

SCOUT HONORS ARE GIVEN AT BIG CEREMONY

Willamina—The Boy Scout troop No. 254 and Scoutmaster, Vern Had-dison, attended the court of honor held in the high school gymnasium at McMinnville Wednesday night. Those receiving merit badges were Kenneth Donnell, Donald Wilcox, Bud Jensen, Kenneth Shetler, Jr., Donald Woodson, Wayne Woodson, Robert Valliere, Fred Valliere and Arnold Neely.

Arnold Neely received the highest honor, that of Eagle Scout, which was awarded him by Judge Arlie G. Walker. He was also presented with an Eagle Scout ring by Harper Jamison, who represented his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Neely. Young Neely has the distinction of being the first scout to receive this honor through the McMinnville court outside of that city.

The Willamina scouts are the only troop to specialize in archery. The boys gather every week, season it properly and under the direction of Huddleston manufacture their own bows and arrows. They have held several turkey shoots, using only bows and arrows.

Last year this troop built holding pens and raised a large number of China pheasants for the state game commission, which were released following the hunting season in this vicinity. Several kinds of pheasants were raised, making the work much more interesting and attracting considerable attention. Willamina scouts have the distinction of being the only troop in the state to undertake such a project.

NORWEGIAN NATAL DAY CELEBRATED

Silverton—The Trinity and Immanuel Lutheran churches observed the Norwegian natal day with programs and dinners served in the social rooms of the churches Wednesday night. The Ladies Aid societies sponsored the affairs.

Rev. Ernest C. Larson of Calvary Lutheran church was guest speaker at the Immanuel church. Others taking part in the program were Mervil Dullum, Eleanor Bolme, Lewis Larson, Opal Bolme, C. J. Thorildson, Mrs. J. P. Dullum, Mrs. Conrad Johnson, Miss Bertha Alm, Elvin and Clifford Almquist, Conrad and Theodora Thorildson and Mrs. Arthur Dahl.

The guest speaker at the Trinity church was M. C. Stornes, a native of Norway, whose talk was on Norwegian history. Readings were given by Mrs. Tom Hanson and Nels Langseth, a piano solo by Thelma Olson, and vocal selections by a male quartet composed of Harry Samerud, Alfred Jensen, Victor Madsen and Harold Larson, with Miss Peggy Goplerud as accompanist.

MISSION BOTTOM HAS P.T.A. BALLOT

Mission Bottom—A large audience was present for the program and graduation exercises at the Mission Bottom P. T. A. Wednesday night. Each of the musical numbers and recitations were enjoyed. Prof. T. A. Tanner of Salem addressed the graduating class concerning their future in high school. Frank Felton, chairman of the school board, presented eighth grade diplomas to Evelyn Cain, Arnold Thorndstad and James Brooks.

Mrs. R. L. Wright, regional vice-president of the P. T. A. installed the officers as follows: Mrs. W. E. Barnett, president; Mrs. Paul Townsend, vice president; Mrs. Frank Felton, secretary-treasurer.

During the evening's program, Arnold Thorndstad presented, on behalf of the graduates, a gift to Miss Thelma Barnett and Betty Viesko delivered a shower of handkerchieves from the rest of the school pupils.

Selections on the program included recitations by Betty L. Billie Jean and Caroline Hollingshead, piano solos by Loretta Smith, and Miss Mildred Abbott, and vocal selections by Kenneth Abbott accompanied by Miss Abbott at the piano.

The Mission Bottom school closed with a picnic Wednesday afternoon at the school grounds. A baseball game was the principal amusement.

Tanneryman Speaks

Dallas—Members of the Kiwanis club listened to a talk at their noon luncheon Friday by Walter S. Muir on the Dallas tannery. The local firm began to operate in 1863 and has operated continuously ever since. A representative of the Willamette Valley Lumber company will talk next week on the lumber business and its relation to this community. Another good attendance of members was recorded Friday.

CONFECTIONERY RE-OPENES Woodburn—Mrs. Clyde Whitman and Mrs. Tom Renn opened the new "Bon-Ton" confectionery and lunch room Saturday. The building, which was partially destroyed by fire in March, has been re-built and new equipment installed and presents a very neat and modern appearance. It was formerly occupied by the "Betsy Drew" confectionery.

GRANGE WILL MEET Jefferson—Ankeny grange will meet in regular session Saturday night, May 20. Mrs. Blake, state juvenile matron, is expected to be present. The program will be put on by the juvenile grange, followed by a covered dish supper.

MARION BEATS SHAW Marion—A ball game was played between the boys' teams of the Shaw and Marion schools here Friday afternoon, Marion winning 20 to 6.

Gervais—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cannard have moved their household goods to the T. A. Mangold home where they will make their home with Miss Marie Mangold.

Falls City Revival Campaign To Close

Falls City—A community revival campaign is closing Sunday night after a month's meetings conducted by the evangelistic Mead party of Salem, in one of the large vacant buildings in town. The interest has been increasing every night, seats have been added to accommodate the increased crowds. Talented musicians including the Freeman family from Salem contributed with many others as well as local talent to the meetings. Chalk pictures were given as the hymns were sung. It is to be repeated Sunday with other special numbers including the school orchestra for Saturday afternoon and Sunday. Delegates are expected from Willamina and Salem Sunday afternoon. Miss Alice Lamb from Skomowawa, Wash., is the pianist. Children's meetings have been conducted every afternoon after school hours.

RECITAL GIVEN DALLAS SCHOOL

Dallas—A program was presented in the assembly room of the junior high school by the pupils of the Esther Cleveland and attended by members of the faculty and parents and friends of the children.

Sam Holman opened the program by introducing his aunt, Mrs. Bernice Van Loan Gaines, a noted composer and musician who played a group of three numbers including one of her own compositions. The latter will be featured in the Harmonium at Home, Calif., in 1935. Mrs. Gaines also accompanied her nephew in a whistling solo.

Another member of the class introduced Derrill Allen, winner of the declamatory contest in the third and fourth grades and who will compete in the county declamatory contest. Special guests of the afternoon were Rev. and Mrs. James Alkin Smith, and they were the recipients of a fruit shower from the children as a token of their appreciation for the time the Rev. Smith had spent with them in Bible study. Before the afternoon was over he gave a demonstration of his skill in a series of paper tearing tricks and also presented to the class a Bible study picture. Mrs. Smith was also presented with a bouquet by the class.

The program was brought to a conclusion with a piano solo by Patsy Stockwell and an invitation to the parents to attend the school exhibit on the first floor by Miss Cleveland.

NELSON FAMILIES OFFERED FAREWELL

Woodburn—A surprise party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nelson was given at the George Jones residence Thursday evening with Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Hartley LeFebvre as hostesses. The Nelsons were entertained at dinner at the Jones home and later in the evening a group of friends surprised them with a visit.

Six tables of "900" were in play during the evening with prizes for high score going to Mrs. H. W. Bladorn and Claude Galer and for low score to Mrs. Harris Nelson and Henry Miller. Refreshments were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. George Ballweber, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hovenden, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Freeman, Wylas Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Freeberg, Mr. and Mrs. Hartley LeFebvre, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hider, Claude Galer, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bladorn and Mr. and Mrs. George Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Nelson left Friday morning for Newberg, where they will make their home and will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nelson next week.

Health Hour Held

Scotts Mills—The grades gave a health program Wednesday afternoon in the gymnasium including a short play by the seventh grade. Also one from the intermediate room and one from the primary. The upper grade also gave a health drill. Health posters, made by the pupils, were on display.

Society In Session

Gervais—The Ladies' Missionary society held the monthly session Wednesday afternoon with a good attendance. Seven women gave a short playlet with Mrs. Clara Jones conducting the business meeting and Mrs. Sawyer led devotionals. Mrs. Herman Jelderk and Mrs. Ben Jelderk were hostesses and were assisted by Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Marshall and Edith Cane. Rev. Grafius spoke at the meeting.

POWER LINE EXTENDED Lyons—The Mountain States Power company men were working on the power line above town this week extending the line farther up the valley. The Lyons telephone patrons of line four spent Monday and Tuesday changing the wires and poles to the north side of the road away from the power lines.

SERVICE AT LYONS Lyons—A special service will be held Sunday night at the community church following the young people's meeting. A lecture on the second coming, is He coming? when is He coming? who is the coming for? How is He coming?

P. T. A. IS POSTPONED Lyons—P. T. A. was not held Friday, the regular meeting night. It has been postponed until May 26 when the Stanton glee club of the high school will be present to put on the program.

CAMP HAS SNOW Silverton—Carl Specht, caretaker of Camp No. 15 of the Silver Falls Timber company, is home for a visit. He came out Thursday and reports some snow yet in the vicinity of the camp, and more in the woods.

THREE DISPLAYS MADE BY DALLAS SCHOOL CLASSES

Dallas—Interesting exhibits, designed to show the work being done in the various classes, were on display Thursday in all three of the city schools.

At the primary building the exhibits were shown in each classroom and included studies, arithmetic, spelling, art, hygiene and geography. Special hand tables exhibits were a feature of the display and attracted considerable attention. The subjects depicted were of a varied nature and included a circus scene with the different animals, the big top, two rings, the clowns in everything. Another room showed a health house and its surroundings, including studies, arithmetic, spelling, art, hygiene and geography. Special hand tables exhibits were a feature of the display and attracted considerable attention.

A wide range of subjects were shown in the upper grade and junior high school. They included history, geography, poetry, penmanship, spelling, hygiene, art, arithmetic, poppy posters, entered in the recent poppy poster contest sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary, and samples of 4-H club work. The exhibits were nicely displayed and set up in a spare room for the convenience of those interested.

The high school exhibit was confined to the manual training class and the domestic science class. A large variety of useful and ornamental articles were shown in the former and included lamps, tables, chests, cabinets, stools, etc. The domestic science class made an excellent showing in dresses, suits, coats, and waists.

The three exhibits were opened Thursday afternoon and remained open during the evening and large crowds are reported to have been in attendance.

WOODBURN DROPS FINAL BALL GAME

Woodburn—Woodburn high school was defeated Thursday afternoon on the local grounds by Molalla. The score being 6 to 3. Woodburn led 3 to 2 until the 4th inning when Molalla gathered in 3 and brought the final score up to 6. Three of last year's junior league players were on the Molalla team, Gorbett, catcher, Aaboe first base and Leffler, center field. Batteries were Fluke and Corbett for Molalla; Clearin and L. Cuthforth for Woodburn.

Friday afternoon Woodburn again lost in a closely contested game with Lebanon by a score of 15 to 13. The score was tied at the 9th inning with 13 all when a rally by Lebanon brought in the winning tallies. A home run in the 6th by Keith of Lebanon was a feature of the game, which was full of errors. Batteries were L. Kock, Bonner and Gearin for Woodburn; Simpson, Parrish, Keith and Hall for Lebanon.

This is the last game of the season for Woodburn high, they having won one and lost 9.

Pupils Examined

Silverton—More than 300 pupils of the Eugene Field grades were given the tuberculosis test Thursday in the nurse's room. Dr. Vernon Douglas from the Marion county health center at Salem was in charge, assisted by Mrs. Irma LeRiche, Mrs. J. P. Ballantyne and Mrs. William Perrin.

School Year Ends

Hopmer—Miss Olive Ann Manning's school closed with a picnic. The mothers present were Mrs. Britt Aspinwall, Mrs. L. H. Martin, Mrs. Bruno Mallette, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Paist, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Ricketts and Mrs. Brundage. Miss Manning reports a successful school year and no failures. Evelyn Aspinwall received the prize for having the best report card in school. She received prize for the same last year. Miss Manning received a gift from her pupils. She goes south on an extended trip during her summer vacation.

Cantata Scheduled

Gervais—Sacred Heart school has closed for another school year and will hold their commencement exercises Sunday evening, May 21 in the city auditorium. A cantata has been arranged by the sisters, "The Fairy Shoemaker" with other musical numbers. Rev. Father Keenan of Salem will deliver the address.

HONOR FRAT ELECTIONS

Jefferson—Miss Elizabeth Aupperle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Aupperle of Jefferson and student at Oregon State college, was elected to the Phi Chi Theta organization at the honor convocation held recently. This is the highest national honor to be bestowed on women in commerce.

PIONEER IS IMPROVING

Hopmer—David Keene of the Pioneer Keene family, who settled at St. Louis many years ago, has been for the past two months very ill with pneumonia at his Waconda home, is slowly recovering. His recent guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wiley and daughter, all of Cottage Grove.

Final Performance TONIGHT "Harvest of Lies" Closing Play of Chemeketa Players Solent Own Play Producers Admission 15c - 25c Curtain 8:15 P.M. Nelson Auditorium Chemeketa at Liberty

Landslide Missed By Touring Pair

Independence—Alfred Cook and Wiley Jones, who have been visiting relatives here for the past few weeks, returned to their home in Oakland, Calif., this week where both have employment. They had a novel experience on their trip which might have proven disastrous had they been a few minutes later. They heard a rumbling noise in the mountain passes as they drove through and looking backward saw dirt, trees and rocks moving in mass formation from the mountain sides across the path they had just traversed. It was a real landslide as the boys, which closed the highway behind them, knocked over telephone poles and did other material damage to the highway.

TURNER YOUTH WILL RULE STUDENT BODY

Albany—Willard Bear of Turner, a junior at Albany college, will head the student body of that institution during the 1933-34 school year, it was announced following the student body elections yesterday. He won by a small margin over Arnold Kampher of Albany.

Other officers elected were: David Lettler, Portland, New Mexico, vice president; Wade Ross, Great Falls, Mont., treasurer; Ruth Reeve, North Bend, Ore., secretary; and Elizabeth Larsen, Portland, song leader.

Three nominees for secretary of the student body, Laura Margaret Smith, Doris Ekstrand and Clare Stewart, all of Albany, polled votes under a majority, and a run-off will be held next Tuesday.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY CLUB MEMBERS

Monmouth—The last meeting of the Social Hour club for this season was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Misses Maggie and Alice Butler. The secretary's report showed that attendance at meetings during the year had been very good with Mrs. J. Fuller, Mrs. E. C. Cole and Mrs. R. B. Swenson perfect in attendance and a number who had missed only one or two meetings.

The following officers were elected for next year: Mrs. Homer Dodds, president; Mrs. J. F. Santee, vice-president; Mrs. Cora Riddell, secretary-treasurer. The new president appointed committees as follows: program, Mrs. Santee, Mrs. James Gentile, Mrs. O. C. Christensen and Miss Cassie Stump; place, Mrs. B. F. Butler, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. N. M. Miquing and William Riddell; books, Mrs. D. R. Dewey, Mrs. Velma Smith, Mrs. B. Lorence, Mrs. P. O'Rourke, Mrs. J. H. Gentile and Mrs. R. E. Derby.

Catholic Daughters Plan Social Affair

St. Angel—The Catholic Daughters of America will hold their social meeting Monday evening in the music room of St. Mary's school. Five hundred will be played, followed by prizes and luncheon. All members are invited to attend. The committee for the evening includes Mrs. Veronica Ebner, chairman, Mrs. Anne Klotz, Mrs. Therese May, Mrs. Clara Kraemer, Miss Helen Keber, Miss Therese Dehler and Mrs. Josephine Bochsler. The Daughters will hold their business meeting on June 12. The following committee will be in charge for the entertainment to follow the business meeting: Miss Helen Ebner, chairman, Mrs. Josephine Bochsler, Mrs. Josephine Bochsler, Mrs. Valeria Begis, Mrs. Mayne Hoffer and Mrs. Katherine Kruse.

Thieves Are Busy

Jefferson—Thieves have been active in the Parish Gap district this week. Valuable tools and gasoline were stolen from the garage of Charles Zimmerman Wednesday night. Mack Hamby reports the loss of milking utensils and cream from his milk house.

WHO WEARS THE PANTS IN YOUR FAMILY?

"SO LONG ERNIE, LET YOUR CONSCIENCE BE YOUR GUIDE!"

STARTING TOMORROW An uproarious Comedy. Romance in the land where women won and men are willing!

"The WARRIOR'S HUSBAND" WITH ELISSA LANDI EARREST TRUOX MARJORIA RAMBAU

LAST TIMES TODAY The Big DRIVE

AMERICAN MADNESS Walter Huston Pat O'Brien Kay Johnson Constance Cummings

Coming Sun., Mon., Tues. Janet GAYNOR Charles FARRELL

TESS of the STORM COUNTRY Directed by Alfred Santel FOX PICTURE

Last Times Today Authentic World War Picture The Big DRIVE

"GABRIEL Over The WHITE HOUSE" with WALTER HUSTON Karen Morley, Franchot Tone, Arthur Bryan, Dickie Moore

EPWORTH LEAGUE 44TH BIRTHDAY TO BE OBSERVED

Woodburn—The 44th anniversary of the Epworth League will be observed Sunday at the Methodist Episcopal church with the young people in charge of the Sunday school at 10 o'clock and also assisting in the morning worship at 11 o'clock. The pastor will preach on the theme, "The Prize of Life."

The young people will have complete charge of the evening service. Topics presented by various members of the organization will include "The Epworth League as a Fellowship," "The Epworth League as a Movement," Readings and music will also be given. An adult member will speak on "The Epworth League in Former Days." The service will begin at 7:30 o'clock and all former members of the league are invited to honor guests.

At the close of the service the young people will be hosts to the entire congregation at an informal Japanese tea, served in the church parlors.

At the Presbyterian church Rev. Boudnot Seely will preach on "Humility." Mrs. Donald Orr will sing. The young people's meeting will be held at 6:30 o'clock with Miss Lavona Byers as leader. Rev. Seely will preach at Bethel at 8 o'clock on "The Guidance of God."

Diplomas were presented to students who have completed the Bible school course which has been in progress for the past 11 weeks at the Four Square church Friday evening. Miss L. J. Jeffries of Portland was the speaker Sunday morning, preaching on the subject, "Salesman Wanted." His subject for the evening will be "When God Laughs."

Communication services will be held at 11 o'clock at the Christian church with Rev. J. Merlin Hill, pastor, preaching on the topic "Fruit Walkers." His subject for the evening will be "Holiness."

Regular services will be held at the Free Methodist church, the Immanuel Lutheran and the Nordic Lutheran churches, the Church of God, St. Luke's Catholic church and the Christian Science society.

CHANGE IN POSTAL DELIVERIES MADE

Independence—Independence is to have another change in mail service which will be an advantage to late shoppers to the postoffice. The outgoing mail in the evening which has been going to Monmouth by motor at 4:45 will leave here from now on at 5:40 o'clock and connect up with the outbound stage from that city. The new arrangement was brought about after some parleying by the postoffice officials and will be considered quite an advantage to business correspondence and banks, says the postmaster, G. G. Godfrey. The trip will be made every day except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

Francis Walther, who was the successful bidder against Francis Holt for this route, is carrying the mail, beginning May 1.

Card Party Planned

St. Angel—The St. Ann's society has planned a card social which they will give Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of St. Mary's school. There will be prizes and luncheon and everyone is invited to attend. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Fred J. Schwab, chairman, Mrs. Casper J. Terhaar, Mrs. Arthur Schaefer, Mrs. Steve Seifer, Mrs. Frank Pinkster, Mrs. Cecilia Skonetzki, Mrs. Joseph Penka, Mrs. Anne Roesch, Mrs. Anna Smith and Mrs. Anne Meyers.

Mill City—Arthur Mason has been elected to a position in the high school at Oakland this coming school year. He will teach biology and other sciences and direct all the musical activities.

Church Class Holds Party At Monmouth

Monmouth—The May session of the Delta class of the Evangelical church Sunday school was held Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Schweizer as hosts.

Guests and members present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Orval White, Mr. and Mrs. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. B. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. J. Tilton, Mrs. Stella Langee, Mrs. H. W. Hagemeier, Rev. A. L. Lousberry, Miss Adelaide Lousberry and Mr. Morrison of Salem.

The evening concluded with a social time with refreshments being served by the hosts.

AUMSVILLE SENIOR CLASS KEPT BUSY

Aumsville—The senior class, with their advisor, Howard Tong, left for Cascadia Tuesday morning, where they spent their "fun" day. Although it rained, the day was greatly enjoyed by Joyce Hendry, Helen Sherman, Helen Ruetzler, Dorothy Starr, Wilfred Ditter, Ed Hanked, John Masser, Jack Corser, Charles Pomeroy, Henry Amos, Lester Perry and Arlow Mix. Other members of the class who did not go are Eileen Branch, Theresa Hoffenbredt and Dorothy Asche.

Commencement exercises will be held in the gymnasium. Baccalaureate will be Sunday, May 21, and the sermon will be given by T. C. Mountain.

Graduating will be June 1. Mr. Rodgers of O. S. C. will be the speaker. Class night will be May 31. Edward Hangel has been chosen as valedictorian and Helen Sherman as salutatorian.

The junior-senior banquet will be held in the dining room of the school Thursday night, May 25. Roderick Henry will act as toastmaster and Doris Nicolson will be one of the speakers.

Monmouth—Monmouth training school was host Wednesday night to the Cascadia area boy scout court of honor.

Ninety four boys appeared for awards which varied from merit badges for different work to star and life with Judge Rossman of Salem presiding. The address of welcome was given by acting Mayor S. C. Halliday, in the absence of F. R. Bowersox.

The life award was presented to Richard Snyder. Star awards went to Albert Snyder and Charles Coleman. Other local boys to receive badges which were of merit were Jimmy Riddell, Warren Elliott, Carl Petrie, Anne Jensen, Kermit Roth, Herbert Moreland, Wayne Petri and Charles Miller. Philip Schweizer is master of the local troops.

Church Class Holds Party At Monmouth

Monmouth—The May session of the Delta class of the Evangelical church Sunday school was held Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Schweizer as hosts.

Guests and members present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Orval White, Mr. and Mrs. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. B. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. J. Tilton, Mrs. Stella Langee, Mrs. H. W. Hagemeier, Rev. A. L. Lousberry, Miss Adelaide Lousberry and Mr. Morrison of Salem.

The evening concluded with a social time with refreshments being served by the hosts.

AUMSVILLE SENIOR CLASS KEPT BUSY

Aumsville—The senior class, with their advisor, Howard Tong, left for Cascadia Tuesday morning, where they spent their "fun" day. Although it rained, the day was greatly enjoyed by Joyce Hendry, Helen Sherman, Helen Ruetzler, Dorothy Starr, Wilfred Ditter, Ed Hanked, John Masser, Jack Corser, Charles Pomeroy, Henry Amos, Lester Perry and Arlow Mix. Other members of the class who did not go are Eileen Branch, Theresa Hoffenbredt and Dorothy Asche.

Commencement exercises will be held in the gymnasium. Baccalaureate will be Sunday, May 21, and the sermon will be given by T. C. Mountain.

Graduating will be June 1. Mr. Rodgers of O. S. C. will be the speaker. Class night will be May 31. Edward Hangel has been chosen as valedictorian and Helen Sherman as salutatorian.

The junior-senior banquet will be held in the dining room of the school Thursday night, May 25. Roderick Henry will act as toastmaster and Doris Nicolson will be one of the speakers.

BOY SCOUTS GIVEN MONMOUTH AWARDS

Monmouth—Monmouth training school was host Wednesday night to the Cascadia area boy scout court of honor.

Ninety four boys appeared for awards which varied from merit badges for different work to star and life with Judge Rossman of Salem presiding. The address of welcome was given by acting Mayor S. C. Halliday, in the absence of F. R. Bowersox.

The life award was presented to Richard Snyder. Star awards went to Albert Snyder and Charles Coleman. Other local boys to receive badges which were of merit were Jimmy Riddell, Warren Elliott, Carl Petrie, Anne Jensen, Kermit Roth, Herbert Moreland, Wayne Petri and Charles Miller. Philip Schweizer is master of the local troops.

Card Party Planned

St. Angel—The St. Ann's society has planned a card social which they will give Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of St. Mary's school. There will be prizes and luncheon and everyone is invited to attend. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Fred J. Schwab, chairman, Mrs. Casper J. Terhaar, Mrs. Arthur Schaefer, Mrs. Steve Seifer, Mrs. Frank Pinkster, Mrs. Cecilia Skonetzki, Mrs. Joseph Penka, Mrs. Anne Roesch, Mrs. Anna Smith and Mrs. Anne Meyers.

Mill City—Arthur Mason has been elected to a position in the high school at Oakland this coming school year. He will teach biology and other sciences and direct all the musical activities.

Church Class Holds Party At Monmouth

Monmouth—The May session of the Delta class of the Evangelical church Sunday school was held Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Schweizer as hosts.

Guests and members present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Orval White, Mr. and Mrs. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. B. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. J. Tilton, Mrs. Stella Langee, Mrs. H. W. Hagemeier, Rev. A. L. Lousberry, Miss Adelaide Lousberry and Mr. Morrison of Salem.

The evening concluded with a social time with refreshments being served by the hosts.

AUMSVILLE SENIOR CLASS KEPT BUSY

Aumsville—The senior class, with their advisor, Howard Tong, left for Cascadia Tuesday morning, where they spent their "fun" day. Although it rained, the day was greatly enjoyed by Joyce Hendry, Helen Sherman, Helen Ruetzler, Dorothy Starr, Wilfred Ditter, Ed Hanked, John Masser, Jack Corser, Charles Pomeroy, Henry Amos, Lester Perry and Arlow Mix. Other members of the class who did not go are Eileen Branch, Theresa Hoffenbredt and Dorothy Asche.

Commencement exercises will be held in the gymnasium. Baccalaureate will be Sunday, May 21, and the sermon will be given by T. C. Mountain.

Graduating will be June 1. Mr. Rodgers of O. S. C. will be the speaker. Class night will be May 31. Edward Hangel has been chosen as valedictorian and Helen Sherman as salutatorian.

The junior-senior banquet will be held in the dining room of the school Thursday night, May 25. Roderick Henry will act as toastmaster and Doris Nicolson will be one of the speakers.

CIRCLES NAME NEW OFFICERS

Dallas—Delegates to the 21st district convention of Neighbors of Woodcraft selected Toledo as their meeting place in 1935 and elected the following to be their district officers for the coming year: Grand representatives, Alice Madden of Newport, Velma Tesson of Salem, and Agnes Hoag of Monmouth; alternates, Eva Wolfenbarger of McMinnville, Nora Mason of Monmouth and Florentina Voss of Albany; past guardian neighbor, Hattie McVay of Newberg; guardian neighbor, Sarah Burr of Astoria; advisor, Freda Peterson of Dallas; clerk, Beale Belt of Corvallis; banker, Ida M. Jones of Toledo; musician, Ida Vedder of Dundee; attendant, Alice Adams of Salem; captain of the guard, Edith Green Hagen of Toledo; inner sentinel, Myrtle Barryman of Philomath; outer sentinel, Bell Shepard of Dayton; musician, Lola Jenkins of Albany; flag bearer, Alta Brown of McMinnville; managers, Irene Martin of Brownsville, Lulu Mattison of Independence and Vera Ottoway of Silverton; and Woodcraft home council, Marie Dobbish, Lebanon.

COMPOSER VISITOR OF DALLAS SISTER

Dallas—Mrs. Fred Holman has as her house guest this week for a short visit her sister, Mrs. Bernice Van Loan Gaines of Los Angeles. Mrs. Gaines, who has gained considerable distinction in the musical world with her compositions appeared in a brief recital Thursday afternoon at the special request of little nephew, Sam. Mrs. Gaines had an interesting story to tell of her latest effort which is at the present time in manuscript form but which has been definitely accepted for the Bona pageant at Heet, Calif., and will be featured in the 1933 show. The pageant, which is produced in a natural amphitheater, has been given annually for the past ten years and attracts crowds that in number attain the ten thousand mark. For the past two years one of Mrs. Gaines' compositions, a Spanish number, has been played by the Jose Arias orchestra at this same pageant. Her efforts as a composer are not confined to the lighter side as a number of sacred and secular songs have also come from her pen. These include, among others the following: "My Master and My Friend," "Hearts May Cross Unseen," "I'm Weary Tonight," "It Singeth Low in Every Heart," and "Gold and Crimson."

Mrs. Phillips Honor Guest on Birthday

McMinnville—The birthday anniversary of Mrs. Clinton Phillips was the occasion for a 6 o'clock dinner at the home of Mrs. Floyd Monroe, who was assisted by Mrs. Rillie Wilson. The guest list included Mrs. Phillips, the honor guest, Mr. Phillips and daughter, Beverly Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Phillips and son Keith, Wava Wilson, Ercil and Russell.

Honor War Mothers

Monmouth—A dinner honoring mothers of World War veterans was given Thursday night at the home of Mrs. O. C. Christensen by members of the Legion Auxiliary. Of 14 mothers in this section eight were able to attend: Mrs. E. M. DeLapp, Mrs. W. J. Mulkey, Sr., Mrs. C. C. Mulkey, Mrs. A. W. Cooper, Mrs. C. A. Hammel, Mrs. J. L. Van Loan, Mrs. C. Lorence and Mrs. Louise Jensen. Mrs. Cooper, 72, was the oldest mother present.

Marion—Harley Libby reports the sale of the Lot D. Brown place of 140 acres, near Marion to S. J. Polanuk of Sheridan who will farm the place this summer, but will not bring his family here until fall.

TUNE IN On KGW — 1:45 every afternoon. A good program and important information about

CAL-O-DINE