

CROWD ATTENDS TURNER EVENT; ROYALTY IS ILL

Turner—Despite threatening showers, Turner May day was a gala event with approximately 400 people attending throughout the day. Opening the program at 9:30 o'clock with the "Silk and Chatter" 4-H club achievement day program jointly with the following club group.

Display booths were arranged by both clubs with the following awards made: "Silk and Chatter" club, first division, Eleanor Parkes, first on exhibit, also awarded a scholarship. She placed fourth at the county fair with exhibit; Rachel Elches, second; and Nellie Savan, third. Ruth Bones placed first on most attractive exhibit; LaVerna Whitehead, second division, placed first, also with a scholarship to the summer school at Corvallis, Summitt Hill 4-H club awards were won by John Schifferer, first on biscuits, Margaret Schifferer second, and Dorothy Schifferer third. At the county fair Dorothy won first prize and Margaret second place. Dorothy Schifferer placed first in the forestry exhibit, Herbert Booth second and Margaret Schifferer third. An interesting campfire reflector made of a five-gallon can was on display. Arthur Bestvolder is the club leader of Summitt Hill and John R. Cox the Turner leader, with Mrs. Ted Whitehead as secretary.

The 4-H club program was announced by LaVerna Whitehead, president of the "Silk and Chatter" group; Mary Anderson gave the club history; vocal duet by Lois Gunning and Kathleen Sparkes; 4-H club yells by Eleanor Parkes; vocal solo by Nellie Savage with Mrs. John R. Cox playing the piano accompaniment. The boys sang next featured several numbers with Douglas B. Parkes, scoutmaster and Raymond Perry, assistant master presiding. The opening and closing scout ceremony was given, demonstration in tying nine different knots; indoor scout baseball game between the Crow and Wolf patrols.

The Cloverdale school of 20 pupils under the direction of Miss Melba Berg gave an exercise and song with a special solo by Frankie Redges; a group of songs were presented by the Summitt Hill school, directed by Arthur Bestvolder; the Crawford district school featured several health songs, arranged by Mrs. Merle Hedges, teacher. Special classes organized in the grades department by Miss Nova Lyndes, county health nurse, gave demonstrations in first aid, artificial respiration and tying bandages. This concluded the program, and was followed by a track meet and tug-o-war on the tabernacle grounds.

In the races Carlton Schifferer placed first in the first and second grades, and Lefroy Vogel second; Edward Hatfield third. Third and fourth grades, Lowell Hadley first, Kenneth Barber second and Ralph Nelson third; fifth and sixth grades, Walter Bones first, Ralph Harris second, seventh and eighth grades, Varnet Denham first, Elton Ball second and Hazel Peterson third; high school boys' race, Eugene Melles first, Robert Mitchell second and Homer Mitchell third; high school girls' race, Gladys Clark first, Nancy Spurlin second, Eloise Melles third; John Perry placed first in the third and fourth grades; Hazel Peterson and Clara Swelinski second; Frances Clark first in the fifth and sixth grades; Leta Bones second and Hazel Peterson third; Eugene Melles and Robert Mitchell were captains in the exciting tug-o-war across the river. The winners were Eugene Melles, Harlan Bones, Bud McCully, Harold Fowler, Wilbur Russell, Norman Whitehead, Elton Ball, John and Earl Noble, with most of the contestants striding in bathing suits. A basket dinner was served in the domestic science room, followed by the crowning of Leone Cook as Queen Leone, first, in the high school gymnasium. The chosen queen, Audrey Shoen, was ill and Leone Cook was substituted. The queen's fair attendants were Emma Deuser, Marjorie Fowler, Mabel Schifferer, Margaret Gistrup, Genevra Barber, LaVerna Whitehead, Eleanor Parkes, Zita Borschick, Flower girls were Ora Mae Gore and Betty Kearns. Peggy Palmer was the crown bearer and Alvin Garner was the male crown attendant, placing the crown upon Queen Leone. Wind the May pole with Arthur Parkes, Mary Peterson, Morris Sparkes, Cecile Boyer, Melvin Baker, Roseale White, Eddie Hart, Lefroy Vogel, Mary Lacy and Helen Helen dressed in pastel colors was effective; marching song by the grades department of 82 pupils with Elton Ball and Robert Edwards drummers; Dutch dance by a group of girls in native costume; Norwegian Mountain dance; violet song, with girls dressed as violets to welcome the queen.

Miss Hallie Thomas, Mrs. J. W. Schifferer, Mrs. Bert Pordies and Mrs. R. O. Witzel were the judges chosen to represent each district participating in the health parade and decorated floats, awarding first prize to the primary room; second to the Cloverdale district and third to the seventh and eighth grades. For the May day festivities and achievement day activities Turner May day was held at the Cloverdale, Battle Creek, Crawford and Summitt Hill school districts.

Waits Are Hosts
Rickreall—Mr. and Mrs. H. M. West were hosts at a family dinner party at their home here Sunday honoring their mothers, Mrs. George Wait and Mrs. S. H. Robinson, and complimenting George Wait on his birthday anniversary. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. George Wait, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Robinson, Ralph Wait, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Richter of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. C. McKinnis and three children of Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Elsworth and Peggy, Miss Mildred Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wait and Kenneth.

Brown Given Surprise
Silverton Hills—Twenty-two guests staged a surprise on Homer Brown at his home Wednesday evening on the occasion of his birthday anniversary, with cards and dancing the pleasures of the affair. Supper was served late in the evening.

Eight Of Fifteen Children Present

Silverton—Mrs. Sam Baller was granted the largest bouquet of flowers at the Sunday forenoon Sunday school services at the First Christian church during the hour devoted to the mothers of the church. Mrs. Baller had eight of her family of 15 children present, the youngest are twins about a year old.

Others remembered at this service were Mrs. M. F. Hoult, the oldest mother present, being 81 years old, and Mrs. W. R. Larson as the youngest mother present. Each was given flowers.

ETZEL SELECTED VALLEY LEADER

Stayton—The Stayton Holy society was host to the various Holy Name societies of Marion county at the parochial school Sunday evening, it being the joint meeting of the seven branches for the spring. Representatives were present from Salem, Stayton, St. Louis, Sublimity and Shaw. Following short services in church the business meeting took place under the leadership of George Spaniol, president of the Stayton society. Short talks were given by Rev. Father Scherbring of Sublimity, Rev. Joseph Scherbring of Stayton, Rev. Fr. Mautz of Shaw, Rev. Father Krause of St. Louis, Frank Seidel of Salem, P. T. Etzel, president of the Sublimity group and Edward J. Bell, prefect for the Valley division.

Following the regular meeting a representative meeting of the various branches of the order in Marion county were called together for the purpose of federating the organizations in order to further the activities of the organization.

Under the leadership of the Prefect of the Willamette division, E. J. Bell, a permanent organization was completed with Slim Etzel, Stayton, president; Bernard Minden, Sublimity, vice-president; Edward J. Bell, Stayton, secretary and Herbert Michelbrock, Silverton, marshal. Plans were laid for the activities and the social affairs of the federation, it being voted that they shall meet at one community or another every two months on the fourth Sunday and that contact be made with other federations of this nature to increase their activities. The next federation meet was set for Sublimity on the fourth Sunday of July to which all Holy Name members are invited.

A number of the members of this organization of Stayton and Sublimity are planning on driving to Portland Sunday, May 21 to attend the annual Holy Name rally staged at St. Ignatius parish, 43rd and Powell. The rally starts at 2 p. m. with prominent speakers from Seattle on the program.

TRINITY LUTHERANS PRESENT PROGRAM

Silverton—The Trinity Lutheran young people's society furnished a Mother's day program in the afternoon, served noon luncheon and held annual election of officers at the regular monthly session Sunday.

John Goplerud, Jr. was selected as president with Palmer Torvord, retiring; Harry Sonnerud was made vice-president. Althen Meyer secretary; Oscar Saltrum treasurer; Elmer Thompson, assistant treasurer. Serving as luncheon hostesses were Mrs. Silas Torvord, Mrs. K. Jensen and Mrs. Nels Langseth. The program included devotionals and tribute to "Mother." Rev. C. L. Foss, vocal solo, Harry Sonnerud, accompanied by Peggy Goplerud; double violin solo, Beryl Stowaway, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Alf. O. Nelson; choral selections, by 40 members of the Happy Harmonizers with Oscar Saltrum as director and Mrs. Earl Verbeck as piano accompanist; remarks on "Music" Mrs. G. B. Benson; quartet selections, the Four Norsemen, the two Almqists and the two Thorvalds; convention report, John Goplerud, Jr.

School Year Will End On Thursday

Orchards—Height—Graduation exercises will be included in the program of the Parent-Teachers' association held for the last time this season in the Mountview school house Thursday evening. The two teachers, Miss Georganna Briggs and Miss Eleanor Briggs will have charge of the program which will be presented by pupils of the school and refreshments will be under the supervision of R. A. Taney, Mrs. J. E. England and Mrs. Walter Busch.

Friday, pupils and teachers with patrons of the school are planning an all-day picnic to ride the last day of school. For the fourth consecutive year the same teachers, the Misses Briggs of Hermiston are re-elected for another year to teach the school.

Gift Shower Given
Turner—Complimenting Mrs. Mearl Enslay with a miscellaneous gift shower, Mrs. E. E. Ball, Mrs. Ray Baker of Toledo and Mrs. L. C. Ball were hostesses on Thursday afternoon at the L. C. Ball home. Following the presentation of the gifts a social hour followed with the joint hostesses presiding at the tea hour. In the guest group were Mrs. Mearl Enslay and daughter Dorothy, Mrs. H. Wipper, Mrs. William Pearson, Mrs. Albert Given, Mrs. Karl Wipper, Mrs. Henry Barnett, Mrs. H. S. Bond, Mrs. Lee Barber, Mrs. Louis Fowler, Mrs. Howard Baker and daughter Shirley, Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Mrs. Earl S. Prather, Mrs. Ted Whitehead, Mrs. L. C. Ball, Mrs. Ray Baker and Mrs. E. E. Ball.

MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM HELD

Hazel Green—The annual observance of Mother's day was observed at the United Brethren church with a special program given by members of the Otterbein Guild.

A vocal solo was given by Leonard Rutherford; a group of girls presented a three-act playlet entitled "A Mother's Faith." The cast included: Mother, Emogene Woods; Miriam, Beulah Cook; Friend Lucile Woods; Princess, Stella Cook; first maid, Ellen Smith; second maid, Nora Rutherford; third maid, Edna Rutherford. The play was based on the life of Moses, his birth and adoption by the princess, daughter of Pharaoh.

"Rural Church Sunday" will be May 28 and special services and sermon will be given. In the evening the play, "Troubled Times," will be presented by a group of Christian Endeavor members.

Mrs. E. P. Bennett will entertain the Sarah Oliver W. C. T. U. branch Tuesday, May 22 at her home in Lathish Center.

COLLEGE MEMORIAL FOR DEAD STUDENT

Albany—Memorial services for Nello E. Lampl, Albany college student, who was killed at Newport Saturday while spending the weekend at the coast on the annual biological expedition of the college, were held Tuesday morning from the First Presbyterian church. The sermon was preached by Dr. Wallace Howe Lee, Albany college faculty member. Lampl was a student of the college who had just returned from a high rank at Yaquina head Saturday morning.

All pre-commencement activities at the college this week have been cancelled. "Duley" the college play, and the Alpha Gamma sorority formal were among the activities indefinitely postponed.

Lampl was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Erick Lampl, 8903 Haven street, Portland and a graduate of Benson polytechnic high school.

MAPS CONSTRUCTED BY BETHEL PUPILS

Bethel—Maps of outstanding merit of Europe and Oregon have been made recently by the pupils of the upper grades of the school. They are sawed out of wooden veneer and are laid out on tables like jigsaw puzzles. Paper patterns were made first and traced on the veneer. The maps were then sawed on all the boundary lines. The boys did the sawing and girls did the tracing and printing. The veneer was varnished both before and after the printing and the result is beautiful.

The map of Oregon is 18 by 24 inches and is divided into counties. The map of Europe is 30 by 42 inches and is divided into countries. The pupils who made the maps are: Clarence Lauderback, Edward Schulz, Deanna Belling, William and Wallace Kirk, Gertrude and Wanda Froelich, Betty Bolling and Leila Darr.

Broadacres Will Close School Year

Broadacres—Commencement exercises will be held at the Broadacres schoolhouse Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The annual picnic will be at Champcoog Sunday, May 21.

The school has had a successful year with 37 pupils enrolled. Six will graduate from the 8th grade. Miss Davidson has been employed to teach another year.

Bruises Sustained In Auto Smash-up

Silverton—What proved to be a bad smash-up for one of the cars, happened on McClaine street last Saturday afternoon with the car driven by William Gates in need of many repairs.

Both cars were traveling in the same direction on McClaine street and as Gates turned off to make the west hill on Lower Westfield street he was struck by the larger car. In the car with Gates were John Christensen and Harold Walley. The other car was driven by Hugh Russell and had as passengers Mrs. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Aydelot. No one was injured beyond minor bruises.

Exercises Slated
Silverton—Closing exercises for the Valley View school will be held Thursday, Ruth Furness, Phyllis Skutne and Robert Lawrence will complete their eighth grade work and will enter high school in the fall at Silverton where they made their registrations Friday. Mrs. C. L. Coffey is the teacher. The group and a number of parents will hold an all-day picnic in the Silverton park Thursday.

North Howell Club Makes Garden Tour

North Howell—The North Howell home economics club will make its annual garden tour Thursday. The trip will start at 9 o'clock at the home of Gladys Waltman. A pot-luck dinner will be a feature of the trip at the home of the president of the club, Mrs. Daisy Bump, at noon, after visiting the gardens of the members they will visit the garden of Mrs. P. L. Brown at Silverton. Guests from other clubs of the county will make the trip with the North Howell ladies.

SALES TAX HIT BY GRANGE VOTE

Rickreall—Rickreall grange is against the sales tax 26 to 3, according to a vote taken at a meeting of the order here Friday night. Speakers on the sales tax are being secured for the next meeting of the grange, May 26, which will be open to the public.

Frances Laniz was selected by a committee composed of F. E. Pence, Mrs. W. W. Roswell and Mrs. West Elliott as the best 4-H club girl in this vicinity. Under the plan proposed each of the nine granges in Polk county will select what they consider to be the best club boy or girl in their community. A county-wide committee will then select from this group of nine the winner who will receive a scholarship offered by Polk county Panama to the 4-H club summer school at Oregon State college in June.

E. W. Palmer was admitted to membership in the grange by obligation. Glenn Hogg of the agricultural committee reported a fertilizer experiment on the Hogg farm at Orr's corner, which is being carried over a period of time by Prof. W. L. Powers of the soils department of O. S. C.

J. H. Harland gave a talk on a new variety of hay, "Ispedeca sericea," now being grown in the south. W. H. Hogg recommended dry clover leaves and styrene for exterminating gophers. F. E. Pence was elected alternate delegate to the state grange at Pendleton June 13-16.

At the lecture hour Mrs. George Van Santen presented the following program: reading, "The Origin of Mother's Day," by Miss Winifred Elliott; roll call, quotations on Mother's day; recitation, Florence Elliott; reading on child health by Mrs. Loren Wilson; Mrs. Van Santen read a letter from Miss Margaret Gillis, Polk county health nurse; song by the grange sextette.

GIRLS ARE INJURED IN VEHICLE CRASH

Independence—A car driven by Earl Rouma, laborer of the Werline ranch near Independence and one driven by the son of Rev. Henry C. Hanson of this city came together in a head-on collision on the Independence-Monmouth highway at a curve in the road near the Café place Sunday evening about 9:30 o'clock.

Miss Frances Knott, who was in the Hanson car is in the plastic surgery in Portland with severe cuts about the face and arms. Miss Russell of Monmouth also received severe cuts and bruises and the several other occupants of the two cars are more or less crippled up from cuts and bruises. Both cars are damaged and were taken to a garage in Independence for repairs.

Miss Knott, daughter of Dr. George Knott of this city seems to have been the most injured and was rushed to Portland at once for treatment, the extent of her injuries being unknown. The reports show too much speed on the curve and the Hanson car which was headed towards Monmouth, took the inside of the curve which necessitated the other car taking for the ditch but not soon enough to avoid the accident. Both drivers escaped with minor injuries.

Gates High School Pupils on Outing

Gates—The students of the Gates high school held their annual picnic at the foot of Silver Creek Falls Saturday. They drove to south falls and hiked to north falls, twin falls and winter falls before lunch. The four cars taken were those of F. W. Jones, principal of the school, Miss Dorothy MacMasters, Mrs. C. Henderson and E. J. Richards. The students going were Robert Willis, Joyce Knutson, Marie Ratsburg, Allura Dike, Louise Graf, Harold Shepherd, George Thomas, Elton Brown, Elizabeth Beck, Howard Farnen, Mary Beck, Herman Graf, William Henderson, Junior Farnen, Wallace Bevier, Maxine Doyle, Maurine Herron, Leon Cline.

Card Party Staged

Union Hill—About 60 grade members and their friends held a social time at the grange hall Saturday night. Eight tables of "300" were in play and pot-luck supper was served and Mrs. Arthur Mulkey, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott and Clary Morley at the close of the evening. The committee in charge of the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kunz and M. M. Gilmour.

A Home Owned Theater HOLLYWOOD

LAST TIMES TODAY

WHATEVER YOU DO
WHATEVER YOUR AGE
BY ALL MEANS SEE

"Oliver Twist"

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY
ARE DIME NITES

"FAITHLESS"

Talulah Bankhead and Robert Montgomery

MOTHERS' DAY TEA OFFERED

Silverton—A Mothers' day tea was given Saturday afternoon in the social rooms of the Christian church with all the mothers of the church as guests and the Sunday school class of young people of high school age, assisted by their teachers, Mrs. J. W. Jordan, as hosts.

Those who poured were Mrs. W. O. Livingstone, Mrs. Claire Helmke, Mrs. Frank Milliken and Mrs. R. A. Fish. Mrs. Vesta Johnson and Miss Rose Specht composed the kitchen committee.

Miss Marjorie Smith, class president, was in general charge of the tea. Serving on the decoration committee were Miss Evelyn Stewart, Miss Margaret Thompson, Miss Bernadine McClung, Miss Madeline Kercher and Miss Marjorie Smith. Receiving the guests were Miss Doris Simeral, Miss Glena Elliott, Miss Guenivere Taylor and Miss Marjorie Inman.

The following program was a feature of the afternoon: vocal solo, Devere Penhollow; duet, vocal, Lois Gay and Ellen Rahm; reading, Elizabeth Earls; vocal solo, Harold Houch; vocal solo, Madeline Kercher; vocal duet, Margaret Thompson and Bernadine McClung; reading, Mrs. Mary Klemman; vocal duet, Norman Kirk and Lois Gay; reading, Melvin Nelson; vocal duet, Margaret Thompson and Madeline Kercher; reading, Bernadine McClung; Devere Penhollow played all accompaniments for those who appeared in song.

HAZEL GREEN CLUB ENTERTAINS GUESTS

Hazel Green—The "Home Meals" 4-H cooking club was host recently for an afternoon tea honoring their members. The members of the "Jolly Nine" 4-H club were additional guests.

Preceding the tea a program was presented with Ralph Smith as announcer. The flag salute and reciting of the club pledge and creed opened the program. Marvin Van-Cleave and Clinton Wampler gave readings and Bernice Lehman rendered a piano solo. Hilda Statum of division II and Katherine Montandon of division I gave the club reports of the work accomplished. The division I girls members sang a welcome song and the entire club sang several club vocal numbers.

Mrs. Louis Wampler, club leader, gave a resume of the club work. The mothers present included Mrs. Joseph Zielinski, Mrs. Joseph Cook, Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mrs. Alvin Van-Cleave, Mrs. Thord Statum, Mrs. Walter Eubank, Mrs. Maurice Dunigan, Mrs. Henry Dunigan, Mrs. Edward Dunigan, Jr., Mrs. Ben Clemens, Mrs. John Lehman, Mrs. Clarke Smith. Additional guests were Ina and Gladys Zielinski, Mrs. Vida Miller and Miss Margaret Barquist, local teachers.

Princess Selection Is Made by Queen

Monmouth—Virginia Leitch, queen for the May festivities May 20 on the Oregon Normal school campus has been given the privilege of selecting her attendants for the day. By her order she has designated the following princesses: Blanche Johnson, Ruth Arant, Kathleen Holmes, Viola Smith, Juniors; Edith Dunn, Lois Bryant, Betty Hunsaid, Margaret Van Zante, seniors. They will wear frocks of shaded pink or gandy.

Devotional Hour Features Program

Silverton—The devotional hour of the Sunday school services of the Methodist Episcopal church were given over to a Mothers' day program under the auspices of the Epworth League members of which Mrs. C. J. Hall is advisor.

The numbers included a song by the Intermediate leaguers with Margaret Langley as piano accompanist; reading by Alice Miles; a review of the life of Susannah Wesley, a great mother, by Mrs. Edith Arthur; vocal duet by Miss Kathryn Morrison and Dorinda Moffett, accompanied by Miss Langley; reading and dialogue by Mabel and Melvin Melbye and Margaret Langley; a mother and child vocal solo by Marie Hall, with Edith Martha Perrin as the child and Elizabeth Hall accompanying at the piano.

Charity Donations Are Made by Lodge

Hubbard—Mrs. Coble de Lepinasse, state press correspondent for the Pythian Sisters of Oregon, attended the convention of district No. 2 in her official capacity Saturday in Portland. During the course of the reports of the day it was brought out that the Pythian Sisters of the state had given $16,000 to charity during the past year. Special legislation of the day consisted of drafting a set of rules to be presented to the grand temple session in October by the law committee. These rules cover convention forms. The next meeting of the district will be held in Hood River.

WOODBURN HAS MUSIC PROGRAM

Woodburn—The high school auditorium was filled to capacity and many were forced to stand when the community program was put on in observance of music week. The program was entirely a community affair and included numbers from most of the churches, clubs and schools of the city. Mrs. Paul Pemberton and Mrs. V. D. Bain were in charge with Mrs. Bain announcing.

The complete program included: Community singing led by Milton Grallup with Miss Ruth Shrock at the piano; vocal numbers by the fifth and sixth grade girls; Immortal Lutheran choir and orchestra; piano solo, Joan Beck; vocal solo, Cecilia Whitney, St. Benedict's; guitar solos, Floyd Mattson, Rural club; vocal duet, negro spirituals, Rev. and Mrs. Hart Armstrong, Four-square church; banjo trio, anthem, Methodist Episcopal church choir; group singing; reading, Lois Seely; violin solos, Beryl Ottoway, Silverton, Fern Davenport accompanying; Shrook quartet, Church of God; piano duet, Patty Sims and Lois Jean Lee, Presbyterian church; vocal solo, Alma Trullinger, Free Methodist church; ladies' chorus; string quartet, Harmony club; girls' quartet; boys' quartet, Woodburn high school; and "Aloha" by the audience.

HUBBARD OBSERVES DAY FOR MOTHERS

Hubbard—Mother's day was fittingly observed by the Sunday school of the Federated church. Flowers were presented to those attending by Mrs. W. D. Brown in the church vestibule. Mrs. Ellen Carl was in charge of the program which consisted of an exercise by the girls of Mrs. Lettler's class; special music and readings. In the girls' group which was led by Betty Brown are Frances Lettler, Beatrice Claypool, Dorothy McKee, Marie de Lepinasse, Orva Barnett, Lenore Scholl, Helen Claypool.

The special music consisted of a solo by Mrs. Merle Stewart, accompanied by Mrs. Louise Grimes; a duet by Mrs. Ella Stauffer and Mrs. Augusta Riemer, accompanied by Marie de Lepinasse and a solo by Mrs. Lois Miller, accompanied by Margie Wolfer. At the close of the Sunday school program the pastor, Glen Hartong, gave a sermon honoring mothers.

Tea Is Expensive; Home Is Prowled

Hayesville—A cup of tea proved to be an expensive pleasure for Mrs. Charles Andersen Saturday afternoon. Upon returning to her home from spending an hour at the home of neighbors she discovered robbers had entered her home going through every dresser and chiffonier drawer they emptied the contents in a heap in the middle of the room. A new folding Eastman Kodak and her purse was all that was missed.

The state officers are checking the matter as two of the neighbors noticed the car driving back and forth a couple times before turning in but did not investigate as they supposed the owners were at home.

GRANGE WILL MEET

Union Hill—The grange will hold its regular business session for May Friday. In addition there will be a program presented by members of Macleay grange who will be special guests of the local grange at this meeting.

Silverton—Mrs. Joe Thompson of North Plains is spending ten days visiting relatives and friends here. She is a sister of Jack Campbell.

STAYTON HOLDS ALUMNI AFFAIR FOR BIG CROWD

Stayton—The weather played a great part in making the annual homecoming and meeting of the Stayton high alumni association one of the best events for years and the largest gathering and program in Stayton for the past months. Early Saturday cars arrived at Stayton bringing former graduates to prepare for their banquet and meeting which was held in the grange hall beginning at 6:15 o'clock with 175 alumni present at the banquet which included teachers and those on the program. The dinner was served by the Stayton grange.

Mrs. June Kearns Bartow, the first graduate of the Stayton high acted as toastmaster. She was introduced by Fernando Smith, president of the alumni association who during his course of introduction outlined to the meeting the success of the alumni association. Following the introduction of the toastmaster Stayton high school song was sung by the members present. The address of welcome was given in the name of the alumni association and the town of Stayton by Edward J. Bell, class of '20. Mrs. Gwendeth Mielke assisted by Mrs. Fern Murrell gave a vocal selection which was followed by an address by Prof. H. E. Tobbe, principal of Stayton high school.

The toastmistress gave personal mention to Gordon Shields, Vern Davis and Ed Streff for the work they had done in connection with this annual event. Also mention was made thanking Eugene Spaniol, Fernando Smith and Marcelle Baker for their past three week's work in connection with the homecoming.

William Ryan of the class of '18 gave a number of readings in answer to the applause he received, which was followed by an address by Cecilia Mielke, class of '19, and at present is president of the Stayton teachers' association, who reviewed her activities during the past few years. A quartet composed of Angelina Huntley, Genevieve Smith, Lee Brown and Felix Wright, all alumni, followed with suitable numbers. Edwin Keech, class of '19, and prominent Salem attorney, addressed the members, urging them as to citizenship and patriotism to the Stayton high. Mrs. Earl Foster, former English teacher, assisted by Miss Bedford, offered a number of vocal solos.

Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Ford were present, Ford being former principal. He addressed the meeting. Immediately following the meeting and banquet the May day exercises took place at the high school gymnasium after which the annual alumni dance began at the Forsaker hall. Over 450 were in attendance.

Program Is Offered To Mother At Gates

Gates—A Mother's day program was given by the Gates Sunday school with the Young People's class, of whom Mrs. Irvin Lawson is teacher, in charge of the services during the absence of Mrs. Della Dike the superintendent. Red or white carnations were given to each person as they entered the room by Phyllis Scott and Muriel Horner.

The following program was presented: song by the congregation, prayer by Mrs. Ada Jones, responsive readings by congregation and led by Orville Hayward, meeting of the classes, origin and purpose of Mother's day by Allura Dike, quotations honoring mother by Young People's class, "Mother's Week" by seven intermediate girls, solo by Sylvia Farnen accompanied by Louise Graf, song by congregation, dismissal by Roy Graf.

Singing Is Feature For Music Program

Broadacres—Broadacres Sunday school gave a program Mother's day. Mrs. Mark Miller sang a solo; a duet was given by Dorothy Worden and Helen Stanton, and congregational singing was participated in. The workers of the Sunday school meet at the homes of members for singing. The last meeting was at the R. A. Stanton home.

Lyons—Mrs. Mary Morris returned to the Crabtree home where she is employed, after spending a few days in Turner due to the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Warden.

Legard Home Scene Of Family Dinner

Silverton—For the pleasure of her children and the members of their families, Mrs. A. O. Legard entertained at 6 o'clock dinner at her home at 1202 North Water street Sunday evening. The event was a Mothers' day party with all Mrs. Legard's children present, excepting one living in the east.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sather, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Johnson, Victor Sather, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest West and their daughter, Miss Virginia West of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Legard and daughter Lois, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Legard and their son Denzel.

AUBURN SCHOOL ENDING PERIOD

Auburn—A commencement program will be presented at the Auburn school house Thursday by the eighth grade graduating class. Members of the class are Pete Sloan, Norman Krehbiel, Ted Vaughn, Ray Wolfe, Walter Rehb, Charles Stewart, Delma Jensen and Lulu Sloan.

Pete Sloan and Norman Krehbiel vied for the highest standing, so Pete Sloan will present the valedictory and Norman Krehbiel the salutatory. Charles Stewart will give the class prophecy. Ted Vaughn will give the class history. Raymond Wolfe will give the class motto. Walter Rehb will give advice to the class. Delma Jensen will introduce the class, giving their identification, their nicknames and will mention their hobbies, etc. The principal, Prof. L. B. McClendon and Miss Margaret Edwards, teacher of the second room, who have conducted the school the past year have been re-elected for the coming year.

The board of school directors, who have been very faithful and efficient are B. H. Hawkins, chairman; George Baumgartner and C. J. Griffith, with Carl Krehbiel, school clerk. It has been reported that C. J. Griffith, who has been critically ill for the past six months, has tendered his resignation but as yet no one has been chosen.

Silverton—Charles Mauding, who is reported critically ill at his home, suffered a relapse the first of the week, but is now slowly improving.

ELSNORE LAST DAY

Reckless, exquisite girl ambulance driver... her cry to the thundering guns of war is "Today we live... today we love!"

JOAN CRAWFORD COOPER

TODAY WE LIVE

Tomorrow - Thursday

A HAND STRIKES!

His children made a bonfire of the empire he had reared!

Lionel BARRYMORE

in Lester Cohen's drama of a great American family

SWEEPINGS

With ALAN DINEHART, GIORGIO ARANT, William Garret, Eric Linden, Gregory Ratoff