Golden Wedding Celebrated

In celebration of their golden wedding anniversary, relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kleen, met at the old family home for a big reunion Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Kleen were married at Humboldt, Nebraska, on August 8th, 1883. Eleven of their twelve sons and daughters attended the anniversary party. One son lives in Nebraska and it was impossible for him to be present.

Besides the members of the family, large groups of friends who were neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Kleen years ago in Nebraska were present. A very significant part of the program, which followed a dinner served on the lawn, was an address given by Rev. J. C. Mueller, pastor of the German Methodist church at Newberg. He was pastor of the church years ago in Nebraska and told many instances about the Sunday school youngsters there, several of whom were present at the anniversary celebration.

Dr. Leech, pastor of the Pratum church gave a short talk. Raymond Carl of Salem and Miss Mueller of Newberg played piano solos, Mrs. Harvey Meyer gave a reading, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kleen sang two vocal duets.

Several beautiful gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Kleen. There were about eighty persons present.
