

News OF THE Day IN Pictures

BRATTON BECOMES FEDERAL JUDGE

Sam G. Bratton (left), former senator from New Mexico, now judge of the tenth federal circuit court of appeals with Federal Judge Colin Nebbett in Santa Fe, N.M., immediately after receiving the judicial oath from Judge Nebbett. (Associated Press Photo)

Quits Prison Post

The resignation of A. C. Tawse as superintendent of the Lorton, Va., reformatory was ascribed as the cause of unrest among 1,150 prisoners which necessitated the dispatch of heavily armed policemen from Washington, D. C., to guard against an outbreak. (Associated Press Photo)

AT END OF ANOTHER RECORD DASH

Happy over having lowered her own women's transcontinental record to 17 hours, 7 1/2 minutes, Amelia Earhart Putnam is shown just after landing at Newark, N. J., airport to be greeted by newspaper men and her husband, George Palmer Putnam (right). (Associated Press Photo)

PARKER WINS CLAY COURTS TITLE

Frankie Parker (right) of Milwaukee is shown with the trophy he earned by winning the national clay courts tennis title at Chicago with a 6-3, 6-3 victory over Gene Mako (left) of Los Angeles in a final involving two 17-year-olds. (Associated Press Photo)

ROOSEVELT BACK ON THE JOB

Back from his two weeks' vacation cruise, President Roosevelt greeted representatives of the press soon after he returned to his desk. (Associated Press Photo)

WON'T DISCUSS PENDING DIVORCE

Elliott Roosevelt, 22-year-old son of the President, changed the subject when asked about his pending divorce from Mrs. Elizabeth Roosevelt, on a visit to San Francisco from Elk Point, Nev., where he has established residence at the home of his attorney, Samuel Platt (right). (Associated Press Photo)

Service League Head

Miss Faustine Dennis was elected national president of the Women's Overseas Service League at its Pittsburgh convention. (Associated Press Photo)

ACCUSED OF KANSAS CITY SLAYINGS

Verne C. Miller (left), South Dakota ex-convict, and William Wellesman, Kansas City police character, were said by Director E. C. Reppert of Kansas City police to be the men who killed four officers and their prisoner, Frank Nash, in front of the union station there, June 17. (Associated Press Photo)

Kansas City police said James "Fur" Sammons, Chicago "public enemy," was arrested there for questioning in connection with the June 17 slaying of four officers and their prisoner, Frank Nash. (Associated Press Photo)

CHICAGO POLICE SLAYERS CAUGHT 'Public Enemy' Held

Captured within 15 minutes after they had shot to death a policeman who interrupted them in an office building holdup, Ross King (left) and John Bongiorno were also held as suspects in a sensational $60,000 daylight robbery of a mailman in Chicago's loop a few months before. (Associated Press Photo)

Named To Bench

Francis A. Garrecht, 63, Spokane, Wash., lawyer and legislator, was named a judge in the ninth judicial circuit by President Roosevelt. (Associated Press Photo)

"SUMMER" IN THE SISKIYOU

These pack mules were shod with snowshoes in the middle of June in California to carry supplies to remote settlements and the highway department had to tunnel through snow drifts 60 feet deep to open roads of the Salmon Mountain region near Dunsmuir, Cal. Tunnel can be seen at right. (Associated Press Photo)

HULL SPEAKS AT LONDON PARLEY

Gordell Hull, secretary of state, is shown delivering the address which was so eagerly awaited by delegates to the world economic conference in London. He steered clear of the war debt question and in general terms assailed all barriers to world trade. (Associated Press Photo)

MDIVANI PRINCESSES AT AIR RACES

Apparently unworried concerning their suits against their respective husbands—the Princes, Serge and David Mdivani—Mary McCormic, opera singer, and Mae Murray, film actress (left to right) are shown enjoying the national air races at Los Angeles. (Associated Press Photo)

Armor For Police

Since the machine-gun slaying of four peace officers near the union station in Kansas City, deputy sheriffs of Jackson county have been equipped with collapsible armor plate like that shown here. It was used in the capture of James "Fur" Sammons, held as a suspect in the June 17 slayings. (Associated Press Photo)

Heads Unemployed

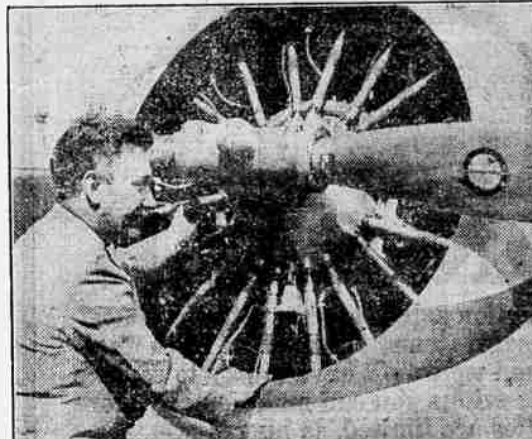

Anthony Ramulgia of Santa Barbara, Calif., was elected president of the National Unemployed league at its convention in Columbus, Ohio. (Associated Press Photo)

LOSE LIVES IN FARM FIRE

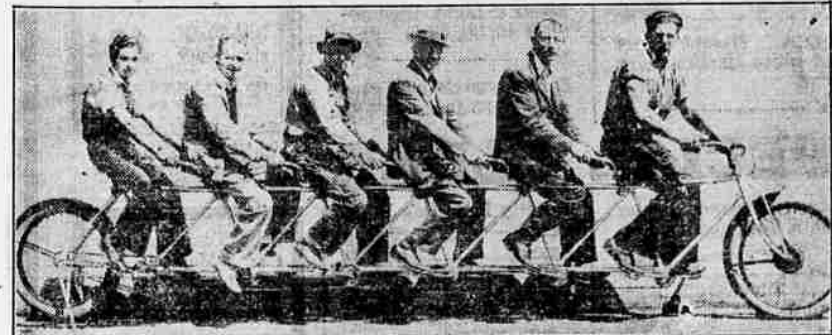

Gloria May, 6, and Jean, 7, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stone, who were burned to death in the same fire in which their parents lost their lives in a farmhouse near Tacoma, Wash. (Associated Press Photo)

PREPARING FOR WORLD FLIGHT

Wiley Post is shown looking over the motor of his plane the Winnie Mae at Floyd Bennett field, New York, where he will start his proposed flight around the world. He hopes to circle the globe alone faster than he did with Harold Gatty two years ago when they set the record of a little more than eight and a half days. (Associated Press Photo)

TANDEM BIKE FOR SIX BUILT OF AIRPLANE TUBING

Three times the size of the bicycle that inspired a popular song at the turn of the century, this six-passenger vehicle was built by father and son at Alameda, Cal., and has a wheel base of 16 feet, five inches. F. D. Amaral and Edward Amaral (on the first two seats) built it of airplane tubing. (Associated Press Photo)

Mellon Kin Accused

W. L. Mellon (above), of Pittsburgh, nephew of Andrew Mellon, was charged in two suits, filed in Pittsburgh, with evading payment of $2,000,000 income taxes. (Associated Press Photo)

WHITE HOUSE DOG HAS OPERATION

Major, White House police dog whose quick temper and sharp teeth have put him in the news, looks more or less subdued after an operation by Dr. F. M. Weedon, veterinarian, to remove cysts from the dog's back. (Associated Press Photo)