SIMES IN BAD AND IN JAIL; COUNTS VARY

Woodburn—A warrant has been filed in the Woodburn justice court by J. W. Shaw, proprietor of the Woodburn Feed and Supply company against several times of Corvallis, charging him with burglary. Simes entered the warehouse of the feed company last week by breaking the lock, and taking several dollars in pennies, a check protector and a number of blank checks. He was arrested at Lebanon Saturday by state police and is now in the county jail at Albany with a charge of several charges against Simes, including impersonating an officer, forgery and obtaining money under false pretenses. The date for his trial has not been fixed. The check protector was returned to its owner Monday.

Frank E. Eekhout was arrested Monday and appeared in the local court on a charge of permitting a minor under 14 years of age to operate a motor vehicle on a public highway. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined $5 and $2.50 costs. Florence Pendleton appeared before the court Monday charged with driving a motor vehicle without an operator's license. After pleading guilty she was given a fine of $2.50 and $2 costs. The fine was suspended on condition that she obtain a driver's license or learner's permit within five days.

TURNER STORE HIT BY MORNING BLAZE

Turner—A fire, presumably caused from defective electric wiring partially destroyed the Lee barber store and residence Tuesday morning before the Turner fire department and volunteers extinguished the flames. For a time the entire block was threatened with disaster, including the Methodist Episcopal church and a hurried call was sent to Salem fire department. The East Salem pumper answered the summons and made the trip here in eight minutes, just as the fire had been subdued. The firemen however gave the building an airing. All of the household goods were removed but the water did considerable damage to the residence adjoining the store and to perishable grocery stock stored in the rear rooms. A large maple tree directly over the burning building, which eventually caught fire, acted as a hindrance to the fire spreading more rapidly.

BOARD BILL LEADS TO TERM IN JAIL

Independence—A charge of assault and battery was filed by W. C. Neal of 7th street in the city recorder's office here Monday morning against Red Ryals, a transient. The case was set for hearing at 2 o'clock and the defendant appeared in person. B. F. Ewops, city attorney, appearing for the city and the recorder "Dad" Phelps presided as judge. Several witnesses were heard for both sides and a verdict of guilty returned against the defendant. He was fined $25 or 12 1/2 days in the city jail with labor on the city streets. He accepted the latter and was taken to the city bastille by Officer Moore.

The argument arose over a disputed board bill which Ryals owed Neal at the latter's home, on Sunday evening and on Monday morning Ryals admitted Neal on the street near Tom Smith's grocery proceeded to try to square the deal in a fistie encounter. Neal went down in the first round and his wife who took up the fight in behalf also went down. The latter started to throw potatoes from the grocer's window at the head of the defendant and interference from the store stopped the noise. Neal went directly to the recorder's office and filed a complaint.

Sunbeam Thimble Club Celebrates

Monmouth—Mrs. E. M. Ebbert's natal day was remembered at the meeting of the Sunbeam Thimble club which met this week with Mrs. B. R. Pollan, when a festive cake decorated with candles was served.
