

Capital City Society To Attend President's Ball Here January 30

On January 30 President Franklin D. Roosevelt celebrates his 52nd birthday. In the principal cities in the 48 states throughout the nation the president that night will be honored with brilliant formal balls. The proceeds will be given as a gift to the president to form an endowment for the Warm Springs Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, which is very close to his heart. Salem, Oregon's capital city, will join in honoring President Roosevelt and sponsor a formal ball at the armory that night with society of Salem, Eugene, Corvallis, Portland and other Willamette valley points planning to attend the brilliant affair.

T. A. Livesley has been appointed as chairman of the committee on arrangements, with Brigadier General Thomas E. Riley acting as vice-chairman. Mrs. Clifford Townsend will act as secretary and Henry V. Compton as treasurer.

The committee, which will meet for luncheon at the Marion hotel on Monday, includes E. M. Page, R. R. Boardman, Eric B. Butler, Mrs. Rowena Eyre, Miss Jessie Steele, Dr. B. F. Pound, Mrs. Clifford Mudd, Carl D. Gabrielson, Lt. Col. Clifton M. Irwin, Harry N. Crain, Mrs. H. G. Malson, Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Sheldon P. Sackett, Oscar D. Olson, Charles E. Wilson, Earl Fisher, Mrs. Winifred Herriek, J. T. Delaney, Wallace H. Bonesteel, Paul B. Wallace, A. A. Gueffroy, Charles Wiper and Dr. Labon Steeves.

Patrons and patronesses will be announced early in the week. Salem matrons have already started to plan dinner parties and buffet suppers to precede the event, which it is prophesied, will be the most outstanding event on the winter's social calendar.

Pinafore To Be Presented

Preparations are under way by the advanced chorus classes at Salem high school for presenting the well known comic opera "Pinafore" Friday evening, February 9.

This light opera is perhaps the most beloved of all the Gilbert and Sullivan compositions. The merry tunes of the sailors, the songs of Buttercup, Capt. Corcoran and Sir Joseph are known around the world. Written as a satire on the British navy, the familiar lines are today applicable to political situations and furnish a wealth of amusement and humor.

"Pinafore" has been given a number of times at Salem high school. The first presentation was in 1923 with Mary McCrone (Mrs. Ellis Hughes) and Gene Parmentier in the leading roles; Billie Cupper and Lawrence Alley sang the parts of Josephine and Ralph respectively in a later production. The last time "Pinafore" was sung, Bernice Rickman was the leading lady.

"Pinafore" has been chosen for the year 1934 because of its particular adaptation to immature voices and because a number of scores are already on hand. Two casts will be rehearsed. The selection of these will be announced the coming week.

Arts League History Reviewed

In order to acquaint the Salem public with the history of the Salem Arts League, a part of the January program will consist of a review of the beginnings of the league and what it has meant to the city. This review will be given by Mrs. Edna Daily, who was one of the members present in October, 1919, when the league was formally organized. The January meeting will be held next Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the Salem public library.

S. H. Van Trump, Marion county fruit inspector, who is deeply interested in philosophy, will give a review of Santana's new book, "Trends of Thought in Modern Philosophy," which the arts league recently presented to the library. The program will conclude with a travelogue.

A new section has recently been organized under the leadership of Mrs. S. B. Laughlin. This section is devoted to painting, and is one of the few sections that come under the commonly-accepted term "art." Among other sections that are grouped under the name of the "arts league" are the writers, history, photographic, creative theater, some of which are more active than others.

Sections are formed by groups of five or more persons interested in some special subject. If the special subject is an art such as writing or photography or the study of history, it will be approved by the league council. It is the desire of the Salem Arts League to acquaint the Salem public with the fact that sections can be formed at any time by interested groups in special subjects.

Mrs. Paul Wallace and Miss Mabel Robertson will motor to Portland Saturday afternoon to attend Katharine Cornell's presentation of "Candide" and "The Barretts of Wimpole Street."

Mrs. F. G. Franklin was among the Salem folk attending "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" at the Playhouse in Portland Thursday evening.
