ELECTED PRESIDENT

Miss Billie Johnson, charming and pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Johnson, who has been elected president of the Silverton American Legion auxiliary.

Miss Billie Johnson Elected President Of Silverton Auxiliary

Silverton—Miss Billie Johnson was 17 years old May 29 and she has been elected president of the Silverton American Legion auxiliary. That no one is more deserving of the honor is conceded by the unified membership of the Silverton auxiliary as well as by her companions and acquaintances who are willing to testify as to her ability in leadership.

Miss Billie was born to be president. She was three years old when her soldier daddy saw her for the first time. Her mother was Edna L. Patterson and lived at the home of Billie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson in Portland where Billie was born during the World War months.

At the age of five she was made a charter member of the Silverton Auxiliary, which Mrs. Johnson, her mother, helped to organize in 1921, serving two years as president, and has been head of numerous executive committees since, as well as being active in all advances of the group. Billie owns as a gift from her father, a beautiful book set of war story volumes prefaced with a copy of "Source records of the Great War" is registered in the name of Blanch Edna (Billie's real name) Johnson, to who it was presented by her mother and father, Edna L. Johnson and Charles J. Johnson.

Her father served through the World War, 18 months overseas, in the motor transport corps. He has a citation for service of senior grade for special service. Johnson is past commander of the Silverton Delbert Reeves Post No. 7, and was one of the active ones in securing the number among the first in organization in the state. This was in 1919. He served as national committeeman for two years and has been a state executive committeeman, the same as district commander for two years. As a civic promoter Mr. Johnson was chairman of the Silverton chamber of commerce one year.

Miss Johnson served in official capacity in the auxiliary as chaplain in 1931, and as secretary in 1932-33. She was delegate to the state convention in Portland last week and hosts at the National convention to the Louisiana delegation. She is now serving as sergeant at arms of Marion county council of the Auxiliary.

The Johnsons have lived in Silverton since Billie was four years old the year previous, in Woodburn. As a conducting hint, Miss Johnson's name is O'Shane by right of inheritance. Her paternal grandfather's family were fresh from Londonderry, Ireland, and felt that Johnson was more in keeping with the names of the people among whom they settled in America, so discarded the O'Shane for the more plebeian Johnson.

Silverton is wondering if any auxiliary chairman is younger in years than its own.

Mrs. George Beechler, (Vira Bardwell), whose marriage was recently announced, was complimented with a surprise affair at her home in Woodburn Thursday afternoon when a group of Portland and Salem Kappa Alpha Theta sister called. The honor guest was feted with a post-nuptial shower and tea was served informally. Miss Esther Wood motored down from Salem for the event.

Mrs. Henry W. Meyers has as her guest Mrs. Frank Jordan of Seattle. Several delightfully informal affairs are being planned in compliment to the popular visitor.

Mrs. W. G. Franklin is entertaining as her house-guest Mrs. M. J. Coon of Cuba, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Thompson and family are spending their vacation at Neskevin.

Miss Virginia Holt and Miss Peggy Goodfellow are spending the week-end in Portland as the guests of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. George Elmer Emigh, Jr., have gone to Portland to spend the remainder of the summer. They have taken apartments at the Blackstone.

Miss Nadine Bohlander of Portland was the house guest of Miss Cora Talkington recently. Miss Bohlander will sail on August 6 for an extended trip around the world.

Mrs. Edwin Viecko has had as her guest during the past week, Ben Baker of Santa Ana, Calif.

Mrs. Frank Decebach, Jr., entertained 15 of Salem's very young set Wednesday afternoon in compliment to the fifth birthday anniversary of her son, Frank III. Mrs. Frank Chapman and Mrs. Donald A. Young assisted during the afternoon.

Captain and Mrs. Robert Mills, Mrs. Addie Mills and Miss Yvonne Smith will sail from Portland on the S. S. Admiral People's Tuesday night for Los Angeles. They will be in the south several weeks, returning to Salem by motor.

Miss Helen Thompson is leaving for the east during the coming week for an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Fred E. Tiffany, accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Margaret Ann Bligh, and Miss Betty Lou Burdette, will spend the coming week at Agate beach.

Mrs. Percy R. Kelly Fetes Past Matrons At Smart Luncheon

An outstanding social event of the week was the smart 1 o'clock luncheon given Saturday afternoon in the formal gardens of the home of Judge and Mrs. Percy R. Kelly on State street when Mrs. Kelly entertained the Past Matrons' association, Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Ida Niles presided at the long lace covered serving table, which was centered with a striking bowl of mid-summer flowers in the delicate pastel shades. Mrs. Guy Levelling of Albany and Miss Dorothy Cornelius assisted Mrs. Kelly in receiving the guests and in the serving.

Additional guests for the affair were twelve Albany matrons, members of the Albany Past Matrons association. An informal program and playlet was given for the pleasure of the guests during the afternoon.

Members of the Salem Past Matrons association are Mrs. Ida Niles, Mrs. Lena Cherrington, Mrs. Alice Coolidge, Mrs. Ida Babcock, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. Cordell Cupper, Mrs. Marion Derby, Mrs. Jessie Darby, Mrs. Jennie Gillette, Mrs. Jessie Pollis, Mrs. Hazel Elmette, Mrs. Ida B.
