Mrs. Lloyd Thomas Entertains Club

Mrs. Lloyd Thomas entertained the Knot-A-Care club and several special guests with a picnic at Hazel Green Thursday afternoon.

Swimming and games were enjoyed during the afternoon.

Those present were Mrs. George Gardner and children, Miss Dorothy Thomas, Mrs. Carroll Smith, Mrs. Albert Fabry, Mrs. Wald Canoy and daughter, Margaret, Mrs. Elton Birch and son, Burrell, Mrs. William Thomas and daughter, Joan, Mrs. Delbert Wilson and daughter, Shirley Jean, Mrs. Carroll Robinson, Mrs. Judson Bryson and the hostess, Mrs. Lloyd Thomas.

Additional guests in the evening were William Thomas, Delbert Wilson, George Gardner, Carroll Robinson, Elton Birch, Carroll Smith and Lloyd Thomas.

Mrs. W. W. Mason Gives Pretty Affair

Mill City—Mrs. W. W. Mason entertained at her home Thursday afternoon with two tables of bridge honoring Mrs. S. J. Purnell of South Bend, Ind., who is spending the summer here at the home of her sister, Mrs. O. H. Newman. Mrs. A. A. Holthouse held high score and Mrs. Frank J. Robinson.

Other guests were Mrs. Clarence Mason, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mrs. Mary Hendrickson, Mrs. Cecil Hase-man, Mrs. Robert Schroeder, Mrs. Robert Bradford and Mrs. Charles Gentry. Refreshments were served at the close of play.

The Rebekahs met for their regular business and social meeting Monday evening in the Odd Fellows hall with a good attendance of members and friends. About 60 members of the Salem Rebekahs and Odd Fellows lodges attended the picnic in Silverton park Sunday.

The committee of Hazel McElroy, Willie Warf and Jessie Beatty arranged a program as follows: Piano solo, Alena Bremmer; numbers by 20 of the pupils from the National Institute of Music and Arts, under the direction of P. E. O'Hara; singing act by Melburn Graber, Walter Einfeldt, with Lane and Bennett enacting trio.

At a late hour refreshments were served by the committee in the dining room of the Odd Fellows hall.

A group of boys returning from a week's stay at Neskonwim Sunday were Miss Edith Morehouse, Miss Louise Graner, Miss Margaret Bell, Miss Doris Drager, Miss Barbara Porter, Miss Dorothy Blaisdell and Miss Dorothy Dahlberg.

The annual picnic of Cascade, Linn, Independence and Marion post and auxiliaries of Veterans of the Foreign Wars will be held at the Dallas City park Sunday. At 1 o'clock a basket luncheon will be served and those attending are asked to bring their own table service.

Mrs. Anna Hodge will entertain members of the Past Noble Grands this evening at her residence, 1270 Chemeketa street.

Brooks—Mrs. Mattingly and daughter, Katie, of Los Angeles, accompanied by Mrs. Virgil Loomis and daughter, Delphine Loomis, motored to Black Rock where they visited Mrs. Mattingly's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Letterer and family. The Misses Mattie and Velma Letterer accompanied them home for a visit with relatives.

Brooks—Mr. and Mrs. James Rigg were hosts at dinner recently to the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Spinnell and children, Rosa, Frances and Donald all of Valla, California. Other guests were: Joe Tricole, Sam Paris, Tony Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rigg, Jack Ross and daughter, Carmella, Miss Lena Rigg of Salem, Frank and James Rigg, Jr.

Monmouth—Miss Casale Stump and Agnes Campbell were week-end guests in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Campbell and family.

Mrs. Stella Caldwell will be complimented with an informal tea at the Salem Heights school Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Caldwell, who is moving to Homerside in the near future, has been exceptionally active in the community and is a past president of the Salem Heights Woman's club.

Johnsons Return From Convention

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson and their daughter, Miss Billie Johnson, returned late Sunday afternoon from attending the state convention of the American Legion at Klamath Falls.

Miss Billie was the center of much attention as she has the distinction of being the youngest chief of an American Legion auxiliary among the organizations in the United States. She was the recipient of a large bouquet of red roses at the banquet given at the Willard hotel from the Portland representatives in respect of her birthplace.

Charles Johnson was appointed on the child welfare committee. Among the keepsake souvenirs brought home by the visitors were a cent piece, American Legion money made of pine wood, a pine wood program of the convention's events, and the delegates' identification badge, also made of pine wood. Further advertising their native products were the pelican canes and the place cards for the presidents' dinner made in the form of a pelican announcing the affair.

A clever ad for Klamath's netted gem potatoes was a tiny sack filled with candy imitation potatoes.

Mrs. Jessie I. Rains, Mrs. Helen Mulkey, Warren Mulkey and Miss Grace Rhodes returned late Sunday night from a motor tour along the Oregon beaches and the California coast to Crescent City. From Crescent City they went to the Oregon Caves and then on to Grater lake and Diamond lake. Another trip was made into northeastern California to Warren. The return trip was made through the central Oregon country via The Dalles-California highway in order to visit their cousin, Carl King, of Culver and their uncle, J. M. King, of Madras. The return was made Sunday via the Wapinitia highway.

The annual picnic of the Calvary Baptist church missionary society will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Kinley Adams on Garden road Friday. A pot-luck supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock and an informal program will follow.

Pioneers of Mehama will gather at Mehama park Sunday, August 27, for a picnic and informal afternoon. A sermon will be given at 11 o'clock with a basket dinner served at 12:30. All former residents of Mehama are asked to attend.

Silverton—Miss Jeannette Mount is at the Portland home of her sister, Mrs. Arthur England, for a week. Another sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Richards of Oakland, Calif., are at the England home for several days. The out-of-state visitors have been Silverton guests of Mrs. Lavina Mount for several days.

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Headley of Salem and Miss Inez Fry of Silverton are spending two weeks at Rockaway.

Blaine Hanks, Jr. Complimented

West Salem—Mrs. Blaine A. Hanks entertained a group of the very young set at her home Saturday for the pleasure of her son, Blaine, Jr., whose seventh birthday anniversary it was.

Outdoor games were enjoyed throughout the afternoon after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Hanks assisted by Miss Betty Bedford.

Included in those present were the honor guest, Blaine Thompson Hanks, Buster Griesler, John Goffrier, Robert Griesler, Arden Smith, Ray Stumbo, Jr., Margie, Frances, Helen Doris Priesen, Bethel and Miriam Smith, Roseann Hanks and Miss Betty Bedford.

Additional guests of the late afternoon were Miss Alice Goffrier, Miss Sadie Erickson and Miss Ruth Bedford.

Bonney Scott Has Gay Birthday Party

Woodburn—Miss Bonney Susan Scott, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Scott, Jr., entertained five of her friends Monday afternoon to celebrate her fifth birthday. Games and other amusements were enjoyed and refreshments were served by Scott on the lawn where a birthday cake with five lighted candles was the centerpiece of the serving table. Favors of toy balloons were distributed.

Those invited by Miss Bonney Susan were Virginia Olson, Joan Tweedle, Beverly Hughes, and Nancy Lou Berthelson.

Mrs. Josephine Parrish Stewart of Salem was complimented with a smartly arranged garden tea last Saturday afternoon when Mrs. William C. Knighton entertained at her home on Arlington Heights, Portland.

Louis Farnsworth, son of Captain and Mrs. L. D. Farnsworth, and Milton Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. West Taylor, will leave Friday for West Point, where they are cadets.

Monmouth—Mrs. F. R. Bowersox and daughter, Mrs. Robert Halvorson and grandson George, of Salem, are leaving Thursday on a motor trip to Fortuna, Calif., for an extended visit to the son and brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Bowersox and two daughters.

Falls City—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kellis and children of Copco, Calif., are spending a few days here visiting Mrs. Kellis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cloan and two brothers of Mr. Kellis, Levi and Raymond Kellis, and their families, besides a number of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Kellis attended the homecoming of old school friends, both being graduates of the local high school.

Falls City—Mrs. Hugh Magee returned home Saturday from Oakland, Calif., where she visited her son Robert and family, and daughter Mrs. Gladys Nelson.

Falls City—Mrs. Leona Owilus of McMinnville and little niece, Betty Lou Gray of Rickreall, visited relatives and friends here from Friday until Monday. Mrs. Owilus lived in this community when a little girl and will be remembered as Leona Gray.

Monmouth—Dr. Lester Beck of Brown University, who spoke during chapel hour at the Oregon Normal school, and Mrs. Beck were entertained at luncheon Wednesday by Dr. and Mrs. V. V. Caldwell.
