Miss Wright Bride Of Mr. Danforth

In a charming garden ceremony solemnized Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, Miss Eleanor Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Wright, became the bride of William Danforth of Corvallis, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Danforth of Bend. Dr. Grover C. Birchard read the impressive ceremony in the presence of the two immediate families.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a smart afternoon gown of white crepe, with a cape of self-same material. Her accessories were of white and she wore a corsage of white roses and lavender sweet peas. There were no attendants.

Mrs. Danforth has just completed her junior year on the Oregon State college campus, where she is affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta society, and prominent in dramatics. She is the retiring worthy Grand Advisor of the Order of Rainbow for Girls and presided at the state session in Portland last week.

Mr. Danforth is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. He has been outstanding in athletics and student activities on the Oregon State campus.

After July 1 the couple will be at home in Corvallis.

Salem Women Play Tournament

The women of the Salem Golf club will meet at the club Friday morning for play for the Kay and Lively trophies and luncheon at the clubhouse. Forty-three matrons and maids played last Friday with Miss Molly Schwabauer winning tournament honors for the day. Mrs. Bob Savage and Mrs. W. T. Watkins tied and will play their match off on Tuesday. Those wishing reservations for luncheon are asked to call Mrs. Fred Rittner. The group will go to Eugene Wednesday, June 28.

Rebekah Lodge Entertained

Silverton—The Rebekah lodge was hosts to members of the Salem Rebekahs, lodge No. 1, in a social session Thursday evening. A program and supper were the principal features of entertainment. Program numbers were a piano solo by Mrs. Fern Davenport; reading by Miss Ora Larson; vocal solo, Catherine Cuddy; reading, Mrs. Mary Kleeman; violin solo, Fred Baker; piano solo, Maxine Case of Salem; reading by Lois Gay and a violin solo by Beryl Ottoway.

Composing the personnel of the committees in charge were Mrs. E. A. Gay, Mrs. Will Egan, Mrs. Robert Goetz, Mrs. E. F. Larson, Mrs. E. E. Taylor, Miss Rose Specht, Mrs. George Winchell, Mrs. Eddie Kottek and Mrs. Fred Baker.

Harry Wells' Leave For Paris

Silverton—Among the affairs given for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wells, previous to their departure for Massachusetts, late last week, were a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Roubal, Friday evening, and a similar affair at the home of Miss Rose Specht Wednesday night at which the guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schieler, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Brownhill, Miss Evelyn Lee and Miss Gertrude Gertrude Chrysler.

Miss Hazel George Complimented

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hall entertained at bridge in honor of Mrs. Hazel George, Dr. J. E. Davis of Portland and Miss Hazel George of Salem, at the country home of the Halls, Saturday night. A late supper was an attractive feature of the evening's entertainment. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. G. McDonald and Barbara Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haugen and three children, Marvin, Evelyn and Elvira, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Haugen and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert DeGuire and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hatteberg. Adolph Haugen scored high and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haugen low, at cards.

Dr. Davis also visited his other sister, Mrs. Alvin Hartley, during his stay here, and the group, including Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Evelyn and Raymond, were dinner guests Sunday at the Salem home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bidwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Deacon (Dorothy Brant) are guests of Mrs. Brant's mother, Mrs. C. W. Brant.

The Writers' club will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. A. Lytle on the River road at 6:30 o'clock for a pot luck picnic.

Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, state grange lecturer, has returned from the state convention at Pendleton, where she made several interesting talks.

Veterans' Daughters Meets Here

With delegates present from tents throughout the state, the 15th annual convention of the Daughters of Union War Veterans of the Civil War will be held in Salem this week, opening a three day program Tuesday at the Fraternal temple. The officers' luncheon, nomination of department officers and the civic reception at the armory will be the major activities of the opening day.

Wednesday's program will include a breakfast at the Spa, sponsored by the Past Presidents' club of Portland; a joint memorial service with allied patriotic organizations at the Masonic temple; a parade and presentation of a flag to Boy Scout troop No. 5. Election of officers will be held that afternoon, followed by the annual banquet at the Marion hotel.

On Thursday the convention officers will attend the Grand Army of the Republic encampment in a body. The fathers' and daughters' luncheon will be held at the First Methodist church at noon, with installation of officers that afternoon. Mrs. Fred T. Warren of Portland, president of the department of Oregon, will preside.

Miss Priscilla Fry Fetes Younger Set

The W. C. Kanner Comrades met at the home of Miss Priscilla Fry Thursday evening for a gay picnic and pre-nuptial shower in compliment to Miss Ruth Powell, bride-elect of Harold Zwicker.

Those enjoying the affair were Miss Powell, the honor guest, Miss Doris Clarke, Miss Lillian McCall, Miss Thelma Davis, Miss Constance Kanner, Miss Lillian E. Garmy, Miss Lena Cox, Miss Himes, Miss Frances Bair, Miss Yvonne Aufranc, Miss Mabel Wolfe, Miss Frances Wolfe, Miss Esther Long, Miss Anka Coates, Helen Hight, Doris Van Velt, Robert Orr, Franklin Van Pelt, Evans Hamilton, Daryl Wiesner, Carvel Thomas, Martin Reamer, Vurty Grant, Clarence McKenzie, Bill McClary, Richard Upjohn, Buster Gingham, Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Simonds, and the hostess, Miss Priscilla Fry.

Harrington-Smith Nuptials Said

Miss Helen Alberta Smith, daughter of John A. Smith of Salem, became the bride of Elmer Harrington, son of Mrs. George H. Harrington, at a pretty ceremony Saturday afternoon in Portland at the Grace Memorial church, Dr. Oswald W. Taylor officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a dress of white tulle lace with white crepe hat. Her bouquet was of pink roses and gardenias, with a shower of lilies of the valley. Miss Volla Harrington, her only attendant, wore a frock of pink crepe with French blue hat and carried a bouquet of snapdragons, roses and forget-me-nots. Stanley Bryant acted as best man. Miss Olive Banks, organist, played the wedding march.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. G. H. Harrington in Irvington. Mrs. Ernest Lambert Graham assisted about the rooms. Mrs. Mabel Charles Bowers and Mrs. Harold W. Ray poured. Mrs. Earl Perry and Mrs. Fred Wolf cut loaves. Assisting in serving were the Misses June Goodale, Gladys Thomas, Frances North, Gladys Loomley and Janice Banks.

Upon their return from British Columbia the young couple will be at home at 1525 Northeast Twenty-fourth avenue in Portland.

Card Club Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. O. Turner were hosts for the Happy-Go-Lucky Card club held at the home of Mrs. J. G. Stewart recently.

Five tables of cards were in play during the evening. Honors for cards went to Miss Margaret Stewart, M. Grub, Gordon Bradford and Mrs. J. Hill. Dancing occupied the latter part of the evening. At a late hour a buffet supper was served.

Guests bidden were Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cardy, Mrs. Emma Vesper, Mr. and Mrs. Grub, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cooran, Mr. and Mrs. J. Legion Auxiliary Meets Tonight

The American Legion auxiliary will meet this evening in the fraternal temple at 8 o'clock. Col. Robertson will speak to the group on "International Relations." Mrs. Frank Liburne's Rhythmic Orchestra will appear during the evening.

Plans will be made for the Fourth of July and delegates to the State convention will be elected.

The South Circle of the First Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Guy Drill, 660 North Cottage street, for an all-day meeting with a covered dish luncheon at noon.

Silverton—Miss Doris Riches, daughter of Mrs. T. W. Riches, is a guest of her mother for a few days. Miss Riches is employed in Salem.

Mrs. S. C. Dyer has returned from a several days' stay in Portland where she was the house-guest of Mrs. A. J. Giesey on Council Crest. Mrs. Giesey is a former Salem resident and will be remembered by old friends as Miss Ida Church. She will leave with her grandson, Paul Giesey, for a cruise in the Mediterranean during the coming week.

An interesting affair was the father and son banquet at the First Christian church recently. A word of welcome was given by Rev. Guy Dril. Those taking part in the program were E. J. Reamer, Harold D. Allen, Nell Fleming, Bert Macy, Rex Wirt, Dean Shoemaker and E. W. Petticord.

Bostrack-Lenz Wedding of Interest

A simple ceremony was solemnized in the Bungalow Christian church Saturday evening at 7 o'clock when Margie M. Lenz became the bride of Sherman Bostrack. Rev. Hugh N. McCallum read the services.

The bride wore an ensemble of grey flat crepe with white accessories and carried an arm bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses and sweet peas. A reception was held at the home of the bride after the ceremony to which only relatives and intimate friends of the bridal couple were bidden. A violin solo, "I Love You Truly" was played by Ellis Lee Klein, nephew of the bride.

Those present for the reception were Mrs. Elizabeth Lenz, mother of the bride, Manie Bostrack, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wood and Ervina Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thomas and Joanne, Texa Bostrack, Orval C. Kernen, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Klein, Ellis, Glen and Boney, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gehlen and Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. John Lindeman and the Misses Lucy, Nora and Mabel Lenz.

The couple left immediately after the reception for a motor trip to Canada. They will be at home to their friends after June 26 at 1789 North Summer street.

Hal Hibbard Auxiliary Feted

The members of Hal Hibbard auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. E. E. Buckles on Friday for an exceptionally interesting affair. Tea was served informally in the gardens of the Buckles country place.
