

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by ROSENA E. E. POORE, JR.

Miss Howe Announces Betrothal

Of more than ordinary interest to Salem folk was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Ruth M. Howe, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Howe of Evansville, Wis., and Wesley Heise, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Heise of Salem, which was made known at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon spring dance on the Oregon State college campus at Corvallis Saturday evening. The announcement was also made known at Miss Howe's party, Chi Omega, during the dinner hour.

Both young folk are popular in Salem's younger social contingent, having graduated from Salem high school. Miss Howe attended Oregon State for two years where she was outstanding in dramatics and is now residing in the east with her family.

Mr. Heise will be graduated from Oregon State college in June and immediately afterward will become associated with the Oregon Journal in Portland. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity, Kappa Kappa Psi, national musical honorary and Alpha Delta Sigma, national professional advertising fraternity.

No date for the wedding has been announced.

Sacred Heart Juniors Honor Senior Maids

Sacred Heart academy was the scene for a delightful bridge tea on Thursday afternoon when the junior class entertained in honor of the senior class.

The parlors of the academy were beautifully decorated in the class colors, orchid and gold. The refreshment tables were centered with yellow rose buds. The semi-formal dresses of the girls added a colorful note to the occasion.

Bridge and "500" were played from 2 to 4 o'clock after which refreshments were served by members of the sophomore class. Margery Bach and Bernard Jentskaw won the prizes for bridge and "500" respectively.

Members of the graduating class are Ruth Bauffe, Alicia Bremmer, Lorraine Dauffe, Bernice Decker, Mary Ellen Hammonds, Elizabeth Gravin, Pauline Frimms, Barbara Schmittner, Beatrice Welsner, Marie Wenzel, Bernard Jentskaw, Ray Pancer and Charles Salfeld.

Those entertaining were Margery Harriet, Marion McCullough, Gertrude Kahut, Leona LaBranch, Sarah Malson, Margery Back, Beltrae Malloy, Monica Hopfinger, Dorothy Fitzpatrick, Frieda Siltz, Monica Wolsen, Clarence Wehman, Kenneth Melan.

Miss Gladys Whitlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whitlock of Corvallis, and Earl Saling of Salem, were quietly married in Wesley Foundation of the First Methodist church of Corvallis Sunday afternoon, May 28, at 2:30 o'clock. Dr. James E. Milligan read the single ring ceremony.

The ceremony was performed in front of a fire place with a low burning fire. Yellow and blue iris formed the decorations. The bride was dressed in a white semi-formal dress and white hat.

A vocal solo, "Oh Promise Me," was sung by Miss Dorothy Atwood, accompanied by Miss Marjorie Hunter, both of Corvallis.

A reception was given at the bride's home on College Hill following the ceremony.

Mrs. Saling will be graduated from Oregon State college Monday, June 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Saling will be at home in Salem after a short trip to the Oregon beaches.

Salem folk are interested in the approaching marriage of Miss Kathryn Brigham of Eugene and James Walton, of Baker, grandson of Mrs. James Walton and nephew of William Walton and Mrs. Sheldon Sackett of Salem, which will be solemnized in The Dalles next Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stadelman.

Both Miss Brigham and her fiancé are graduates of the University of Oregon. Miss Brigham is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority and Mr. Walton is affiliated with Sigma Nu. Following their marriage the couple will make their home in Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. James Walton and Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Sackett will motor to The Dalles to attend the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Detchmeyer of Seattle spent the week-end at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Miller, and their sister, Mrs. Waldo Baker. They attended the wedding of their brother, Charles Wright and Miss Edna Battles, which was an event of Saturday evening. Their niece, Miss Florence Baker, accompanied them to Seattle upon their return.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley left Saturday evening for San Francisco.

Oriental Room Scene Of Dinner

Salem Zontians entertained with a beautifully appointed dinner in the Oriental room of the Marion hotel Saturday evening in celebration of the fourth birthday of the local chapter, Portland and Vancouver, Wash. Zontians were honored guests at the affair.

Striking bowls of spring flowers in pastel hues centered the long tables where covers were placed for Anne Shannon Monroe, Florence M. Dewhurst, Julia Graef, Grace Keith, Phyllis, Caroline Buckingham, Helen Grant, Frances Graef, Zan Lovering, Pearl M. Baldwin, Eva Pointer, all of Portland; Patsie Ryan, Adda Kuhn, Abbie Burr, of Vancouver; Dorothy Pearce, Helen Yockey, Alene Phillips, Helen Louise Crosby, Hazel Cook, Helen Pearce, Gertrude Eakin, Nellie Schwab, Kathryn Gummel, Barbara Barnes, Belle Niles Brown, Elizabeth Gallacher, Ora F. McIntyre, La Verne Winkler, Winifred R. Herrick.

An interesting program entertained the group including number by a quartet composed of George Melanier, Albert Garrett, Louis Priem and Henry Baden, and a dance group by Pauline Zoe Chambers and Eugene Seand.

Crescendo Club Sponsors Banquet

The Crescendo club of Salem High school held a banquet in the Green Gate room of the Spa Saturday evening with Bill Judson, retiring president, presiding at the long banquet table. Covers were placed for forty.

The group held installation of officers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sprague following the dinner hour. Several hours were spent informally. Miss Lena Belle Tartar is club advisor.

Miss Frances Laws Plays Senior Recital

The Willamette school of music will present Miss Frances Laws, pianist, in her senior recital this evening in Walker hall at 8:15 o'clock. The public is invited to attend. The young artist is a pupil of Frances Virginia Melton.

The program will be as follows:

Sonata, Op. 31, No. 2 Beethoven
Allegro
Gavotte, Op. 31, No. 19 Bach
Prelude, Op. 28, No. 1 Chopin
Rhapsodie, Op. 48, No. 2 Chopin
Der Erl Konig Schubert-Liszt
Sonata Eroica Beethoven
First Movement Liszt
Intermezzo en Oiseau Liszt
Rhapsodie Hongroise Liszt

Miss Edna Battles Weds Charles Wright

Miss Edna Battles became the bride of Charles Wright in a charmingly simple service performed in the residence of Dr. W. C. Kantner on North Commercial street on Saturday evening. Dr. Kantner read the impressive service in the presence of immediate relatives and intimate friends of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gorton attended the couple.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Battles of Salem Heights. Mr. Wright is a son of Mrs. Thomas L. Miller. The couple will make their home at 734 North Front street.

Gifts

For THE GRADUATE

Robes
Scarfs
Gloves
Hosiery
Hats
Coats
Dresses
Blouses
Pajamas
Sweaters
Jewelry
Silk Undies
Shoes

"We Cater to Men Who Buy For Women"

All Gift Packages Appropriately Wrapped.

THE GREATER

SHIPLEY'S

STORE

Luncheon Smart Event Monday

Mrs. William Walton invited the members of the Monday bridge club and several additional guests in for luncheon and several hours of contract bridge this afternoon. Rhododendrons shading from a delicate pink to deep fuchsia, centered the attractively appointed luncheon table.

Those bidden were Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Edwin Baker and Mrs. Erol Kay, special guests, and Mrs. Conrad W. Paulus, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. G. C. Locke, Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. T. A. Livesley and the hostess, Mrs. William Walton.

The Misses Becke Fete Bridge Club

The Misses Cleo and Marguerite Becke entertained the members of their contract bridge club with a gay affair in the Becke residence Friday evening. Prizes for the evening went to Miss Dorothy Judson, a special guest and Miss Phyllis Keith. At a late hour supper was served informally by the hostesses.

Those bidden for the evening were Miss Dorothy Judson and Miss Lia Mills, Miss Charlotte Eyre, Miss Dorothy Rice, Miss Sedonia Keith, Miss Phyllis Keith and the hostesses, Miss Cleo and Miss Marguerite Keith.

Society To Give Breakfast Thursday

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Christian church will sponsor a breakfast at the home of Mrs. D. B. Simpson, 425 South 23rd street, on Thursday morning, June 1, at 9 o'clock. Mrs. J. Vinton Scott will be the principal speaker at the regular meeting, which will follow the breakfast hour. There will be no charge and women of the congregation are invited to attend.

World Wide Guild Meets

The World Wide Guild of the First Baptist church held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. F. A. Erickson Friday evening. The meeting opened with a short business session followed by the devotional service led by Lillian Roethlin. Olga Janik took charge of the program, the main feature being an interesting talk on home life in China by Mrs. J. Vinton Scott. Others taking part on the program were Margaret Ayers, Roberta Brainerd, Dorothy Dierks, Ruth Engdahl, Vertie Grant, Joy Greig, Edna Hoyt, Olga Janik, Mildred McAdams, Lydia Mattson, Sylvia Mattson, Bernadette Clark, Doris Barnett, Hoshie Watanabe, Selko Watanabe, Alice Lucas, Lena Mae Mattson, Mrs. White, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Erickson.

Those present were Miss Lillian Roethlin, Peggy Peterson, Margaret Ayers, Gail McClean, Helen Austin, Irma Bennett, Lucille Bennett, Roberta Brainerd, Dorothy Dierks, Ruth Engdahl, Vertie Grant, Joy Greig, Edna Hoyt, Olga Janik, Mildred McAdams, Lydia Mattson, Sylvia Mattson, Bernadette Clark, Doris Barnett, Hoshie Watanabe, Selko Watanabe, Alice Lucas, Lena Mae Mattson, Mrs. White, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Erickson.

J. Vinton Scott Dentist

304-5 First National Bank Bldg.
Salem, Oregon

Miss Breithaupt Complimented

Mrs. Ronald Craven and Miss Anna Peters entertained with a gay party in compliment to Miss Irene Breithaupt, bride-elect of George Van Natta, on Saturday evening. Cards were in play and at a late hour the popular bride-to-be was complimented with a kitchen shower.

Those bidden for the affair were Miss Breithaupt, the guest of honor, and Mrs. C. P. Breithaupt, Mrs. Frederick S. Bynon, Jr., Miss Helen Breithaupt, Miss Loreta Varley, Miss Roberta Varley, Miss Veleda Ohmart, Miss Bernice Newhouse, Miss Lois Steinke, Miss Barbara Ames, Miss Willa Ames, Miss Isobel Childs, Miss Ida McNeil, Miss Hazel Schutt, Miss Helen McElroy, Miss Hazel McElroy, Miss Betty Elson, Mrs. Ruth Vermeer, Miss Marie Lipold, Miss Carolyn Parker, Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman, Miss Margaret Stevenson, Miss Bess Nolan, Miss Madge Reid, Miss Hannah Eymann, Miss Blanche Grentzenburg, Miss Phipps and Mrs. E. J. Swafford and the hostesses, Mrs. Ronald Craven and Miss Anna Peters.

K. C. K. T. Club At Graber Home

The K. C. K. T. club met at the home of Mrs. A. Graber on Thursday afternoon for a dessert luncheon, followed by several hours spent informally. The group made plans for a picnic to be held within the next few weeks.

Those enjoying the affair were Miss Catherine Barker, a special guest, and Mrs. E. J. Donnell, Mrs. A. P. Aller, Mrs. Ray Clark, Mrs. Fred Barker, Mrs. R. C. Kiesel, Mrs. Hattie Given, Mrs. C. T. McIntyre, Mrs. Alma Thompson, Mrs. Nellie Knox and the hostesses, Mrs. A. Graber.

Mrs. Marion Taylor was complimented on her eighty-first birthday anniversary Sunday, May 21, by a group of friends and relatives. Dinner was served informally and many friends called during the afternoon to greet Mrs. Taylor.

The Royal Neighbors will meet at the Fraternal temple this evening at 8 o'clock for a special Memorial Day service. An interesting program will be presented later in the evening. All those taking part are requested to wear white.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Augustus Burgoyne and small daughter, Joan, of Seattle, are the house guests of Mrs. Burgoyne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jarman.

Mrs. David W. Eyre entertained at luncheon at the Marion hotel Monday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. David Graham of Eugene, who is the house guest of Mrs. Curtis B. Cross. Covers were laid for eight.

Silverton—Mrs. C. J. Hall spoke to members of the Junior Women's club Tuesday evening in the auxiliary club rooms at the armory. Mrs. Hall told of life in Sumatra, where she and Rev. Hall had been resident missionaries of the Methodist church before they took up the pastorate work here.

Birthday Club at G. D. Cole Home

Station—The Birthday club of Station met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. George Cole Thursday evening, May 25, with Mrs. Ellen Reynolds and Mrs. D. George Cole, whose birthdays occur this month, as hostesses. The evening was spent with games and jig-saw puzzles. May flowers decorated the rooms. At a late hour light refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schaeffer, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tuel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. W. V. Adams, Arch Caspel, Prof. H. E. Tobie, Felix Wright, Linsey Wright and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. D. George Cole and Mrs. Ellen Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Pollis and son, Miller Eugene, Mrs. Jessie Pollis, Mrs. Will Pollis and Mrs. Miller Pollis, motored to Spokane Sunday. They will spend Memorial day in Gardfield as the guest of Mrs. E. F. Pares.

Church Groups Are Told About Japan

Turner—Mrs. M. F. Cole and Miss Zona Cole were joint hostesses for the May meeting of the Christian Missionary society and study class. Mrs. Susan Girardin was leader of the Mission study on "Japan, and Missionary Life." Mrs. Gayette Barnett had charge of the map study and devotionals were led by Mrs. F. C. Delzell, Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap, president, presided at the short business session, with members joining in the prayer circle. Refreshments were served by the hostesses at the tea hour.

Members present were Mrs. Louis Fowler, Mrs. Susan Girardin, Mrs. F. C. Delzell, Mrs. W. H. Harris, Mrs. Henry Barnett, Mrs. Howard Baker and children, Melvin and Shirley, Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap, Mrs. L. M. Barner, Mrs. Emma Moore, Mrs. Irene Owsley, Mrs. George Bowser and the hostesses, Miss Zona Cole and Mrs. M. F. Cole. Mrs. Henry Barnett will entertain the society in June with Mrs. Zona Cole leading the mission study on "The Composite American."

BEARCATS FOURTH NORTHWEST MEET

Willamette university's track and field team placed fourth in the Northwest meet held at Forest Grove Saturday. College of Puget Sound won the meet with 48 points. Whitman was second with 42½, Pacific third with 38 while Willamette totaled 23. Point winners for Willamette were: Cook and Brown, first and third respectively in the mile; Waltz, second in 440; Dean, third in pole vault; McCullough, second in 880; Dieke third in high jump; Brown second in two mile; Cannady, third in 220 low hurdles; Lloyd, second in broad jump; Willamette third in mile relay. New records were established in the shotput, pole vault, 880, mile relay, high jump and 220.

Puget Sound Wins Conference Tennis

College of Puget Sound won the Northwest conference tennis meet held on Willamette's courts Friday and Saturday when Eugene Plety defeated Wright of Whitman 2-6, 6-6, 6-2, 6-1, in the finals of the singles matches, while Plety and Teats beat Wright and Rigby of Whitman in the doubles, 9-7, 6-1, 7-5.

Your Dad's a Peach

Father's Day - June 18th

Tell him so with a fine photograph of you. If the truth was known he probably spends a good part of his day thinking about you. A picture of you would be a mighty nice thing for him to have, providing of course, it's a mighty fine picture (which is the only kind we take).

Father's Day Special

6 x 6 size, all mounted in lovely folders for only $3.75

NO SITTINGS MADE AT THIS RATE AFTER THURSDAY, JUNE 8TH

Miller's Studio

(of course)

IT'S FUN TO BE FOOLED

TODAY'S MAGIC FEATURE
Coffee—Hot and Delicious
—Out of Thin Air!

SAME PRICE today AS 42 YEARS AGO

25 ounces for 25¢

KC the best BAKING POWDER

ECONOMICAL AND EFFICIENT Double Tested! Double Action! MILLIONS OF POUNDS USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT