

LOCALS

Evangelist James Reed from New Jersey is holding a series of meetings at Grace Gospel hall 15th and Mill streets, every evening at 8 o'clock, except Saturdays.

Hill's Wimpy Hamburgers. Thank you too much. 697 N. Capitol St.

Parnell Kupper, a member of the graduating class of Salem senior high of this year, left for San Francisco Monday where he will board a steamer sailing for the Orient. Kupper will act in the capacity of a cadet while on the cruise.

Members of the American Legion Junior baseball team will meet at Olinger field at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon for their trip to Woodburn. Salem and Woodburn will play the second game of the county series at Woodburn during the afternoon.

Dance, Mellow Moon Wed. Ladies free 9:30. Boots Grant's band. 135*

Confirmation of sale has been granted in the case of Artisans Life association against Marie C. Jones.

Messenger service. Phone 8111. 134

Judgment for $386.84 has been granted in circuit court by default in the case of Euna company against J. L. Stroud.

Pull dinner 25c. State Cafeteria. 135

Default judgment for money has been granted in the case of industrial accident commission against Benjamin I. Epps.

Salem men serving on committees on the 11th annual convention of Lion's clubs of Oregon at O. D. (Frosty) Olson, local activities and Ralph Kleizing, auditing. The only invitation for the next year's convention received is from The Dalles though Newport is seeking the convention for the following year.

Dance, Crystal Wed., Sat. old-time, modern, 2 bands, 2 floors, 25c. 138*

A marriage license has been applied for by Raymond C. Paulson, 23, laborer, Mt. Angel, and Anna M. Peterson, 20, housekeeper, Woodburn.

Skating Dreamland Sunday. 138*

County Judge Siegmund, chairman of the roads committee for the Kiwanis all state picnic to be held at Breckenridge next Sunday, announces that the road will be in good condition, although part of the way is narrow and curving and visitors should drive slowly. He says the roads will be patrolled by state traffic officers and urges that as many as possible take advantage of the chance to visit this beauty spot.

Dance, Mellow Moon Wed. Ladies free 9:30. Boots Grant's band. 135*

Besides Fire Chief Harry Hutton, two other members of the Salem fire department will attend the annual firemen's school at Corvallis this week. They are Assistant Chief William Iwan and Captain Ben Fought. Their attendance has been authorized by the fire committee of the city council, headed by Alderman O. A. Olson.

Mayor Douglas McKay and City Attorney Chris J. Kowitz will both speak before the Progressive Business Men's club in Portland Thursday. Miss Lillian Scott, Salem soloist, will sing at the same session of the club.

Ice. Prompt residence delivery. Ph. 5583. Capital Ice & Cold Storage Co., 560 Trade St. Also Crushed ice and salt for ice cream. 134*

Motion has been filed in circuit court in connection with the complaint covering the estate of Henry T. Hoke against the industrial accident commission in which the plaintiff is asked to show whether he claims to be entitled to present disability and also as to the extent thereof.

The industrial accident commission has filed complaints for recovery of compensation contributions alleged to be due against Earl Harman and W. R. Daugherty.

In the case of Jess W. Davis against Massachusetts Bonding & Insurance company a jury in circuit court yesterday afternoon returned a verdict of $450 in favor of the plaintiff. Ivan Hadley was foreman. Davis brought the action to recover on a disability clause in an insurance policy for injuries he alleged he sustained while unloading a truckload of baled hay.

Barbara Barnes Reve at the Elsinore Wed. and Thurs. evenings. Not Tuesday as incorrectly noted in our ad Mon. eve. The Elsinore. 134*

Evelyn V. Letts has filed suit for divorce from Leonard Betts charging cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married in San Diego in June, 1918.

In the case of Ellen Kuest against George E. Miller, 44, farmer, and Gladys Kern, 30, stenographer, both Woodburn; Roland J. Seeger, 38, farmer, route 4, Salem, and Dorothy Marie Browning, 21, housekeeper, route 3, Salem.

Marriage licenses have been applied for as follows: Gail B. Eber, 23, laborer, route 8, Salem, and Helen Kruger, 25, no occupation, given, 1415 N. 14th St., Salem; Stanley W. Price, legal salesman, 444 N. Cottage, and Vernie A. Anderson, legal stenographer, Portland; Arthur E. Robertson, 51, farmer, Turner, and Nora Hensland; Arthur E. Robertson, 51, St. Salem; Bernard M. Miller, 44, farmer, and Gladys Kern, 30, stenographer, both Woodburn; Roland J. Seeger, 38, farmer, route 4, Salem, and Dorothy Marie Browning, 21, housekeeper, route 3, Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gille have returned from a month's visit with their daughter, Mrs. Van Gleason, at the Joaquin Miller resort at Canyon City in Grant county, where they report a very pleasant visit but are glad to get back to the Willamette valley. Mr. Gille stated that the wheat crop in Grant county is practically ruined and that thousands of acres are being pastured off with horses. However, he says there will be a good crop of alfalfa in the John Day valley.

John W. Cunningham, who was in Washington, D. C. for two weeks representing Salem in its negotiations with the public works administration relative to the municipal water project, is now on his way home, and is eagerly awaited by city officials who hope that he may be able to give some new information on progress made. He is expected within the next two days.

The regular monthly meeting of the Altar society of St. Vincent de Paul will take place Wednesday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock at the parish hall for a short business session and entertainment. All members are urged to be present.

Former members of the student body of the Capital Business college, as well as present students, are invited to attend the reception at the home of Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, 790 N. Cottage street, this evening from 8 to 10 o'clock.

ROLPH BURIED IN GREENLAWN

San Francisco, June 5 (AP)—Sunshine burst through somber rain clouds as the body of Governor James Rolph, Jr., was borne from his mission district home to its final resting place in Greenlawn cemetery today.

In contrast to the public services accorded to the governor yesterday, his family and a few close friends gathered at his old home to pay him final honors.

Before a gardenia covered casket, Rev. Wilton Ford, pastor of the Episcopal church of the Holy Innocents, officiated at the final, simple services.

An old family organ was taken into the parlor and mourners gathered nearby heard the strains of "Nearer My God to Thee," played by Uda Waldrop.

Outside the residence gathered some 4,000 friends who had known the governor during his lifetime.

Many old friends of the governor, "my old gang," as he often had called them, attended the services, with members of his family, including Mrs. Rolph, their son, James III, and his wife; Will, Tom and Ronald Rolph, his brothers, and their sister, Mrs. Joseph A. Moore.

Acting Mayor Frank Morrison and numerous other dignitaries also paid their last respects.

Marriage licenses have been issued in Portland to George Henry Michael, Salem, and Martha Spliet, Portland; LeRoy Robinson, Salem, route 4, and Anna Stanley, Portland; William H. Nicolson and Mildred I. Pearson, both of Mill City. From Vancouver, Wash., licenses have been issued to Lowell E. Davenport, 656 Center street, and Helen L. Olson, Seaside, and to Harry D. Britt, Dallas and Rozella J. Frink, Falls City.

A. M. Dalrymple, democratic state commissioner for Marion county, will be a candidate for reelection at an organization meeting of the county central committee to be held at the court house next Saturday afternoon, but he is not having opposition for the office in the person of John Bayne. Aside from this contest it is expected the officers of the committee will be re-elected. They are John S. Marshall, chairman, and B. S. Martin, secretary. All present officers have served for the last four years.

In the matter of liquidating the Aurora State bank an order has been filed in circuit court in connection with the suit of the Cockburn properly releasing certain defendants from liability under the suit on payment of $200.

The June meeting of the board of directors, Salem Y.M.C.A. will take place in the association dining room Thursday noon.

The vote cast for city officials in the election of May 15 was officially canvassed by the city council last night. No changes in election figures as previously published were reported.

The miracle of the human mind and brain which has reached the name of perfection in all creation was presented to the Kiwanis club Tuesday noon by Dr. Wilford H. Belknap, past president of the Portland Kiwanis club. He told how the brain is governed by law and order and identities maintained.

Two alleged automobile thieves were arrested by the Salem police early Tuesday afternoon 25 minutes after a telephone call from Oregon City describing the car that had been stolen there. The two men, Marshall Nicholas and Ben Schiffer, were in the car when arrested. The Salem police radio relayed the information to local officers just before the arrest was made.

Leonard Henderson, inmate of Fairview home, escaped Sunday but was later returned to the home by the police.

Pat Cleary is held at the city jail for investigation. He is said to have broken into the Homer Foster real estate office and the Conger Printing shop on State street. He is said to be from California.

Circuit Judge Lewelling this morning handed down a decree of divorce in the case of Walter R. Fandrich against Flora Fandrich and this afternoon was scheduled to hear the following default di-

PROMOTIONS IN GUARD LISTED FOR 8 OFFICERS

Eight promotions in the Oregon National guard, made in preparation for the annual encampment of the more than 3,000 men and officers at Camp Clatsop beginning June 12, were announced by the headquarters here today.

Second Lieutenant James W. Grisby of Medford was advanced to first lieutenant and placed in command of the headquarters company of the 3rd battalion. He succeeds the late Lieutenant Milo B. Baucum, who was killed while on duty as a member of the state police.

First Lieutenant Thomas A. Davis of Portland was promoted to captain of the medical corps attached to the 18th infantry.

Second Lieutenant Dean W. Potter of Portland was raised to first lieutenant of the infantry and assigned to Company H of the 18th. Second Lieutenant Dalton S. O'Neill of Portland was advanced to first lieutenant of Company H of the 18th infantry.

First Sergeant Victor J. Micelli of Roseburg was promoted to first lieutenant and assigned to Company D of the 18th infantry. Micelli is a World war veteran and previously was captain in this company. He resigned later but some time ago re-enlisted.

Second Lieutenant Joseph Parsons of Forest Grove was raised to first lieutenant and assigned to Company I of the 18th infantry.

Sergeant Frank Sprouse of Forest Grove was advanced to second lieutenant and assigned to Company I of the 18th infantry.

Second Lieutenant Albert L. Henderson of Astoria was promoted to first lieutenant of Company I of the 18th infantry.

Committee assignments include: Baseball, W. L. Phillips, Rev. Grover Birtch, Dale Taylor, R. E. Shinn, J. J. Fitzsimmons and E. M. McKee; volleyball, C. A. Page, L. E. Barrick, Carl Abrams, Floyd Miller, John Carlin, Rev. S. D. Johnson; horseshoes, Dr. Frank E. Brown, Fred Blatchford, S. B. Laughlin, Guy L. Smith and A. L. Lindbeck; track and field, Charles Wiper, J. E. Law, Phil Barrett, Dr. C. A. Downs and Thomas Roen; campfire, W. I. Staley and William McGilchrist, Sr.; women's stunts, Ted Chambers, J. L. Stead, George Alexander, Douglas McKay, Ed Gabriel and George Arbuclie; swimming, W. I. Needham, E. L. Wagner, Phil Brownell and Julian Burrows.

Junior board members who will form their own committees to assist include Doug McKay, Jr., Joe Law, Bill Shinn, George Arbuclie, Jr., Wallace Steed, Charles Wiper, Jr., Pete Geiser, Gordon Black, Tom Roen, Dayton Robertson and Dave Copton.

GASOLINE SALES SHOW INCREASE

Total sale of motor vehicle fuels in Oregon for last month was well over April, 1933, or 14,615,261 gallons against 11,948,297 gallons, as shown by a statement released by the secretary of state's office today. This paid on last month's sales amounted to $730,763.08 as compared to $477,776.77 for the corresponding month last year.

A recapitulation of figures for the last 15 years or since February 25, 1919, shows that over that period 1,736,852,776 gallons of motor fuel have been sold in Oregon, bringing in a total amount in taxes of $57,270,593.97. This total, less $4,817,745.94 in refunds, $136,073.79 administrative expenses and $649,586.88 not transferred to the highway fund, left a net amount of tax receipts transferred to the state highway fund of $51,667,187.36 over the 15-year period.

FREE SWIMMING TO FEATURE PICNIC

Free swimming for children will be one of the attractions of the all-state picnic to be held at Breckenridge Springs next Sunday. At the upper spring is a large swimming pool in which this will be given entirely to children from 2 until 3 o'clock. It is suggested that children bring their own bathing suits.

The large pool will be supervised by those competent and everything done to give the children a fine hour of swimming. The pool is at the Bruckman Springs where the program will be presented. Free coffee will be served by women from the Salem Woman's club. Business and Professional Woman's club and Zontas, assisted by Kiwanians.

While driving to Albany Monday night, Marshall Powell and Paul Brunisch of Silverton, witnessed the burning of the large stock and grain barn on the Jimmy Mill's place just east of Knox Butte. The fire caught from an exploding lantern. All stock was saved but the entire crop of new hay was destroyed. The 14-room home on the estate of M. H. Mills and later owned by Mrs. Wilmfred Marshall, burned to the ground Sunday night. The Mills and Marshall places are three-fourths of a mile apart and on either side of the Powell farm where the young men were driving for a visit. Cause of the Marshall fire is not known. Both buildings were modern structures.

Authority to register out-of-state motorists was received Tuesday by Mrs. Claudia Benson, manager of the Salem bureau of the state motor association, which was officially opened Monday. When the bureau was first planned it was decided not to register the visiting vehicles but to send them to the state traffic department. However, there has been such a demand that the change was authorized.

A complaint has been filed by the police with the Salem police court charging Earl Godsey with failing to heed a stop sign.

BASEBALL

NATIONAL
Brooklyn 10 15 0
Philadelphia 11 15 1
Mungo, Lucas, Herring & Lopez; Collier, Hansen, Moore & Todd.

American
Philadelphia 8 15 1
Washington 7 9 0
Benton and Berry; Crowder and Berg.
(First game)
Boston 4 10 1
New York 13 16 4
Cantwell, Elliott, Pickler and Spohrer; Schumacher and Mancuso.

American
(First game)
Cleveland 2 8 4
Detroit 20 21 1
Brown, Lee, Bean and Pylak; L. Brown and Hayworth.
(First game)
St. Louis 2 6 3
Chicago 8 14 0
Blaeholder and Hensley; Jones and Madjeski.
New York 3 5 0
Boston 8 9 0
Van Atta, MacFayden and Dickey; Rhodes, W. Ferrell and R. Ferrell.

HOBOS CARRIED RADIO SET ON WANDERINGS

Although he was a tramp on the road, recent transient at Hotel de Minto wasn't going to be deprived of music, or the daily news flashes, or Joe Penner's gags, so he carried his radio set right along with him. He had made it himself, and had it equipped with earphones and a device to be held in the hand as an aerial. It worked, too, and the transient kept it going most of the time while he was a guest of the hotel.

The load at the hotel was heavier during May than it has been in any previous month, according to Supervisor R. R. Boardman. This is attributed to the large number of seasonal workers coming in. The reported shortage of berry pickers in this district, published in newspapers throughout the coast, brought in many transients, but the policy of the transient bureau is to give this work to local men as far as possible.

The total number of men at the hotel in May was 779 and about 6000 meals were served. The hotel is new, equipped with a hospital and medical attention. From four to eight men are receiving doctor's attention at all times. One hospital case was that of a youth of 18 who, in jumping from a freight train, landed on a flat car and punctured his body in the region of the liver.

Another new adjunct of Hotel de Minto is a permicide machine and bug killer where the clothing of all men who come in is disinfected. The hotel has 35 beds now, all equipped with sheets, blankets and mattresses. These were made by the women's division of the SERRA as a relief project.

The men who have been employed in the municipal auto park have the place in fine shape. All old trees have been cut out, stream beds cleared and the site of the swimming pool that was projected some years ago has been filled and will be planted to grass seed. A small park belonging to the Salem Deacons hospital has been improved by the crew, landscaped and a new fence added.

Boardman reports that two automobile loads of magazines have been sent recently to the transient camp at Molalla.

MRS. HEWITT WINS SUIT AGAINST PEIRCE

Formal decree was entered today in the case of Sarah M. Hewitt against Central Public Service corporation and others, decision having been handed down by Judge Lewelling who also presided in favor of the plaintiff against Albert E. Peirce company.

The decree rescinds sale of 35 shares of stock in the Central Public Service corporation for $1995 and 17 shares for $986, orders the clerk to deliver back to the A. E. Peirce company the stock and the plaintiff, Mrs. Hewitt, to recover $2981 and costs and disbursements as well as $600 attorneys' fee from that company. The suit is dismissed as to the Pacific Northwest Public Service company, Portland Traction company and Portland General Electric company as not being involved in the sales and disbursements from the plaintiff.

The findings hold that the salesman for the A. E. Peirce company held out to Mrs. Hewitt and her husband that this was to be a loan and with intent to defraud. The findings state there was no violation of the Blue Sky law.

SUPREME COURT DENIES PETITIONS

Petitions of both plaintiff and appellant were denied in oral opinions by the supreme court today in the case of New Amsterdam Casualty Co. vs. Hewitt.

Hewitt, the appellant, was denied an injunction pending the decision. The casualty firm was denied a motion to dismiss the case.

In another oral opinion a new hearing was denied in the case of Fickett vs. Gray.

Two year scholarship in Westtown, Pa., boarding school for girls has been awarded Margaret Ann Kells, 16 year old Salem high school student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kells according to information received here. Miss Kells drew the scholarship as the result of an examination given in April. She is the only one to receive this honor from the entire western district which includes states west of the Mississippi. She will enter the school next fall. Westtown prep school is located in the suburbs of Philadelphia and has an enrollment of approximately 300 students. It has a campus of 625 acres.

The Salem Laundry has received from City Building Inspector E. C. Bushnell a permit to reroof its plant at a cost estimated at $500.

CONTRACTS LET THURSDAY FOR LAST 2 BRIDGES

All jobs under the original $6,500,000 public works appropriation of the federal government for Oregon highways will be under contract by July, it was announced by R. H. Baldock, state highway engineer today. After the opening of bids Thursday in Portland, but there jobs will remain to be let at a later meeting.

"This will leave us in excellent shape to start immediately upon road projects under the authorization of the Cartwright bill," Baldock said, "if and when we obtain additional federal funds. Projects for which this money could be spent have already been listed and all we need is the money for continuation."

The three jobs remaining to be let following the award of six projects Thursday, which will be made in addition to opening bids on the last two Oregon coast bridges to be paid for out of federal loans and grants, are the Milwaukie undercrossing, the North Bend undercrossing and reconstruction of the highway through Toledo. All will cost about $125,000.

The commission will meet Thursday in Portland to open bids. The bids on the two coast bridges over the Siuslaw and Umpqua rivers, will sit of these projects will award total in excess of $1,000,000. Award-funds from the national capital and place the spans in the same status as the Coos Bay and Newport bridges. The first of the spans awarded and under contract is the Alsea bridge at Waldport.

ALUMNI BANQUET SATURDAY EVE

Members of the classes of 1884, 1909, 1914, 1924 and 1929 will receive special recognition next Saturday evening when the alumni association of Willamette university holds its annual banquet and business session in the gymnasium. This recognition will be accorded in view of the 10th, 15th, 20th, 25th and 50th reunions of the various classes.

The banquet will be served at 5:30 p.m. Saturday. This is to be followed by a short program with A. A. Schramm acting as master of ceremonies. Dr. Carl G. Doney, who is serving his last year as president of Willamette, will be the principal speaker. Other speakers will include professors and alumni.

Two positions on the board of trustees of Willamette university are to be filled from the ranks of the alumni, succeeding Merton DeLong and Robert Nelson, both of Portland whose terms will expire. Other alumni members of the board of trustees include Harold Eakin, Salem, Earl A. Knott and Arlie Walker, McMinnville, and Dr. Carl Hollingsworth, Portland.

Charles Redding of Portland is president of the alumni association and Fay Sparks, Salem, secretary-treasurer.

GREETINGS FOR SHUT-INS SUNDAY

About 50 cards bearing a greeting from Walter Winchell, radio star and newspaper columnist, to invalids who are "shut-ins" have already been received in Salem. Many more are expected to arrive before next Sunday which is National Flower Shut-in day. To each of these persons a floral bouquet will also be delivered that day by the local committee.

C. F. Breithaupt is chairman of the local committee, instead of O. D. (Frosty) Olson, as announced yesterday. The Winchell cards, which come from the headquarters of the movement, are in Mr. Breithaupt's hands, to be delivered at the proper time.

A number of America's outstanding stars are supporting the movement which will be observed June 10, throughout the United States and Canada, according to Breithaupt who, as chairman of the local committee, will supervise the delivery of gratis flowers to the sick and disabled in this city.

Among the notables helping the movement are Mary Pickford, screen and stage star; Walter Winchell, Broadway columnist and radio reporter, and Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit, radio singers.

M'COLLOUGH WINS COLLEGE DEGREE

Conde Deacon McCullough, graduated a doctor of engineering degree by Oregon State college, has been bridge engineer for the state highway commission since 1919.

In 1922 the commission elevated him to assistant state highway engineer and entrusted him with the task of designing the five coast highway bridges, to cost approximately $5,500,000.

McCullough holds a number of honorary engineering degrees and is the author of numerous text books and engineering articles.

Staff members of the Y.M.C.A. held a breakfast meeting Tuesday morning with Gus Moore and Phil Brownell performing the duties of cooks. Four members of the staff have graduated or will graduate from Salem high and Willamette university this spring. They are Phil Brownell and Bob Smith of Salem high and Gus Moore and Stanley Boggs of Willamette. In recognition of their honor, each graduate was presented with a new type pencil.

William B. Hall, Jr., and Hulin Hayes both pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Hayden Tuesday to charges of operating unlicensed trucks. Hall was fined $5 and costs and Hayes' case was continued until afternoon for sentence.

Arnold Lindeland of Eugene is on the Salem police blotter for speeding.

No More Gambling On President's Life

London, June 5 (AP)—Lloyd's insurance underwriters, at the request of the American government and the foreign office, have ceased to quote rates on President Roosevelt's life, it was reported today in well informed quarters.

Several weeks ago the United Press disclosed that Lloyd's men were doing a profitable business in writing policies indemnifying applicants against harm befalling the president. Reports were that on instructions from Washington Ambassador Robert W. Bingham made representations to the government against the quotations.

Trouble arose between DuBois and Swain relative to a property line between their homes, where a strip 34 inches wide was at stake. DuBois said he got City Engineer Hugh Rogers to make a survey which revealed that DuBois was right. Following that, said DuBois, Swain, who is a Southern Pacific conductor, waited for him on the street and gave him a beating.

"He would have beaten me up still more if neighbors hadn't interfered," said DuBois.

DuBois then swore out a warrant against Swain, but before he did it, he said, Swain went to the home of Police Judge Mark Poulsen and put up bail. When Swain continued to threaten him, DuBois said, he wrote, upon advice from Harry Mohr, another Southern Pacific man, to Superintendent King. The latter provided an investigation, and apparently did investigate, but replied that he could find no record of Swain's arrest. DuBois then inquired at the police judge's office and found that Swain's bail was in the judge's office, but that no arrest has ever been made. The $25 bail he considered exceedingly small.

DuBois asked relief from the situation. On motion of Alderman Vandevort, City Attorney Kowitz was instructed to investigate and find out why Swain has never been arrested.

BOUNDARY LINE DISPUTE BRINGS BODY ASSAULT

Several weeks ago the United Press disclosed that Lloyd's men were doing a profitable business in writing policies indemnifying applicants against harm befalling the president. Reports were that on instructions from Washington Ambassador Robert W. Bingham made representations to the government against the quotations.

Trouble arose between DuBois and Swain relative to a property line between their homes, where a strip 34 inches wide was at stake. DuBois said he got City Engineer Hugh Rogers to make a survey which revealed that DuBois was right. Following that, said DuBois, Swain, who is a Southern Pacific conductor, waited for him on the street and gave him a beating.

"He would have beaten me up still more if neighbors hadn't interfered," said DuBois.

DuBois then swore out a warrant against Swain, but before he did it, he said, Swain went to the home of Police Judge Mark Poulsen and put up bail. When Swain continued to threaten him, DuBois said, he wrote, upon advice from Harry Mohr, another Southern Pacific man, to Superintendent King. The latter provided an investigation, and apparently did investigate, but replied that he could find no record of Swain's arrest. DuBois then inquired at the police judge's office and found that Swain's bail was in the judge's office, but that no arrest has ever been made. The $25 bail he considered exceedingly small.

DuBois asked relief from the situation. On motion of Alderman Vandevort, City Attorney Kowitz was instructed to investigate and find out why Swain has never been arrested.

ALUMNI BANQUET SATURDAY EVE

Members of the classes of 1884, 1909, 1914, 1924 and 1929 will receive special recognition next Saturday evening when the alumni association of Willamette university holds its annual banquet and business session in the gymnasium. This recognition will be accorded in view of the 10th, 15th, 20th, 25th and 50th reunions of the various classes.

The banquet will be served at 5:30 p.m. Saturday. This is to be followed by a short program with A. A. Schramm acting as master of ceremonies. Dr. Carl G. Doney, who is serving his last year as president of Willamette, will be the principal speaker. Other speakers will include professors and alumni.

Two positions on the board of trustees of Willamette university are to be filled from the ranks of the alumni, succeeding Merton DeLong and Robert Nelson, both of Portland whose terms will expire. Other alumni members of the board of trustees include Harold Eakin, Salem, Earl A. Knott and Arlie Walker, McMinnville, and Dr. Carl Hollingsworth, Portland.

Charles Redding of Portland is president of the alumni association and Fay Sparks, Salem, secretary-treasurer.

GREETINGS FOR SHUT-INS SUNDAY

About 50 cards bearing a greeting from Walter Winchell, radio star and newspaper columnist, to invalids who are "shut-ins" have already been received in Salem. Many more are expected to arrive before next Sunday which is National Flower Shut-in day. To each of these persons a floral bouquet will also be delivered that day by the local committee.

C. F. Breithaupt is chairman of the local committee, instead of O. D. (Frosty) Olson, as announced yesterday. The Winchell cards, which come from the headquarters of the movement, are in Mr. Breithaupt's hands, to be delivered at the proper time.

A number of America's outstanding stars are supporting the movement which will be observed June 10, throughout the United States and Canada, according to Breithaupt who, as chairman of the local committee, will supervise the delivery of gratis flowers to the sick and disabled in this city.

Among the notables helping the movement are Mary Pickford, screen and stage star; Walter Winchell, Broadway columnist and radio reporter, and Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit, radio singers.

M'COLLOUGH WINS COLLEGE DEGREE

Conde Deacon McCullough, graduated a doctor of engineering degree by Oregon State college, has been bridge engineer for the state highway commission since 1919.

CONTRACTS LET THURSDAY FOR LAST 2 BRIDGES

All jobs under the original $6,500,000 public works appropriation of the federal government for Oregon highways will be under contract by July, it was announced by R. H. Baldock