BROUILLARD GIVES WALKER A BEATING

Boston, July 7.—Either Mickey Walker's best fighting days are behind him, or he can't battle a foe man smaller than himself.

The Rumson bulldog engaged the rugged Lou Brouillard of Worcester last night in the Boston Garden's 10-round feature bout and took a terrific lacing.

Although he was nine pounds heavier at 170, and two inches taller than Brouillard, Mickey was on the defensive during all but two rounds. He was able to land only a few of his famous looping punches and none made impression on the middleweight.

Brouillard rushed Walker for the first four rounds, during which he landed many a solid right to the body and jarring left hook to the head. Then he eased up.
