Miss Scharbach Weds S. Smith

One of the most beautiful church ceremonies of late summer was the marriage of Miss Juliana Scharbach, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Scharbach, of Salem, to Sylvester J. N. Smith, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Smith of St. Paul, on Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

The wedding took place at St. Vincent de Paul church with Rev. Thomas V. Keenan, reading the service in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The church was decorated in gladiolus and ferns, with pink and white ribbon streamers.

Miss Motion played the wedding march and Bernard Smith sang during the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white flat crepe, tiptoe length, made along princess lines and with a jacket trimmed in ostrich plume. She wore a long tulle veil edged in lace and her mother's wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of roses and ferns.

Miss Clara Eder, maid of honor, was gowned in pink chiffon and wore a matching hat. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and fern. Sylvester Scharbach, brother of the bride, acted as best man for the groom.

A reception was held at the Scharbach home. A wedding dinner was served at noon, to only immediate relatives. Wedding cake was served as the center piece for the table. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Anna Nash, Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Freda Scharbach, and Miss Hazel Hendricks.

For traveling the bride chose a smart blue dress, gray coat and accessories of blue.

Following a short wedding trip south Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Salem.

Sunday Tea Fetes

Mrs. J. Thomas Lewis

Mrs. E. J. Tucker entertained with a Sunday afternoon tea in compliment to her daughter, Mrs. J. Thomas Lewis (Elsie Tucker) who with Rev. Lewis has spent the summer months in England.

Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Lewis received the guests informally. Assisting them were Miss Dorothy Tucker, Miss Bessie Tucker, and Miss Daisy Varley.

Mrs. Lewis was married in Casanova, Va., early this summer. She is well known in Salem circles, having attended local schools and Washington university. She resided in Portland, where she was Girl Reserve secretary, for several years prior to her marriage.

Schott-Porter

Nuptials Announced

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mabel Porter and R. O. Schott, which was solemnized Sunday, July 2, with Rev. H. C. Stover reading the service. Only immediate relatives were present.

Mrs. Schott is a graduate nurse and well known in Salem. Mr. Schott, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schott of Condon, is with the state tax commission.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a trip through California. They are now at home at 1657 State street.

Miss Florence Power returned Saturday evening on the S. S. Dorothy Alexander from a month's sojourn in California. While in the south Miss Power visited San Francisco, Los Angeles and went as far south as San Diego. In Los Angeles she heard her cousin, Harry Mills, noted organist, play at the console of the Barker Bros. organ.

In Oakland she was the houseguest of Mrs. H. K. Knox, who recently visited Miss Power in Salem. Miss Jean White accompanied Miss Power.

Mrs. Edward Sox of Salem entertained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Nels Anderson, in Portland last Wednesday in compliment to Miss Betty Robley, whose marriage to George Knutsen will be an event of next Friday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Sunnyside Methodist church. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon and play was followed by a kitchen shower.

Mrs. Monnie Hauser Inspects Chapters

Mrs. Monnie M. Hauser of Salem, grand worthy matron of Order of Eastern Star, paid an official visit to the North Bend chapter on Monday. This afternoon a school of instruction was held there and the regular lodge meeting will be held this evening. Mrs. Hauser will attend the Natal day celebration at Bandon on Thursday, when chapter members from all over that county will attend.

Little Miss Evelyn Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dunn is recuperating from a recent operation at the Salem General hospital.

Miss Margaret Arnold Bride Sunday

Miss Margaret Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Arnold of Vancouver, Wash., and Darrell F. Huson, son of Mrs. Ina M. Huson of Medford, were married at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening at a lovely ceremony at the home of the bride's brother, Byron D. Arnold of Corvallis, the Presbyterian minister of that city officiating.

The bride, who was unattended, was attired in Casanova crepe, off white in shade, and of long flowing lines with close fitting bodice. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet-peas, roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The wedding march was played by her brother, Mr. Arnold.

Following a week's honeymoon at the coast the couple will be at home in Medford where Miss Arnold is an instructor in the city schools and Mr. Huson in business. The bride is a graduate of Willamette university, where she was exceptionally active in musical circles and in campus affairs. She was affiliated with Beta Chi sorority.

Mrs. Martha Wolf Complimented

Hazel Green—Mr. and Mrs. David Peterson of Salem entertained recently with an attractive dinner honoring Mrs. Peterson's mother, Mrs. Martha Wolf, who has been a resident of this community for the past 50 years. The Wolfs came here from Indiana.

All of Mrs. Wolf's children and families were present with the exception of one son Bert, of Mayport. Covers were placed for the honor guest, Mrs. Wolf; Mrs. Jack Campbell of Rainier, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Wolf of Shaw, Mrs. Clement Wolf and daughter Geraldine, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKorkle and daughter Thelma, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson and son Junior, Mr. and Mrs. Will Wolf and son Kenneth and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. David Peterson.

Wm. B. Pittman To Wed Miss Van Cleave

An early fall wedding of interest to many friends in Salem is that of William B. Pittman, Jr., son of Mrs. L. W. Pittman of Eugene and Miss Eugenia Van Cleave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Van Cleave of Exeter, California, which will be held Saturday, September 2 in Exeter.

The ceremony will be performed at nine o'clock in the morning in the garden at the residence of the bride's parents.

Both Mr. Pittman and Miss Van Cleave are graduates of the University of Oregon. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority and he of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop will open her home on Court street Wednesday afternoon to members of the Berean Bible class of the First Presbyterian church. The meeting will be in the nature of a homecoming for old members and all Salem matrons and maids who are interested are invited to attend.

Governor and Mrs. Julius L. Meier entertained a group of 20 Salem friends at a buffet luncheon at their country place on the Columbia river highway Sunday. Following the luncheon hour the afternoon was spent in strolling about the extensive gardens and in swimming.

The Leslie Can-Dos will be entertained with a pot-luck supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bosell on Croisan creek Wednesday evening at 6:15 o'clock. All those attending are requested to bring their own sandwiches and table service.

Library Benefit At Silverton

Silverton—A library benefit bridge party is being arranged for Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Reynolds at 423 West Main street. Mrs. H. B. Latham, chairman of the library board, Mrs. G. B. Benson, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. C. R. Wilson will be hostesses for the affair which promises to be one of the loveliest late summer social functions of the season in Silverton. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Reynolds are representing their husbands who are members of the library board. Both Mrs. Latham and Mrs. Benson have served on the board for 19 years.

The members of the committee in charge met Friday evening to make definite arrangements and change the time from Wednesday afternoon as had been previously announced, to Tuesday afternoon, with playing to begin promptly at 2 o'clock. By way of assisting the hostesses, friends are asked to help make up tables, previously, so playing may begin on time, and the large number attending may be accommodated. Both contract and auction bridge will be played.

The Rebekahs will meet for their regular business meeting at 8 o'clock in the Odd Fellows hall on Monday evening. All visiting Rebekahs in the city are cordially invited to attend.

Mill City—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Olin and small daughter, Sally Ann, of Salem were guests at the F. R. Olin home Friday afternoon and evening.

Miss Beatrice Olin returned Sunday from a several week's stay in the Idaho mountains.

Interesting visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor R. Griggs on Friday were Miss Margaret Bogel and Miss Marian Bainbridge of Great Falls, Mont., who were enroute to their home after some time spent in Los Angeles.

The Salem Business and Professional Women's Card club will meet at the home of Mrs. Lillian Cadwell, 1196 South 14th street, on Friday evening.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Jason Lee church will meet Tuesday, August 29 at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Herman Clark, 1625 North Winter street. Mrs. D. O. Lear will present the lesson and Miss Ellen O'Brien will lead the devotion. Tea will be served and mite boxes will be opened in the late afternoon. All women of the community are urged to be present.

Woodburn—Mrs. Minnie Melvin of Woodburn and granddaughter, Doris May Abin of Salem returned Friday from Tacoma where they were guests for a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark.

Mt. Angel—The Knights of Columbus will hold their business meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the music room of St. Mary's school. Arrangements will be made for the coming initiation class. Eugene Hoffer will act as grand knight at the meeting, pro-term. Following the meeting a luncheon will be served by the refreshment committee which consists of Frank Hettwer, chairman, Peter Bigler, and Herman Schwab. A large number of members are expected to attend.

BISHOP CANCELS TALK

Hazel Green—This is a cancellation of a previous announcement that Bishop Ira D. Warner of Portland and Rev. and Mrs. B. Knipp, missionaries to Japan, would speak here September 3. The meeting has been cancelled and no definite announcement can be made as to when the speakers can be secured.

TEACHER COMPLETES SPECIAL STUDIES

Silverton—Mrs. Vida Bennett returned to her home in Silverton Friday from a several days' visit in Seattle with Miss Mary Lewis, who has completed a summer course in the University of Washington, where she is doing advanced work toward her Ph. D. degree. Miss Lewis and Mrs. Bennett drove to Portland from Seattle. Miss Lewis is a former teacher of the local schools and is now head of the department of German at the Oregon State college.

Mrs. Bennett made the trip north as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Beale and small son, Robert Niel, who visited in Seattle during the week with friends. Beale was also a former teacher here and is now instructor of German in the Riverside, Calif., junior college. The Beales plan to return to Silverton Tuesday to be luncheon guests of Mrs. Bennett, on their way to Riverside.

Among the social pleasures in honor of Mrs. Bennett during the week was a luncheon and theater party Thursday with Miss Ida Matson, instructor of art at O. S. C., as hostess.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. They are milder, richer in flavor. They never tire your taste or get on your nerves.

STEADY SMOKERS TURN TO CAMELS

A. M. WILKINS, air-mail ace, says: "It's a steady grind, all right, being a night hawk on the air mail. A man has to have healthy nerves to live up to our tradition that the mail must go through! That's why I smoke Camels. And I smoke plenty! Camels never ruffle or jangle my nerves, and I like their mild, rich flavor."

Steady smokers turn to Camels because the costlier tobaccos in Camels never tire the taste—never get on the nerves.

Your taste and your nerves will confirm this. Start smoking Camels today and prove it for yourself. It is more fun to know!
