

News OF THE Day IN Pictures

BESIEGED ARMY MEN DEFY NEW CUBAN REGIME

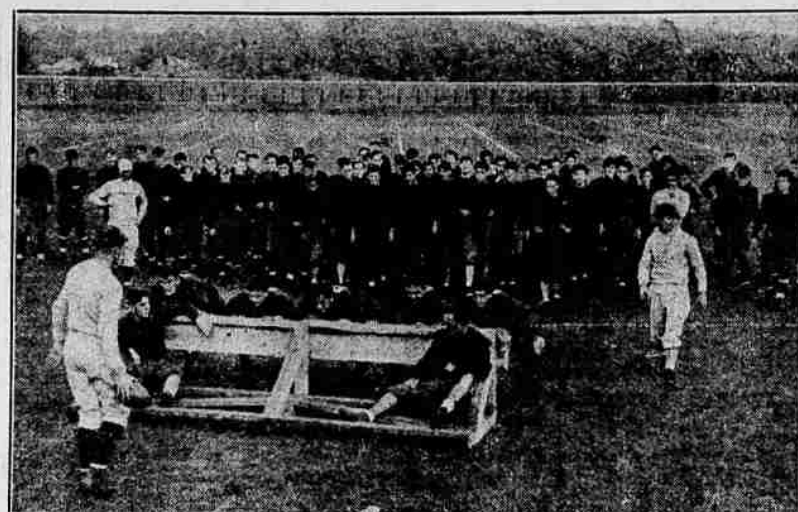

Some 500 officers of the Cuban army and navy were barricaded in a Havana hotel in defiance of the administration of President Ramon Grau San Martin. A few of the "strikers," as they called themselves, are shown doing kitchen police duty in the hotel kitchen. (Associated Press Photo)

VIOLETS' CAPTAIN AND COACH

A squad of 45 football hopefuls including 14 letter winners are drilling under Coach Howard Cann at New York university's training camp at Lake Sebago, N. Y. Cann (right) is shown with Harry "Spooks" Temple, speedy back who is captain of this year's Violet eleven. (Associated Press Photo)

STIFF DRILL STARTS GRID PRACTICE AT NOTRE DAME

Coach Hearty "Hunk" Anderson (in white uniform at right) began his third season as Notre Dame's football coach by putting varsity candidates through their paces in a stiff drill. (Associated Press Photo)

DEMPSEY AND WILLARD SHAKE

Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard, both former heavyweight boxing champions, shook hands for the first time since July 4, 1919, in Los Angeles. Dempsey knocked out Willard 14 years ago and they had not climbed into a ring together again until their meeting in Southern California. (Associated Press Photo)

Dances Though Deaf

Charlotte Lambertson, 16-year-old Hollywood girl who has been deaf from birth, scored a success in her recent debut as a featured dancer although she couldn't hear the music which accompanied her. She said she "felt" the rhythm. (Associated Press Photo)

LITTLE AND LIONS HE'S TRAINING

The largest squad in Columbia's football history reported to Coach Lou Little when he began shaping up the Lion machine for the fall campaign. He is shown (center) with Ed Brominski (left) and Capt. Cliff Montgomery, who will resume their duties in the backfield again this year. (Associated Press Photo)

Bigamy Charged

The Rev. Walter J. Bateman, 33-year-old evangelist, was arrested in Chicago on charges of bigamy preferred by his first wife, formerly Esther Zeller, of Toledo, O. It was alleged he married Louise Stumpf of Milwaukee, under the name of Robert Warwick, after deserting his first wife in 1930. (Associated Press Photo)

PAIR HELD IN BAILEY ESCAPE

Grover C. Beville (left, seated) and Tom Manion (right, seated) were held under bonds of $10,000 each in Dallas, Tex., in connection with the Labor day escape of Harvey Bailey, notorious desperado, from the Dallas county jail. Manion was the night jailer. Standing behind him are J. R. Wright (left), federal marshal, and Sheriff R. A. Schmid, who arrested the pair. (Associated Press Photo)

Sues For Balm

Joy McLaughlin, 22, (above) filed suit in Los Angeles for $500,000 against Don Lee, wealthy automobile dealer, whom she accused of breach of promise to marry. (Associated Press Photo)

MOLEY QUILTS TO BECOME EDITOR

Raymond Moley, assistant secretary of state and head of the President's "brain trust," has resigned to become editor of a new national magazine to be published by Vincent Astor. Both Astor and Moley denied that the resignation was the result of a disagreement in the state department. Above are Moley (left), Astor (center) and W. Averell Harriman, who will be associated with them in the publication. (Associated Press Photo)

Led Cuban Revolt

Sgt. Fulgencio Batista was the center of activity in the Cuban revolt. From his place as top sergeant in the Cuban army he took the title of "revolutionary chief of armed forces" in the uprising which caused the downfall of the de Céspedes government. (Associated Press Photo)

LINKED IN NEW MOVIE ROMANCE

Joe McCrea and Frances Dee, youthful film players, are seen to gather frequently in Hollywood, but deny they are engaged. (Associated Press Photo)

VAN ORMAN CHILDREN GREET DAD

When Ward T. Van Orman, James Gordon Bennett balloonist, returned to his home in Akron, O., after being lost a week in the Canadian wilderness, he was greeted by his three children—Ward George, who seems delighted with the knife his dad brought him, Edith, and little Jimmy. (Associated Press Photo)

JOHNSON IN 'BUY NOW' WARNING

Gen. Hugh Johnson, national recovery administrator, is shown at a Century of Progress in Chicago as he assured Labor day throngs that the NRA was making progress and urged them to "buy freely and begin at once—not as a patriotic duty, but as a prudent use of your money." (Associated Press Photo)

Topsy-Turvy Flier

The day after Mito G. Burcham (above), broke the record for inverted flight in an airplane, Lt. Tito Falconi of the Italian royal air force reclaimed it. His new record is two hours, eight minutes and 54 seconds—but Burcham said he would try to break that mark. (Associated Press Photo)

AROUND AMERICAS TO NEW YORK

Dana Lamb, 32, and his wife Virginia, 20, set out from Laguna Beach, Cal., for New York City by way of South America, skirting Cape Horn. The daring seafarers will depend on hunting and fishing for food. The canoe is 16 ft. long and the outfit weighs 600 pounds. Canvas and paddles will furnish the motive power. They expect the journey to take three years. (Associated Press Photo)

Kling in Comeback

Johnny Kling, one of baseball's all-time catching greats with the Chicago Cubs from 1901 to 1912, has "come back" as a magnate, having purchased a controlling interest in the Kansas City American Association club. (Associated Press Photo)

WEDELL SETS LAND PLANE RECORD

James R. Wedell of Patterson, La., is shown responding to cheers of throngs at the international air races in Chicago just after he had averaged 305.33 miles an hour for four trips over a three-kilometer straightaway to break Maj. James H. Doolittle's world record of 294.38 miles an hour, set in 1932. (Associated Press Photo)