

CORVALLIS HOPES TO BLOCK SALEM HIGH FRIDAY

TORSON SQUAD BETTER AFTER EARLY LOSSES

Corvallis high despite a 28 to 0 beating at the hands of Tillamook early in the season, is expected to give Coach Hollis Huntington's men a real test of strength when Salem clashes with the Benton county outfit on Bell field Friday afternoon of this week. Under the tutelage of Coach Torson the Spartans have made rapid strides in football knowledge and as a result feel confident of holding their heavy opponents in check.

In Edwards, right half, Corvallis has an excellent pass receiver. He holds a record of having missed but one toss all season. Patterson and Brown, fullback and left half-back are the chief ball carriers for Corvallis. They exhibited a lot of power against Albany although the squad was beaten by the Hub City boys 20 to 13 in their annual Armistice day mix.

There are no Joellings on the squad this year. Woody and Dick who played such an important part in the defeat of Salem two years ago, having graduated into the ranks of Oregon State college.

The line which will probably face Salem will include Floyd and Flint ends, Abraham and Martin tackles, Kelsler and Webb guards and Lane center.

Coach Torson with his entire squad was on the sidelines last Friday night and witnessed Salem's defeat of Tillamook. They were busy with pencil and taking notes and no doubt will devote their time during the balance of the week devising ways and means of stopping Nicholson, Wintermute, Salstrom & Co.

Brains And Boot Of Cards

Assistant Coach Ernie Nevers (left) and Coach Tiny Thornhill of Stanford are seen working out some very deep strategy to spring on California next Saturday. The large fellow above is Bill Corbus, veteran guard, whose two field goals and extra point beat the Trojans.

SHRINE GROUP SEEKING BEST DRAWING CARD

The team which is considered the best attraction and which will bring the greatest amount of revenue to the fund being raised for the Shrine hospital for crippled children, will likely set the bid to meet the Portland interscholastic champions in the metropolis Thanksgiving day. This was the consensus of opinion following a meeting held in Portland yesterday by the high school principals of that city. The choice was apparently narrowed down to three cities—Salem, Bend and Medford. The latter place, however, states it will probably decline the nomination if tendered.

Neither Medford nor Salem has completed its schedule, each team having one more game to play. In fact, apparently from a reliable source, received in Salem Monday indicated Coach Huntington's men were being looked upon with extreme favor by the powers that be and that a win over Corvallis Friday would apparently settle the matter.

Backers of the local high school point out that Salem has never been selected to meet the Portlanders, although on one or two occasions the squad was as strong as any in the state. Proximity to Portland is another point being urged by local fans.

Brundage Accepts 6th Term As President Of AAU; Economies Sought

Pittsburgh, Nov. 21 (AP)—The Amateur Athletic union, facing what may prove to be the most critical year of its history, today called on Avery Brundage of Chicago to remain as president for another term. He accepted.

Brundage had planned to retire after holding the post since 1928 but the action of the convention in voting to withhold its team from the 1936 Olympiad in Berlin and Germany removes its restrictions on Jewish athletes raised a contentious international question which he felt he should aid in solving. It will be his sixth successive year as head of the A.A.U., the longest tenure of office in the 45 year history of the organization. Final action on retention of the

JACKSON AND HEIBERT CLASH

Although peaveys and water faucets will be barred tonight at the armory when Logger Heibert and Bulldog Jackson clash in one of Matchmaker Herb Owen's grappling bouts, this fact will not prevent the pair from staging an exhibition of grand slams, log rolling and numerous other features calculated to entertain the most blasé follower of the game. Jackson, whose every move is calculated to enhance public interest in the mat game, is an excellent showman. He is capable of dealing out plenty of punishment as well as being able to take it.

Robbin Reed, after an absence of several weeks, will return to the local arena tonight. The former champion has not been idle since his last appearance here, having met several men from Owen's stable in Portland and elsewhere. He is reported as being in good condition. Reed will swap holds with Dorry Deiton.

In recognition of Don Suga's progress in the wrestling game, Matchmaker Owen has arranged for the local Japanese to try his football tactics on a stronger opponent. Squeak Clevinger is the man who will try to avoid Suga's son-nemblers.

TROJANS OFF FOR RAMBLER GRIDIRON

Los Angeles, Nov. 21 (AP)—The University of Southern California football team, headed by Coach Howard Jones and numbering 34 players, was to leave tonight for South Bend, Ind., where the Trojans will seek their third consecutive victory over Notre Dame on Saturday. Nestucca Union Hi Defeats Sheridan

Sheridan—Sheridan high school closed its 1935 football season with a game on the local gridiron Friday afternoon which resulted in a win for the powerful team representing Nestucca union high school of Clatskanie. The field was in fine condition and the score stood 13 to 6. In the first quarter Sheridan made the only touchdown for the locals in the hands of Charles Hillway. The second quarter saw the visitors net a touchdown and a second was made during the third quarter. Sheridan fought to a man and displayed fine work as did the locals.

Sheridan high greatly regretted that it did play its last game minus the services of Captain Hal Brown, one of its most dependable players, who was taken to the hospital for an operation on Tuesday. Coach Heimbach shifted John Hamstreet from center to right tackle to take Hankle's duties.

Sheridan's record is as follows: Sheridan 9, Forest Grove "T" 0; Sheridan 20, Dallas "T" 0; Sheridan 0, Independence 18; Sheridan 14, Dayton 0; Sheridan 6, Nestucca union high 13.

Turkey Shoot Plan Of American Legion

Dallas—An annual event, which always brings out a good crowd, is movement on the part of local backers of the squad until the season's schedule has been completed. Assuredly the Portland authorities should be informed that Salem wants to be considered. However the immediate objective is defeating Corvallis next Friday afternoon—a task that will be difficult despite the record of the two squads during the season to the contrary. One can just hear Coach "Mush" Torson telling his players in the dressing room around about 1:30 Friday afternoon: "There are those birds from Salem; they think they are good, being considered for a state championship game in Portland. Go out there and make them look like a bunch of spavined work horses."

Donald Beaten by Gladstone, 20 to 6

Donald—A fighting Donald football team went to Gladstone Friday only to be defeated by that aggregation 20-6. Gladstone took advantage of Donald fumbles in the first half to score two touchdowns and lead at the half, 14-0. The inexperienced Donald boys came right back in the second half to battle on even terms with vicious drives and a defense that surprised the home town. Gladstone's speed merchants won by running clear around the Donald defense.

Donald claims the state football championship for two room schools, and any team contesting this claim is requested to write Ben Heinz, Donald, Ore. Losing to Gladstone did not effect Donald's championship claims as Gladstone is an 8-room school.

The public is welcome to both parties.

The program was sponsored by the business men and the different departments of the church. Portland, Nov. 21 (AP)—Coming back after losing the first fall, Otis Clingman of Oklahoma City took the next two to win the main event on last night's wrestling card here from Bulldog Jackson of Klamath Falls. Clingman weighed 160 and Jackson, 161.

Jackson clamped on a hammerlock to take the first fall in six minutes. The Oklahoma evened the count three minutes later with a body slam, and in six more minutes won the deciding fall with a rolling key arm scissors.

Robin Reed, 157, Reedsport, defeated Hugh Adams, 161, Portland, two falls out of three, in the semi-windup. Jack Stewart, 147, Seattle, defeated Jess McCann, 150, Portland, taking one fall.

White. Mr. White acted as toastmaster and each boy responded when called upon, using the subject assigned him on his program in the footballs used as favors and place cards. This part of the evening was outstanding in enjoyment subjects ranging from "For the sake of the team" to "Kicks."

The committee in charge was Alvina Pelzer, Victoria Fuqua and Frank Huntley, assisted by the other members of the Torch society. A short program of entertainment was given by the members, consisting of a song, "The Sweet Refrain," by Alvina Pelzer and a tap dance by Arlene Barber.

ARMY EXPECTED TO BEAT NAVY

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Betting odds hover around 9 to 1 that the Cadets will stand before the Navy cheering section in the dusk at Franklin field in Philadelphia Saturday and sing the old West Point victory song, "Good Night, Navy; We're Going to Leave You Now."

Despite Navy's strong showing against Princeton's rugged football team last week and Army's unexpected difficulty with Penn Military, Jack Doyle, veteran Broadway betting commissioner, announced current odds today as: 1 to 10 against Navy, Army, and 9 to 1 against Navy.

Nevertheless, nearly 80,000 fans are expected to pack the Franklin field stadium, hoping for one of the hottest battles of the season on this 34th renewal of the traditional service rivalry.

Reports from Annapolis and West Point indicate both elevens will take the field at virtually full strength, and both primed for this second engagement under last year's three-season truce between the academies. Army is the heavy favorite because it is one of the three remain-

PORTLAND OPENS HOCKEY SEASON

Bobby Rowe, manager of the Portland club and who despite financial reverses in other seasons, is determined to make a success of the game, has collected a number of noted puck chasers. They have been scrimaging for a number of days. Edmonton, although beaten last night by the Seattle Seahawks, is made up of a crew of veterans. As a result the opening clash in Portland should be a classic.

Mehama—Merle and Willard Johnson left Sunday for "Big Meadows" above Detroit where they will work Raymond Branch has been there about a week.

Howard Maple, a member of the Willamette Valley Officials association whose services are much in demand as an arbiter of gridiron contests, takes exceptions to a statement printed in this column last week that there is any excessive "piling on" of the ball carrier. He states, and correctly so, that as long as the ball carrier is trying to make progress he is a proper victim for tackling. Nobody disputes that. It's after the ball carrier has hit the ground that the piling on occurs. It has happened during the present season and on one or two occasions right in front of one of the officials. We were not shooting at Maple or any particular official in the previous article. If any of them doubts the correctness of the criticism let them sit in the stands and watch a game or two. "I call them as I see them," declares Maple. An admirable way to officiate and one which will result in the minimum of trouble and criticism. We might rejoin that we write it as we see it, too.

While the records show Salem high has as much right to participate in the so-called championship game in Portland Thanksgiving day as any squad in the state, there should be no particular but movement on the part of local backers of the squad until the season's schedule has been completed. Assuredly the Portland authorities should be informed that Salem wants to be considered. However the immediate objective is defeating Corvallis next Friday afternoon—a task that will be difficult despite the record of the two squads during the season to the contrary. One can just hear Coach "Mush" Torson telling his players in the dressing room around about 1:30 Friday afternoon: "There are those birds from Salem; they think they are good, being considered for a state championship game in Portland. Go out there and make them look like a bunch of spavined work horses."

Reports from Medford state the Peapickers would probably decline any invitation for a Thanksgiving day clash in Portland. On the other hand they would invite either Bend or Salem to make a trip south on that day for a clash there. Medford is a red hot football town and such a game as proposed would certainly prove attractive. Medford has not been beaten this year and has Ashland remaining on its schedule. Medford beat Klamath Falls and the latter defeated Ashland. Whether the competition is as tough in southern Oregon as it is in the Willamette valley is doubtful.

Anyway the Webfoots don't need to abandon all hope. They were beaten by Troy 53 to 0 in 1931, 33 to 0 last year and 26 to 0 this season. If the margin of victory continues to decline by the same ratio, it won't be many years until Oregon should at least break even.
