospect of more rain ahead and the condition of the diamond it is unlikely that play will begin before next week.

American Legion Junior league baseball has been brought to a complete standstill as the result of the rain and cold weather during the past few days.

Are Your 'Nerves on Edge?'

Nervousness is often caused by a shortage of some of the minerals needed by your body. If you tire easily, if you have poor circulation, if your nerves are on edge—normalize your mineral balance by supplying your body with the cell-salts and essential minerals it needs.

Cal-O-Dine is not a medicine, not a laxative. It is a mineral water that supplies all of the minerals you need in a natural way. One half-gallon, a month's supply will convince you of its results.

Come in and let us tell you about dozens of local people who have been relieved of nervousness this pleasant natural way. Telephone 6726, or call at 226 North High Street, Salem, Oregon, for free information on Cal-O-Dine. No obligation of any kind. c-o. -adv.

DRAMA CLASS OFFERS PLAYS AT SILVERTON

Silverton—Six hundred interested spectators crowded the Eugene Field auditorium Thursday night and enjoyed one of the most interesting entertainments of the school year when Guy W. DeLay's drama class put on three one-act plays that varied from the drudgery of life among the simple folk of the sea shore through side splitting comedy to the near tragedy that accompanied a business failure and the true test of friendship between two men.

Those appearing in informal musical selections preceding and between plays were Melvin Circle, violin solo, accompanied at the piano by Edna Miner; Maurice Winter, piano numbers; the Four Norsemen in old time songs. Composing this quartet are the two Thorlindsons and the two Almqists.

The first play with Glenn Scott as announcer was "Weather Breeder," directed by Millicent Taylor. Characters were Caroline Bump as Liza, Elmer Egan as Jim, Lee Leslie as Merle, Harold Davis as Levi and Lewis Paulson taking the character lead as Old John, the "sour" father.

The second play was "The Confession," directed by Dorothea Range. Depicting the character story of the tragedy of truth was Delbert Orjen as Baldwin, Laura Klosser as wife, Oscar Specht his son John, Wilma tanton as Eve, his daughter, Jane Ogden the maid, and Bill Cameron as Marshall, whose announcement that Baldwin's honesty had gained him business prestige, made a pleasant ending of a story that promised dire tragedy.

The comedy of the productions was "The Man in the Bowler Hat," with the title role taken by Alphonse Redishausser whose part in the play was exceptionally well done with no word spoken by him. Pauline Bacheiller took the part of the bad man. The chief villain was Wesley Lewis, the hero Merle Davenport, the heroine Billie Johnson, Norman Dennison as John, Orma Day his wife and Lillian Gottenberg, director, completed the cast.
