School Board Recall Opponents Take Stand At Silverton Meeting

Silverton—The committee representing the people who are making a stand against the recall of members of the Silverton school board, and other agitations that would lead to a change in personnel of the teaching force, in the alleged name of economy, called a mass meeting Monday night at the auditorium of the Eugene Field building.

Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson was present with facts and figures and was the authority of questions that were asked. She placed Silverton schools in the first for efficiency in Marion county, and she did it in no uncertain terms. She verified the reports made by the chairman of the school board, H. R. Irish, as financially correct. She denied that statement that had been publicly made that

Missing Wallet And Cash Comes Back To Light

Independence—Four years ago, in the spring of the year while D. P. Stapleton, now deceased, was doing some tractor plowing in a field back of his house, he lost from his pocket a wallet containing about $45 in bills.

They began search for the missing wallet but on account of the large tract covered, for there was about 25 acres in the field, no find was made until a few days ago when Mrs. Stapleton crossed this land she found the father purse but the money was missing. The field had been plowed and sowed each year and presumably the purse had been plowed under and just now came to the surface.

Strict search was made for the money by Mrs. Stapleton but of no avail and she made her discovery known to her son-in-law, Dean Girard, who went to the place where the wallet was found and began digging with a spade. He uncovered a clod of earth, which had traces of the missing bills, some of the dye had left imprints on the earth.

This was carefully preserved and sent to Washington, D. C., to the treasury department for identification. Such as may be identified by the department may be replaced. An affidavit accompanying the clod required showing how the money was lost, amount and how it was found.

GREATER HONORS AT ROSE EVENT

Silverton—The Silverton school band returned from its participation in the floral parade of the Rose Festival Friday, and brought home another first prize, having received the premier award for the best band in the parade from cities outside of Portland the size of Silverton. An earlier report that gave Silverton third place was duly corrected.

Score sheets revealed that the local band had the highest score of any school band in the parade. To earn this a high score was necessary, as points were awarded for equipment, uniform, and other accessories for parade effect which the Silverton group do not possess. This last honor now brings the band up to four first places including two state championships.

Hal Campbell, director of the band for the years since its organization, has announced that an organization would continue under his management and would include adult players of Silverton and Mt. Angel as well as graduates of Silverton high. The band has been invited to participate in the Molalla round-up and tentative plans are in the making.

BUS TRANSPORTATION SUBJECT OF GRANGE

Union Hill—A large crowd attended the grange social meeting at the hall Saturday night. Several speakers were present and talked on the school transportation problem of non-high school districts. Speakers favoring transportation were Mrs. Connel Murray of Silverton, representing Mr. Murray, a candidate for election as director from his zone at the coming school election; F. A. Doerfler of Macley, also a candidate, and George Sander of Seio, who is a candidate for election from his zone in Linn county. The speaker opposing transportation was C. A. Ratcliff of Red Hill.

A program feature was a comic accordion solo by F. A. Doerfler. Music for an hour's dancing was furnished by Mrs. Doerfler and son, Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Mulkey and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Scott served lunch.

Sunnyday—Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Willis, Morris and Carmen Carmen, motored to Hulsey Saturday where Mrs. Willis and the children stopped to visit friends. Willis went to Eugene where he spent the day with his parents. His brother, Burton, returned home with them.
