

TWO SILVERTON LODGES INSTALL NEW OFFICIALS

Silverton—A joint installation of officers for the year and the men acting as social hosts were program features of the meeting of the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors Wednesday night. The entertainment committee included Charles Neheim, Bert Reveal and Frank M. Powell, served an oyster supper following the installation ceremonies and an informal program.

Otto Dahl and Florence Cook were installing officers, assisted by Herman Naegeli and Clara Moser, ceremonial marshals; Lurilla Olson, installation chancellor and Olga Green musician.

Officers installed for the Woodmen were Gus Herr, past consul; Bert Green, consul; Bert Reveal, secretary; Richard Larson, banker; T. O. Volgamere, clerk; Marshall Powell, escort; P. Sprick, watchman; S. M. McClung, secretary; John Thurman manager.

For the Royal Neighbors: Aetna Naegeli, orator; Mabel Garver, vice orator; Grace Unsworth, Marian Tucker, Modesty, Inez Heister, Faith, Cecelia Lathen, Countess, Marie Dahl and Endurance, Edith Grace; manager, Sarah Kirk; outside guardian, Connie Barker; inside guardian, Georgia Green.

The Silverton camp will be hosts to the camps of the county January 31, at which time several candidates will be initiated. Camps to be guests are Salem, Chemawa, Woodburn, Scotts Mills and Astoria.

PARTY PROMISED TURNER 4-H CLUBS

Turner—Mrs. Frances Whitehead, 4-H club leader of the "Klever Klutzing Klub" promised her club members a party as soon as they have completed their first two projects, she announced at the weekly meeting in the Turner domestic science room. Miss Mabel Lacey was a special visitor at the meeting. The session opened with the roll pledge and singing "Club Week." Roll call was answered with members giving points on keeping their rooms attractive.

Demonstration teams were appointed at this meeting and Eleanor Parkes and Evelyn Jensen are to give the first demonstration on "how to hem a slip." In a few weeks La Verne Whitehead and Rachel Riches are planning the second demonstration, Mae Lacey and Zena Godwin comprise the third team. In the absence of Rachel Riches the scheduled report on "Fabrics and Their Uses" will be given by La Verne Whitehead, bringing out the more important points on how to get the raw products, processes in weaving, names of the finished materials and purposes for them to be most appropriately used. The club members, Madeline Selesky and Evelyn Jensen were unable to attend this meeting. Present were Eleanor Parkes, Zena Godwin, Rachel Riches, La Verne Whitehead, Mabel Lacey and the leader, Mrs. Whitehead.

Gervais Missionary Society Hears Talk

Gervais—The Ladies' Missionary society held an all day meeting in the church Wednesday. A pot luck dinner was served at noon after which the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Jennie Boerger. "Eastern Women Today and Tomorrow" was the study book and was followed by a talk by Dr. Poling.

Members present were Mrs. Jennie Boerger, Mrs. R. S. Marshall, Mrs. A. R. Stegmund, Mrs. H. J. Jelderk, Mrs. Ben Jelderk, Mrs. Robert Harper, Mrs. John Harper, Mrs. Zeno Schwab, Mrs. Ida Schwab, Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth, Mrs. S. D. Manning, Mrs. Charles Vogt, Mrs. H. Hesser, Mrs. G. J. Molen, Mrs. S. Stevens, Mrs. J. E. Cutsforth, Mrs. Rosa Cutsforth, Mrs. L. V. McAdoo, Mrs. Regale and Mrs. H. Grafton. Guests were Dr. Poling, Rev. H. Grafton, Mrs. H. McAdoo, Mrs. Dora Cutsforth, Mrs. Cecil Ashbaugh and Mrs. Perry Berly.

ORDERING DYNAMITE
Bethel—Dynamite for blowing out stumps is again to be ordered in a Farmer Union pool. It is expected that the pool will be closed by February 1. No members should place their orders promptly. The state purchasing agent, R. W. Hogg, is in charge. Arno Springer and Warren Creech will also take orders.

JANES SELECTED
Silverton—Harold Jones of the high school sophomore class has been honored with a place on the managerial staff and will be assistant in basketball. Others responsible for the welfare of the basketball team are Glenn Scott, manager; Wallace Orren, assistant manager; and Norris Wale, also sophomore assistant. Ed Dillen, Wayne Lewis and Herbert Jones have places as members of the managerial staff.

LYONS—Mrs. Elmer Hartz, Mrs. Roy Huber, Mrs. Alex Bodicker, Mrs. Clyde Breuer and Mrs. Frank Johnson spent Wednesday visiting at the R. M. Woodworth, Fred Boyer and Orville Bowers home in Salem.

STOP A COLD THE FIRST DAY!

Don't let it run and become a menace! Take Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine at the first signs of cold. It's a cold quickly because it does the four things necessary: stops the cough—relieves the cold—relieves the fever—relieves the headache and restores the normal condition of the system. See and get it at all drug stores.

Grove's LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE

AWARDED RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS

Three of the four candidates for Rhodes scholarships to Oxford University, England, who were selected in San Francisco by a committee representing the district of Arizona, California, Colorado, New Mexico, Nevada and Utah. Left to right: Morgan Sibbett, Provo, Utah; Samuel Adams, Tucson, Ariz.; Channing Harris, Provo, Utah. The fourth candidate was Murray Kirkwood of Claremont, Calif. (Associated Press Photo)

FARMER UNION HAS ELECTION

Dallas—The annual meeting of the Polk county Farmers' Union was held Wednesday in the hall of the Mount Pisgah local in North Dallas. Business transacted during the day included the election of officers for the coming year, the discussion of the oil and livestock situation and a talk by State Senator Peter Zimmerman in opposition to the sales tax.

In the expectation that the members will go into the cooperative livestock business in Portland temporary directors were elected. The organization went on record as favoring a law limiting tax levies to a 50 cent rate on a dollar on the same basis as that now being worked out by the Portland Realty board.

The talk by Senator Zimmerman was well received but no vote was taken nor was any resolution made. Eben Ray was appointed to represent the dairymen at Salem Thursday to assist in drawing up a code. The officers elected were: President, Eben Ray, Valley Junction; vice-president, W. R. Hogg; secretary-treasurer, L. H. McBoey; doorkeeper, C. L. Gibson; conductor, Byron Russell.

Executive committee members are George Woods, Ralph Dodson and George Curtis.

FIRST OF SERIES OF TEAS OFFERED

Woodburn—A series of "calendar teas" is being sponsored by the Women's auxiliary of the American Legion for the purpose of raising funds and the first of the series was given by Mrs. Gerald H. Smith Thursday afternoon to which 12 guests were invited, representing the 12 months of the year. These in turn will each give a tea inviting four guests, representing the four weeks of the month. Lastly each of the four will entertain seven guests, representing the days of the week.

Mrs. Smith had as her guests Miss Mary Seelander, Mrs. Sam S. Yoder, Mrs. Walter Seelander, Mrs. Harold M. Rustin, Mrs. H. I. Gill, Mrs. C. E. Whillman, Mrs. Elburn T. Sims, Mrs. W. H. Broyles, Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Mrs. Adolph Glat, Mrs. P. Otto and Mrs. O. H. Boje. Mrs. Soren Nelson was an additional guest. Mrs. C. E. Whillman presided at the tea table.

Hop Growers Elect

Donald—At the annual meeting of members of the Hopgrowers' Fire Relief association held in the hall here Tuesday, two directors were re-elected, Fred Schwab of Mt. Angel, and Fred Dentel of Aurora. Other members of the board are W. R. McKay, G. F. Clark, and L. G. Giesy. Officers are Fred Dentel, president; C. J. Terhaar, secretary, and Alois Keiser, treasurer. The company suffered but three fire losses in 1933.

MRS. SEHON BETTER

Central Howell—Mrs. Grace Sehon, principal of the school, is reported as improving from her illness. Mrs. Sehon has been ill since before the holidays and several weeks were spent in a hospital. Mrs. Lillian Poyner of Melama is substituting in Mrs. Sehon's room and while here is making her home with the J. S. Kaufman family. Mrs. Poyner spent the past week-end as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Streus of South Church street, Salem.

Silverton—Mrs. Mae Higginbotham is entertaining the members of the Neighbor of Woodmont Thimble club at her home on Chester street. She is serving alone as social hostess. The women will do sewing work following the business session.

State 10 THEATRE
LAST TIMES TONIGHT
ALL THRILL PROGRAM
"AIR HOSTESS"
EVELYN KNAPP
THELMA TODD
JAMES MURRAY
PLUS—
"THE WORLD'S GREATEST THRILLS"
A Sensational Special!

BRUSH CREEK ACTORS BUSY

Silverton—The Brush Creek Rooster club is becoming well known in Marion county because of an annual play. Robert Adams started this week on "Betty's Care Woman" by Ted and Virginia Maxwell, with Fred parts have been assigned and the play will be given about March 1. The club members plan on a three-nights run, and the little schoolhouse is expected to be well filled for each performance.

At the regular meeting of the club Friday evening, the women are sponsoring the program and the men are in charge of the supper. John Copeland, Jr., and Andrew Haere will serve as chefs and Mrs. Edith Grace and Mrs. Maude Hillman are joint program chairmen, who have announced the following numbers:

Greeting song, women of club; vocal trio, Juanita Moe, Donna May Knig and Wilma Knig; entertainment skit, Mrs. Kores Apple and her troupe; vocal solo, Charlotte Copeland accompanied by Walter Copeland; piano solo, Mrs. Glenn Howe; vocal quintette, Orlet Moen, Helen Elton, Charlotte Copeland, Viola Larson, Margery Hillman; movie skit, women; vocal duet, Viola Larson and Charlotte Copeland; style revue; character song, Charlotte Copeland and Elizabeth Hall.

Valentine Season Reflected By Tea

West Salem—Mrs. Fred Gibson's home on Eugene road was the scene of a Valentine tea Wednesday afternoon for a successful silver tea. It was the largest one in point of attendance so far this season, there being about 50 present.

A program consisting of vocal and instrumental music, readings and a lecture was given.

The Valentine season colors were observed in the decorations and in the refreshments served.

Assisting Mrs. Gibson as hostesses were Mrs. Phil Hathaway, Mrs. Emmett Dickson, Mrs. D. H. Gilliland, Mrs. Fred Kilian and Mrs. J. R. Redford.

Competent Teachers Needed For Project

Silverton—If the proper teachers can be secured it is fairly certain that the following classes may be offered under the C. W. S. A.: Salesmanship, shorthand, bookkeeping, business speaking, and recreational games. The classes will meet from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Classes will begin just as soon as we are authorized to begin. So far the need for competent teachers who can qualify for relief under the C. W. S. A. of some of the classes. Any teacher out of employment should make inquiry to Robert Goetz, superintendent of schools.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

Stayton—Mrs. Ambrose Dozier entertained a group of little folks at a party at her home in honor of her daughter Ellen's ninth birthday. The afternoon was spent playing games after which birthday refreshments were served by Mrs. Dozier. Present were the honor guest, Ellen, Phyllis Perren, Irene Fisher, Paul Smith, Lucille and Buddy Abma and Jackie Stewart.

WEST SALEM WINS

West Salem—West Salem basketball team played a doubleheader with the Liberty team Wednesday afternoon at Liberty. West Salem boys won 20 to 12 and the girls won 9 to 5. A. V. Myers and Miss Trula Grant were referees.

A Home Owned Theater HOLLYWOOD
15c—NEW PRICE POLICY—15c
Special Matinee Saturday 10c
A WILD LAND TO TAME! A WILD LOVE TO WIN!
RANDOLPH SCOTT
ESTHER RALSTON
BUSTER CRABBE
TO THE LAST MAN!
ALSO OUR GANG IN "MUSH AND MILK"
News, Cartoon Comedy and New Serial—
"FIGHTING WITH KIT CARSON"

RIVER CONTROL START WANTED: ACTION BEGINS

Jefferson—A large crowd of interested farmers gathered at the Madison hall Tuesday night to discuss problems of getting the Santiam river control started. A. R. Mulligan, who was elected president, presided. It was reported that 10,000 acres would be affected by the project. An assessment of one-half cent per acre for expense of the control association was voted.

The president and secretary, A. B. Roy, together with the investigating committee, Charles Lamb, William Krebs, John Calahan, Philip Yagelaki and Henry Ammon, were instructed to circulate a petition to be presented to the county court for consideration in helping to get CWA funds to start the project.

The following people have joined the undertaking: H. A. McKee, Elmer Chleborad, Morton Baker, A. C. Miller, Joe Okrasinski, J. O. Morgan, Verne McTimmons, J. A. Harris, N. P. Gilmour, J. M. Calavan, Wm. Wiederkehr, John Potts, G. W. Potts, R. Harlan, Oscar Hoven, J. W. Gilmour, Claude Johnson, Dan Donohue, Eva Wintermantle, William Krebs, T. H. Krebs, H. C. Shields of Salem, Ed Spooling, R. L. Wildman, C. A. Harnick, M. C. Helma, E. A. Chambers, Fred Hofer, E. T. Rykman, Albert Dickinson, J. A. Elzel, Philip Yagelaki, G. W. Vanderventer, A. J. Roys and Durbin and Corroyer of Salem.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS CLUB ENTERTAINED

Silverton—Members of the Royal Neighbors club met at the hall Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. T. O. Barker presiding at the business session.

At 7 o'clock Tuesday evening the women served a supper to the members and families, and spent the evening playing cards, with Mrs. Martin Waarvik and Arthur Heister scoring high and A. J. Lathers and Mrs. Arthur Heister, low.

Mrs. Maude Hillman will entertain the club members at the February meeting in an all-day quilting party with pot-luck lunch at noon.

Silverton—Mrs. Nels Henjum entertained a small group of friends Wednesday afternoon with a general social time spent informally and luncheon served late in the afternoon. Guests included Mrs. J. P. Dullman, Mrs. Earling Lanson, and daughter Betty Lou, and Miss Evelyn Henjum.

WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSIONS STUDIED

Jefferson—Miss Addie Libby entertained the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church at her home on Third street Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. P. A. Ginn led the devotionals and Mrs. Earl Lynes was program leader, the subject for the afternoon being "The Women and Ancient Faith."

Mrs. E. B. Redmond gave a short account of a Chinese family, Mrs. Charles McKee, Mrs. George C. Mason and Mrs. R. C. Thomas also gave interesting readings on the lesson topic. At the tea hour refreshments were served.

Those present were Mrs. P. A. Ginn, Mrs. S. M. Green, Mrs. Grace Thurston, Mrs. Blanche Libby, Mrs. Earl Phelps, Mrs. Charles McKee, Mrs. Earl Lynes, Mrs. Mabel Davis, Mrs. R. C. Thomas, Mrs. George C. Mason, Mrs. E. B. Redmond, and the hostess, Miss Addie Libby. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Fred Barna and Mrs. D. W. Cummins.

Examination Slated

Woodburn—Martin Redding, examiner of operators and chauffeurs, will be at the city hall in Woodburn from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Monday, January 22. Those wishing permits or licenses to drive cars are asked to get in touch with him at that time.

BRIDGE PARTY GIVEN

Stayton—The ladies of St. Mary's Altar society entertained with an evening of bridge in the Forester hall Wednesday. Thirteen tables were in play with high scores being held by Mrs. Everett Gardner and Mr. Woodell. Entertainment went to George Smith. The door prizes went to Mrs. Jake Spauld and George Spauld. The committee in charge were Mesdames Genevieve Smith, A. Keidel, E. J. Bell, E. T. Mattieu and Mrs. Peter Delidrich.

Silverton—Mrs. Tinnell and her daughter who have been proprietors of the Coffee Shop in the Hosmer building have moved to the late Mrs. F. A. Drake home on South Water street and will conduct a dressmaking establishment and also rent keeping rooms.

SAILS ON "GROOM-LESS" HONEYMOON

Princess Barbara Mdivani, nee Barbara Huston, sailed from San Francisco for Yokohama on a honeymoon tour without her princely husband, Alexis, who sailed from Vancouver, B. C., the same date. They will join each other in the Orient. Prince Alexis stayed out of California to dodge process servers. Aboard the Tatsuta Maru, left to right, Princess Barbara, Jimmy Donohue, her cousin and self-styled "court jester", Nancy Child, secretary, and an unidentified Japanese. (Associated Press Photo)

MASTER WARDENS MEET IN DALLAS

Independence—Those attending the masters and wardens meeting in Dallas Wednesday evening from this city were A. W. Foster, R. K. Montgomery and J. O. McIntosh. P. M. Schweizer of Monmouth joined the group at Monmouth and journeyed to Dallas with them. All are past masters excepting Mr. McIntosh who is now master of Lyon lodge.

An interesting program arranged by Left Finteth, president of the association, was greatly enjoyed by all present. The principal speaker of the evening being the R. W. G. M. Leslie M. Scott.

Refreshments were served by the wardens of Jennings lodge and short speeches made by several visiting members.

EDDY WILL DELIVER LINCOLN DAY TALK

Albany—Circuit Judge B. L. Eddy of Roseburg, for many years state senator from Douglas county, will deliver the main address at the annual Lincoln day banquet in Linn county to be held here February 12 at the Albany hotel. It was announced by Dr. J. C. Booth of Lebanon, Dr. Booth is joint senator for Linn and Lane counties. "Abraham Lincoln" will be the subject of Eddy's address.

A. G. Prill of Seilo is chairman of the banquet and the arrangement committee is headed by P. D. May, Lebanon, P. A. Gallely of Seilo, Walter Kropp and R. W. Tripp of Albany. Publicity is in charge of C. E. Williamson, R. R. Cronin of Albany, Joe Lytle of Seilo, E. M. Brown of Brownville, T. P. MacMillan of Lebanon, J. P. Harnett of Posters and G. G. Beils of Harrisburg.

Parish Card Party Declared Success

Silverton—A large crowd attended the card party given by the women of St. Monica's Altar society of St. Paul's Catholic parish at the hall, Wednesday evening. This was the second in the series of four events, the third to be given in two weeks, on Wednesday night. Scoring high at cards were Mrs. Ralph Larson and W. Stuber, and Edward Hopfinger drawing the door prize. The committee members assisting Mrs. Otto Schwab, general chairman for the series, were Mrs. Sam McArthur, Mrs. Goyette and Mrs. L. DeSantis.

Circle Is Guest

Monmouth—Sunbeam circle met in regular session Tuesday evening. The impromptu program was readily responded to by members. For some time to come the program meetings will feature prepared entertainment. The circle has been divided into two sections to present the recreational program on alternating nights. Mrs. F. E. Murdoch and Mrs. Charles Stanton were chosen captains of the two sides.

OLD BUILDING RAZED

Central Howell—Workmen started the first of the week to remove the old building which stood on the west side of the school grounds. Other improvements are expected to be made on the school property also.

DANCE
Mellow Moon
Sat. Nite
Boots Grant's
10-Piece Band and Entertainers
Adm. 35c
Coming Wed. Nite Jan. 24
Jennie Whippo's Campus Chords
Orchestra and Entertainers
Adm. 25c

REVAMPING OF CWA ACTIVITY POLK DEMAND

Dallas, Ore., Jan. 19—Complete reorganization of the administrative program through the state and Polk county in particular with immediate action wanted was urged in a resolution adopted by the Polk county democratic central committee at Independence Thursday night. R. W. Baker, of Independence, vice chairman, presided at the meeting. The resolution is similar to one recently adopted in Portland and was presented by William Boynton, Polk county treasurer. A copy of the resolution is being forwarded to Carl Donahue, of Portland, state central committee chairman.

Possible candidates for offices to be vacant this year were also discussed at the meeting which was attended by ten precinct chairmen and others. Officers discussed were the governors, joint state senator from Polk and Benton with the candidate to come from Polk this year as Senator McFadden, of Benton county, is not likely to run again. A representative, district attorney and county commissioner will also be up for election. Frank Farmer, of Oak Grove, is certain to be a candidate to succeed himself as county commissioner, only one to be elected.

Plans for future meetings were also discussed with February 5 selected as the next meeting to be held at Independence. This will be open to the public with a special invitation to be extended women to participate. The president's ball, January 30, was also discussed. This will be held at Independence and the only one of its kind in Polk county.

A card party was planned to be given February 14, Valentine's day, during the afternoon at the armory auxiliary club rooms with Mrs. Ruth Alm, Mrs. Goldie Starr, Mrs. Ruth McPike, Mrs. Lottie Jarvis and Mrs. Pearl Davenport in charge of the various arrangements of the party. An employment bureau for women was decided upon with tentative plans to have the Women's Specialty Shop as office exchange. For the February social night the group will state a white elephant party.

The personnel of the executive committee includes Miss Johnson, Mrs. Alm, Mrs. Lucy Wray, Mrs. Mae Higginbotham, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Del Barber, Mrs. McPike, Mrs. Starr, Mrs. Davenport, Mrs. Daisey Huggins and Mrs. Alta Hall.

Miller Surprised On His Birthday

Mt. Angel—A surprise party was given in honor of Ben N. Miller at his country home recently. Cards and dancing were enjoyed throughout the evening and a luncheon was served at a later hour. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hox, Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus F. Butsch, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ertel, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brock, Miss Veronica Dichi, Miss Edna Stuber, Miss Mary Adelman, Miss Doris Schuck, Miss Marie Kirsh, Miss Rose Adelman, Miss Dierl, Anton Adelman, Frank Adelman, John Adelman, George Schmidt, Fred Gerschewitz, John Brock, Alphonse Stupiel, Urban Butsch and Ben N. Miller.

Trial Scheduled

Independence—In the case of State vs. Allister and Kilander, for theft of gasoline, defendants demanded a jury trial and the case was reset for hearing by Judge McIntosh for Saturday at 10 o'clock. B. F. Swope will represent the defendants and District Attorney Elmer Barnhart will prosecute.

Services Conclude

Seilo—The special services at the Baptist church are to be concluded this week after two weeks of evangelistic work by the Rev. Britton Ross, Baptist minister of Salem. The meetings have attracted large congregations, many coming from distances in the rural districts adjacent to Seilo.

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL
Today and Saturday
TWO FEATURES
Two Nutsy Cowboys Crash Society—And Bring their horse!
SLIM SUMMERRILE ANDY DEVINE
in
"Horse Play"
—and—
Hit No. 2
Caught in the Black-mallers' drag net!
"FROM HEADQUARTERS"
George Brent, Margaret Lindsay, Eugene Pallette, Hugh Herbert
500 Seats 15c
Doors Open 6:45

Immanuel Lutheran Guild Entertained

Silverton—Thirty-five members of the Guild of the Immanuel Lutheran church were entertained at the country home of Mrs. Otto Dahl Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Dahl and Mrs. Nels Henjum joint social hostesses.

Rev. J. M. Jensen conducted devotional. Mrs. Albert Paurue and Miss Ardis Aarhus gave readings and Mrs. Sam Lorenzen, president, was chairman of the business session, with Mrs. Stanley Shanson as secretary and Mrs. Conrad Johnson as treasurer.

GRAND MASTER MASONIC LODGE DUE SATURDAY

Silverton—George P. Winslow of Tillamook, grand master of the grand lodge, I. O. O. F., of Oregon, will leave Silver Lodge No. 21 with an official visit on Saturday during the regular meeting of the group at the local hall.

Ted Hobart will appear on the program in an address on the life of Thomas Wilder, father and founder of Oddfellowship in America, this date being the 152nd anniversary of the birth of Wilder.

An unusual program number will be a talk on living in Alaska, given by O. H. Brougher of Scotts Mills, who for the past two years has resided in Sitka, Alaska, and will return to the North in February.

A harmonica-piano selection will be given by a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge of Monitor and an old-time trio of instrumental music will be put on from the local lodge with Jack Riches, Lou Davenport and Neal Cooley appearing.

Special guests will be lodge members from Scotts Mills, Monitor, Salem and a delegation from Yamhill county, with all Odd Fellows welcome.

Grand Master Winslow was unable to meet with the local members as was planned for the home-coming event December 9 and has arranged for this meeting.

Turner A. C. Defeats Gates Quint, 51-20

Turner—A three-way tie resulted from the defeat of the Gates team by Turner athletic club team by the lone score of 51 to 20 on the Turner gym floor Wednesday night. Turner, Mill City and Gates are tied with Stayton having two postponed games to play.

The game Wednesday night started fast and increased in speed as it went along, the second half developing into a high gear battle. Tons for the locals was high man with 26 points, with E. Gath second, scoring 14. G. Ball for Gates accounted for 12. Linemen: Turner—E. Gath and Pearson, forwards; Tong, center; Martin, given, guards; Gates—C. Ball, Cline, forwards; W. Ball, center; Klutke and Wrigglesworth, guards, and Goodwin, substitute.

In a preliminary game the Senator Club of Salem defeated the Turner second string 29 to 17.

Author To Speak Woodburn Chapel

Woodburn—T. J. Bonnell, author, lecturer and war veteran, will give a lecture at the Beecher-Kilian chapel Sunday afternoon and there will be music by the Beecher-Kilian quartet. This is part of a series of entertainments given at the chapel.

Mr. Bonnell served in the Spanish-American war and was a captain in the United States army in the World war. He had been connected with the Chicago Tribune and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. His subject here will be "How the Mortician Helps to Preserve Life." The program will begin at 3 o'clock.

EXTRA STUDIO FEATURE PREVIEW TONITE AT 8:30

In Addition to Regular Feature—No Extra Charge
WARNER BROS. EL SINORE

Today and Saturday
HUMAN! TOUCHING! DYNAMIC!
Paul MUNI
in
"The WORLD CHANGES"
Mickey Mouse Mat. Sat. 1 P.M. Feature "Racing Strain" with ALINE MacMAHON
JEAN MUIR
MARY ASTOR
DONALD COOK
GUY KIBBEE

666

Liquid, Tablets, Salts, Nose Drops, Coughs, Colds, First Aid, Headaches, or Neuritis in 30 minutes. Malaria in 3 days.

Fine Laxative and Tonic Most Speedy Remedy Known

Chemeketa Players
Solely Own Play Producers
HELD OVER
"Heart Exchange"
SAT. JAN. 20th LAST DAY
Nelson 25c Liberty at Auditorium 15c Chemeketa "Curtain 8:15"

Colds Ended in a day

New tests of thousands of people will tell you that the FASTEST WAY to get rid of a cold is to take two HILL'S COLD TABLETS and two glasses of water every two hours.

These wonderful little tablets give you such speedy relief—relief you can't obtain by less scientific methods—because they do the three things necessary to break up a cold. Wash poisons from system. Check fever and ease away pain and pain. Fight off cold germs ALL AT ONCE. Thus your cold goes in a jiffy and you feel like a new person. Get rid of cold this proven, faster way. Ask druggist for HILL'S CASCARA QUININE in the RED TIN BOX.

HILL'S CASCARA QUININE