DOOR FACTORY HAS RECEIVER

Action was taken to preserve the assets of the company and to improve the opportunity for continued operation of the plant during the winter. The company has large stocks of material on hand and enough orders to insure operation for 60 days, but it can not operate because it can not obtain the necessary credit for paying cost of operation and for liquidating pressing obligations.

The Albany Door company is captalized at $250,000, of which 2,142 shares at $100 each have been issued. It haa assets of $200,000 in plant, materials and so forth, against which there is a first-mortgage bond issue of $100,000, of which $98,500 have been issued. Quick assets are placed at $60,000.

She is invariably the victim of every passing fad, but when she brings home with her from Europe a mysterious young East Indian who calls himself Swami B'hami (Burton W. He is convinced that the Swami is planning to elope with Verona Weatherbee (Miss Thelma Stephens), the daughter of the family. To complicate matters still further a priceless old manuscript is stolen from Mr. Weatherbee's (T. P. Otto) collection by Special Policeman O'Reilly (Gilbert Oddie), who like the Royal Mounted "always gets his man," is on the job and suspicion soon centers on the Swami.
