

NORTH HOWELL GRANGE PLANS POMONA MEET

North Howell—A varied program was held at the last meeting of the North Howell grange with Sunday suggested as the date for another garden tour following a report of the visit to the gardens of North Howell, Hazel Dell and of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Brown in Silverton.

Reports were given of the council meeting at Albany and suggestions were made for grange improvements. Legislative reports were given by E. G. Welner on the coming school election and upon measures to be voted upon at the special election July 21. High lights of the last session of the legislature were given by Senator Sam Brown of Geneva. A resolution, regarding qualifications of members of the legislature drafted by Senator Brown, Ephraim Wiesner and Ellis Stevens received unanimous support. Catherine Bump reported upon the last social night and it was decided not to hold any social nights this month owing to the Pomona grange meeting here next Wednesday. R. C. Jefferson, Jr., reported on community club activities.

One-minute talks by twelve different members on the first twelve paragraphs of "Passing Show" in the grange bulletin featured the lecturer's hour. In a baby guessing contest, eleven photographs of grange members were offered, with four members, Jesse Coomer, Caroline Bump, Ellen Vinton and Daisy Bump each guessing ten, drew for the prize which was won by Daisy Bump. Senator Brown gave a talk on the child labor law and John Paulson offered a reading.

Plans for Pomona grange were discussed and the following committees named by Master Dunn: piano, Daisy Bump, Martha Vinton, and Josephine Starns. Serving assistants, George Cline, George Welner, Roy Dunn, Raymond Jefferson, Jr., Tom Bump and Kenneth Coomer; table, Ellis Stevens, Sherm Coomer and Vic Van Brodlin; decoration, Diadema Cline, Florence Oddie and Ena Harmon.

The legislative committee will have charge of the next meeting with the July supper committee consisting of Josephine Stevens, Amy Beer, Florence Oddie, Monty Applewall, R. C. Jefferson, Jr., and George Welner.

DALLAS CITY BAND TO OFFER CONCERT

Dallas—The city band under the direction of H. N. Stoudenmeyer will give its first concert of the outdoor summer series Saturday of this week on the courthouse square. The concert given in past years have invariably attracted large crowds and should prove to be as popular as ever this year. The concert will begin at 8 p. m. and will continue for one hour. The personnel of the organization is: H. N. Stoudenmeyer, Carl Ampier, cornet, William Howe, cornet, William Thiesse, cornet; Art May, cornet; Robert Conwell, cornet; Ray Boydston, trombone; Ray Johnson, trombone; John Friesen, trombone; Lee Fitt, bass; Ray Wilson, bass; Bill Young, alto; A. M. Smith, alto; William Boydston, baritone; John Aebi, baritone; Warren Dunn, drums; T. C. Clockwell, drums; Elwyn Regier, clarinet; Charles Ross, tenor saxophone.

Decision to begin the series was not definitely reached until late in the regular weekly practice Tuesday night. For this reason no program is available for this concert and will not be known until the last moment.

MRS. SENTER AWAY
Silverton—Mrs. Lillian Senter and son, Marvin, left Wednesday for Southern to spend several weeks at the home of Mrs. Senter's sister, Mrs. Jonetta Golden. Mrs. Senter is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Rosheim.

Bethel—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Carruthers were in Eugene Monday to see their niece, Esther Lile of Salem receive her Master of Arts degree.

"One Call Does It All!"

WE HOLD IT

true that some powder goes off with a bang but most goes on with a puff. No need to puff the merits of our auto repairing. Its excellence and quality is best emphasized by experience. Those who have patronized this shop know that we don't make promises or assertions simply to hear ourselves talk. Superlative standards of workmanship guarantee your approval and we let the improved performance of your car verify our claims.

"Batteries and battery service. Your car greased according to factory specifications."

Salem Automobile Company 433 N. Commercial St.
Phone 4673

COMES WITH RADIO SHOW

CLARENCE TOLMAN

Clarence Tolman, known as "Cheer" Beam, the medicine man and trader on KGW's Monday nights, presentation of "Covered Wagon Days" is one of the outstanding characters of the radio and stage in the northwest and will appear in person with the entire cast of "Covered Wagon Days" at the Grand theater starting tomorrow for two days.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career, having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of mustangs for it and in less than a year he had the leading role in Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such famous personalities as Eddie Dowling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stanley Lupine, Vincent Lopez, Al Jol-

son and many others.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career,

having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of

mustangs for it and in less than

a year he had the leading role in

Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such

famous personalities as Eddie Dow-

ling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stan-

ley Lupine, Vincent Lopez, Al Jol-

son and many others.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career,

having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of

mustangs for it and in less than

a year he had the leading role in

Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such

famous personalities as Eddie Dow-

ling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stan-

ley Lupine, Vincent Lopez, Al Jol-

son and many others.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career,

having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of

mustangs for it and in less than

a year he had the leading role in

Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such

famous personalities as Eddie Dow-

ling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stan-

ley Lupine, Vincent Lopez, Al Jol-

son and many others.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career,

having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of

mustangs for it and in less than

a year he had the leading role in

Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such

famous personalities as Eddie Dow-

ling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stan-

ley Lupine, Vincent Lopez, Al Jol-

son and many others.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career,

having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of

mustangs for it and in less than

a year he had the leading role in

Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such

famous personalities as Eddie Dow-

ling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stan-

ley Lupine, Vincent Lopez, Al Jol-

son and many others.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career,

having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of

mustangs for it and in less than

a year he had the leading role in

Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such

famous personalities as Eddie Dow-

ling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stan-

ley Lupine, Vincent Lopez, Al Jol-

son and many others.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career,

having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of

mustangs for it and in less than

a year he had the leading role in

Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such

famous personalities as Eddie Dow-

ling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stan-

ley Lupine, Vincent Lopez, Al Jol-

son and many others.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career,

having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of

mustangs for it and in less than

a year he had the leading role in

Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such

famous personalities as Eddie Dow-

ling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stan-

ley Lupine, Vincent Lopez, Al Jol-

son and many others.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career,

having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of

mustangs for it and in less than

a year he had the leading role in

Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such

famous personalities as Eddie Dow-

ling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stan-

ley Lupine, Vincent Lopez, Al Jol-

son and many others.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career,

having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of

mustangs for it and in less than

a year he had the leading role in

Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such

famous personalities as Eddie Dow-

ling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stan-

ley Lupine, Vincent Lopez, Al Jol-

son and many others.

Mr. Tolman has had a varied career,

having started his car, an old

Ford, from Idaho toward New York,

after having traded a herd of

mustangs for it and in less than

a year he had the leading role in

Shubert's production "Countess

Maritza."

He has been co-starred with such

famous personalities as Eddie Dow-

ling, Winnie Lightner, Tom Petri-

cola, Ann Pennington, Moran and

Mack, Wheeler and Woolsey, Stan-

FLORAL SHOW AT WOODBURN FOR WEEK-END

Woodburn—The Woodburn Garden club met Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bragg on Corby street and perfected plans for the floral exhibit which will be held Friday and Saturday of this week at the Masonic building on Front street.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. J. J. Hall, Mrs. Ronald Burnett and Mrs. Walter Schooler. It is the desire of the committee that every one who has flowers will enter them in the exhibit whether or not they are members of the club. Exhibits should be placed by 9:30 o'clock Friday morning. No prizes will be given as the affair is purely an exhibit.

A. F. Timm, proprietor of the highway greenhouse, was elected president of the club at the meeting Tuesday night in place of Mrs. Walter Schooler, who declined to serve. Timm gave a report on the organization of a junior garden club and asked for volunteers in various parts of the city to organize groups of children and interest them in grading and arranging flowers.

Mrs. W. J. Wilson and Mrs. Richard Yates gave reports on the Salem flower show which they attended. Earl Houseveart, nurseryman, gave an instructive talk on the care of roses. Musical numbers included piano solos by Mrs. Bragg and two steel guitar selections by Miss Mabel Livesay. The program was arranged by Miss Carrie Waterbury.

Scotts Mills—Mrs. Gray Taylor returned home Wednesday from Portland, bringing her mother, Mrs. C. W. Ballard, with her. Mrs. Ballard expects to spend the summer with her daughter here.

Chinn Transferred To Roseburg Plant

Albany—Earl G. Chinn, Standard Oil company manager at Albany, has been assigned to the Roseburg district and John McClintock, present manager of the company at Roseburg, will come to Albany. It was announced yesterday. McClintock has been at Roseburg for five years and Chinn came to Albany a year ago from Salem.

AID SOCIETY HAS CONTEST

Woodburn—The June meeting of the Presbyterian Aid society was held at the church Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Myrtle Clark, Mrs. Maude Mochel, Mrs. Lorena Duncan and Mrs. Mary Huggill as hostesses. Mrs. Olive Smith conducted the opening devotion and Mrs. Henry Layman presided over the short business meeting.

The program was arranged by Mrs. Rae T. Gibbons and an entertaining feature was a ten-word spelling contest in which honors were won by Mrs. D. J. Gillanders. Miss Marybelle Adams gave two piano solos and Miss Arlene Smolnsky gave two vocal selections with Mrs. Gibbons accompanying. Miss Alma Trullinger gave a talk on books for children and young people.

The program closed with a patriotic vocal selection by Mrs. Donald Orr in honor of Flag day. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. Mrs. D. J. Gillanders was received as a new member and there were a number of visitors present. Hostesses for the next meeting will be Mrs. Hiram Overton, Mrs. Lester Smith, Mrs. Stanley Adams and Mrs. Jane Mack with Mrs. Lorena Duncan in charge of the program.

Marion—Eleanor Libby, who was in the hospital with an appendicitis attack, has been removed to her apartment. She is employed at the state house.

FORD MEMORIAL AID HOLDS TEA

West Salem—Mrs. C. L. Dark opened her home Wednesday afternoon to the Ladies' aid society of the Ford Memorial church and their friends for a combined business session and "silver tea."

Mrs. Phil Hathaway was elected president of the aid; Mrs. Emmett Dickinson re-elected vice-president; Mrs. J. R. Bedford re-elected secretary and Mrs. J. L. Miller re-elected treasurer. A vote of thanks for her efficient help in the aid work was tendered Mrs. Phillips, the outgoing president, who resigned on account of stress of work.

Program numbers consisted of singing by all; prayer, Mrs. Dark; vocal solo, Miss Margaret Kaster; recitation, Delores Hathaway; vocal duet, Mrs. Dark, Mrs. Dickson; song, Glenn Guderian; vocal solos, Miss Ruth Farmer; piano duet, Billy Fawc, Miss Ruth Farmer; singing, by all; vocal solo, Rev. C. L. Dark; vocal duet, Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Dark. Accompanists for the program were Miss Trula Grant, Mrs. B. A. Shoff and Mrs. C. L. Dark.

Refreshments were served in the late afternoon by the hostesses, Mrs. C. L. Dark, Mrs. Elmer Rierison, Mrs. B. A. Shoff, Mrs. D. H. Gilliland and Mrs. John Evans.

It was announced that there would be a W. C. T. U. meeting at the parsonage Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to complete the organization recently started at which time

Mrs. Eugene Krebs was elected president.

Those present were Mesdames

Martha Rierison, Edwin Brock, J. L.

Miller, Roy Finster, George Lathrop, Phil Hathaway, S. H. Creasy,

J. H. Broening, C. A. Guderian, E.

L. Miller, W. L. La Due, G. C. Minton, Donald Kuhn, Darrell Bradford,

Frank Forrester, H. J. Carter, J. A.

Gosser, Emmett Dickson, L. T.

Wallace, B. K. Englehorn, A. Sharp,

J. R. Bedford, W. D. Phillips, Rex