

NORMAL HONOR ROLL CHOSEN; MANY ON LIST

Monmouth—The honor roll for the fall term of Oregon Normal is as follows:

Students carrying at least 15 hours receiving all A's and B's: Elizabeth Baker, A. Cuthbert, Edith LaVerne Barker, Eleanor M. Barth, Charles Bothwell, Robert E. Burrill, Laurel Busby, Winifred B. Enright, Dorothy Fox, Lola James, Orville Johnson, Georgia Jones, Katherine Jones, Edith Gloria Rickard, Marie Schulte, Carolyn Stanley, Carrie Reed Thomas, Margaret Wills.

First honor went to Katherine Jones who made 14 hours of A's and one hour of B, with a total of 50 grade points. Second honor went to Georgia Jones with 11 hours of A and six of B, a total of 42 grade points.

For the second honor roll of the fall term the following is a list of students who carried at least 14 hours and received at least 14 hours of A's and B's.

Tran L. Arneson, Mildred E. Austin, Jean C. Bally, Lillian Pearl Bellard, Doris P. Beckwith, Howard Branson, Grace M. Breck, Frank Edward Brown, Kreta Calavan, Helen E. Cannon, Dorothy M. Canler, Grace E. Condit, June A. Cooper, Grace Craig, Bertha Crowley, Kathleen Fitzpatrick, Marian Fluke, Thelma Frank, Bruce Graham, Ruth Louise Grebe, Laura M. Hall, Merle Harris, Verle Harris, Ida Margaret Hopkins, Mary Miller Johnston, Beverly Lane, Blanche Johnson, Helen Arlene Jones, Georgia M. Kayler, Mary Louise MacLean, Gilbert Mack, Mary Katherine MacLean, Ruth Ann McAllister, Jean Louise McLaughlin, Mabel Maxine Moore, Ralph Alfred Nelson, Velma L. Nelson, Valdeara A. Parrish, Charles E. Pace, Helen Madeline Riley, Lola G. Seely, Helen Irene Shivers, Evelyn Emma Smith, Hannah Smith, Helen E. Smith, Muriel R. Smith, Hattie F. Starnes, K. Vivian Strout, Wilmette Traubach, Louise L. Tuttle, Howard Tuttle and Herbert D. Van Zante.

PAST MATRONS CLUB HAS ITS ELECTION

Silverton—Mrs. George Hubbs was social hostess to her fellow members of the Past Matrons club of the O. E. S. at her home on Coolidge street Tuesday afternoon with election of officers the principal feature of the business session and the admission of a new member.

Officers for the coming year are Mrs. Mottie Custer, president; Mrs. Josephine Benzel, vice-president; and Mrs. Ethel Hubbs, secretary. Mrs. Jean Meyer was initiated as a junior past matron.

Others present were Mrs. Mercy Sylvester, Mrs. Anna Eyring, Mrs. Lottie Loomis, Mrs. Gladys Irish and Mrs. Mary Skille.

Three Card Tables at Donahue's Home

Saco—Three tables of members and friends of the "500" club were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. L. Donahue, the party closing with a two course luncheon at 5 o'clock. Mrs. F. A. Galleghy and Mrs. E. D. Myers received high scores. A double party is to be given at the home of Mrs. J. D. Deming, Jr., Friday night, January 20, with Mrs. J. L. Redvers, Mrs. Arch Ray and Mrs. C. L. Donahue as hostesses with Mrs. Deming. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock. The next regular afternoon party of the club is to be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Barst.

Dallas Sisterhood Officers Entertain

Dallas—The Sisterhood of the Dallas Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Jesse Zook Friday afternoon. The new officers will be installed at this meeting. These officers will be installed in office at the time of this meeting. The new officers are: Mrs. Dena M. Donald, president; Mrs. A. N. Newbill, Mrs. Frank Harris, Mrs. Virgil McPherson and Mrs. Clyde Gibbs. Mrs. Jesse Zook, the outgoing president will assist the hostesses at this meeting.

Wringer Hurts Lad

Stayton—Little Val Jean Johnson, grandson of George Wadler suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when his fingers caught in the wringer of the electric washer which was in operation, drawing his arm in to the elbow. A long time was spent in the arm which was treated by a physician.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Monmouth—Mrs. C. C. Mulkey is slowly recovering from a grave illness which has kept her confined to her room since the holidays. Her daughter, Mrs. Naomi Evans of Stayton, a graduate nurse, is here to care for her mother.

EDDIE CANTOR
ROMAN SCANDALS
GRAND

Past Matrons Will Entertain Hubbies

Gervais—The Gervais Past Matrons club met at the home of Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth Tuesday, with Mrs. Jennie Boster assisting hostess. A 1 o'clock luncheon was served by the hostesses. During the business meeting Mrs. Gust E. Smith was initiated into the club. Election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. Katie Sturge, president; Mrs. C. T. Bixby, vice president; Mrs. Mrs. Ella Harper, secretary. The club voted to give a dinner honoring their husbands and past patrons on their February meeting day.

RATIONS LOW; MONEY SOUGHT

Gates—The rationers are getting low for the soap fund for the pupils of the Gates school and the Gates Improvement club members who have been sponsoring the movement. The club members are getting low for the soap fund for the pupils of the Gates school and the Gates Improvement club members who have been sponsoring the movement.

MARION VOTES STANDARD CLUB

Marion—The community club met at the hall Tuesday evening with a full house attending. Eddie Ahrens of Turner, vice president of the community federation of community clubs, gave a talk explaining the standardization of community clubs. It was voted to become a standard club and Mrs. John Wilson, Carl Olson, Harley Libbey, Miss Black and Emil Schermacher were appointed on a committee to make arrangements.

Past Matrons Will Entertain Hubbies

Gervais—The Gervais Past Matrons club met at the home of Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth Tuesday, with Mrs. Jennie Boster assisting hostess. A 1 o'clock luncheon was served by the hostesses. During the business meeting Mrs. Gust E. Smith was initiated into the club. Election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. Katie Sturge, president; Mrs. C. T. Bixby, vice president; Mrs. Mrs. Ella Harper, secretary. The club voted to give a dinner honoring their husbands and past patrons on their February meeting day.

Junior Classmates Guest Schmidt Home

Turner—The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmidt was the scene of a party when their son Edward entertained his junior classmates of Turner high school. Games were participated in and refreshments served later in the evening by Mrs. Schmidt. Special guests were Miss Catherine Barker and Miss Annie Newburg of the faculty and junior class members attending were Ray Mickenham, Albert Jensen, Margaret Gilstrap, Sumner Clark, Emma Parr, Marian Barnes, Robert Laird, Ruth McCoy, Everett Hansen, Carlissa Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmidt and the host, Edward Schmidt.

Starretts Entertain

Aumville—A group of high school students were guests of Jim and Ruth Starrett. The first part of the evening they went to a show and from there back to the Starretts home where all joined in playing games. Refreshments were served to the Misses Angeline Fieber, Josephine Sunday, Antoinette Irish, Viola Bradley and the Messrs. Cletus Lebold, Alfred Ames, Sam Bradley, Mozart Tappin, Frances Lott, Mrs. Starrett and the hosts, Jim and Ruth Starrett.

Program Planned for Bible School

Dallas—The religious education committee of the Dallas Christian church met at the home of the pastor, Rev. K. E. Burke, Tuesday night to plan the program of the Bible school. Virgil McPherson, chairman of the committee, presided. Those present were Virgil McPherson, Mrs. Finley Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Newbill, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Curtis and Mrs. K. E. Burke.

Improving School

Orehead Heights—The Polk county group of administrative officers for the public works recently approved extensive improvements required for the Mountain View schoolhouse and grounds. James P. Smart is in charge of the improvements and it is estimated will require 30 days and his helpers include 11 men who will redecorate the interior of the building upstairs and down. The exterior of both schoolhouse and garage shed will also be painted and the grounds graded and improved.

Teachers Offered Talks at Sessions

Silverton—At the weekly session of the teachers of the schools Wednesday afternoon Herman Kramer, principal of the senior high school and F. J. Roubal, head of the junior high department addressed the grade and high school instructors in a review of the talk given at the principal's session held in Portland by Dr. Schuchter, state superintendent of public instruction of Washington. The grade teachers met each week Wednesday afternoon and the high school teachers Thursday with Superintendent Goetz instructor of books on education.

Program Planned for Bible School

Dallas—The religious education committee of the Dallas Christian church met at the home of the pastor, Rev. K. E. Burke, Tuesday night to plan the program of the Bible school. Virgil McPherson, chairman of the committee, presided. Those present were Virgil McPherson, Mrs. Finley Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Newbill, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Curtis and Mrs. K. E. Burke.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Wringer Hurts Lad

Stayton—Little Val Jean Johnson, grandson of George Wadler suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when his fingers caught in the wringer of the electric washer which was in operation, drawing his arm in to the elbow. A long time was spent in the arm which was treated by a physician.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Wringer Hurts Lad

Stayton—Little Val Jean Johnson, grandson of George Wadler suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when his fingers caught in the wringer of the electric washer which was in operation, drawing his arm in to the elbow. A long time was spent in the arm which was treated by a physician.

BIBLE DRAMA TO BE STAGED FOR SERVICES

Dallas—The story of the book of Ruth will be told in the drama, "Ruth," which will be presented at the Dallas Christian church Sunday night by the Bible drama club of the Court Street Christian church of Salem. The different scenes of the play will tell the story of the fidelity of Ruth, the hardships of Ruth and Naomi and the cleaning of Ruth in the fields and finally the meeting and marriage of Ruth and Boaz. The service will open with a song service which will be followed with the drama.

STAYTON P.T.A. KEEPS LUNCH PLAN MOVING

Stayton—The regular meeting of the Stayton Parent Teachers association was held in the high school auditorium Monday evening. A program was given before a good attendance. The regular business was taken care of by the president, Mrs. Mary Campbell. Prof. H. E. Tobie explained the C.W.S. plan. Three things are required to put it over, teachers, pupils and a meeting place. At least ten pupils must be in a class. Blanks have been distributed and the plan explained and it is up to the people of the community whether they wish to start this adult class work.

FARMERS UNION EXPECTS GUESTS

Marion—Guest night will be observed by members and invited friends of Marion Farmers' Union No. 27 Friday evening, G. W. Fouts, state president, will speak on "Farmers Union activities and highlights of his recent trip." A special program has been arranged by a committee headed by Mrs. Elmer Redmond. Each member of local 27 is requested to bring a cake for the refreshments as there is no regular refreshment committee for this meeting.

THIRD OF SERMON SERVICES CONTINUE

Dallas—Special features slated for the morning service at the Methodist church where Rev. G. W. Bruce is the minister include the third sermon of a series of four on "The Fundamentals of Christian Experience," an anthem by the choir and a vocal solo by Miss Mabel Teal. Sponsors for the evening service will be the male brotherhood and an earnest endeavor is being made to have 100 men and boys present for the occasion. Musical numbers will be furnished by the Bruderthaler quartet and the choir of the church. The main address is to be delivered by Arthur Berridge of Portland. Berridge, an attorney of the Rose city, is said to be a very capable speaker and has selected for his subject "The Golden Rule in All of Life For 1934." Thursday evening of this week the choir is sponsoring an Oregon products dinner in the social hall of the church at 6:30 p. m. and an invitation is extended to everybody to attend.

ADULT EDUCATION OFFERED IN POLK

Dallas—The civil works service project in education furnishes an opportunity for adults to improve their education. In Polk county are unemployed teachers who are prepared to teach subjects which many adults would like to study. If anyone is interested in studying any of the subjects listed below and is willing to meet at some central point and spend two hours each evening for three evenings during the week for a period of one month or more please notify Joseph Wills, county school superintendent. Reading for adults who wish to read in the English language: Home economics, cooking and sewing; horticulture, including nut growing; mechanical drawing and architecture; public speaking and English; applied electricity; poultry husbandry; farm management; dairy husbandry.

Program Planned for Bible School

Dallas—The religious education committee of the Dallas Christian church met at the home of the pastor, Rev. K. E. Burke, Tuesday night to plan the program of the Bible school. Virgil McPherson, chairman of the committee, presided. Those present were Virgil McPherson, Mrs. Finley Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Newbill, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Curtis and Mrs. K. E. Burke.

Improving School

Orehead Heights—The Polk county group of administrative officers for the public works recently approved extensive improvements required for the Mountain View schoolhouse and grounds. James P. Smart is in charge of the improvements and it is estimated will require 30 days and his helpers include 11 men who will redecorate the interior of the building upstairs and down. The exterior of both schoolhouse and garage shed will also be painted and the grounds graded and improved.

Teachers Offered Talks at Sessions

Silverton—At the weekly session of the teachers of the schools Wednesday afternoon Herman Kramer, principal of the senior high school and F. J. Roubal, head of the junior high department addressed the grade and high school instructors in a review of the talk given at the principal's session held in Portland by Dr. Schuchter, state superintendent of public instruction of Washington. The grade teachers met each week Wednesday afternoon and the high school teachers Thursday with Superintendent Goetz instructor of books on education.

Program Planned for Bible School

Dallas—The religious education committee of the Dallas Christian church met at the home of the pastor, Rev. K. E. Burke, Tuesday night to plan the program of the Bible school. Virgil McPherson, chairman of the committee, presided. Those present were Virgil McPherson, Mrs. Finley Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Newbill, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Curtis and Mrs. K. E. Burke.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Wringer Hurts Lad

Stayton—Little Val Jean Johnson, grandson of George Wadler suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when his fingers caught in the wringer of the electric washer which was in operation, drawing his arm in to the elbow. A long time was spent in the arm which was treated by a physician.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Wringer Hurts Lad

Stayton—Little Val Jean Johnson, grandson of George Wadler suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when his fingers caught in the wringer of the electric washer which was in operation, drawing his arm in to the elbow. A long time was spent in the arm which was treated by a physician.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Wringer Hurts Lad

Stayton—Little Val Jean Johnson, grandson of George Wadler suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when his fingers caught in the wringer of the electric washer which was in operation, drawing his arm in to the elbow. A long time was spent in the arm which was treated by a physician.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Catholic Daughters Guests Gervais Home

Gervais—Mrs. A. Delandin and Mrs. J. B. Fenschneider entertained the Catholic Daughters at the home of the former Monday evening. Five tables of "500" were played with high scores going to Mrs. Mary Hersberger and Dr. Appolly and the door prize went to John Glat. Refreshments were served after cards with a short business meeting following.

STAYTON P.T.A. KEEPS LUNCH PLAN MOVING

Stayton—The regular meeting of the Stayton Parent Teachers association was held in the high school auditorium Monday evening. A program was given before a good attendance. The regular business was taken care of by the president, Mrs. Mary Campbell. Prof. H. E. Tobie explained the C.W.S. plan. Three things are required to put it over, teachers, pupils and a meeting place. At least ten pupils must be in a class. Blanks have been distributed and the plan explained and it is up to the people of the community whether they wish to start this adult class work.

FARMERS UNION EXPECTS GUESTS

Marion—Guest night will be observed by members and invited friends of Marion Farmers' Union No. 27 Friday evening, G. W. Fouts, state president, will speak on "Farmers Union activities and highlights of his recent trip." A special program has been arranged by a committee headed by Mrs. Elmer Redmond. Each member of local 27 is requested to bring a cake for the refreshments as there is no regular refreshment committee for this meeting.

THIRD OF SERMON SERVICES CONTINUE

Dallas—Special features slated for the morning service at the Methodist church where Rev. G. W. Bruce is the minister include the third sermon of a series of four on "The Fundamentals of Christian Experience," an anthem by the choir and a vocal solo by Miss Mabel Teal. Sponsors for the evening service will be the male brotherhood and an earnest endeavor is being made to have 100 men and boys present for the occasion. Musical numbers will be furnished by the Bruderthaler quartet and the choir of the church. The main address is to be delivered by Arthur Berridge of Portland. Berridge, an attorney of the Rose city, is said to be a very capable speaker and has selected for his subject "The Golden Rule in All of Life For 1934." Thursday evening of this week the choir is sponsoring an Oregon products dinner in the social hall of the church at 6:30 p. m. and an invitation is extended to everybody to attend.

ADULT EDUCATION OFFERED IN POLK

Dallas—The civil works service project in education furnishes an opportunity for adults to improve their education. In Polk county are unemployed teachers who are prepared to teach subjects which many adults would like to study. If anyone is interested in studying any of the subjects listed below and is willing to meet at some central point and spend two hours each evening for three evenings during the week for a period of one month or more please notify Joseph Wills, county school superintendent. Reading for adults who wish to read in the English language: Home economics, cooking and sewing; horticulture, including nut growing; mechanical drawing and architecture; public speaking and English; applied electricity; poultry husbandry; farm management; dairy husbandry.

Program Planned for Bible School

Dallas—The religious education committee of the Dallas Christian church met at the home of the pastor, Rev. K. E. Burke, Tuesday night to plan the program of the Bible school. Virgil McPherson, chairman of the committee, presided. Those present were Virgil McPherson, Mrs. Finley Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Newbill, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Curtis and Mrs. K. E. Burke.

Improving School

Orehead Heights—The Polk county group of administrative officers for the public works recently approved extensive improvements required for the Mountain View schoolhouse and grounds. James P. Smart is in charge of the improvements and it is estimated will require 30 days and his helpers include 11 men who will redecorate the interior of the building upstairs and down. The exterior of both schoolhouse and garage shed will also be painted and the grounds graded and improved.

Teachers Offered Talks at Sessions

Silverton—At the weekly session of the teachers of the schools Wednesday afternoon Herman Kramer, principal of the senior high school and F. J. Roubal, head of the junior high department addressed the grade and high school instructors in a review of the talk given at the principal's session held in Portland by Dr. Schuchter, state superintendent of public instruction of Washington. The grade teachers met each week Wednesday afternoon and the high school teachers Thursday with Superintendent Goetz instructor of books on education.

Program Planned for Bible School

Dallas—The religious education committee of the Dallas Christian church met at the home of the pastor, Rev. K. E. Burke, Tuesday night to plan the program of the Bible school. Virgil McPherson, chairman of the committee, presided. Those present were Virgil McPherson, Mrs. Finley Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Newbill, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Curtis and Mrs. K. E. Burke.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Wringer Hurts Lad

Stayton—Little Val Jean Johnson, grandson of George Wadler suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when his fingers caught in the wringer of the electric washer which was in operation, drawing his arm in to the elbow. A long time was spent in the arm which was treated by a physician.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Wringer Hurts Lad

Stayton—Little Val Jean Johnson, grandson of George Wadler suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when his fingers caught in the wringer of the electric washer which was in operation, drawing his arm in to the elbow. A long time was spent in the arm which was treated by a physician.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Wringer Hurts Lad

Stayton—Little Val Jean Johnson, grandson of George Wadler suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when his fingers caught in the wringer of the electric washer which was in operation, drawing his arm in to the elbow. A long time was spent in the arm which was treated by a physician.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Wringer Hurts Lad

Stayton—Little Val Jean Johnson, grandson of George Wadler suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when his fingers caught in the wringer of the electric washer which was in operation, drawing his arm in to the elbow. A long time was spent in the arm which was treated by a physician.

TWENTY CLUBS MAKE REPORTS TO POLK HEAD

Dallas—Twenty 4-H clubs have been organized for the coming year and have reported to his office, county school superintendent Joseph Wills, who is in charge of the girls' division, reported today. The schools who have registered, together with the teacher, the local club leader and the officials of each club are as follows:

STAYTON P.T.A. KEEPS LUNCH PLAN MOVING

Stayton—The regular meeting of the Stayton Parent Teachers association was held in the high school auditorium Monday evening. A program was given before a good attendance. The regular business was taken care of by the president, Mrs. Mary Campbell. Prof. H. E. Tobie explained the C.W.S. plan. Three things are required to put it over, teachers, pupils and a meeting place. At least ten pupils must be in a class. Blanks have been distributed and the plan explained and it is up to the people of the community whether they wish to start this adult class work.

FARMERS UNION EXPECTS GUESTS

Marion—Guest night will be observed by members and invited friends of Marion Farmers' Union No. 27 Friday evening, G. W. Fouts, state president, will speak on "Farmers Union activities and highlights of his recent trip." A special program has been arranged by a committee headed by Mrs. Elmer Redmond. Each member of local 27 is requested to bring a cake for the refreshments as there is no regular refreshment committee for this meeting.

THIRD OF SERMON SERVICES CONTINUE

Dallas—Special features slated for the morning service at the Methodist church where Rev. G. W. Bruce is the minister include the third sermon of a series of four on "The Fundamentals of Christian Experience," an anthem by the choir and a vocal solo by Miss Mabel Teal. Sponsors for the evening service will be the male brotherhood and an earnest endeavor is being made to have 100 men and boys present for the occasion. Musical numbers will be furnished by the Bruderthaler quartet and the choir of the church. The main address is to be delivered by Arthur Berridge of Portland. Berridge, an attorney of the Rose city, is said to be a very capable speaker and has selected for his subject "The Golden Rule in All of Life For 1934." Thursday evening of this week the choir is sponsoring an Oregon products dinner in the social hall of the church at 6:30 p. m. and an invitation is extended to everybody to attend.

ADULT EDUCATION OFFERED IN POLK

Dallas—The civil works service project in education furnishes an opportunity for adults to improve their education. In Polk county are unemployed teachers who are prepared to teach subjects which many adults would like to study. If anyone is interested in studying any of the subjects listed below and is willing to meet at some central point and spend two hours each evening for three evenings during the week for a period of one month or more please notify Joseph Wills, county school superintendent. Reading for adults who wish to read in the English language: Home economics, cooking and sewing; horticulture, including nut growing; mechanical drawing and architecture; public speaking and English; applied electricity; poultry husbandry; farm management; dairy husbandry.

Program Planned for Bible School

Dallas—The religious education committee of the Dallas Christian church met at the home of the pastor, Rev. K. E. Burke, Tuesday night to plan the program of the Bible school. Virgil McPherson, chairman of the committee, presided. Those present were Virgil McPherson, Mrs. Finley Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Newbill, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Curtis and Mrs. K. E. Burke.

Improving School

Orehead Heights—The Polk county group of administrative officers for the public works recently approved extensive improvements required for the Mountain View schoolhouse and grounds. James P. Smart is in charge of the improvements and it is estimated will require 30 days and his helpers include 11 men who will redecorate the interior of the building upstairs and down. The exterior of both schoolhouse and garage shed will also be painted and the grounds graded and improved.

Teachers Offered Talks at Sessions

Silverton—At the weekly session of the teachers of the schools Wednesday afternoon Herman Kramer, principal of the senior high school and F. J. Roubal, head of the junior high department addressed the grade and high school instructors in a review of the talk given at the principal's session held in Portland by Dr. Schuchter, state superintendent of public instruction of Washington. The grade teachers met each week Wednesday afternoon and the high school teachers Thursday with Superintendent Goetz instructor of books on education.

Program Planned for Bible School

Dallas—The religious education committee of the Dallas Christian church met at the home of the pastor, Rev. K. E. Burke, Tuesday night to plan the program of the Bible school. Virgil McPherson, chairman of the committee, presided. Those present were Virgil McPherson, Mrs. Finley Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Newbill, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Curtis and Mrs. K. E. Burke.

Amputation Avoided

Clatsop—Word has been received from Orville Hayward, an employee of the Detroit CCC camp who sustained a bad injury to his foot recently and was sent to the veterans' hospital at Vancouver, that he will be in the hospital for three months but that he will not be subjected to the amputation of several toes as was first thought to be necessary. Hayward was hurt while on active duty.

Wringer Hurts Lad

Stayton—Little Val Jean Johnson, grandson of George Wadler suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when his