DALLAS CHURCH IS DEDICATED

Dallas—The new church of the Mennonite, located at the corner of Washington and Hayter streets, was dedicated Sunday with Rev. W. J. Bestvater of Shafter, Calif., as the main speaker of the day.

The new church is a frame structure, 40 x 70, with a full basement and, in addition to the main auditorium, has a number of class rooms and a choir loft. It was erected on the site of the old church which was moved over on the lot to provide a meeting place while building operations were in progress. With few exceptions all labor was donated and the result is a fitting monument to the effort of the congregation.

Special music for the auspicious occasion, was provided by the choir, under the direction of A. H. Friesen. An ordination service, with Rev. Bestvater and Rev. P. F. Wall, pastor, as speakers, was conducted at 2 p. m. An evangelistic campaign, scheduled to last until June 1, was started by Rev. Bestvater at 7:30. These evangelistic meetings will be held every night except Saturday.

NEW SHOP OPENED

Silverton—Mrs. Alta Hewitt has recently opened a new beauty parlor in the Hoamer building which is known as Alta's Beauty Shop. Mrs. Hewitt has been in Silverton for a number of years where she has been employed in various beauty shops.

SCIO SWAMPS PLAN TO TAX MERCHANDISE

Scio—In North Scio precinct at the primary election the sales tax was defeated by more than 5 to 1, while in South Scio the opposition piled up 9 to 1 vote. In North Scio 18 electors voted for the bill and 94 against it. This was the public question most debated and the issue that overshadowed by odds the candidacy for any person for office. The defeat of the proposal was a foregone conclusion in the minds of people who had kept in touch with the campaign.

James W. Mott, republican incumbant, ran strong here for reelection to congress. W. A. Delzell, democrat, led his competitors by a good margin. Sam H. Brown of Gervais was the favorite for governor, his nearest contender, Joe E. Dunne, receiving just half as many votes as Brown. Charles H. Martin, democrat, led Willis Mahoney by almost 50 per cent. Carle Abrams of Salem led in the rupublican race for state secretary while Walter of Benton county was easy winner on the democratic side. C. H. Gram led Anderson 3 to 1 for labor commissioner.

In county contests in Linn in the two Scio precincts Haley led Williamson by a good majority. F. D. Mayer ran strong for representative. The names of F. M. Brown, M. I. C. Arnold and Charles Childs were written in, Brown receiving 8, Arnold 18 and Childs 8. For senator on the democratic ticket Stringer received 67 to Garland's 36. For democratic representative Harrison led Munyan by 15 votes. Buckhart received 77 votes to Alvin's 23, in the democratic race for commissioner. Both men are from Lebanon region. Wiley Shelton was renominated justice of the peace and Fred Daley constable.

The county indebtedness constitutional amendment was badly snowed under, as were all other measures except the proposed change in the jury verdict procedure, which carried by a safe majority in the two Scio precincts.

COMMUNITY CLUB WINDS UP SEASON

Rickreall—The last meeting of the Greenwood school and community club for the season was held at the Greenwood schoolhouse Thursday night. At a business meeting following community singing, the nominating committee reported officers to serve for next year as follows: Mrs. Wilson, president; Mrs. Henry Jackson, vice-president, and Mrs. Joe Makar, secretary. Hall is local pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church.

SALEM MAYOR GIVES BOOST FOR GARDENS

Monmouth—Mayor Douglas McKay of Salem was guest speaker at the Civic club meeting in the city hall this week. Mayor McKay said he had never become a golf enthusiast because he extracted more pleasure out of gardening. He said he had built three houses in Salem and in each instance he had found pleasure in starting gardens. He said he likes occasionally to take the river road from Salem to Wheatland and St. Paul, not so much for the historic memories that cling around these old settlements but because on the road occurs not a single sign board. He spoke on the topic of building civic pride and declared it consists in improving natural appearances. Mrs. F. E. Chambers sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. R. D. Elliott. Reports of secretary and treasurer for the year were read, also reports from standing committees. Mrs. Effie Smith was unanimously elected secretary-treasurer and there will be a temporary president for the summer months and a president for the year will be elected.

Lyons—Miss Bessie Smith of Oregon City spent the week-end in Lyons and Mill City.
