

TWO SENTENCED IN THEFT CASE; OTHERS FINED

Woodburn—Willard Norton of Silverton and Marvin E. Bailey of the Linn district, charged with larceny which was committed November 18, 1933, were found guilty after a jury trial in the local court Thursday. Bailey was sentenced to six months in the county jail and given a fine of $100 and Norton was fined $100. Notice of appeal to the circuit court was given.

LOST DEPARTMENT PROVES HONESTY

Silverton—An interesting place in connection with the office of Herman Kramer, principal of the senior high school, is the lost and found department. The students in general are more honest than other schools.

CAMP DINNER HELD BY MARION GROUP

Marion—The boys 4-H camp cookery club met recently in the Jr. grove on the Spalding place and held a camp dinner. Miss Rose Hutton and Miss Lottie Black were leaders, and the girls' cooking club with their leader, Miss Eda Becker, were invited guests.

LINN ROAD OPENS SANTIAM SECTION

Albany—A new county road that will develop Homan 23 of acres of government soil in the bridge between the Middle and South Santiam rivers will be built this spring and summer. It was announced by county commissioners. County surveys are at work laying out the road.

BIRTHDAYS OBSERVED AT LYONS RESIDENCE

Lyons—The birthday club met at the C. B. Barry home Wednesday afternoon and surprised Mrs. Barry and Mrs. Albert Dace on their birthday anniversaries. Mrs. Earl Allen, assisted by Mrs. S. D. Brown and Mrs. Denton Brown, served birthday cake and coffee. Present were Mrs. Hays, Mrs. Barry, Mrs. Don Brotherton, Mrs. Perry, Miss Roy Huber, Mrs. John Frank, Mrs. Stacy McCall, Mrs. Alex Bodeker, Mrs. Clyde Bressler, Mrs. R. P. Lyons, Miss Maxine Huber, Mrs. Lester Norman, Mrs. George Hoff, Miss Mrs. Jack Christensen, Mrs. Oscar Nane, Mrs. S. D. Brown, Mrs. Denton Brown and Mrs. Earl Allen.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

Silverton—Glenn Baker was commemorated with a boys' party on the occasion of his 12th birthday anniversary Tuesday afternoon by his mother, Mrs. Evelyn Baker, at their home on South Water street. Mrs. C. Rice, sister of Mrs. Baker, assisted in serving luncheon. Present were Glenn and Ray Tucker, Harvey Kennedy, Marvin and Lester Melbye, Merlyn Swartzick, Orlo Haines and the honor guest, Glenn Baker.

BRIDGE TEA GIVEN

Monmouth—An enjoyable occasion Tuesday afternoon was the bridge tea to which Mrs. Donald Butler was hostess at her residence in Silverton for matrons from West Salem, Independence and Monmouth. Motoring to the Butler home from West Salem were Mrs. B. Hodgett and Mrs. Utley; from Independence Mrs. D. Penneroy and Mrs. M. J. Butler; and from Monmouth were Mrs. Clara Powell, Mrs. F. O'Rourke, Mrs. C. E. Cole, Mrs. Fred Hill, Mrs. Velma Pearson, Mrs. O. A. Wolverson and Mrs. Carl DeArmond. The first prize at cards was won by Mrs. Utley, the second by Mrs. Butler and the guest prize by Mrs. Wolverson.

DELEGATES HONORED

Silverton—Roger Comstock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Comstock of the Waldo Hills community, was one of the three honored delegates that were granted a trip to Los Angeles. They were from the University of Oregon as representatives from the Foreign Trade department. Accompanying the young men was A. L. Farmer of the Portland chamber of commerce. They went by automobile, leaving Thursday and planning to return Sunday.

CALLS TO CONVENTION

Jefferson—Helen Kauger, county Christian Endeavor president of Salem, was a visitor at a recent meeting of the Evangelical Christian Endeavor society, in regard to the state convention to be held in Salem April 19 to 22. A pre-convention rally will be held here Tuesday night, April 17.

LEAVING FOR WEEK-END

Silverton—Miss Stella Dywick, secretary to the superintendent of schools, will spend three days during the week-end at the guest of Miss Mary Lewis at Corvallis. Miss Lewis was a former Silverton teacher and is now head of the German department of U.S.C. Miss Rhona Hicks and Miss Mildred Collins will accompany Miss Dywick to Corvallis to visit relatives and friends. They plan to return Monday afternoon.

CLUB WILL MEET

Rosedale—The Rosedale community will have its regular meeting Saturday night at the school house.

Spring Jersey Show To Be at Corvallis

Albany—The Linn-Benton Jersey Cattle club, which has held its annual spring jubilee and show in Albany for the past several years, has accepted an invitation of the Corvallis Commercial club to hold its meeting there this spring. The date to be announced later. It was announced by L. A. Hulbert of Peck county, who accepted the invitation following a meeting of the club at his farm last Saturday. Many Jersey cattle breeders in the two-county club are interested in the show. It was announced.

ORANGEMEN OF SILVERTON HIGH GETTING RITES

Silverton—One of the outstanding extra organizations of the Silverton senior high school is the Orangemen, of which James Manning is advisor. Boys that have made creditable records for their school in athletics are eligible to membership.

TRIPLE LINK CLUB GUEST BAKER HOME

Silverton—Members of the Triple Link club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Baker Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. F. J. Roubal, Mrs. Miles Ottaway and Mrs. Laura Snider as assistant hostesses. Luncheon and informal social diversions were the pleasures of the session.

DALLAS MASONS HOST TO LODGE FROM DISTRICT

Dallas—In Masonic hall Wednesday evening Naomi chapter, order of Eastern Star, entertained the Amity, Independence and Falls City chapters complimenting Mrs. Monnie M. Hauser of Salem, worthy grand matron, and Rex Davis of Albany, worthy grand officer. Over 200 attended the affair.

CONCRETE BRIDGE WORK IS STARTED

Silverton—An addition to the Cascade secondary state highway will be the concrete bridge and repair work to the road along the road near the Jay Morley home. Munson, contractor, has received the steel girders that are now placed across the river. The steam shovel started operations Friday in leveling a 9-foot bed making the road uniform at this point. The new bridge opening is now feet higher than the old.

LIBRARY FOLKS TO MEET SOON

Albany—Representatives of 26 institutional libraries have been invited to meet in Albany at the annual district library conference Thursday, April 19, with the Albany public library board acting as hosts.

FIRE IN FOREST SOON CONTROLLED

Silverton—Two accidents at the Ankeny logging company during the weeks have marred the progress in taking some time to repair the damage. A fire caught in the dry underbrush near the donkey engine Thursday and took the quick work of the workers to hinder a real forest fire as the timber is very dry for this time of year. The Thoroldson truck was held up several hours when an axle broke as the driver was on his way to the Silver Falls pond with a load of logs.

CLEAR LAKE CROPS REPORTED VARIED

Clear Lake—Crop reports in the district are not so favorable. Wheat and grain fields are reported to be covered with aphid but the amount of damage is not known. Early Gardens are also reported to be covered with aphid. Fruit crops vary. Some report prunes are all dropping with only a light crop of pears and still dropping. Some cherry trees seem to have plenty and some not any. Peach orchards report some to have a good crop while others have none to speak of. Petite prunes show a large yield in most places. The grape crop seems to be very favorable. Also logan and blackberries, with a number of very fine yards. Radish growers report having to re-sow some. Considerable acreage of radishes is being sown in this vicinity this year.

GRANGE MEETS SATURDAY

Monmouth—The program for the grange meeting Saturday afternoon has been arranged by Mrs. Anna Herron. Mrs. Edwards will give a history of the local grange and members are asked to bring some antique relic they may possess for an afternoon exhibition. It is also seed and bulb exchange day at the grange.

GIRLS PLAN DANCE

Woodburn—The sodality girls of St. Luke's church will give the second of their popular dances Monday evening at St. Luke's community hall. Modern music will be furnished by the Happy Go Luckies and Fred Hecker will manage the floor. Everyone is invited.

BRIDGE TEA GIVEN

Monmouth—An enjoyable occasion Tuesday afternoon was the bridge tea to which Mrs. Donald Butler was hostess at her residence in Silverton for matrons from West Salem, Independence and Monmouth. Motoring to the Butler home from West Salem were Mrs. B. Hodgett and Mrs. Utley; from Independence Mrs. D. Penneroy and Mrs. M. J. Butler; and from Monmouth were Mrs. Clara Powell, Mrs. F. O'Rourke, Mrs. C. E. Cole, Mrs. Fred Hill, Mrs. Velma Pearson, Mrs. O. A. Wolverson and Mrs. Carl DeArmond. The first prize at cards was won by Mrs. Utley, the second by Mrs. Butler and the guest prize by Mrs. Wolverson.

DELEGATES HONORED

Silverton—Roger Comstock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Comstock of the Waldo Hills community, was one of the three honored delegates that were granted a trip to Los Angeles. They were from the University of Oregon as representatives from the Foreign Trade department. Accompanying the young men was A. L. Farmer of the Portland chamber of commerce. They went by automobile, leaving Thursday and planning to return Sunday.

CALLS TO CONVENTION

Jefferson—Helen Kauger, county Christian Endeavor president of Salem, was a visitor at a recent meeting of the Evangelical Christian Endeavor society, in regard to the state convention to be held in Salem April 19 to 22. A pre-convention rally will be held here Tuesday night, April 17.

LEAVING FOR WEEK-END

Silverton—Miss Stella Dywick, secretary to the superintendent of schools, will spend three days during the week-end at the guest of Miss Mary Lewis at Corvallis. Miss Lewis was a former Silverton teacher and is now head of the German department of U.S.C. Miss Rhona Hicks and Miss Mildred Collins will accompany Miss Dywick to Corvallis to visit relatives and friends. They plan to return Monday afternoon.

Spring Jersey Show To Be at Corvallis

Albany—The Linn-Benton Jersey Cattle club, which has held its annual spring jubilee and show in Albany for the past several years, has accepted an invitation of the Corvallis Commercial club to hold its meeting there this spring. The date to be announced later. It was announced by L. A. Hulbert of Peck county, who accepted the invitation following a meeting of the club at his farm last Saturday. Many Jersey cattle breeders in the two-county club are interested in the show. It was announced.

ORANGEMEN OF SILVERTON HIGH GETTING RITES

Silverton—One of the outstanding extra organizations of the Silverton senior high school is the Orangemen, of which James Manning is advisor. Boys that have made creditable records for their school in athletics are eligible to membership.

TRIPLE LINK CLUB GUEST BAKER HOME

Silverton—Members of the Triple Link club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Baker Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. F. J. Roubal, Mrs. Miles Ottaway and Mrs. Laura Snider as assistant hostesses. Luncheon and informal social diversions were the pleasures of the session.

DALLAS MASONS HOST TO LODGE FROM DISTRICT

Dallas—In Masonic hall Wednesday evening Naomi chapter, order of Eastern Star, entertained the Amity, Independence and Falls City chapters complimenting Mrs. Monnie M. Hauser of Salem, worthy grand matron, and Rex Davis of Albany, worthy grand officer. Over 200 attended the affair.

CONCRETE BRIDGE WORK IS STARTED

Silverton—An addition to the Cascade secondary state highway will be the concrete bridge and repair work to the road along the road near the Jay Morley home. Munson, contractor, has received the steel girders that are now placed across the river. The steam shovel started operations Friday in leveling a 9-foot bed making the road uniform at this point. The new bridge opening is now feet higher than the old.

LIBRARY FOLKS TO MEET SOON

Albany—Representatives of 26 institutional libraries have been invited to meet in Albany at the annual district library conference Thursday, April 19, with the Albany public library board acting as hosts.

FIRE IN FOREST SOON CONTROLLED

Silverton—Two accidents at the Ankeny logging company during the weeks have marred the progress in taking some time to repair the damage. A fire caught in the dry underbrush near the donkey engine Thursday and took the quick work of the workers to hinder a real forest fire as the timber is very dry for this time of year. The Thoroldson truck was held up several hours when an axle broke as the driver was on his way to the Silver Falls pond with a load of logs.

CLEAR LAKE CROPS REPORTED VARIED

Clear Lake—Crop reports in the district are not so favorable. Wheat and grain fields are reported to be covered with aphid but the amount of damage is not known. Early Gardens are also reported to be covered with aphid. Fruit crops vary. Some report prunes are all dropping with only a light crop of pears and still dropping. Some cherry trees seem to have plenty and some not any. Peach orchards report some to have a good crop while others have none to speak of. Petite prunes show a large yield in most places. The grape crop seems to be very favorable. Also logan and blackberries, with a number of very fine yards. Radish growers report having to re-sow some. Considerable acreage of radishes is being sown in this vicinity this year.

GRANGE MEETS SATURDAY

Monmouth—The program for the grange meeting Saturday afternoon has been arranged by Mrs. Anna Herron. Mrs. Edwards will give a history of the local grange and members are asked to bring some antique relic they may possess for an afternoon exhibition. It is also seed and bulb exchange day at the grange.

GIRLS PLAN DANCE

Woodburn—The sodality girls of St. Luke's church will give the second of their popular dances Monday evening at St. Luke's community hall. Modern music will be furnished by the Happy Go Luckies and Fred Hecker will manage the floor. Everyone is invited.

BRIDGE TEA GIVEN

Monmouth—An enjoyable occasion Tuesday afternoon was the bridge tea to which Mrs. Donald Butler was hostess at her residence in Silverton for matrons from West Salem, Independence and Monmouth. Motoring to the Butler home from West Salem were Mrs. B. Hodgett and Mrs. Utley; from Independence Mrs. D. Penneroy and Mrs. M. J. Butler; and from Monmouth were Mrs. Clara Powell, Mrs. F. O'Rourke, Mrs. C. E. Cole, Mrs. Fred Hill, Mrs. Velma Pearson, Mrs. O. A. Wolverson and Mrs. Carl DeArmond. The first prize at cards was won by Mrs. Utley, the second by Mrs. Butler and the guest prize by Mrs. Wolverson.

DELEGATES HONORED

Silverton—Roger Comstock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Comstock of the Waldo Hills community, was one of the three honored delegates that were granted a trip to Los Angeles. They were from the University of Oregon as representatives from the Foreign Trade department. Accompanying the young men was A. L. Farmer of the Portland chamber of commerce. They went by automobile, leaving Thursday and planning to return Sunday.

CALLS TO CONVENTION

Jefferson—Helen Kauger, county Christian Endeavor president of Salem, was a visitor at a recent meeting of the Evangelical Christian Endeavor society, in regard to the state convention to be held in Salem April 19 to 22. A pre-convention rally will be held here Tuesday night, April 17.

LEAVING FOR WEEK-END

Silverton—Miss Stella Dywick, secretary to the superintendent of schools, will spend three days during the week-end at the guest of Miss Mary Lewis at Corvallis. Miss Lewis was a former Silverton teacher and is now head of the German department of U.S.C. Miss Rhona Hicks and Miss Mildred Collins will accompany Miss Dywick to Corvallis to visit relatives and friends. They plan to return Monday afternoon.

Spring Jersey Show To Be at Corvallis

Albany—The Linn-Benton Jersey Cattle club, which has held its annual spring jubilee and show in Albany for the past several years, has accepted an invitation of the Corvallis Commercial club to hold its meeting there this spring. The date to be announced later. It was announced by L. A. Hulbert of Peck county, who accepted the invitation following a meeting of the club at his farm last Saturday. Many Jersey cattle breeders in the two-county club are interested in the show. It was announced.

ORANGEMEN OF SILVERTON HIGH GETTING RITES

Silverton—One of the outstanding extra organizations of the Silverton senior high school is the Orangemen, of which James Manning is advisor. Boys that have made creditable records for their school in athletics are eligible to membership.

TRIPLE LINK CLUB GUEST BAKER HOME

Silverton—Members of the Triple Link club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Baker Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. F. J. Roubal, Mrs. Miles Ottaway and Mrs. Laura Snider as assistant hostesses. Luncheon and informal social diversions were the pleasures of the session.

DALLAS MASONS HOST TO LODGE FROM DISTRICT

Dallas—In Masonic hall Wednesday evening Naomi chapter, order of Eastern Star, entertained the Amity, Independence and Falls City chapters complimenting Mrs. Monnie M. Hauser of Salem, worthy grand matron, and Rex Davis of Albany, worthy grand officer. Over 200 attended the affair.

CONCRETE BRIDGE WORK IS STARTED

Silverton—An addition to the Cascade secondary state highway will be the concrete bridge and repair work to the road along the road near the Jay Morley home. Munson, contractor, has received the steel girders that are now placed across the river. The steam shovel started operations Friday in leveling a 9-foot bed making the road uniform at this point. The new bridge opening is now feet higher than the old.

LIBRARY FOLKS TO MEET SOON

Albany—Representatives of 26 institutional libraries have been invited to meet in Albany at the annual district library conference Thursday, April 19, with the Albany public library board acting as hosts.

FIRE IN FOREST SOON CONTROLLED

Silverton—Two accidents at the Ankeny logging company during the weeks have marred the progress in taking some time to repair the damage. A fire caught in the dry underbrush near the donkey engine Thursday and took the quick work of the workers to hinder a real forest fire as the timber is very dry for this time of year. The Thoroldson truck was held up several hours when an axle broke as the driver was on his way to the Silver Falls pond with a load of logs.

CLEAR LAKE CROPS REPORTED VARIED

Clear Lake—Crop reports in the district are not so favorable. Wheat and grain fields are reported to be covered with aphid but the amount of damage is not known. Early Gardens are also reported to be covered with aphid. Fruit crops vary. Some report prunes are all dropping with only a light crop of pears and still dropping. Some cherry trees seem to have plenty and some not any. Peach orchards report some to have a good crop while others have none to speak of. Petite prunes show a large yield in most places. The grape crop seems to be very favorable. Also logan and blackberries, with a number of very fine yards. Radish growers report having to re-sow some. Considerable acreage of radishes is being sown in this vicinity this year.

GRANGE MEETS SATURDAY

Monmouth—The program for the grange meeting Saturday afternoon has been arranged by Mrs. Anna Herron. Mrs. Edwards will give a history of the local grange and members are asked to bring some antique relic they may possess for an afternoon exhibition. It is also seed and bulb exchange day at the grange.

GIRLS PLAN DANCE

Woodburn—The sodality girls of St. Luke's church will give the second of their popular dances Monday evening at St. Luke's community hall. Modern music will be furnished by the Happy Go Luckies and Fred Hecker will manage the floor. Everyone is invited.

BRIDGE TEA GIVEN

Monmouth—An enjoyable occasion Tuesday afternoon was the bridge tea to which Mrs. Donald Butler was hostess at her residence in Silverton for matrons from West Salem, Independence and Monmouth. Motoring to the Butler home from West Salem were Mrs. B. Hodgett and Mrs. Utley; from Independence Mrs. D. Penneroy and Mrs. M. J. Butler; and from Monmouth were Mrs. Clara Powell, Mrs. F. O'Rourke, Mrs. C. E. Cole, Mrs. Fred Hill, Mrs. Velma Pearson, Mrs. O. A. Wolverson and Mrs. Carl DeArmond. The first prize at cards was won by Mrs. Utley, the second by Mrs. Butler and the guest prize by Mrs. Wolverson.

DELEGATES HONORED

Silverton—Roger Comstock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Comstock of the Waldo Hills community, was one of the three honored delegates that were granted a trip to Los Angeles. They were from the University of Oregon as representatives from the Foreign Trade department. Accompanying the young men was A. L. Farmer of the Portland chamber of commerce. They went by automobile, leaving Thursday and planning to return Sunday.

CALLS TO CONVENTION

Jefferson—Helen Kauger, county Christian Endeavor president of Salem, was a visitor at a recent meeting of the Evangelical Christian Endeavor society, in regard to the state convention to be held in Salem April 19 to 22. A pre-convention rally will be held here Tuesday night, April 17.

LEAVING FOR WEEK-END

Silverton—Miss Stella Dywick, secretary to the superintendent of schools, will spend three days during the week-end at the guest of Miss Mary Lewis at Corvallis. Miss Lewis was a former Silverton teacher and is now head of the German department of U.S.C. Miss Rhona Hicks and Miss Mildred Collins will accompany Miss Dywick to Corvallis to visit relatives and friends. They plan to return Monday afternoon.

Spring Jersey Show To Be at Corvallis

Albany—The Linn-Benton Jersey Cattle club, which has held its annual spring jubilee and show in Albany for the past several years, has accepted an invitation of the Corvallis Commercial club to hold its meeting there this spring. The date to be announced later. It was announced by L. A. Hulbert of Peck county, who accepted the invitation following a meeting of the club at his farm last Saturday. Many Jersey cattle breeders in the two-county club are interested in the show. It was announced.

ORANGEMEN OF SILVERTON HIGH GETTING RITES

Silverton—One of the outstanding extra organizations of the Silverton senior high school is the Orangemen, of which James Manning is advisor. Boys that have made creditable records for their school in athletics are eligible to membership.

TRIPLE LINK CLUB GUEST BAKER HOME

Silverton—Members of the Triple Link club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Baker Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. F. J. Roubal, Mrs. Miles Ottaway and Mrs. Laura Snider as assistant hostesses. Luncheon and informal social diversions were the pleasures of the session.

DALLAS MASONS HOST TO LODGE FROM DISTRICT

Dallas—In Masonic hall Wednesday evening Naomi chapter, order of Eastern Star, entertained the Amity, Independence and Falls City chapters complimenting Mrs. Monnie M. Hauser of Salem, worthy grand matron, and Rex Davis of Albany, worthy grand officer. Over 200 attended the affair.

CONCRETE BRIDGE WORK IS STARTED

Silverton—An addition to the Cascade secondary state highway will be the concrete bridge and repair work to the road along the road near the Jay Morley home. Munson, contractor, has received the steel girders that are now placed across the river. The steam shovel started operations Friday in leveling a 9-foot bed making the road uniform at this point. The new bridge opening is now feet higher than the old.

LIBRARY FOLKS TO MEET SOON

Albany—Representatives of 26 institutional libraries have been invited to meet in Albany at the annual district library conference Thursday, April 19, with the Albany public library board acting as hosts.

FIRE IN FOREST SOON CONTROLLED

Silverton—Two accidents at the Ankeny logging company during the weeks have marred the progress in taking some time to repair the damage. A fire caught in the dry underbrush near the donkey engine Thursday and took the quick work of the workers to hinder a real forest fire as the timber is very dry for this time of year. The Thoroldson truck was held up several hours when an axle broke as the driver was on his way to the Silver Falls pond with a load of logs.

CLEAR LAKE CROPS REPORTED VARIED

Clear Lake—Crop reports in the district are not so favorable. Wheat and grain fields are reported to be covered with aphid but the amount of damage is not known. Early Gardens are also reported to be covered with aphid. Fruit crops vary. Some report prunes are all dropping with only a light crop of pears and still dropping. Some cherry trees seem to have plenty and some not any. Peach orchards report some to have a good crop while others have none to speak of. Petite prunes show a large yield in most places. The grape crop seems to be very favorable. Also logan and blackberries, with a number of very fine yards. Radish growers report having to re-sow some. Considerable acreage of radishes is being sown in this vicinity this year.

GRANGE MEETS SATURDAY

Monmouth—The program for the grange meeting Saturday afternoon has been arranged by Mrs. Anna Herron. Mrs. Edwards will give a history of the local grange and members are asked to bring some antique relic they may possess for an afternoon exhibition. It is also seed and bulb exchange day at the grange.

GIRLS PLAN DANCE

Woodburn—The sodality girls of St. Luke's church will give the second of their popular dances Monday evening at St. Luke's community hall. Modern music will be furnished by the Happy Go Luckies and Fred Hecker will manage the floor. Everyone is invited.

BRIDGE TEA GIVEN

Monmouth—An enjoyable occasion Tuesday afternoon was the bridge tea to which Mrs. Donald Butler was hostess at her residence in Silverton for matrons from West Salem, Independence and Monmouth. Motoring to the Butler home from West Salem were Mrs. B. Hodgett and Mrs. Utley; from Independence Mrs. D. Penneroy and Mrs. M. J. Butler; and from Monmouth were Mrs. Clara Powell, Mrs. F. O'Rourke, Mrs. C. E. Cole, Mrs. Fred Hill, Mrs. Velma Pearson, Mrs. O. A. Wolverson and Mrs. Carl DeArmond. The first prize at cards was won by Mrs. Utley, the second by Mrs. Butler and the guest prize by Mrs. Wolverson.

DELEGATES HONORED

Silverton—Roger Comstock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Comstock of the Waldo Hills community, was one of the three honored delegates that were granted a trip to Los Angeles. They were from the University of Oregon as representatives from the Foreign Trade department. Accompanying the young men was A. L. Farmer of the Portland chamber of commerce. They went by automobile, leaving Thursday and planning to return Sunday.

CALLS TO CONVENTION

Jefferson—Helen Kauger, county Christian Endeavor president of Salem, was a visitor at a recent meeting of the Evangelical Christian Endeavor society, in regard to the state convention to be held in Salem April 19 to 22. A pre-convention rally will be held here Tuesday night, April 17.

LEAVING FOR WEEK-END

Silverton—Miss Stella Dywick, secretary to the superintendent of schools, will spend three days during the week-end at the guest of Miss Mary Lewis at Corvallis. Miss Lewis was a former Silverton teacher and is now head of the German department of U.S.C. Miss Rhona Hicks and Miss Mildred Collins will accompany Miss Dywick to Corvallis to visit relatives and friends. They plan to return Monday afternoon.

Spring Jersey Show To Be at Corvallis

Albany—The Linn-Benton Jersey Cattle club, which has held its annual spring jubilee and show in Albany for the past several years, has accepted an invitation of the Corvallis Commercial club to hold its meeting there this spring. The date to be announced later. It was announced by L. A. Hulbert of Peck county, who accepted the invitation following a meeting of the club at his farm last Saturday. Many Jersey cattle breeders in the two-county club are interested in the show. It was announced.

ORANGEMEN OF SILVERTON HIGH GETTING RITES

Silverton—One of the outstanding extra organizations of the Silverton senior high school is the Orangemen, of which James Manning is advisor. Boys that have made creditable records for their school in athletics are eligible to membership.

TRIPLE LINK CLUB GUEST BAKER HOME

Silverton—Members of the Triple Link club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Baker Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. F. J. Roubal, Mrs. Miles Ottaway and Mrs. Laura Snider as assistant hostesses. Luncheon and informal social diversions were the pleasures of the session.

DALLAS MASONS HOST TO LODGE FROM DISTRICT

Dallas—In Masonic hall Wednesday evening Naomi chapter, order of Eastern Star, entertained the Amity, Independence and Falls City chapters complimenting Mrs. Monnie M. Hauser of Salem, worthy grand matron, and Rex Davis of Albany, worthy grand officer. Over 200 attended the affair.

CONCRETE BRIDGE WORK IS STARTED

Silverton—An addition to the Cascade secondary state highway will be the concrete bridge and repair work to the road along the road near the Jay Morley home. Munson, contractor, has received the steel girders that are now placed across the river. The steam shovel started operations Friday in leveling a 9-foot bed making the road uniform at this point. The new bridge opening is now feet higher than the old.

LIBRARY FOLKS TO MEET SOON

Albany—Representatives of 26 institutional libraries have been invited to meet in Albany at the annual district library conference Thursday, April 19, with the Albany public library board acting as hosts.

FIRE IN FOREST SOON CONTROLLED

Silverton—Two accidents at the Ankeny logging company during the weeks have marred the progress in taking some time to repair the damage. A fire caught in the dry underbrush near the donkey engine Thursday and took the quick work of the workers to hinder a real forest fire as the timber is very dry for this time of year. The Thoroldson truck was held up several hours when an axle broke as the driver was on his way to the Silver Falls pond with a load of logs.

CLEAR LAKE CROPS REPORTED VARIED

Clear Lake—Crop reports in the district are not so favorable. Wheat and grain fields are reported to be covered with aphid but the amount of damage is not known. Early Gardens are also reported to be covered with aphid. Fruit crops vary. Some report prunes are all dropping with only a light crop of pears and still dropping. Some cherry trees seem to have plenty and some not any. Peach orchards report some to have a good crop while others have none to speak of. Petite prunes show a large yield in most places. The grape crop seems to be very favorable. Also logan and blackberries, with a number of very fine yards. Radish growers report having to re-sow some. Considerable acreage of radishes is being sown in this vicinity this year.