Marriage of Interest To Salem Folk

Of particular interest and surprise to Salem folk is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Dora Bardwell of Toledo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Bardwell of Los Angeles, Calif., to George Beecher, son of Dr. and Mrs. D. X. Beecher of Salem. The ceremony was a quiet one performed last month in Toledo with Rev. J. Hammond of the Methodist church officiating.

Salem folk who were in Toledo for the wedding were Miss Esther Wood, Miss Betty Lott, Creighton Jones and William Bodner of Corvallis.

Mrs. Beecher is a graduate of Oregon State college where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and Omicron Nu, honorary sorority in home economics. Mr. Beecher attended both the University of Oregon and Oregon State college where he was affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity, and has just recently graduated from the Cincinnati College of Engineering. Both young people are well known in Salem where they are popular members of the younger set.

They will make their home in Woodburn where Mr. Beecher is connected with the Beecher-Killian mortuary.

Mr. J. Smith of San Francisco is a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Allen Bellinger and also is visiting at the George Waters home. Mr. Smith was once a resident of Salem and is well known in the capital city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Waters have as a house guest, Miss Catherine McGuire of Portland.

Miss Frances Sande called Tuesday on the Dorothy Alexander for Los Angeles. Miss Sande plans to be gone about three weeks and will visit friends in various parts of California before returning to Salem.

Hayesville—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Markham and children, Donald and Ruth, of Seattle, Wash., spent the holidays at the William McMillen home.

The Eleri class of the First Baptist church will be guests Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Sparks who will entertain the group in the gardens of their home at 1630 North 19th street.

Moumouth—Announcements have been received in Moumouth by friends of the marriage of Miss Velma Grace Duckworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Duckworth of Bend, to Phillip P. Buckinham. The ceremony took place Saturday, July 1, at Bend. The bride is a former graduate of the Oregon Normal school and was popular in school circles while here.

The F. L. Girls will meet at Evelyn Hestman's home Thursday evening at 8 o'clock for initiation and installation.

Party Honors Miss Hazzard

Thursday last, Miss Emma Judson entertained at her home complimenting Miss Charlotte Hazzard who will leave for the east the latter part of July to visit friends and relatives prior to entering Western college.

The rooms of the Judson home were attractively decorated with summer flowers and the supper table was centered with a large bouquet of vari-colored wild flowers. Bridge was in play during the evening with high score going to Miss Dorothy Rice.

Guests missed were the honor guest, Miss Hazzard, Miss Gwen Gallaher, Miss Mildred Clark, Miss Lucile Kelly, Miss Dorothy Rice, Miss Dorothy Judson and Miss Bernice Kelly.

Miss Hazzard plans to spend the major part of the summer in Pikeville, Kentucky, where she will be the guest of her father, J. C. Hazzard.

Mr. and Mrs. James Drury (Beatrice Crawford Newcomb) of New York City were guests of friends in Salem Tuesday. They are spending the summer season at the cottage of Mrs. Drury at Agate Beach.

Mrs. W. Al Jones will entertain as house guests for the coming week Mr. and Mrs. Jack Porter and son George, and Miss Lola Hood, all of Medford.

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mitts of Hubbard were complimented with a surprise party at their Rural Dell home with nearly 50 guests bringing gifts for the newlyweds. Mrs. Mitts, until recently, was Miss Gungadine Bidgood, a former Turner girl. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bidgood.

Silverton—Miss Day Idelman of Salem and Miss Muriel Stamey of Silverton are spending two weeks at the Moro home of Mrs. Ella Johnson. Mrs. Idelman and Mrs. Johnson are sisters and Miss Stamey is their niece.

Drama Leagues To Meet Friday

A joint meeting of the Salem Drama League classes, led by Mrs. Robert Gatte and Mrs. Elsa Ebsen, will be held in the attractive gardens of the Gatte home on Richmond avenue, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The groups are joining for their annual meeting which is celebrated each year and plans for study for the coming year will be outlined and discussed at this time.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Gatte will serve tea and the group will spend the remainder of the afternoon informally about the gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. John Winship entertained at a gay picnic in the gardens of their home on South High street Tuesday afternoon.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. P. Dancer, Mrs. W. Clendenen, Leslie Bates, Lucy Mann, Mary Clendenen, Emma Jane Bates and Madeline Keene.

Guests of Mrs. Helen Southwick and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cox are Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cox of Sacramento, Calif. They plan to be in the city about two weeks.

Mrs. L. O. Smith has just returned from an interesting trip to Kansas where she was the guest of her mother, Mrs. R. S. Goldschmidt. Mrs. Smith has been gone for about six weeks.

Mill City—Holiday guests of Miss Oweneth Dike were Miss Beniah Cramer of Salem, John McLennan of Portland and Ira Scott of Albany. They went to the Breitenbush mineral springs for a picnic on the Mrs. Drury at Agate Beach.

All elective and appointive officers of the Rebekahs are asked to be at the Odd Fellows hall Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock to practice for the joint installation with the Odd Fellows Monday, July 10.

Jefferson—Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hamill and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Glover of Tacoma, were Sunday guests at the home of Hamill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Hamill. Other guests Sunday afternoon were Mrs. E. Waters and Mrs. Wilcox of Salem.

Mt. Angel—Mr. and Mrs. William F. Fessler (Gladys McGee) returned from their wedding trip to Yellowstone national park Thursday. They will make their home on a ranch a few miles east of here. A wedding dance will be given in their honor Friday evening at the Monitor hall.

Hubbard—The program committee of the Hubbard Woman's club has practically completed the study topics for the next year. From two to four meetings will be given to the various topics to be considered with a speaker or a book review and paper for each one of the meetings. Among the topics are "The Home," "Our Children," "Citizenship" and "Travel." The committee consists of Mrs. Amanda Grimm, Mrs. Effa Bell and Mrs. Pearl Bates.

Hayesville—Mrs. Hans Christofferson is visiting at the home of her son, Royal Christofferson, in Salem for several days.

Tomorrow a group of prominent Salem folk accompanied by M. and Mrs. Hubert-Robert, will make up a party driving down the Roosevelt highway to Florence. They will visit at all points of interest along the coast highway.

The Thimble club of Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet Friday afternoon in the Fraternal temple at 2 o'clock.

The Brush College grange will hold a picnic supper Friday evening at 7 o'clock at the Brush College picnic grounds. All members are urged to be present.

Hal Hibbard auxiliary will meet at the armory Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock for its regular business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Stewart (Lois Bynon) were guests at the Frederick Bynon, Sr., home Tuesday evening to their home in Klamath Falls.

MANNING LEADS SOLON BATTERS

Kenneth Manning, who has never been lower than third in Salem Senators batting average list, returned to the top of the heap by getting three hits Sunday.

Last year he was one of the weakest hitters for the Senators, but after a year at Willamette under Coach "Spec" Keene, Manning stepped into the speedy state league and is now hitting .385.

Manning has hit in every game, as have also Bill Moye, Paul Keber and Lee Chester. Moye joined the "over 300" gang by getting three for five at Eugene Sunday.

With a view to increasing the hitting power, Manager Frank "Bully" Bashor may sign another infielder and another outfielder this week.

The team average of the present squad is .264.

HAGEN RETAINS TOURNEY LEAD

St. Andrews, Scotland, July 6 (AP)—Walker Hagen, the American veteran and four times holder of the title, kept a one-stroke lead in the British open golf championship today by shooting a 72, one under par, for his second round and a total of 140 for 36 holes.

A rival American, Ed Dudley of Concordville Pa., was on his heels with 70-71-141.

Gene Sarazen of New York, the defending champion, tossed away a great chance to overhaul the pace setters by taking 40 strokes for the last nine holes, scoring 73 for his second round and a total of 145. A six on the short 11th was disastrous for the champion.

Sarazen went into a tie with Leo Diegel, who had 75-70-145, and Joe Kirkwood, with 72-73-145.

REPORT IS POPULAR
Mill City—A group of friends who were at the Breitenbush mineral springs Tuesday included Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dunivan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly, Arthur Mason and Miss Mildred Pearson of Mill City, and Clara Pearson of Salem. They spent the day picnicking, hiking and swimming.

Solo—Jimmy Karnosh, native Scioan, who has been in the navy for a year, is home on sick leave. He expects to report at San Francisco July 15.

SENATORS LOSE TO SILVERTON

With Don Burch, freshman pitcher at Willamette university, striking out 12 batters and holding the invaders to five hits, Silverton's town baseball club defeated the Salem Senators, 4 to 1, on the Silverton diamond Wednesday evening. Rex Pemberton, another rookie hurler of Coach Keene's, was on the mound for the Senators. He held Silverton to four hits but did not get the support necessary to win ball games.

The Senators scored in the fifth on singles by Mason and Pemberton and Scalco's double.

Silverton tallied one each in the second, third, fourth and sixth.

The two teams will play a return game in the near future.

The judges make the count... and Stella Willins is crowned the fastest woman typist in the world—with a record of 124 words a minute!

● AT RIGHT—STELLA WILLINS is shown enjoying a Camel. She says: "I'd advise anybody who enjoys smoking a lot to smoke Camels, for the sake of their nerves."

● WHAT A RELIEF to the spectators to light up their Camels and ease the strain of watching a thrilling finish. Whenever you feel keyed up, excited, have a Camel—for the sake of your nerves, for the added pleasure in Camel's costlier tobaccos.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Since tobacco quality is all important in a cigarette, Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

STEADY SMOKERS TURN TO CAMELS

STELLA WILLINS says: "I just couldn't type at top speed and do it accurately if I hadn't learned how to keep my nerves healthy. I am a woman who enjoys smoking. I prefer Camels, as I never tire of them no matter how steadily I smoke. They are delightfully mild. And they don't make my nerves ragged. I'd advise anybody who enjoys smoking a lot to smoke Camels, for the sake of their nerves."

Camels, made as they are from costlier tobaccos, give a satisfaction that never fades... no matter how steadily you smoke them. Start smoking Camels today and discover for yourself the added pleasure of a milder cigarette that never tires your taste. It is more fun to know.
