WOODBURN BAND GETS SUPPORT BY DONATIONS

Woodburn—Sufficient money has been pledged by local merchants and others to guarantee the continued activity of the Woodburn band this summer. Slightly more than $50 per month has been pledged and assurance has been given of several more pledges. In return the band is planning to give weekly concerts during the summer months, the date of the first concert to be announced soon.

Those who are contributing to the support of the band and the amounts pledged per month are: First National bank of Portland, Woodburn branch $5; J. J. Hershberger and Son garage $2; Beechler-Kilian mortuary $2; Tom Renn $2; Hall-Ringo Funeral parlors $2; N. Becker and Son $2; Safeway store $2; Pay 'N Save Food Market $2; Woodburn Independent $2; Woodburn Feed and Supply Co. $2; Adams' Motor Service $2; Maple Park Garage $2; Love the Tire Man $2; Gurney's Cash Grocery $2; Woodburn Bakery $2; and $1 from each of the following: Moore-Beers Drug Co., C. E. Whitman, Berry Center Dry Goods store, Sanitary Meat Market, Sam Yoder Feed and Seed store, H. M. Austin, R. L. Guiss, T. C. Poorman, and Minnie Richards, Capital Journal.

Those who have donated money but have not signed a monthly pledge are Thompson's grocery $2; J. F. Nathman $2; V. W. Termaine $2; J. J. Hall $1; J. R. Landon $1.

The band is now out of debt and will soon be able to buy some much needed equipment.

MANAGER OF BANK NAMED, SILVERTON

Silverton—That Glenn L. Briedwell of McMinnville, former vice president of the United States National bank of McMinnville, will be the new manager of the re-organized Coolidge and McClaine bank of Silverton, was announced officially Tuesday afternoon by the personnel of the re-organization committee which is composed of George W. Hubbs, Roy Morley, E. S. Porter and George W. Steelhammer.

This committee has now complied with all the state banking board's requirements as of extension to June 5. There only now remains the final approval of the Federal deposit insurance, the R. F. C., and the Banking board, which will be completed within the next fed days.

State superintendent of banks, A. A. Schramm, will announce the official opening date, probably, during the week.

No end of work and sacrifice has been the lot of the re-organization committee during the past months in order to open the bank with no loss to the depositors, and their efforts are appreciated by the Silverton public, as the open bank means a different commercial standing of the entire community of Silverton, and has been anxiously awaited by the public.

Dance Is Success

Union Hill—Union Hill grange held its annual strawberry festival dance at the hall here Saturday night. The affair was very successful, netting over $20, which will go for grange benefit. Music was furnished by the Funrue orchestra and John Hafner was floor manager. Millard Shelton was in charge of arrangements and Mrs. W. M. Tate was chairman of the refreshment committee. Other grange members assisted in serving.

Gates Home Burned

Mill City — The E. V. Collins' home at Gates was completely destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. No one was at home when the fire started and it was not discovered by neighbors until it had made such headway it was impossible to save anything. Collins is employed here in the Hammond Lumber company store. The adjoining house, where Mr. Monroe lives, was in danger of burning for a short while, but the fire was prevented from spreading and no damage was done.

Fine Dairy Barn Burns At Albany

Albany—A large barn on the Ernest Gourley farm near the Albany airport north of Albany on the Pacific highway was destroyed by fire Monday night. The building and contents were valued at $2,000, partly covered by insurance. The dairy cows were not in the barn and the other livestock in the barn was taken to safety. The cause of the fire was the explosion of a gas lamp. The barn was one of the most modern in the county, having an individual drinking fountain for each cow and may sanitary features.

TEACHERS GO FOR VACATION

Mill City—The Mill City public schools closed Friday and commencement exercises were held in the school gymnasium that night. Most of the instructors plan to spend their vacations away from Mill City and will all be back again next fall to start another school year.

Miss Melba Miller, primary teacher, will be in Portland nearly all summer. Mrs. Vivian Albert second grade teacher; Miss Elsie Crail, high school instructor; and Miss Ethel Hickey, high school principal, will spend most of their vacations in California. Miss Virginia Thompson, and Miss Mildred Newcomb, third and eighth grade teachers, will attend summer school in Portland. Miss Ruth Holt, fourth grade teacher, will be in Eugene, where she will be employed at the court house for several weeks. Miss Marcella Race, fifth grade teacher, will be at her home in Mosier, Ore. Miss Margaret Drager, sixth grade teacher, plans to leave June 9 for Shanghai, China, where she will visit her brother, John Drager, and his wife. She will return to her home in Salem some time the latter part of July. Miss Marie Mitchell, seventh grade teacher, will spend the summer with her parents in Ashland. H. N. Aspinwall, grade school principal, plans to make several trips into the lakes above Detroit to do some fishing. Sven Eliassen, high school coach, will also be in Mill City, where he will be employed by the Hammond Lumber company. Miss Marguerite Looney and Miss Marie Hildeman, high school instructors, will be at their homes in Jefferson and Portland part of the summer.

STUDENT MINISTER IS GIVEN HONORS

Independence—Rev. E. J. Aschenbrenner, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, has completed his studies at the Willamette university, and has majored in philosophy and psychology, was formally initiated into Phi Gamma Mu, national science honorary, at Salem this week.

Eleven other majors in social science fields were initiated at the same time. Pi Gamma Mu is devoted to the encouragement of undergraduate study of social science. All seniors who had 20 semester hours in social science field with a grade average of "B" are eligible.

Rev. Aschenbrenner has been student pastor of the church here for the past two years, making daily trips to Salem to attend classes, in addition to his pastoral work here. In a few days he will go to Portland to attend the annual session of the Methodist conference. He has been asked by the membership to return for another year.

MEDAL AWARDS GIVEN COLLEGE HONOR PUPILS

Mt. Angel—Gold medal awards were announced and awarded to honor students of Mt. Angel college at the college commencement exercises held Sunday afternoon in the Mt. Angel auditorium. Very Rev. Prior Jerome, O.S.B. presented the awards.

Edmund VandenZanden of Banks received the gold medal for general excellence in the collegiate department. This award is based on the highest grades for the past two years. Rev. Father J. R. Buck of Salem, an alumnus of Mt. Angel college, is donor of this award.

Willis Whalen of Portland received honorable mention for general excellence in the collegiate department.

In the high school department, the gold medal for general excellence was awarded to Anthony Kalberer of Portland. The donor of this medal is Mrs. Edward Boyce of Portland. James Kelner of Portland received honorable mention.

Paul Zeller of Portland received the gold medal for oratory. The donor of this medal is Ambrose Gherini of San Francisco, an alumnus of Mt. Angel college. Elmer Bauman, Mt. Angel and James Burke and Patrick Dooley of Portland received honorable mention.

Hugo Marracini of Portland received the honors in the elocution contest in the high school department and was given a M.A.C. pillow. Ralph Schwab, who received second, was given an M.A.C. ring.

The oratory contest was given for the public early in May, with the winners announced and awards given on Commencement day.

Rev. Francis C. Leipzig, of Eugene, an alumnus of M.A.C., gave the address to the graduates. He stated that on the occasion of the commencement the graduates could take their inspiration from the history of their own alma mater. He reviewed the coming of the Benedictines to Oregon as pioneers in 1882. He told of their work in Gervais for two years before coming to Mt. Angel just 50 years ago this summer. Among them were outstanding linguists, musicians and speakers.

Mt. Angel college was the first Catholic school of higher education for boys in the entire northwest, and sent out its first graduates in 1890. Among them were Judge John P. Kavanaugh of Portland and Dr. Alfred F. D. Schmidt of the faculty of the University of Washington at Washington, D.C. The demand of the world today to colleges is that they give us men. Mt. Angel can truthfully answer "I have given you men".

College enrollment at M.A.C. is increasing as accommodations for students can be provided to replace the buildings destroyed by fire in 1926. All expectations are that next year's enrollment will exceed even that of the past.

Mt. Angel college graduated 17 young men from college and junior college and 14 from the high school department. Fr. Method Korn, O.S.B. received his A.B. degree with highest honor. Fr. Matthew Hughlett, O.S.B. and Edmund VanderZanden received their A.B. degree with honor. Willis Whalen, Portland, and Peter Nehl, Mt. Angel graduated with honor. High school students who graduated with honor were Anthony Kalberer, James Kelner, Gregory Lair, and Paul Streicher, all from Portland. Rev. Alcium Heibel, O.S.B. rector of Mt. Angel college, presided at the graduation exercises.

Mt. Angel college is a member of the northwest association of colleges and a charter member of the association of independent colleges of the western states.
