TURNER BOY SCOUT TROOP HAS BENEFIT

Turner—A night of mystery in the realms of the unknown was staged Tuesday night in the high school auditorium by Prof. Carlton. The Flying Dutchman. The professor as it turned out was a rather decrepit old gentleman whose bag of tricks consisted of a repertoire of old-fashioned mysteries such as an assumed grandpappy in his day. A squawky phonograph furnished the music between entertaining numbers. The main attraction consisted of extracting various articles of ladies' wearing apparel out of a local business man's hat, to the delight of the youngsters present. The wizard lived up to his name of Dutchman while demonstrating spirit writing to a local youth purporting to be a message from his sweetheart, revealing on the hinged slate these spirit words: "She Do Love Me." The performance was put on here as a benefit for the Turner Boy Scout troop, netting them a fair sum for the treasury.

Divorces Wanted

Albany—Alpha Pritchard Bridgewater filed a suit for divorce in circuit court Friday against Dr. J. E. Bridgewater, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. The plaintiff is to have the custody of a minor son, according to an agreement between defendant and plaintiff. Laraine Tyler has also started action for divorce against Frank Tyler, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment as grounds for action. Partition of a 200 acre farm which the plaintiff asserts was bought with the accumulations of her husband and herself, is petitioned in the suit.

Thrown Off Buggy

Jefferson—J. W. Hutchinson of the Parish Gap district, received numerous cuts and bruises Friday when he was thrown from his buggy in a run-a-way, while driving to Jefferson. The horse became frightened at an approaching train at the railroad crossing near the West place.

DISCUSS BASKETBALL

ML Angel—The Catholic Order of Foresters had its regular meeting Wednesday evening in its club room. The capital subject at the meeting was the discussion of its basketball team. The local Foresters were defeated by the St. Paul high school team last week but will give them a return game here next Friday evening. A large number is expected to be in attendance.

STAYTON DEFEATED

Stayton—Stayton high school lost its first Marion county league basketball game to Mill City Friday night by a score of 26 to 34. Mill City's ability to control the tip-off most of the time contributed to Stayton's defeat. Crabtree scored high for Stayton with 9 points while Wallace led Mill City with 17 points. The Stayton second team defeated the Mill City second team by a score of 26 to 16.

CLUB REPRESENTED

Bethel—The community club was represented at the federation meeting at Riekey on Thursday night by the following members: Simpson Hamrick, Jr., president; Mrs. E. E. Matten, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schulz and Helen Schulz, Mr. and Mrs. James Lauderback and James Lauderback, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Carruthers.

School To Start Upon New Subjects

Jefferson—Miss Frances Pierce, E. B. Redmond, Harley Libby, Guy Aupperle and Mrs. Ethel Gulvin, committee on 4-H club work to be started in the grade and high school here held a meeting at the school house recently. Five projects, sewing, cooking, livestock, poultry and forestry will be started and should be well under way by next week. The courses will be under capable leaders, with an outline for each project sent out from the state college. The work will be done separate from regular school work.

SEWING CLUB BUSY ON QUILT ORDERS

Silverton Hills—Mrs. E. A. Beugl entertained members of the sewing club Thursday all day with a no-host luncheon at noon and work on a quilt and business session during the afternoon.

Four new members were taken into the club. Plans were completed to obtain bulbs, shrubbery and plants for the improvement of the community club grounds.

Mrs. Tachant is president and Mrs. Beugl is secretary. Mrs. Tachant will be social hostess at the February meeting. An extra session may be held previous to that time as a number of residents of the community want sewing done.

22 ARE WORKING MT. ANGEL PROJECTS

ML Angel—The C. W. A. workers in Mt. Angel now number 22, with Fred Haasing as foreman and Al Southard, timekeeper. The first crew of relief workers, 15 men in all, started on the local projects Friday morning. Their first work was to repair the city water mains on the west side of town between Sauvain's garage and the site of the old Marion hotel.

The relief administrators purchased from Bechtler's hardware store the necessary tools for the men to work. Much excitement was created last week when local residents learned that no relief work was to be had in the city. There is a probability of a much larger number of workers being added to the list in the near future.

Teachers Gather For Study Period

ML Angel—Members of the teachers' study club met at the home of Miss Grace Smith recently. Miss Geraldine Fry taught clay modeling during the evening. Luncheon was served at a late hour by Miss Smith. Club members present included Miss Pauline Sanfield, Miss Florence Walker, Miss Geraldine Fry, Miss Carol May, Miss Matilda Beyer, Miss Helen Keber, Miss Florence Dehler, and Miss Grace Smith. Mrs. Fry, mother of Miss Geraldine Fry, attended as a guest. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Pauline Sanfield.

HUBBARD ENTERTAIN

Victor Point—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hubbard entertained with an evening of cards in their home Thursday evening. Mrs. Charles Heater won high score honors. Supper was served at a late hour at small tables. There were 28 present besides the hosts.

DAVIS FAMILY MOVES

Lyons—The Lalen Davis family are moving from the Willis Brown house which has been recently sold, into the Harne Ransom house back of the store.

COOKING CLUB BOYS ACTIVE

Mill City—The boys in the boys' home economics class at Mill City high school are getting to be quite proficient cooks, having given three banquets this school year.

Their first attempt at cooking a dinner was at the Junior-Senior banquet in October. Last month they prepared a feed for Mill City and Estacada high school basketball teams, and last Monday night they planned and served a dinner to a group of high school students without any assistance from their instructor, Miss Elsie Crall. Their color scheme was green white, the long table in the home economics room being decorated with tall green candles and green and white place cards. Their menu was as follows:

Meat loaf, gravy; mashed potatoes, buttered corn; lime gelatin salad; biscuits, jelly, apple pie a la mode.

SINGERS OF SALEM TO GIVE SERVICES

West Salem—A group of singers of the young people's forum of the First Methodist church will assist in the Sunday evening service in the Ford Memorial church. The program numbers will include:

Anthems, forum occlude; tenor solo, Ronald Craven; contralto solo, Miss Hazel Shurt; anthem, male quartet, Ronald Craven, Arnold Taylor, Ronald Hewitt, R. D. Barton; address, Rev. K. K. Clark; baritone solo, R. D. Barton; tenor and soprano duet, Ronald Craven and Miss Ruth Bedford; soprano solo, Miss Eleanor Moore.

Miss Margaret Hogg and Miss Ruth Bedford will be the accompanists.

ANNUAL PIE FEED RITUAL FEATURE

Silverton—The F.F.A. boys held a pie feed in connection with the initiation of the green-hands to the degree of Future Farmers Thursday night. This is the second degree.

The green-hands were put through their initiation ceremonies by Blinkhorn of Lebanon and the F.F.A. officers. The boys raised to this degree were Maurice Benson, Harold Knies, Raymond Purree, Ronald Clifford, Grover Lichty, Erwin Niedemus, James Sanderson, Bill Dunigan and Ed Bilyeu.

During the business session plans were formulated for the parent and son banquet to be an event of Tuesday evening, February 20, and committee chairmen include Ernest Erickson, refreshments; Herbert Jones, program; Bill Dunigan, clean-up; Ed Bilyeu, decorations and Clyde Parsons, invitations.

Albany Fire Loss Highest In Years

Albany—Albany's fire loss in 1933 was $61,283.25, according to the annual report of Fire Chief Oliver Butts made to the city council this week. This loss, the highest in years, was largely the result of the Elks temple fire early last year, when a $53,000 loss was sustained. The valuation of all property at risk during the year was $1,655,430.

Home Econ Women Change Meetings

Stayton—The H. E. club of the Stayton grange held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon and a fine program and interesting session is reported. The women voted to change the meeting date to the second Wednesday to the first Tuesday of each month. Mrs. Anna Stayton was chairman of the program committee. It was as follows: Short play, "Christmas Gathering," Miss Susie Kearns, hostess; Mrs. Anna Stayton, visitor from a distance, and Mrs. Elizabeth Crabtree, Leta, the colored maid.

CHEMAWA GRANGE PROGRAM SUCCESS

Chemawa—The benefit program and dance given by the grange last Thursday night met all expectations with a very large crowd attending. The comedy playlet, "Waiting for the Hickville Trains," was presented by Misses Evelyn Beckner, Pearl Jones, Althea Panther, Mina Lee Beckner, Homer Zielski, Bruce Jones, Albert Harris, Boyd Panther and Alfred Lorraine. Anna Takayama gave a Japanese dance in native costume.

Numbers furnished by the chamber of commerce, under the direction of Miss Ruth Moore, were a song and dance number by Barbara Lee and Gloria McClintock, wee twins, accompanied by Mrs. McClintock; piano solo, Wilfred Hagedorn; Scotch song by Mr. Hutcheson accompanied by Mrs. Billie Herberst, and readings by Mrs. J. F. Welsler. Dancing completed the evening, and refreshments were sold. The committee in charge of the evening was composed of Mrs. Clara Girod, Miss Dorothy Ackman and Carroll Cummings.

The next regular meeting will be held January 25 with the Red Hills officers in the chairs.

REVIVALS CONTINUE THROUGH NEXT WEEK

Silverton—At the Sunday night service of the revival campaign in Silverton which is being conducted by W. R. Watson, converted bank-robber, at the Alliance tabernacle, the subject will be "The Miraculous escape of the cashier and stenographer from the vault in which they were placed at the time of the robbery" and "was Mrs. Watson the stenographer?" Evangelist Watson is extending a special invitation to bankers to this service, when he says he will give them a tip on how to protect themselves against bank robbers.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Watson's subject will be "The Signs of the Times." The revival will continue every night next week at 7:30 o'clock, and on Monday night the evangelist will speak on "The NRA in the light of Bible prophecy, and is the blue eagle the mark of the beast?"

Office Is Moved

Woodburn—Dr. E. S. Donnelly has moved his offices from the location over the First National bank, which he has occupied for ten years, to the rear end of the Pikan building. His new suite of offices opens on Garfield street and consists of a reception room, operating room, X-ray room and dark room, all on the first floor.

BOOKS GIVEN TO LIBRARY

Independence—A gift of 53 volumes of popular fiction was received by the Independence library from the estate of the late Mrs. Lyman Dawson.

A recent report of the librarian reveals a circulation of 15,392 books during the past year, an increase over 1929 of 7583 books. In that year the new library was erected. The library now has upon its shelves 3795 books; 128 were withdrawn during the year; 836 were borrowed from the state library, making a total for administration of 3831.

The library gets 20 periodicals, four of which are gifts and two newspapers, both gifts. Total number of borrowers was 930, representing 75 per cent of the population of the city. A large percentage of books read are fiction.

ANNUAL TEA PLANS DISCUSSED BY WCTU

Turner—The January meeting of the Turner W. C. T. U. was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. C. Gunning. The devotional service was in charge of Mrs. G. W. Farris, evangelistic superintendent. The business meeting mainly consisted of communications read by the president, Mrs. C. A. Bear. Plans were made and discussed for the annual Frances E. Willard Memorial tea in February at the home of Mrs. G. W. Farris. Appointive committees were named for the event by the president with Mrs. Susan Girardin chairman of the refreshments and Mrs. P. C. Gunning chairman of the program. This is a yearly social tea and the public is invited to attend. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. M. A. Hill. Those in attendance were Mrs. Earl C. Bear and children, Eunice and Billy, Mrs. L. M. Small, Mrs. A. B. Webb, Mrs. M. A. Hill, Mrs. Emma Gunning, Mrs. Fay Webb, Mrs. C. A. Bear, Mrs. G. W. Farris, Mrs. Hugh Webb and daughters, Donna Lee and Doris, Mrs. Susan Girardin and the hostess, Mrs. P. C. Gunning.

Classes Popular

Aumsville—Sixteen students were present at the schoolhouse Thursday afternoon to register in the OWA night school which is planned to be started here very soon. The majority of the students seek for commercial work. Mr. Mountain, assisted by Miss Mabel Kullander presided over the meeting. Many more pupils are expected to enroll soon.

Grange Club Will Entertain Pomona

Stayton—The Home Economics club met at the grange hall for the regular club meeting and to make final arrangements for the Pomona meeting to be held January 17. Mrs. Richards, chairman, being absent, Mrs. George Scott, vice-chairman, took charge. After the business session an enjoyable program was presented by the program committee. A playette, "A Christmas Gathering," was enjoyed. Each member responded to roll call by repeating the first poem she had spoken. There were 12 members and one visitor present.

QUILTING OCCUPIES WOMEN AT EWING'S

Brush College—Members of the Brush College Helpers cut and pieced on a quilt Thursday afternoon at the regular meeting of the club at the home of Mrs. A. R. Ewing. Mrs. Harry Bonney led devotional. ### Dairy Cooperative Association Meets

Lincoln—A number of men from this community went to Salem Tuesday night to attend the Dairy Cooperative association meeting held to discuss marketing of milk. Dairy-men here are wrought up over the manner in which the milk which they produce is being refused by the Salem and Portland markets although they have gone to considerable expense to comply with regulations and have met all conditions as specified. Their claim is that Salem cannot furnish an inspector to take care of the milk which has been shipped to Portland as surplus, although the dairymen have not asked that it be sent to Portland and feel that they have been made innocent victims of manipulation.

LEAVES FOR NEBRASKA

Mt. Angel—Frances Proemel, who has been visiting here for several weeks with friends and relatives, left Wednesday for her home in Columbus, Neb. She will travel by way of California and the southern route.

attended the public joint installation of Salem Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges this week. Those going were Mrs. Bernice Roberts, Mrs. Emma Riches, Mrs. Lucille McKinney and Miss Mabel Walker.
