

TEACHERS ARE NOW ORGANIZED FOR SILVERTON

Silverton—Miss Olivia DeGuire will serve the Silverton Teachers' association as president for the school year. At the first regular meeting of the organization in the Eugene Field building Tuesday evening officers were chosen and an informal talk on the plans of the association was given by Robert Goetz, superintendent of the local schools, which was followed by a round table discussion. The teachers will meet each first and third Tuesday evening of the month, with one session to be a brief business meeting and the other a social affair. Other officers elected were Guy W. DeLay, vice president, and Miss Dorothy Gelsler, secretary-treasurer.

The retiring president is Miss Blanche Hubbs who presided during the opening program and the election with Miss Ruth Elliott as secretary. Serving on the nominating committee, whose report was accepted unanimously, were Miss Ruth Lawrence, chairman, assisted by Miss E. Moore Neave and Warren E. Crabtree. Miss DeGuire was in charge of the professional portion of the entertainment at the invitation of Miss Hubbs.

Initial program numbers were a vocal solo by Miss Catherine Cuddy, accompanied by Miss Ruth Lawrence, and a reading by Miss Elaine Clower.

Herman Kramer and Warren E. Crabtree were appointed as a committee to investigate the warrant condition and to report on the question of scrip.

The principal object of the association, as brought out in the address of the evening by Mr. Goetz, is cultural, educational and social with emphasis placed on the social phase.

STUDENTS GREETED BY ACADEMY PARTY

Mr. Angel—True to its traditional practice, Mt. Angel Normal and academy formally welcomed new members of the student body by a party given in their honor in the academy auditorium.

A "pop" song by the high school opened the program.
