

WILLAMETTE PLAYS HOUSE OF DAVID QUINT HERE

BEARCATS DROP 38-18 CONTEST TO WOLF SQUAD

The House of David quint, the third of a group of traveling independent basketball outfits to pass this way, will be seen in exhibition Tuesday night on Willamette university's floor when they engage Coach Keene's Bearcats at 8 o'clock. Little has been learned here of the ability of the bewhiskered tourists, although they dropped a game to Southern Oregon Normal last week by a narrow margin.

Tuesday night's main event will be preceded by a preliminary between the undefeated American Lutheran team of the Church league, and Willamette freshmen at 7 o'clock.

Oregon Normal proved conclusively that it was better than Willamette Monday night when the Teachers' anothered the Bearcats 38 to 18 in the third game of the series between the two clubs. The game was played at Independence.

Normal held a 17 to 10 lead at half time. When the Wolves continued to add to their advantage Coach Keene sent in replacements. They failed to do any better than their predecessors and a second change was made.

Numerous fouls were called and as a result Allen, Kitchen and Benjamin were all benched during the second half.

The Independence club team was beaten 26 to 22 by Willamette rookies.
