Stephen Mergler Weds Eastern Girl

Miss Wilma Colleen Riceamore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Riceamore of Pontiac, Mich., became the bride of Stephen Mergler, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Mergler of Seattle, Wash., in a simple ceremony read in the Knight Memorial church Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. W. C. Kantner, assisted by Rev. J. C. Mergler, father of the groom, read the impressive service.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her cousin, Donald C. Powell of Pontiac, Mich., wore a gown of powder blue crepe, with a smart jacket of self-same material. Her turban was blue and her only ornament was a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom. Her flowers were butterfly roses.

Miss Marian Perkins of Plymouth, Mich., was bridesmaid. She wore a modish pink dotted net over cream satin and a matching turban. Her flowers were asters, snapdragons and baby breath.

Raymond Yarnes acted as best man. William Mott served as usher. Donald Allison played the wedding marches.

Mrs. Mergler was educated in the east. Mr. Mergler attended Willamette university and is a member of the Oregon Statesman news staff. After August 17 Mr. and Mrs. Mergler will be at home at 570 North Winter street.

McClain Shatters Hundred Blue Rocks

Taking a look at the thermometer Capt. W. H. McClain became imbued with the spirit of Old Sol Sunday morning and proceeded to break 100 straight during a practice round at the Salem Trophoblasts club. Clarence Bowne was almost as "hot" for he shattered 121 out of a possible 125. Other scores reported were: McKee 94 x 100, Townsend 64 x 75, Wain 87 x 100 and Bayer 91 x 125.

ANN HARDING STARRED WITH MONTGOMERY

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's cinema version of "When Ladies Meet," one of Broadway's biggest hits of the current season, is the present attraction at the Elsinore theater. Ann Harding and Robert Montgomery have the co-starring roles and the other principals are Myrna Loy, Alice Brady who makes her first talkie appearance in this picture following her recent stage triumphs in "Mademoiselle" and "Morning Becomes Electric," Frank Morgan who contributed a memorable portrayal to "Reunion in Vienna," Martin Burton and Luis Albernaz. Both Miss Harding and Miss Loy recently scored in "The Animal Kingdom" while Montgomery's latest hit was the submarine drama, "Hell Below."

"The thesis of "When Ladies Meet" is based on the conclusions of what would happen when a wife of a philandering husband meets the woman on whom this husband is now lavishing his attentions. The plot achieves its originality on the fact that its situations are so ingeniously arranged that neither of the rival women is aware of the others' identity. They are unexpectedly brought together at the home of a friend and before long take each other into mutual confidence. When each subsequently discovers who the other is, the sparks begin to fly.

Laurel and Hardy will also appear in their latest comedy, "Me and My Pal."

GAY ROMANCE HEADLINER AT GRAND THEATER

"It's Great to Be Alive" the new musical production from Fox started a four day engagement at the Grand theater Sunday. It is reported as a rollicking romance, with the most unusual of plots ever to be unfolded on the screen.

The story revolves about the possibility of aid the men of the world being removed—except for one who at the moment, is a castaway on a desert island. The millions of women all over the globe, realizing that here is an alarming situation, set about to rectify it. What actually occurs is said to be the basis for more hilarity than has been seen in many a month.

Raul Roulien, star of the South American stage and screen, makes his debut as a full fledged Hollywood star although he will be remembered as the romantic traveler who played opposite Janet Gaynor in the picture "Delicious."

The supporting cast includes such comedians as Edna May Oliver, Herbert Mundin, Joan Marsh and Gloria Stuart; not to mention 100 of Hollywood's most beautiful girls.

HERE'S the new line-up at Frank Doolittle's Master Service Station:

Every man in this picture is working shorter hours—at the same pay—new names are added to our payroll—new faces greet you on our service courts—because we're increasing employment to increase buying power.

That's our bit in the great program to bring back good times by prompt cooperation with the blanket code of the National Recovery Administration.

And the tires we sell are built in Good-year factories—where every man and woman on the payroll is working under the same patriotic code.

It's up to all of us to shoulder our share—and we pledge our full support to the government's great program.

At the same time, we're glad to announce that most Goodyear Tires today are still priced below the level of last fall.
