

THURSDAY TO BRING IN NEW LUMBER PRICE

Washington, Feb. 21 (AP)—NRA Administrator Hugh S. Johnson, in response to appeals from several west coast lumber groups, has modified price schedules laid down by the lumber code authority. The modifications are effective tomorrow.

The code authority, in "Bulletin 22," had prescribed that when Oregon and Washington lumber was sold on a delivered basis, the actual cost of transportation should be added to the minimum mill price. It also had ruled that shipments to California by rail should in no case be priced less than the sales of the same item shipped by water.

Johnson cancelled these orders and prescribed 15 pages of rules and rates, defining points, laying down rules of calculating delivered prices for water and rail shipments and establishing minimum transportation allowances to various destinations.

Allan Franks, 146, Bellingham, Ind., gamely faced Ernie Cavelli, 143, Walla Walla, but was no match and was knocked out in the third of their scheduled six-round main event. Franks was down twice in the second and two more times in the third.

NEW PLAY WILL OPEN TONIGHT

A well selected cast takes the roles in Eugene O. Haffers "The Attorney For the Defense" which opens tonight at the Nelson auditorium.

Mrs. Marjorie Walker Ratcliffe needs no introduction to Salem audiences, as she has directed many outstanding productions both in Portland and Salem. She has been with Eugene O. Haffers of Portland a number of years, and has, also, had experience with many other professional theatrical companies.

Her ability as director may be viewed through "The Attorney For the Defense."

Frank Shafer as Jimmy Carlyle, the attorney for the defense, plays the leading role.

Frank Donahue as Joseph Hampden, has taken part in many plays, and in this production is appearing in the strong role of prosecuting attorney.

J. Moran Cook as Jackson Milton plays the role of a man who has waited years for his revenge. The fulfillment of his plans is a high spot in the play.

Mary Shafer appears as Dorothy Hampden. Many people will remember her clever portrayal of Mamma Cohen in "Manhattan Harmony."

Keith Middleton as Mark Nelson plays a strong part as he is interested in both the defendant and the attorney for the defense.

Elsie Holman plays the sympathetic role of the beautiful defendant, Beth Winters.

Mike Panek is well known in Salem for his skills and acting ability. In "The Attorney For the Defense" he is Judge Sidney Carlyle.

Wing Lee Defeated By Filipino Boxer

Sentle, Feb. 21 (AP)—A long lay-off because of sickness and a low blow in the fourth round were too much for Ah Wing Lee, lightweight of Portland, and he lost the six round main event of a boxing card to Kid Moro of Manila in Crystal Pool ring here last night.

Moro's style of fighting puzzled Lee until the later rounds. Then when Lee challenged Moro to come out and trade blows with him the Manila fighter knew he had won the fight on points and kept his distance. Moro struck Lee a low blow in the fourth round that folded the Portland Chinese up. Lee, however, came back strong in the fifth and won the round with a wide margin. The sixth was Lee's by a narrow margin.

Willamette Leaves For Walla Walla Thursday; Defeat Badgers, 39-36

Jim Burdett, Bearcat forward, gave the home town folk an exhibition of fancy shooting Tuesday night as Willamette university's basketball team made it two straight over Linfield college on the McMinnville floor, 39 to 36. Burdett, a graduate of McMinnville high, collected 15 points. His sparkling left handed shots under the basket had a great deal to do with reversing a 19 to 17 lead which Linfield held at half time.

SILVERTON POST VOTES NO BALL

Silverton — Action of Delbert Reeves Post No. 7, American Legion, at the business session Monday night was a negative reply to the question, "Would your post sponsor a team (baseball) under these new rules?"

The question for consideration was from state department headquarters and suggested the new national junior baseball rules for 1934.

"A post will not be permitted to recruit players from adjoining communities in which another American Legion post is located, regardless of whether or not that post is sponsoring a junior baseball team. Posts will not be permitted to cross state boundary lines for the purpose of recruiting players."

This would mean that every post must draw from its own territory only. It cannot strengthen after winning the city championship by adding players from any other teams in the city. Cities over 50,000 have heretofore been limited to drawing teams from one high school only for each team. This has been dropped from the new rules, leaving no special restrictions for large cities.

Three questions followed this explanation, two of which the post went on record as deciding in the affirmative—"Is your post interested in junior baseball?" and "Do they wish to compete under the old state rules as regards recruiting players?"

If the new rules are adopted, the post decidedly voted to not compete in junior baseball, though the past record has been favorable.

Roy "Spec" Keene of Salem is state chairman of the junior baseball committee, working with the advisory board, which includes Al Bartholmey of Portland, T. F. Brumbaugh of The Dalles and Paul Patterson of Hillsboro.

Carl Moser, department of Oregon adjutant, replied accepting the invitation to be present at the meeting of the Marion county council, which will be held in Silverton Monday, March 9.

DOUBLE MISHAP DELAYS LAWYERS

Transportation facilities of the Willamette valley are not everything to suit visitors rushing to Salem, it was discovered Tuesday by Ted Gillenwaters, district attorney of Klamath county; W. E. Stockdale, Mt. Vernon, Harney county and member of the legislature, and Tom Collins, Portland, representative of the Union Pacific.

Gillenwaters was headed for Salem to attend a hearing before the supreme court in the case of Theodore Jordan, negro, who was once found guilty of a first degree murder charge in Klamath Falls and sentenced to hang. The trio was traveling in transportation provided by Collins.

North of Woodburn the fan belt broke loose, tore out the water pump and otherwise put the automobile out of commission. An S.O.W. call went into Woodburn for another machine and the disabled car left for repairs. A few miles south of Woodburn a connecting rod broke, doing considerable damage to the motor of the second car. Disgusted, the trio stuck out their thumbs and persuaded a wood truck to bring them on into Salem.

SALEM DEFEATS TILLAMOOK IN RAGGED GAME

A ragged exhibition of basketball was won by Salem high over Tillamook high on the local floor Tuesday night 32 to 21. Starting a half hour behind schedule because of a misunderstanding as to who was to officiate, players of both squads engaged in a wild orgy of bad passes, missed setups and a great deal of shoving.

The spectators who waited to see the encounter were rewarded with a thrilling finish, however, for the visitors after trailing throughout the initial three periods, took advantage of the lethargy of the home quint during the closing minutes to tie the count at 28-all, force two points to the front, only to lose when Salstrom and Wintermute came through in the final minute with a bucket a-piece. Earlier in the season Salem had beaten Tillamook on its own floor by a 2 to 1 ratio. A similar score would doubtless have been in evidence here Tuesday evening if Wintermute had been able to cash in on a fair number of his shots. As it was he was high point man of both teams.

Leading 10 to 6 at the quarter, 18 to 13 at the half and 26 to 18 at the end of the third period, it appeared Salem had the game in the bag. Godard, Tillamook center who had been held to one basket during the first half, came to life with a vengeance during the closing minutes, and rang up four in close succession. Frank Hediger added to the discomfort of the Salem crew when he contributed the two points which tied the count at 28-all and then put the Cheesemakers ahead two points. Salstrom almost immediately knotted the score once more while Wintermute put his team ahead after receiving a neat pass from Salstrom.

Baumgartner had an opportunity to put Tillamook back in the running when Burrell fouled him under the basket. The bandy-legged sharpshooter converted the first try in spite of some unimportant noise from the bleachers. His second shot went wild and the game ended a few seconds later.

WEBFOOTS TRIUMPH OVER IDAHO, 28-27

Moscow, Idaho, Feb. 21 (AP)—Twelve victors over the University of Idaho Vandals, the University of Oregon basketball players returned home today from their northern invasion. A long shot that thumped into the basket just three seconds before the game ended gave the visitors a 28 to 27 win over the Vandals in their northern division, Pacific Coast conference contest here last night.

Idaho opened the scoring, but Oregon quickly forged ahead to lead 16 to 12 at the half. The Vandals rallied in the second half, and with only three minutes left to play, went into a one-point lead when Iyerson sank a field goal. Three seconds before the final gun Olinier rifed in a long one to give the visitors their second victory in two days. They won Monday night, 33 to 30.

PARRISH JUNIORS PLAY ST. PAUL HI

Parrish junior high will play St. Paul high school's basketball team on the St. Paul floor Wednesday evening. The juniors won the first game of the series from St. Paul last week and a repetition of that victory tonight would almost cinch the North Marion county "B" league title for Coach Brown's boys. A win for St. Paul, however, would probably throw the matter into a tie.

Parrish has three district games to play on its schedule, one with Scotts Mills here next Friday night and a home and home series next week with Hubbard.

Washington Beaten By Benson, 28 to 25

Portland, Feb. 21 (AP)—After winning six straight, Washington high dropped its first game in the city league last night to Benson Tech, 28 to 25. The Washington team now shares top place with Franklin high, which nose-dived Jefferson, 29 to 18. Lincoln defeated Roosevelt, 20 to 26 and Grant downed Commerce 24-17.

JACKSON WILL MEET ELLIOTT

Robin Reed beat Jack Curtis in the final event of Tuesday night's wrestling show at the armory and then to complete a perfect evening tied into Referee Elliott. No decision was rendered in the latter affair.

Curtis dumped Reed to take the first fall with his rope swing but Reed displayed his bundle of cunning to win the second and third falls with whiplocks and body presses.

Cowboy Heinz triumphed over Walter Achu when the Chinese grappler injured his arm so severely by during the second round that he was unable to return for the third. Achu won the first round. Wildcat Grey, after winning the first fall in the fast time of 10 seconds with a Boston crab, dropped the final engagements to Art Perkins.

Bulldog Jackson and Referee Elliott, after several weeks of side-stepping, have agreed to a meeting here next week. The bout is expected to pack the armory to the rafters since it is billed as a finish match.

DODGERS FIRE CAREY; STENDEL MAY TAKE POST

New York, Feb. 21 (AP)—Max Carey today was relieved as manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers. No successor has been appointed but Casey Stengel, Dodger coach, has been called to New York from California to be offered the job.

New York, Feb. 21 (AP)—Casey Stengel headed back toward New York from California today and rumors that he would replace Max Carey as manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers immediately revived in full force.

It was known that Stengel, leaving his home in Glendale, Calif., Sunday night, was bound eastward in response to a telegram asking him to come to Brooklyn at once.

Reports have persisted for months that Carey, like Stengel a great outfielder in his playing days, was on his way out of Brooklyn.
