

SOCIETY CLUBS MUSIC

Edited by Rosina Eyre, Phone 4593

Society Assembles For Spaulding And Albert Nuptials Saturday

Society from throughout the northwest arrived in Salem Saturday to be in attendance at the wedding of Miss Josephine Albert and Bruce Spaulding, which will be solemnized at a brilliant ceremony in the First Presbyterian church this evening at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. F. R. Spaulding, father of the groom, assisted by Dr. Grover C. Birchett, will read the service. Prof. Frank Churchill will preside at the organ. Mrs. Winor Calkins of Eugene will play the harp and Miss Martha Patterson, also of Eugene, the violin. Light baskets of spring blooms and giant tapers will decorate the altar.

Miss Albert, who will be given in marriage by her father, Joseph H. Albert, will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Axel Eoff, as matron of honor. Her bridesmaids will include Miss Carlida Mayotoren of Los Angeles, Miss Grace Jorgensen of Portland, cousin of the bride, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle and Miss Genevieve Thayer. Little Miss Judy Hutchison of Vancouver, B. C., and Miss Pauline Wallace will be flower girls and Master Joey Eoff will act as ring bearer.

Mr. Spaulding will have Gurnee Fletcher as best man and ushers will include Edward O. Stadler, Jr., Dr. Filmore Carter of Portland, Lucien Cobb of Roseburg and Axel Eoff. A large formal reception at the Albert residence on Winter street will follow the ceremony. The bride and groom will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Albert, parents of the bride, and Rev. and Mrs. F. R. Spaulding of Hood River, parents of the groom, who will receive the guests. Assisting about the living rooms will be Mrs. Clarence Emmons, Mrs. Gurnee Fletcher, Mrs. Charles Swan of Newberg and Mrs. Aubrey Fletcher of Eugene.

A handsome cloth of lace will cover the serving table, which will be centered with a striking silver bowl of butterfly roses and forget-me-nots. Tall ivory tapers in silver holders will guard the arrangement. Presiding at the urns will be Mrs. E. D. Jorgensen and Mrs. Glen Sigel, both of Portland. Mrs. Fred A. Wiggins of Seattle and Mrs. J. C. Griffith.

A bevy of young matrons and maids will assist in the serving including Mrs. Oscar White, Miss Florence Power, Miss Sue Pringle, Miss Rosalie Buren, and Miss Jennie Delzell. Mrs. John J. Griffith will be in charge of the dining room.

Following the ceremony the couple will leave for a wedding trip, returning to Dallas where they will be at home after May 20 in the residence at 1204 Washington street.

Among the out-of-town guests on the invitational list are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Albert, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jorgensen, Mrs. F. M. Dalrymple, Miss Grace Jorgensen, Miss Sally Jorgensen, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Bodine, Dr. and Mrs. Filmore Carter, Miss Marie Rockwell, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ledbetter, Miss Charlotte Zieher, all of Portland, Miss Carlida Mayotoren, Miss Mercedes Mayotoren, both of Los Angeles, Mrs. Harvey McDonald of Walla Walla, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McDonald of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McGilvra of Forest Grove, Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson, Miss Martha Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Winor Calkins, all of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pruden, Dr. and Mrs. David Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spaulding, all of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spaulding of Hood River, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Spaulding of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Spaulding of Montana, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Pemberton of Woodburn, Judge and Mrs. Arlie G. Walker of McMinnville, Mrs. Henry Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Wiggins of Seattle, Albert G. Zimmerman of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Worthington of Pendleton, Miss Elma White of Vernonia, Miss Jean White of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Blatchford of Forest Grove, Miss Jennie Delzell of Waldport, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fletcher of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. James Hutchison of Vancouver, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bayler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krasner, all of Dallas, Miss Dorothy Kirk of San Jose, Calif., Lucien Cobb of Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Benz of Yakima, Wash.

J. A. Churchills Honor Guests

Monmouth—President and Mrs. J. A. Churchill will be complimented at an attractively appointed dinner party in the Green Gate room of the Spa in Salem Saturday evening when a group of upper grade department heads of the training schools entertain. Hostesses for the affair will be Mrs. W. A. Barnum, Miss Florence Beardsley, Mrs. J. Alford Cox, Miss Henrietta Wolfner and Miss Lella Howe.

Additional guests will be President and Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Miss Clara Trotter, Dean Helen Anderson, Miss Anna Henkle, Miss Ida May Smith and Miss Ann O'Neill.

Knights Templar Commandery No. 5 will entertain with a gay affair in the lounge room of the Masonic temple Wednesday evening when Pacific Lodge No. 50, Salem Lodge No. 4, and the Royal Arch Masons will be guests of honor. Cards will be in play at 8 o'clock with dancing later in the evening.

Miss Margaret Burdette and Miss Margaret Engel spent Wednesday in Portland.

Miss Myra Belt and Miss Kate Corey motored to Eugene Thursday where they were the guests of Miss Margaret Wagner at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house.

Chosen Queen

Chosen from a field of 10 candidates in campus-wide balloting, Miss Margaret Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wagner of Salem, has been chosen queen of junior week-end—one of the most important social student functions at the University of Oregon. The queen-elect is a popular member of Salem's younger set.

Queen Bernice Rules Over May Festivities On Willamette Campus

One of the most charming traditions of Willamette university is May Day and its attendant gaieties. The May day festivities opened formally for collegians and townsfolk Friday evening with "Willamette Night" at the Elsinore theater, with Queen Bernice I and her two attendants, Miss Carolyn Mendenhall and Miss Louise Sidwell and their escorts attending. Saturday morning the campus was a gay picture with pretty co-eds in smart sports frocks and their escorts wending their way to Lausanne hall for the annual May day breakfast.

Many out-of-town guests were present and were later taken for a drive about the city or attended the tennis matches between Willamette and Reed college and the tug 'o' war between the freshmen and sophomores. A student luncheon was held at noon. Queen Bernice was crowned at the impressive coronation ceremonies with President Carl Gregg Doney placing the coronet upon the ruling queen's dark head. Poll dances, with the international theme predominating, and the winding of the picturesque May pole concluded the ceremonies.

This evening the festivities will be brought to a close with the presentation of the Shakespearean play, "As You Like It," with members of the Junior class taking roles. Many line parties are being formed for this event, which will be held in the Salem high school auditorium. Still other students and alumni will attend the wedding of Miss Josephine Albert and Bruce Spaulding, both Willamette graduates and popular members of the university set, which is being solemnized at a brilliant ceremony in the First Presbyterian church this evening at 8:30 o'clock. Sunday will see numerous informal gatherings at sorority and fraternity houses with out-of-town folk the inspiration for gay breakfasts and dinner parties.

Silverton Women To Hear Mrs. Martin

Silverton—Among program arrangements for the next session of the Silverton Woman's club to be held in the auditorium of the First Christian church Monday afternoon, will be a talk by Mrs. Hannah Martin, state representative and president of the Salem Woman's club.

Convention reports from the district meeting at Oregon City recently, and of the county conference held at Union Hill, will be given. New club officers will be installed Monday afternoon. The nominating committee at the January meeting recommended all officers excepting president. These were Mrs. J. W. Jordan for vice-president; Mrs. Jonas Byberg, treasurer; Mrs. John Overlund for secretary.

Mrs. J. E. Hosmer, present chairman, who has served for two years as head of the club, designated to the committee that she did not wish to serve another year, but was nominated from the floor.

Serving on the nominating committee are Mrs. J. Ballantyne, Mrs. F. Glenn McDonald, Mrs. W. Satchell and Mrs. W. R. Tomlinson. Each member is asked to furnish a favorite recipe to be read at the 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon table. Luncheon committee members are Mrs. Henry Smith, Mrs. I. L. Stewart, Mrs. J. W. Jordan and Mrs. J. E. Hosmer.

Lyons—Mrs. Earl Allen, Mrs. Clyde Bressler and Mrs. John Warden went to Salem Wednesday where they spent the day at the Fred Hester home. Mrs. Floyd Bassett also spent the day in Salem visiting her sister, Mrs. Clifford Case. Mrs. Case and little son returned home with her.

The Past Presidents club of the Woman's Relief Corps will meet at the home of Mrs. Sarah Peterson, 235 West Wilson street, on Tuesday for an all day meeting. Quilting will be the diversion of the day. A covered dish luncheon will be held at noon.

Beta Chi Maids Have Buffet Supper

Smartly appointed was the buffet supper given by the Beta Chi sorority in the chapter house on State street Friday evening in compliment to a group of out-of-town debutantes who are guests of the sorority during the May Day festivities. Lilacs and tulips made an effective centerpiece for the strikingly arranged table. Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Beta Chi housemother, assisted the sorority group.

Special guests from out-of-town were Miss Evelyn Shields, Miss Adelyn Shields, Miss Virginia Carlson, Miss Jean Hollingsworth, Miss Mabel Worrall, Miss Rev. West and Miss Catherine Adams, all of Portland; Miss Mary Alice Berwick of Albany; Miss Hazel Plummer, Miss Eleanor Rutledge, Miss Helen Shreve and Miss Edna Danford, all of Dallas; Miss Pauline Winslow of Tillamook; Miss Pauline Vunsted of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Ruth Billings of Ashland.

Gay Party at Crum Home

A gay party was given Wednesday evening at the John Crum residence with Mr. and Mrs. Crum and Mr. and Mrs. George Brant acting as hosts. Great bowls of lilacs were arranged about the guest rooms. Supper was served at a late hour.

Moses Conservatory To Give Musicales

The piano and violin students of Joy Turner Moses, assisted by Mrs. Esther Hagedorn, vocalist, will be presented in a musicale at the Moses Conservatory, 335 North Capitol street, on Wednesday evening, May 10, at 8 o'clock. Several ensembles will be featured and the public is invited to attend. Phone reservations to Mrs. Moses, dial 4324.

Hal Hibbard auxiliary met Friday afternoon with committees appointed during the business meeting to join the camp for the annual state encampment of the Spanish veterans and their auxiliaries, which will be held in Salem early in July. The next meeting will be held May 10 with Mrs. J. H. Arnold, 1330 North 21st street.

The Delta Phi Mothers club will meet on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. L. Laws in the Morningglade addition. Mrs. Ulrich will assist Mrs. Laws during the afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Pournier spent Wednesday in Portland.

The Spinners will meet at the home of Mrs. Margaret and Kate Corey on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Office Phone 6244 Home Phone 4844

J. Vinton Scott Dentist

Local Musicians To Appear In Concerts During Music Week

Tomorrow national music week will open throughout the country—and Salem will have its share of excellent concerts. Mrs. Walter A. Denton, local chairman, has announced the program for the week. On Sunday special observance of music week will be held in the various churches of the city. Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution will hold their annual memorial elm tree service in Wilson park. At 7 o'clock a band concert will be given in Wilson park by the American Legion band with William McLaughlin as director. Open house and music in the homes will also be observed at this time.

On Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock a special concert will be given at the state school for the blind with Marguerite Carney, soprano, Mrs. Anna Lee Snyder, contralto, Frank Saunders, pianist, Mrs. Jeanne E. Chapman violinist, Miss Sara Jenks, cellist and Miss Helen Baranovich, pianist, appearing on the program. Tuesday afternoon the Parish junior high school Girl Reserves will entertain with a musicale and tea at the Y. W. C. A.

The Beethoven club of Willamette university will present a special program at chapel on the campus at 11:30 Wednesday morning. The public is invited to attend. That evening at 8:15 the school of music of Willamette university will present students in an ensemble concert. Thursday evening at 8 o'clock the Sacred Heart academy will present in recital Miss Alena Bremmer, who will be assisted by the orchestra and choral classes of the academy. The program will be given at St. Joseph's hall. The grade school Girl Reserves of the city will be hostesses at a musical tea Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A.

The students of Parrish junior high school will be presented in concert at the school on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Mary Schultz will also present a group of younger pupils in ensemble and solo work Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Saturday afternoon a musicale and tea will be given at the residence studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts with the public invited to attend. Saturday evening at 8 o'clock the winners of the junior contest will be presented in the Y. M. C. A. lobby.

The Salem school musical festival will be held on May 19 and will bring to a formal close an interesting series of musical events in Oregon's capital city.

Mr. Angel—To honor a number of their Salem friends, Miss Westhoff Miss Edith Sharrett, and Miss Helen Fletcher were hostesses at a bridge party at the home of Mrs. Anna Westhoff here Thursday evening. Prizes were received by Miss Vivian Sheridan and Miss Dorothy Kober. After bridge refreshments were served and the party motored back to Salem.

Garden Club Entertains Officers

Ira Gabrielson of Portland gave an interesting talk before members of the Salem Garden club and their friends at the chamber of commerce Monday afternoon when he discussed "Native Plants of the Pacific Slope." Slides were shown in conjunction with the talk.

Following Mr. Gabrielson's speech a short business meeting was held. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Ernest Iufer, re-elected for his second term; Mrs. G. Bayne, vice-president; Miss Palmer, secretary; Chester Cox, treasurer; Mr. Keifer, auditor.

Miss Edith Schryver, W. G. Franklin and Ernest Iufer of the Salem club are acting as judges in the Laurelhurst flower show which is being given in Portland this week-end.

The Association for Childhood Education will have a business meeting in the music room of the Garfield school on Tuesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock. The picnic, which was to have been given on Tuesday afternoon, has been postponed on account of the many May day exercises being given.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walton have returned from spending several days at their beach home at Neeskow.

Chapter AB, P. E. O. Sisterhood, will meet Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. E. Beck, 1532 Court street.

The Past Presidents club of the auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will entertain the department president, Mrs. Cecile Hardie, Ann Kelly, chief of staff, Cecile Porter, past department president, and Ruby Yonema, all of Portland, with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Bryan Conley, 1492 Marion street, Monday afternoon. All auxiliary members are invited to attend. The visiting department officers will stay over for the evening meeting of the auxiliary for inspection.

Don't Neglect Your Eyes—To Do So May Mean Trouble

We will test your eyes and fit the proper prescription into your looking frames for an extremely moderate cost. Consult with us today—it will pay you.

POMEROY & KEENE 379 STATE ST. SALEM.

The Presbyterian Missionary society will meet at the church on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for an interesting meeting. Mrs. G. H. Wilbur will be in charge. Mrs. Waldo Mills will make the arrangements for the social hour.

Alpha Phi Alpha Gives Fireside Supper

The Alpha Phi Alpha sorority is entertaining a group of out-of-town maids at the chapter house this week-end and several interesting affairs are being given in compliment to the visitors. Friday evening active chapter members entertained their house guests, several Salem debutantes and alumnae members of the sorority at a charmingly arranged fireside supper. Queen Bernice I (Bernice Rickman), a member of Alpha Phi Alpha, was an honored guest at the affair.

Salem maids invited for the affair were Miss Rachel Youm, Miss Helen Engel, Miss Dorothy Bladell and Miss Eva Cochran. Out-of-town guests for the May day week-end are Miss Vivian Widmer, Miss Mary Brooks, Miss Carol Jordan, Miss Mildred Higgins, Miss Margaret Higgins, Miss Virginia Bronson, Miss Charlotte Anderson, Miss Betty McDonald and Miss Helen Rose, all of Portland; Miss Marjorie Carberry, Miss Mary Roberts and Miss Aline Farrelough, all of Oregon City; Miss Marjorie Wilkerson, Miss Beatrice Abel and Miss Dorothy Arms, all of Oregon City; Miss Ann Knight of Hubbard, Miss Ernestine Schneider of Myrtle Point, and Miss Violet Baker of Junction City.

This evening a beautifully appointed dinner will be given at the attractive chapter house on North Summer street.

D. A. R. To Elect Officers for Year

Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution will meet at the city library on Monday afternoon and will elect officers for the coming year at that time. Later the group will adjourn to Wilson park for the memorial elm tree service. The public is invited to attend this service, which is an annual affair.

A bugle call by local Boy Scouts will open the program. A group of students from Leslie high school will sing under the direction of Miss Gretchen Kramer and Mrs. William Fordyce Kramo will speak informally on the Maryland and Virginia elms which the local D. A. R. presented to the park.

Mrs. Gail Jones Gives Bridge Tea

Mrs. Gail Jones entertained informally at bridge and tea Thursday afternoon for members of the Bono Tampo club. Attractively arranged spring flowers were arranged about the rooms where bridge was in play. Mrs. Carl Emmons won high score honors for the afternoon of cards.

Those invited to play were Mrs. Ralph Campbell, a special guest, and Mrs. Estill Brunk, Mrs. Carl Emmons, Mrs. Kenneth Waters, Mrs. A. Adolphson, Mrs. John Benkey, Mrs. L. B. Endicott, Mrs. Frank Needham and the hostess, Mrs. Gail Jones.

Mrs. Kenneth Waters will entertain the group at a similar affair in a fortnight.

Delto Phi Girls Entertain Guests

The members of Delto Phi sorority entertained at dinner Friday evening for 20 maids and out-of-town guests. Following the dinner the group formed a line party at the Elsinore theater.

A slumber party was held at the house, with alumnae joining the active members and their guests.

This morning the group attended the May Day breakfast and luncheon on the campus. This evening the maids of Delto Phi will entertain with a buffet supper in compliment to their guests.

The Medical Auxiliary will meet on Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock for a pot-luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Poline Byrd on Center street. Mrs. C. A. Boles will act as assistant hostess. The evening will be spent informally.

The Alpha Phi Alpha Mothers club will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney. Mrs. J. M. Rickman and Mrs. B. E. Edwards will act as assistant hostesses. Tea will be served informally late in the afternoon.

Miss Charlotte Zieher of Portland is spending the week-end in the city as the guest of friends and relatives. Miss Zieher will be among those attending the Spaulding-Albert wedding this evening.

Miss Fae Driscoll Incentive For Smart Evening Of Bridge

In compliment to Miss Fae Driscoll, bride-elect of Hubert Ashby, Miss Margaret Corey and Miss Hazel Johnson invited a group of the younger set in for bridge in the Corey residence on State street Thursday evening. Striking bowls of spring flowers were arranged effectively about the guest rooms where seven tables were in play during the evening. High score honors went to Mrs. Robert Ramsden and Mrs. Charles Claggett. Supper was served at small tables with the green, orchid and yellow color scheme predominating. Miss Kreta Janz assisted the hostesses informally. Following the supper hour Miss Driscoll was honored with a pre-nuptial shower. The gifts being arranged on an attractively appointed table centered with a May pole with soft pastel streamers and tall green tapers in crystal candlesticks.

Those bidden to honor Miss Driscoll were Miss Frances Sande, Miss Kreta Janz, Miss Dorothy Cannon, Miss Frances Martin, Miss Bunny Miller, Miss Lorraine Kinzer, Miss Margaret Burdette, Miss Hula Bailey, Miss Vivianne Reynolds, Miss Yvonne Smith, Miss Beatrice Olin, Miss Rosena Eyre, Miss Kay Goulet, Miss Cynthia Delano, Miss Claudia Buntin, Miss Jeanne Wilson, Miss Isabel George, Mrs. Robert Ramsden, Mrs. Charles Claggett, Mrs. Deryl Myers, Mrs. Robert Driscoll, Mrs. Edwin Eby, Mrs. Carroll Ford, Mrs. Mervin Fidler, Mrs. Alden Adolph, Mrs. Donald Deekbach, Mrs. Olive Kelly, Mrs. Kathryn Driscoll, Mrs. H. H. Corey, and the hostesses, Miss Hazel Johnson and Miss Margaret Corey.

Miss Cynthia Delano and Miss Claudia Buntin will entertain with a smartly appointed affair Monday evening in compliment to Miss Driscoll. A group of the debutante set will honor the popular bride-elect with a gay affair next Thursday evening.

B. and P. W. Card Club Entertained

The Business and Professional Women's card club was entertained at an interesting affair in the apartments of Miss Edith Burch on Friday evening with Miss May Cleveland acting as assistant hostess. Great bowls of yellow tulips were used effectively about the rooms. At a late hour the hostesses served supper informally with Miss Ruth Moore assisting them.

Those bidden for the evening were Mrs. Lillian Baughn, a special guest, Mrs. Winifred Herrick, Mrs. Blanche King, Mrs. Elizabeth Waters, Mrs. Mona Yoder, Mrs. Ethelyn Thompson, Mrs. Lillian Caldwell, Mrs. Emily Howard, Miss Clara Urbaub, Miss Daisy Hayden, Miss Lois Ohmart, Miss Juana Holmes, Miss Myrtle Reeves, Miss Merl Dimick, Miss Ruth McAdams, Miss Helen Louise Crosby, Miss Ruth Moore, and the hostesses, Miss Edith Burch and Miss May Cleveland.

Mrs. John Strand Hostess To Club

Williamina—The Woman's Study club of Sheridan met at the home of Mrs. John Strand Thursday. Mrs. Edna Merrifield as leader reviewed the "Life of Jenny Lind" by Wage-knecht. An interesting feature of the meeting was the program broadcast from station KOAC touching on the life of Jenny Lind and presenting several of her favorite songs.

Those present were Mrs. Manilla Brandt, Mrs. Gertrude Crisp, Mrs. Susie Funk, Mrs. Olive Haugen, Mrs. Colleen Helder, Mrs. Etta Mark, Mrs. Edna Merrifield, Mrs. Opat White, Mrs. Marie Eskridge, Mrs. Eva Frick, Mrs. Mary Myers and the hostess, Mrs. Strand. Guests of the club were Mrs. Rose Neely and Mrs. P. C. Drake.

Mrs. Carl Hultenberg entertained Card Club. Mrs. Carl Hultenberg entertained the members of her bridge club with a smartly appointed bridge tea in her residence Wednesday afternoon. Lilacs in great profusion were used as the decorative motif. Mrs. Glen Porter won high score honors at cards.

Those bidden for the afternoon were Mrs. Ed Burns, an additional guest, Mrs. Morton Briggs, Mrs. Walter Goughour, Mrs. Ray Binegar, Mrs. A. M. Johnson, Mrs. Glen Porter, and the hostess, Mrs. Carl Hultenberg.

Mrs. Porter will entertain the group at a similar affair in a fortnight.

W. B. A. Rally Splendid Success

The Willamette valley rally of the Woman's Benefit association closed Thursday evening after a very successful session with Mrs. Julia Ward, state field director, as a distinguished out-of-town guest.

An interesting program was given during the afternoon with Miss Leah Smith, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Hazel Newgent, giving a dance; Miss Amy Martin, a vocal solo; old time music by Mrs. Aris Perrine, Mrs. Myrtle Johnson and Mrs. Mabel Johnson.

Dinner was served at 6 o'clock. During the evening a dance was given by Madeline Knowles, a vocal solo by Martha Floor, selections by the Hay Wire orchestra and a talk by Elizabeth Barker, health supervisor of the W. B. A.

Mrs. Laban Steeves will entertain informally in her residence on State street this evening in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Radon of Portland, bride-elect of Lester Humphreys, Jr. A group of about eight will motor down with Miss Radon from Portland.

The Joy Turner Moses Piano and Violin Dinning club will meet this evening at the home of Miss Mary Barker. The group will discuss opera during the evening and a musical contest will be enjoyed.

SPECIAL! * SPECIAL!

Fruit trees 3 for 50c	Irish Juniper trees 2 1/2 to 3 ft., only 25c
Will trade fruit and nut trees for anything we can use	Weeping willow, Lombardy poplar, double pink flowering plums, white they last 25c
Gladiolus bulbs 50 for 50c	Asparagus, 8 varieties, 5 varieties in bloom 20c Up
Shade trees (with earth ball for safe trans-planting) 25c Up

Annuals, Perennials, Rock Plants, Vegetable Plants

OPEN SUNDAY 9 TILL 4

PEARCY BROS. NURSERY

267 No. Church St. between Court and Chemeketa

"MOTHER'S DAY"

MAY 14th.

We are prepared to take sittings up to Wednesday evening and have them finished for Mother's Day.

GUNNELL & ROBB STUDIO

"A Salem Owned Studio." 520 State St.