Ceremony Performed Saturday

At an impressive candlelight ceremony, Miss Genevieve Parsons became the bride of Gerald Simpson Saturday evening at nine o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Simpson. Rev. Hugh N. McCallum read the simple service in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the couple before an altar of flowering quince and pussy willows with tall pink tapers placed on either side. Miss Parsons is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Parsons and Mr. Simpson the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Simpson.

The bride was charming in a navy blue flat crepe ensemble worn with a navy blue close fitting tulle and white accessories. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor, Mrs. Homer Lyons, was dressed in a black crepe model worn with white accessories and a corsage of roses and white sweet peas.

Fred Wolfe acted as best man for Mr. Simpson. A reception followed the ceremony at the Simpson home. The beautifully appointed table was centered with Japanese quince guarded by pale pink tapers in crystal candelabra. A bevy of prominent dubs and young matrons assisted. Mrs. Simpson attended both Portland and Salem schools. Mr. Simpson received his education in Salem. The young couple are well known here and after a short wedding trip will be at home to their friends in the Ambassador apartments.

Several smart affairs honored Mrs. Simpson prior to her marriage.

Delta Phi Planning Benefit

Members of Delta Phi alumnae are sponsoring a benefit party this evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Patton on Court street. Play will begin at 8 o'clock and those wishing reservations are requested to dial 4347 before 6 o'clock.

The supper table will effectively carry out the Valentine motif and presiding at the urns will be Mrs. Patton and Mrs. Rose Babcock. A group of the alumnae will assist in the serving and about the rooms.

Kingwood—A no host party was enjoyed by members of the Coville club at the home of Mona and Reginald Vosburgh Saturday evening. Music and dancing were the diversions with refreshments served at a late hour to the Misses Margaret Austin, Barbara Lee Whipple, Catharine Applewhite, Margaret Kater, Ruth Maers, Violet Wallace, Josephine Tandy, Mona Vosburgh, Letty and Willard Wells, Bob Mathers, George Tandy, Ralph and Hal Barnes, Ellsworth Weatherby and Reginald Vosburgh.

MAE WEST
and her pal Dan Cupid

CUPID: "Hello, Mae, how are tricks?"

MAE WEST: "Why Dan, you darling, what are you doing here in Hollywood?"

CUPID: "Came for a holiday—it's the one place I never have to work. All you girls can take care of yourselves."

MAE WEST: "We get our men, all right. But then we've been using Lux Toilet Soap for years. A luscious skin gets them every time."

CUPID: "You do know men, Mae. I find I've lots more spare time since girls everywhere started using your soap. Guess I'll fly over and see Luxe now. Take care of yourself."

MAE WEST: "By-by. C'm up and see me some time."

Take a leaf out of Mae's little notebook! Lovely, appealing skin attracts men just as honey-suckle attracts bees. You can have it just as easily as the 9 out of 10 screen stars who use Lux Toilet Soap. Use it yourself every day for the soft, appealing skin that men adore!
