IDEAL WEATHER FOR Y CAMPERS

Judging by the contents of a letter received here today from Douglas McKay, Jr., and Hume Downs, the 48 boys who are taking part in the annual Y. M. C. A. outing at Camp Oceanside are having the times of their lives. The communication follows:

"Camp Oceanside, Oceanside, Ore., July 27—At Camp Oceanside we are having lots of fun. Yesterday we formed classes in handicraft and nature study. Fred Blatchford and Mr. DuBois are the teachers of handicraft and nature study. In the handicraft class the boys made whistles. Bill Shinn had quite a time making a whistle, after breaking eight whistles he succeeded in making one. Mr. DuBois' nature study class took a hike around camp identifying flowers and plants. After classes we took a swim in the ocean. Swimming gives us a good appetite for some of Pop Crady's good food.

"Squad No. 1 won the inspection yesterday so they had the honor of getting the flag for the first day. Corporal Jones is the leader of squad 1. His campers are John and Bill Laughlin, Howard Sheon, Croydon Blodgett, George Alexander and Bob Ewing.

"Fred Remington was late bringing the bread in to dinner yesterday as the cops stopped him while in Tillamook. They thought he had stolen a car. Adams went to the rescue going into Oceanside for bread.

"Squad 4 had pretty good tables manners last night but George Gudkunst forgot to wear a shirt to dinner so they lost. Squad 3 has a hard time at the table as Jack Nelson is always spilling something. Wally Steel is a close second.

"Mac" McCallum taught us some dandy songs last night and we will sing them while hiking today. He said they were the songs they used to sing while marching over in France.

"Bill Schon is the best Paul Bunton story teller in camp. Dave Compton has a big bunch of Goog-e-nheimer listeners. Elmo, Don Rice, Jack Hayes, Bob King, Everett Price, Pete Mead and Bob Van Orsdel. Floyd Sanford 'Primo' says he thinks it is a bunch of hooey.

Bill Laughlin tries to imitate Austin Wilson's stutter while bugling and oh boy!

"We are having a great time and are having perfect weather—not a cloud in the sky. Everybody slept like a log last night. We take a hike to the lighthouse this afternoon.

"Your correspondents, Doug. McKay and Hume Downs."

MID-WILLAMETTE CLUBS IN PLAY-OFF

The first game in the play-off series between the four sections of the Mid-Willamette ball league will be played at Stayton Sunday afternoon. Stayton, winner of the south Marion division, and Sweet Home, Linn county champs, will play the initial game in the double elimination series. Sweet Home is considered as having a slight edge over Stayton. Pete Schmidt will pitch for Sweet Home and Jake Meyers for Stayton. Lyle Bigbee, ex-Pittsburgh player, is in the outfield for the Linn county title holders.

The issue in north Marion has not been decided, although Mt. Angel is out in front. Aurora and Hubbard, tied for second place, will meet Mt. Angel before the season is over with the possibility of a three way tie. The Elks, Yamhill county champs, will probably remain idle until Sweet Home and Stayton have settled their little affair.
