Egg So Big It Makes

Leghorn Hen Sick
 Flemington, N. J., July 28 (AP)—A White Leghorn hen owned by W. P. Forner laid an egg with an outer shell and one in an egg within the egg. The egg weighed eight ounces.
 But the task of producing an egg of this size was too much for the hen and she was sick three days. Forner reports she is now on the way to recovery.
 The entire acreage planted in the county this year is estimated more than 10,000.

Record Spud Crop

In Klamath County
 Klamath Falls, Ore., July 28 (AP)—The greatest crop of spuds in Klamath county history is predicted by C. A. Henderson, county agent, and G. R. Hyslop, chief of the farm crop department of the state agricultural college, who completed the first field inspection this week of 694 acres entered for certification.
 The entire acreage planted in the county this year is estimated more than 10,000.
