Other committees will be appointed at the next meeting, an all-day affair at the home of Mrs. George Lettier. A pot-luck lunch will be served at noon.

CLOVERDALE OFFERS TEACHER RECEPTION

Cloverdale—The Cloverdale district schoolhouse was filled to capacity for the teachers reception and well arranged program, honoring Mrs. Gayette Barnett, principal of the school, and Mrs. Carl W. Williams, assistant. The building was appropriately decorated for the autumn season with the following numbers presented: piano duo, Dorothy and Margaret Schiffer; recitation, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hennies; song by small Joyce Kunkle; recitation, Carl Schiffer; piano duo, Gertrude Cook and Mrs. Ivan Hadley; song by Frankie Hedger; introduction of the teachers by Ivan Hadley, chairman of the school board and response by Mrs. Barnett and Mrs. Williams. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

This is the first year in the history of the school that the two large schoolhouses have been used, also that two teachers were hired. As a special meeting this spring the Cloverdale, Summit Hill and Pleasant View districts voted unanimously for consolidation with the Cloverdale district school, resulting in an enrollment of over 30 pupils this fall. Buses are being driven by A. A. Dumbuck and William Schiffer furnishing transportation for the two other districts.

NEMO SEWING CLUB RESUMES MEETINGS

Hazel Green—The Nemo Sewing club resumed activities after being disbanded for the summer. The club was entertained at the home of the president, Mrs. Hilda Riggs, with Mrs. Riggs' mother, Mrs. Docinec La Rosa, assisting the hostess.

Following the social hour the president conducted a business meeting. Reports were given by the former secretary and treasurer. Dues were levied and plans discussed for the club season. The officers of the secretary and treasurer were combined and Mrs. Royd Hawley will serve in that capacity.

A two course dessert luncheon was served by the hostesses to Mrs. Edward Dunigan Sr., Mrs. Edward Dunigan Jr., Mrs. Royd Hawley, Mrs. Mildred Kittelson, Mrs. Celia Hassbacher, Mrs. Richard Tuve, Mrs. Walter Rutherford, Mrs. Maurice Dunigan, Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mrs. Perle Woods, Miss Nora Rutherford, and Mrs. Louis Wampler. NICKEL FROLIC HIT AT STAYTON

Stayton—The grade school spooky nickel frolic given Friday evening by the pupils went over in a big way. The school was decorated from top to bottom with spoons, gobblins, pumpkins, etc. There were fortune telling booths, beauty parlor, fashion show, picture gallery, a man with three eyes and many other entertainment features.

Every business house in town donated either merchandise of trade or some useful article. There was a show by a number of the pupils which was very good. A cowboy skit by Carl Kreitzer, Alvin Schmitt, Bobby Ingels, Edwin Haworth and Coby Shelton drew a lot of applause. The pantomime by the "pirates" with Mita Mae Humphreys as the girl pirate and Edward Mielke, Dale Hunt, Darrel Lewis, Glen Haworth, Durrel Jordan and Leonard Ticus was next on the program. Five girls sang and tap danced. This included Betty Korkus, Lorene Sander, Shirley Lamy, Marian Follis and Alice Davenport.

Bats were served and home-made candy was sold. Throwing balls at the nigger babies was a popular diversion. The 17 piece luncheon set was won by the school coach, Pat Bear. The wool robe went to Fred Berger and the quilt to Mrs. Burson.

The money raised on the spooky nickel carnival will be used to buy basketball and baseball supplies needed by the school. About $65 was cleared. There was a large attendance and plenty of noise and fun.

JEFFERSON SCHOOL CARNIVAL COMING

Jefferson—The date for the high school carnival has been set for November 3. A program is being prepared, two games of basketball will be played and there will be numerous booths in the basement. The pupils in Miss Bertha Dillon's room, the first and second grades, enjoyed a Halloween party Friday. The school room was attractively decorated for the occasion.

The county school superintendent, Mrs. Pulkerson, visited the school last Thursday.

Mrs. L. Looney will be vocal instructor in the high school. This week the sophomores have been busy initiating the freshmen. Owing to the greater number of freshmen the sophomores are having a strenuous time.

Church Presented Fine Oil Painting

Monmouth—An oil painting of the river Jordan, painted on the back wall of the baptistry, was presented to the Christian church Sunday by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Ekins. The painting is beautifully done in fall colors and shows the wide Jordan river flowing in the foreground, lined in the background with trees touched with the reds and golds of the fall season. In the middle distance the trees blend into the desert hills of the Palestine country and the blue of the desert sky, flecked with clouds completes the picture. Rev. Ekins is a painter of considerable ability and has made similar paintings for the baptistries of two other churches, including the Christian church of Eugene.

Sedan Overturned

Woodburn—The sedan belonging to Blaine McCord was considerably damaged Sunday afternoon when it overturned after skidding on the wet pavement at the Kauffman corner west of town. The accident happened as McCord endeavored to pass another car. He was accompanied by Elburn Sims but neither was injured.

Herd Wins Awards

MT. Angel—The eight entries of the Mt. Angel college dairy Holsteins in the Pacific International livestock exposition were given awards, including one first in the senior yearling bull class, and two seconds. L. J. Thomas, herdsman, is well pleased with the results as very little time was allowed for fitting the animals this year.

Doctors Give Creosote For Dangerous Coughs

For many years our best doctors have prescribed creosote in some form for coughs, colds and bronchitis, knowing how dangerous it is to let them hang on.

Creosolubion with creosote and six other highly important medicinal elements, quickly and effectively stops all coughs and colds that otherwise might lead to serious trouble.

Creosolubion is powerful in the treatment of all colds and coughs, yet it is absolutely harmless and is pleasant and easy to take.

Your own druggist guarantees Creosolubion by refunding your money if you are not relieved after taking Creosolubion as directed. Beware the cough or cold that hangs on. Always keep Creosolubion on hand for instant use.

BOOSTER NIGHT GREAT SUCCESS FOR SILVERTON

Silverton—With Mrs. Alta Haberly, lecturer of the Silverton Grange, mistress of ceremonies the program for booster night given Friday evening at the M.W.A. hall was a success with 200 present.

Roy Hewitt, attorney of Salem and member of the Salem Grange, was the principal speaker of the evening and stressed a number of economical measures in initial evidence that would benefit the farmer if carried out. He stated these needs positively with a clear outline of objectives and 14 ways to accomplish them set out in the platform of the People's Protective league.

Others appearing on the program were Theodore Hobart, master of the Silverton Grange, who gave the address of welcome and the closing expression of gratitude. W. A. Jones, Marion county district deputy, spoke on the need of cooperation and reviewed under the boosts of the grange rural delivery, rural credits, income tax, initiative and referendum and other accomplishments. Mrs. O. W. Humphries of Union Hill Grange told of the work of the home economics committee, of which she is the chairman for Marion county. She reported the newest economic club to be that of the Silverton Grange, which was one day old.

A. A. Geer, chairman of the county legislative committee, gave his audience an insight into the legislative doings of the state, and Ray Glatz of Woodburn spoke of the main feature resultant of the work of the Pomona agricultural committee, of which he is chairman, being the Valley Farmers Cooperative association in handling oil and gas. The concern is now in operation with a distribution station at Silverton at the Conrad retail corner with Kenneth Israelson in charge. Oscar Loe added an explanation of the venture, stating that they were no chislers nor price setters but 100 per cent cooperation. A tribute of closing to the educational program was the reading by Little Phyllis Jean Haberly.

Appearing in musical numbers were Fred Baker, in violin solos, accompanied by Elaine Clower; George Israelson, Euphonium solo accompanied by Mrs. Anna Powell. Israelson also led the community singing of several booster grange songs.

The new home economics club organized Thursday earned its first dollar by selling home made candy with the Pomona girls in charge of the sale. Supper was served by the home economics committee of the Silverton Grange, which includes Mrs. Henrietta Loe, Mrs. Emma Johnson and Mrs. Maude Meyers.

FIDDLING CONTEST HELD BY FIREMEN

Silverton—More than 300 tickets were sold and the balconies were filled with spectators at the second dance in a series sponsored by the volunteer fire department, Saturday night at the armory. The dance was strictly old time, with Otto Dahl as floor manager and Rudd Benson's seven piece orchestra furnishing the music.

The firemen furnished free cider and doughnuts to their guests, and staged an old fiddlers' contest. Prize winners in the contest were Jason Jones of Scotts Mills with F. J. Henson of Silverton voted a tie with Jones for first place. Other entries were Theodore Fisher with banjo accompaniment, Joe Humphreys, L. D. Bell of Portland, and B. McSweeney of Falls City. Mr. Henson, 78 years old, was the oldest contestant.
