

WEAK TONE IN BUTTER PRICES ALONG COAST

Portland, Ore., March 20 (AP)—Butter market prices appear better in spots here because of the increasing call for storage account.

The advance in the selling price of standards and medium by the co-ops suggested this.

These market is showing a loss of 1-cent a pound here.

Western Washington is flooding the local high grade market by flooding the trade here with more than its requirements.

Extreme shortage of broccoli or winter cauliflower is shown here with the resulting further strengthening of the price situation for 2s with few, if any, available.

Asparagus is a trifle easier in spots.

Country killed hogs and calves are steady.

CODE SIGNED FOR EXCHANGES

Washington, March 20 (AP)—Secretary Wallace today signed the code of fair competition for the grain exchanges.

It provides the code authority of seven members for enforcement duties, establishes a uniform trade practice which include wage minimum margin requirements, fixes the fluctuation range per bushel in grain prices and provides for establishment of a marketing conduct committee for each exchange.

POOLING PLAN FOR SURPLUS MILK

Portland, March 20 (AP)—A pooling plan for handling surplus grade "B" milk in the Eugene milkshed will be discussed at a meeting in Eugene on Thursday of the Oregon milk control board and grade "B" producers.

Producers in the Eugene area requested the meeting, according to E. G. Harlan, chairman of the control board.

Meanwhile, in Portland, the city was ordered to show cause today why a temporary injunction should not be granted prohibiting the city from degrading milk of dairy farmers.

Continuation of— City Manager Plan

The necessary ordinance to put the city manager proposal on the May ballot was withdrawn by the committee last night because of the absence of three members, which made approval of the measure doubtful.

They cannot legally be given a place on the ballot for May 18. Today Mayor McKay said that every effort will be made to have all of the absentees present at the next meeting and that win or lose the ordinance will be pulled out of committee and put to a vote.

An informal canvass of the council reveals a close division on the question of referring the plan to the people, said the mayor, the members being listed as follows:

For submission—Kuhn, Fuhrer, Boatright, Armstrong, Townsend and Hendricks.

Against submission—Daue, Henderson, O'Hara, Vandeventer, Olson, and Hughes.

Doubtful—Wilkinson and Neidham.

If the plan is submitted to the voters in May and approved the new council and other officers to be elected under it can be elected in November without the expense of a special election. But if the measure is kept off the ballot until November and is then approved it will be necessary to hold a special election for the selection of these officers, or delay application of the new system until after the regular spring election in 1935.

Eola—Mrs. Earl Todd was taken to a hospital in Salem Sunday, seriously ill.

STOCKS RALLY BRISKLY AFTER PRESIDENT ACTS

New York, March 20 (AP)—A move by President Roosevelt to avert if possible the threatened strike of 100,000 automobile workers brought a broad and active recovery into the stock market in the late trading today.

Automobile issues were the first to rally. The whole list followed. Short covering was so rapid that the tickers could not keep pace.

Before the rally, the market had been dull. It advanced in the early trading, eased around noon, and ran into a sharp well-off in the first part of the afternoon.

Traders had many other items to think about in addition to those in the automobile industry. A modified stock exchange bill was published after the close yesterday.

The American dollar case and the extension of credit to business through government banks had a favorable aspect in the opinion of some traders.

Bonds firmed from their loss when the stock market rallied. Commodities were steady to firm. Grains closed fractionally higher.

In stocks, General Motors advanced 2 points, Chrysler nearly 2, and other fractions to 2. Motor equipments advanced sharply.

SALEM HEIGHTS TROUBLE FLARES

Salem Heights—A petition bearing 115 names, asking for the appointment of Dean F. M. Erickson to the Salem Heights school board was presented to School Superintendent Erikson Saturday.

Roy Johnson resigned as chairman of the board nearly a month ago. Petitioners have said that this was the beginning of sentiment arising against conduct of school affairs in this district.

LATE ADVANCE IN GRAIN PRICE

Chicago, March 20 (AP)—Grain prices scored late advances today associated with favorable views taken by traders regarding the new grain exchange code signed by President Roosevelt.

Leading unofficial authorities in the grain trade said the code provision dealing with margin requirements would assure safety and stability of the price structure.

the good of the country. "If no agreement is reached, and in default of arbitration, it may be necessary for me with due regard to the protection of the general public interest, to appoint a commission to examine thoroughly into the labor controversy, covering all phases of railroad employment, in order that the country may be advised of the merits."

Mr. Roosevelt also gave notice to the railroads that he felt some of the ways being paid employees were below the minimum established in the NRA orders, "if not actually below a subsistence basis."

The president demanded that this situation be immediately corrected. Mr. Roosevelt repeated his belief that this is not the time to fix permanently the railway wage scale.

The text of the president's letter was addressed to W. P. Thiehoff, chairman of the conference committee of managers, and A. F. Whitely, chairman of the railway labor executives association.

In the house, Representative Blanton (D., Tex.) said the American Federation of Labor's attitude is one of "selfishness" and it ought to call off the automobile strike.

BATTLE CREEK CRUSHER CLOSED

Another county CWA project went out of existence today when the county court ordered the dismantling of the Battle Creek road and the Battle Creek road to be closed to traffic.

The county court considered this one of the best county CWA projects as it hired a large number of hands and furnished rock for a large number of the county projects, especially in this section of the county.
