

SOCIAL APL BOARD VOTE IS CAST FOR DISTRICTS

Silverton—Re-elected to serve another term as school director in the Bethany district, was Anton Dahl. Mrs. C. B. Henjum will serve again as clerk. Other members are Harold Salern and Henry Torvend.

John Moe was re-elected as school director of Brush Creek district, and John Gopple as clerk. Alvin Krug and Dan Hillman are the others on the board.

On the board of the Davis school in the Silverton Hills community James Bonner was elected director and Mrs. E. Q. Nelson clerk. Others are Lewis Haß and Oral Egan.

Ira Loran was elected to serve as clerk in the Porter district of the Silverton Hills, and Mrs. E. A. Behtl as director. Don Ross and John Tschanis are the holders.

Scio—O. A. Hall, farmer one mile west of Scio, was elected for the three year term as director of the Scio school board, at the annual meeting Monday afternoon. He succeeds Fred Jones, who served three years on the board. J. P. Wesley, who has been clerk of the board most of the time for the last 29 years, was re-elected. There was only one nominee in each case and each was elected by acclamation.

P. W. Schunk, the only member of the board present, called the meeting to order and presided during the deliberations. He appointed E. C. Shelton a temporary member of the board for the purpose of the annual meeting. Members of the board as now constituted are P. W. Schunk, J. D. Deismore and O. A. Hall.

A detailed report of the finances of the district was submitted and explained by the clerk. It appeared that the district is in better condition at this time than a year ago.

The school census last November showed 65 boys and 65 girls, Wesley stated.

Seventeen persons attended the meeting, this being a considerably smaller number than participated in the annual meeting last year.

Albany—The largest vote ever cast in a Lebanon school election was polled Monday when 396 voters balloted. C. H. Ralston, clerk, was re-elected. E. H. Bohle, successful candidate for director, polled 205 votes against 183 for Fred Kerr, incumbent.

Victor Point—At the annual district school meeting here Monday night F. M. Miller, Jr., was re-elected director for three years and Mrs. Paul Jaquet was elected clerk for one year. The budget was accepted as prepared by the school board. No special tax is needed in this district this year. Miss Eleanor Paddock has been re-hired as teacher.

At Oak Grove in an adjoining district, at the annual school meeting Monday night, P. L. Downing was elected director and Mrs. Guy Butler clerk. The retiring officers were W. M. Tate and Mrs. O. W. Humphreys. Miss Diana Moore of Silverton has been hired as teacher.

Donald—At the annual school election here Monday afternoon, Norman Yergen was named to succeed Mrs. L. G. Gies as director, and Mrs. James Ryan was elected clerk to succeed Mrs. Mae St. Helen. Both Mrs. Gies and Mrs. St. Helen have served a number of years on the board and declined to accept the offices again. Other members of the board are Paul Perckett and Mrs. Ben Eppers.

Stayton—The annual school election was held in Stayton June 18. Andrew Perry, director and Paul Stayton clerk, were nominated without opposition and re-elected. The budget, which had been prepared by the members of the board, Mr. Murphy, Dr. Beauchamp and Andrew Perry and the budget committee, Jack Richards, George Keech and George Duncan was adopted with yes 32 and no 15. The additional levy which will be about $1600 more than last year was approved with 25 voting yes and 17 no.

A motion was passed to authorize school district to enter into transportation if they find a plan that is in their best interest feasible.

Harley Porter, W. H. Fuson and J. Alexander were appointed to see what could be done about transportation into that section.

Bethel—Michael Weisnacht and Hein were the two selected for the high school board at the annual school meeting of Bethel district Monday night.

Walter Baker was elected a director of Bethel school, taking the place of O. L. Brubaker, retiring member who presided at the largely attended meeting. Arthur Schulz and S. Hamrick are the other members of the board.

Mrs. John Hain is the new clerk elected to succeed Eugene Hamrick. The budget for the coming year was presented and accepted. The school district is in a sound financial condition.

Lynn—The annual school meeting was held at the schoolhouse Monday night at 8 o'clock. Alice Huber was re-elected as clerk for one year; Elizabeth Westenhouse was elected as director for three years in the place of C. B. Surry, retiring director. The budget was accepted with the addition fund for transportation for the high school pupils with a vote of 17 to 6.

Lynn—The Falls Valley annual school meeting was held at the schoolhouse Monday afternoon. Mrs. Nellie Wales was re-elected as clerk; John Jungworth was elected as director for three years, succeeding Ruth Trank. The budget with the transportation bill was accepted by a large majority.

Claims Are Staked Around Quartzville

Mill City—E. L. Collins of Gates, who is in charge of the powder and dynamiting on the South Santiam road going into Quartzville, reports quite a boom of prospectors who are staking claims in the Quartzville district. The new road, which is progressing rapidly makes access to the mines much easier than previously. The highway will go through a former busy mining town, Bryan City, which at one time was noted for its entertainment for all miners in the surrounding country. The remains of saloons and a dance hall are still to be found there.

POMONA GRANGE TURNER GUEST

Turner—An approximate estimate of 250 persons were in attendance Wednesday at the Marion county pomona grange session held at the Turner Surprise grange hall here. A basket dinner was served in the Masonic hall dining room during the noon hour.

The regular business session was presided over by Pomona Master J. O. Parr of Atkeny with Mrs. Willis and Betty Van Santen in charge of the afternoon's program. The following numbers were presented: Opening song, "Oregon, My Oregon," sung by the audience; reading by Dorothy Blakley of Salem; vocal duet, given by Rex Hartley of Ankeny and Rosevelt Wright of Salem; reading, "Knee-Deep in June" by J. G. McCune of Turner; tap dancing and vocal duet by Peggy and Betty Van Santen of Turner with Mrs. Emalie Van Santen piano accompanist; Peter Zimmerman was the principal speaker of the day, talking on the state banking system and other progressive legislation.

Other speakers on the program were Sam Brown, State Master Ray Gill of Portland; George Palmeter and Dr. Albert Slaughter of the state executive committee, Deputy State Master Arthur Brown of Salem and W. A. Jones of Mackay. A meeting place was decided for the next Pomona meeting and other matters discussed by the large assemblage of active grangers throughout the county.

Master Ulvin E. Denyer of Turner and Mrs. Curtiss Melles, president of the Turner Home Economics club were active in making the county meet a success and numerous committees were appointed from the Turner Surprise grange to function Wednesday.

INDEPENDENCE HOP FESTIVAL PLANNED

Independence—A hop festival for Independence is being planned by the chamber of commerce committee, plans for which were discussed at the last regular meeting. A special committee composed of R. W. Craven, Gerald Kotler and Dr. Geo. Hurley was appointed by the president to make the necessary arrangements and report back at the next regular meeting.

The idea, if carried out, would be pulled off in the hop-harvest season and would consist of street dances, water carnival, fireworks, merry-go-rounds and side shows. A hop queen would be elected and parades staged at intervals through the main streets of the city.

This will tend to attract pickers and visitors in the vicinity to spend some of their time and money here.

Cards Are Played At Fessler Home

Mill City—Mrs. William F. Fessler was bridge hostess at her home Tuesday evening when she entertained the members of her club. Two tables of cards were in play with high score honors being awarded to Miss Hilda Eberle. Miss Clara Keber drew the door prize. Luncheon was served at a late hour by the hostess. Those present were Miss Marie Ebor, Miss Hilda Eberle, Miss Clara Keber, Miss Helen Eberle, Miss Dorothy Keber, Mrs. Joseph L. Wichter, Miss Terese Ficker, and Miss Anne Wavra.

Jefferson—Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Ghun left for Portland the first of the week where they will attend the annual conference at the First Methodist church which convenes this week.

were present for the meeting. Votes were taken for a member of the board of education of the Polk county non-high school district from Zone 2.

Quincy—At the annual school meeting held June 17 J. P. Ziellinski and C. L. Beckner were elected as directors, two directors being elected as there was a vacancy in the board. Bruce A. Jones was re-elected as clerk.

H A Home Owned Theater HOLLYWOOD

Two Features 15c
Ronald COLMAN
In the SAMUEL GOLDWYN Production of The Masquerader
with ELISSA LANDI
Directed by RICHARD WALLACE

We Have Discontinued Dime Nites
Friday and Saturday - Two Features

BOB STEELE
Ever Since Eve
'The Gallant Fool'

RAINBOW GIRLS HOLD ASSEMBLY TAKE VACATION

Woodburn—The last meeting of Evergreen assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, until fall, was held at the Masonic temple Tuesday evening with Miss Helen Woodfin presiding. The majority degree was conferred upon Miss Dorothy Austin by Mrs. Myrtle Gill, mother advisor, assisted by Jessie Sims as chaplain, Mrs. Gwendolyn Abury as Faith and Miss Gladys Adams as musician. Girls of the color stations who took part in the degree were Annette Lytle, red; Lou Jones Ringo, orange; Marie Strike, yellow; Marybelle Manns, blue; Vera Jean Huber, green; Louise Moelding, indigo, and Jean L. Beers, violet.

Miss Berneta Thompson was escorted to the east following the ceremony and was presented with a majority certificate with Miss Dorothy Austin as sponsor. A luncheon was installed as drill leader.

Following the meeting a program was given which included a vocal solo by Barbara Jensen, a harmonica solo by Betty Ackerson and a three-act play, "Linda's Triumph," which was written by Muriel Beckman and presented by the following cast: Linda Thorne, a college graduate, Marybelle Adams; Miss Robinson, an ambitious young farmer, Bob Beckman; Percy Atwell, a young man who boards at the Thorne home, Thomas Weiss; Eazy Thorne, Linda's father, an old farmer, Jean L. Beers; Mrs. Thorne, Linda's mother, a motherly old housewife, Muriel Beckman; Jenny Smith, one of Linda's pupils, Lou Jane Ringo.

The evening closed with refreshments in the dining room with Mrs. Martha Reiling, Mrs. Edna Lytle and Mrs. Mayce Mochel on the refreshment committee.

Mrs. Myrtle Gill, mother advisor; Miss Helen Woodfin, worthy advisor; Miss Barbara Espy, worthy associate advisor, and Miss Arthie Lytle, sister of Love, will attend the Grand assembly, which meets in Albany Friday and Saturday of this week.

SILVERTON FIRMS MAKE IMPROVEMENTS

Silverton—Fred's Motor Service, recently established by Fred Thumberg, at High and North Water streets, is being improved by the building of a new building. Fred Uphoff, owner of the grounds is having the work done and Hugh Range is the contractor. The building is equipped with rooms and material for servicing, washing, greasing and doing all kinds of mechanical auto work.

Thumberg succeeded LeRoy S. Campbell who moved to Hillsboro where he is in the same business.

F. W. Notisker of the auto electric shop and service station, is installing a third gas tank needed to accommodate the steady increase in business. The tank is being placed in an 8x12 and 11 foot deep cavity that was dug during the latter part of the week. Clare Jarvis is in charge of the Notisker gas station.

Dwellings Burned At Spring Valley

North Spring Valley—Fire starting in a small building adjacent to the dwelling on the Hoefling farm burned both buildings to the ground Tuesday morning between 8 and 9 o'clock. It is not known how the fire originated, but it was seen by Miss Lulu Lindstrom who was busy picking berries nearby, and she immediately gave warning. Everything in the smaller house was burned, but the contents of the lower floor of the dwelling with the exception of the range were saved. Mrs. Hoefling senior lost some valuable keepsakes stored in a trunk upstairs.

Dinners Are Given

Mill City—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Butsch and daughter Rosemarie of Oakland, Calif., who are visiting here for two weeks, were entertained at several dinner parties the last few days. Monday evening they were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Ebor and family. Others present besides the honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. William J. Klotz. Entertaining them Tuesday evening at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Ebor and family. Wednesday evening they were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goolley.

Mill City—Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Olin returned to their home here Tuesday afternoon after more than a week's stay in Portland. They were accompanied by Mrs. P. L. Dille of Portland and Dan Olin who has just finished his second year of study at the University of Washington.

Birthday Dinner Is Given Roberts

Stayton—Mrs. Betty Roldt entertained Monday evening honoring W. D. Roberts' birthday, also Father's day. Each woman presented the men with a small gift. Five hundred was the diversion of the evening with high score awarded Mrs. C. A. Beauchamp and Mr. Roberts. Consolation went to Mrs. Sig Jepson and C. A. Beauchamp.

A luncheon was a lighted birthday cake forming an attractive table centerpiece was served. The guests present were the honor guest, W. D. Roberts and Mrs. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beauchamp, Mrs. Ellen Reynolds, Joe Spaniol, Mr. and Mrs. Sig Jepson of Mill City and the hostess, Mrs. Roldt.

HOP GROWERS ARE READY FOR SEASON

Independence—A meeting of the hop growers of this community was held jointly with a committee from the chamber of commerce Tuesday evening in the city hall to talk over plans in view to hold the crowds in during the hop-picking season.

The committee went into executive session a few minutes prior to the meeting and proposed a plan to the growers in which they acquiesced and gave their endorsement.

Plans will go forward to make the hop-picking season a festival season in this community with the purpose in view to hold the crowds in or near the city during the picking season. The nature of the program will be announced later when fully completed.

D. P. MacCarthy, president of the hop-growers, presided during the evening.

POSTAL OFFICIALS HOLD CONVENTION

Stayton—Mrs. Grace Neibert, postmistress of the Stayton post office attended the Oregon branch of postmasters association and the National League of District Postmasters held in Corvallis June 18 and 19.

Among the prominent men present were H. J. Scheffler, third vice president of the National league of district postmasters, and state president of Kayaville, Utah, and Dr. E. T. Hedlund, Portland postmaster and postal inspector.

W. F. Clark, also the retiring inspector Mr. Clement; Mrs. Emma Brown, former postmistress of Stayton and retiring vice president of District No. 2, also attended from Stayton and assisted on the reception committee.

There was a lovely banquet served Tuesday evening and a splendid program.

About 200 were present. The next convention will be held in Coquille, where he is in the same business.

Illustrated Talk Slated At Church

Dallas—Stereoscopic pictures will be used to illustrate the address of Rev. Dallas Friday night at the Christian church when the congregation gathers in the social hall of the church for a covered dish dinner and program. The dinner hour has been set for 6:30 o'clock with all members and friends of the church and Bible school attending.

Reports from various officers and departments will be made preceding the address. Mr. Dallas recently returned from the Holy Land and has been in constant demand as a speaker since his return.

Alm Is Confirmed

Silverton—Henry Alm received a personal letter Monday from Postmaster General Farley, assuring him of his appointment by the president and confirmation by the senate for the Silverton postmastership. The letter contained official papers and letters for the personal signature of Alm after which his term of employment by the government will be assigned.

Mill City—Mrs. C. T. Haseman and son Jack, Howard James and Wanda Gregory drove to Foss, Ore., Wednesday, where they will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Haseman, former Mill City residents.

POWELL FAMILY REUNION TO BE EVENT SUNDAY

Silverton—Rev. Albyn Eason of Albany, will be the featured speaker at the 17th annual reunion of the Powell Memorial society Sunday, June 24, in the Frank Hubbs grove near the Bethany church.

Rev. Eason has spoken for the occasion and is probably the best road historian of the Oregon pioneers of the Willamette valley in the west. He is a member of the Stephens-Mount clan, probably the largest pioneer organization in Marion county, and has taken an active interest in the developments of the west from pioneer influence over a period of many years. His address is scheduled for the forenoon program which will begin at 10:45 o'clock.

Other numbers on the morning program include group singing of America, devotionals, Rev. Eric Lane, clan chaplain; greetings, F. M. Powell; response, Mrs. C. Powell; theme song, "Our Folks"; instrumental music by the Powell brothers orchestra of Dallas, and a trombone solo by Burns Powell of Portland.

Following the basket dinner of early afternoon, the analysts of the four original families will recount the deaths, births, marriages and graduations of the members during the past year; the reports of various committees will be given; and the meeting place for the 1935 reunion will be selected. An informal program of the afternoon will include community sing, led by F. M. Powell; roll call; piano number by Doris Reynolds; vocal selection by Frances McKeelnie; vocal quartette, the Hayes' Four of Portland; two minute free-for-all talks by the members for the good of the clan; reading, Charles Melike; orchestra number, Powell Brothers; and a trio of vocal selections by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Arant and E. E. Powell family were John, Alfred Arant.

The original pioneers of the clan and Noah Powell and Lucinda Probst. The men were Christian church ministers and founders of many churches throughout Oregon. Although the Bethany church was among the earliest Christian churches of the west, the Powell exhorters did not establish it though they attended the meetings there, frequently, in early years.

More than two hundred are planned for. Visitors are made welcome.

Circus Is Played For Novel Party

Silverton—Miss Bonnie Jean McPike, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott McPike, had a novel party that amused the neighbors in the region of the McPike home as well as the guests themselves Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. McPike served an afternoon luncheon. The youngsters played circus over several blocks of the residence district of town, staging a real parade.

Taking part in the costumes were Helen Brokke, wild man; Betty Brokke, dancer with a tiger; Juanita Morley, leonardo lady; Bonnie Jean McPike, fat lady; Chillberg Bowen, strong man and animal trainer; Colleen Bowen, clown; spectators were Alma, Julia and Lea Ann Hutton, Dorothy Edson and Betty O'Kane.

Sewer Bond Issue Ready for Payment

Albany—E. B. Williamson, city treasurer, yesterday called for payment of $10,000 of the 1924 5 per cent sewer bonds. The issue is not due until January 15, 1934 and is optional after January 15, 1934. Williamson called $9,000 of the issue last January. The ability to pay off its bonds 10 years before due date is accepted as a mark of the city's unusually strong financial position.

Albany Bank Bond Sales Attractive

Albany—Sale of the bonds held by Linn county as security for deposits of the First National bank of Albany is attracting many buyers and bringing unexpectedly high bids, announces Grover C. Nance, county treasurer, and officials believe no appreciable loss will be suffered. Bids are being received from various financial houses, but the actual sale will be made at the United States National bank of Portland, where the bonds are in safekeeping.

Lincoln—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Eitelger and son Leslie went to Portland Monday after having spent the past week-end at Bend, stopping over on their way home at Independence to visit his parents and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Edwards here. They expected to return from Portland within a day or so.

Rider Of Horse Escapes Injury

Jefferson—J. G. Morgan, who lives near the north city limits met with an accident Tuesday morning on the highway which might have proved serious. He had returned a wagon borrowed from Ezra Hart who lives just north of his place on the highway and was returning home riding one horse and his son the other. Apparently a car was coming from each direction and the car from the rear struck the horse Morgan was riding a glancing blow, tearing the harness and inflicting a few cuts. Morgan was uninjured.

WHEAT CONTROL GROUP CALLED

Dallas—The Polk county wheat production control association has re-elected the same board of directors for the ensuing fiscal year as served during the year just past when the association was organized. The board of directors met in Dallas and re-elected the same officers for their number as for the past year making a complete duplication of officers throughout the association.

H. H. Brant of Independence will again serve as president with Robert Mitchell and Robert Perry serving on the allotment committee with him. Geo. L. Shields will continue as treasurer and J. R. Beck as secretary. District meetings were held in each of the seven districts last Thursday morning followed by a meeting of the board at Dallas in the afternoon.

Inspection of the field inspectors who will check up on the wheat contracts gets underway at Wheat real Friday of this week. It is hoped that Monday these field inspectors will start their work in various parts of the county. As soon as this is completed and records have made a round-trip to Washington, the balance of the 1933 payment will be made to local farmers.

ROUTINE BUSINESS OCCUPIES COUNCIL

Woodburn—The Woodburn city council met in a brief session Tuesday night and transacted routine business. A letter was read from the First National bank, Woodburn branch, stating that there was a slight misunderstanding in the offer made last meeting in the rate of interest on city deposits. The rate of interest offered is 1/4 of 1 percent per year instead of per month as the council understood. However, it was voted to accept the offer which complies with the state law.

Applications for water were granted to Steve Hortsch who operates a wrecking garage on the highway and to Otto Sawalish who has recently purchased property on the Cooley lane.

It was decided to cut the grass in the hobo jungle on the Benjamin property near the Woodburn Feed and Supply company mill.

Health Association Makes Dinner Plans

Albany—Members of the Linn county health association met Tuesday at luncheon to make plans for the coming annual banquet of the organization. The date for the affair has now been fixed, as the officers are awaiting word as to a convenient date for Mrs. Saldie Orr Dunbar, president of the Oregon Tuberculosis association. County Judge Templeton of Washington county, will also be one of the main speakers.

The association, through its district units, is at present busy with plans for children's clinics throughout the county. Mrs. Carl Connet, Albany, is president.

MRS. KENTON ILL

Hayesville—Mrs. A. Kenton, mother of Mrs. Dave Willis of this community, is seriously ill at the Salem Deaconess hospital. The Kentons formerly lived in the house now occupied by the Batorff family and her many acquaintances will be grieved to hear of her illness.

POMEROY NEW DEMOCRAT HEAD

Dallas—The Polk county democratic central committee met in the city hall at Monmouth Tuesday night and elected T. D. Pomeroy of Independence as county chairman to succeed Tracy Savery of Dallas. Other officers named were: R. A. Harris, West Salem, secretary-treasurer. Congressional committee-man, Robert Craven, Independence.

The nominating committee for the ensuing year consists of Finley Edgar, Rickreall, Stephen J. Maybode, Eola, George Kurre, Dallas, John Loy, Independence, Preston Doughton.

An executive and managing committee composed of George Cooper, Dallas, E. F. Black, Independence and Laird Lindeman was also elected.

The members failed to elect a state committeeman at the meeting and a further session will be necessary to decide who will fill the position. Seven ballots were taken on the names of R. R. Turner, Duane and Howard Mochan, Monmouth and in each case the vote was tied.

Twenty four precinct committeemen were present at the meeting in addition to a large number of democrats from the various sections of the county.

FARM PLACEMENT OFFICE TO OPEN

Dallas—Definite assurance that an employment office, under the Farm Replacement Service or under the National Reemployment Service, to take care of the registration of hop pickers, would be established in Independence this year, was given by R. M. Coleman, Albany, district manager of the National Reemployment Service, at a meeting of the Independence branch of the Oregon Hop Growers association, held Tuesday night in the city hall at Independence.

Following a brief talk by Coleman a number of the members expressed themselves as being highly in favor of the office and when the matter of establishing an office was put to a vote it was carried unanimously. The date on which the office will be opened has not been set but it will be placed in operation following the receipt of information regarding the picking furnished by the association. Pickers desiring to register can do so now by contacting the Reemployment office at Dallas. Coleman was accompanied by W. Blackley, clerk in charge of the Polk county office.

Health Association Makes Dinner Plans

Albany—Members of the Linn county health association met Tuesday at luncheon to make plans for the coming annual banquet of the organization. The date for the affair has now been fixed, as the officers are awaiting word as to a convenient date for Mrs. Saldie Orr Dunbar, president of the Oregon Tuberculosis association. County Judge Templeton of Washington county, will also be one of the main speakers.

The association, through its district units, is at present busy with plans for children's clinics throughout the county. Mrs. Carl Connet, Albany, is president.

MRS. KENTON ILL
Hayesville—Mrs. A. Kenton, mother of Mrs. Dave Willis of this community, is seriously ill at the Salem Deaconess hospital. The Kentons formerly lived in the house now occupied by the Batorff family and her many acquaintances will be grieved to hear of her illness.

Missionary Group Meets At Church

Woodburn—The Presbyterian Missionary society met at the church Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. L. S. Mochel as hostess. Mrs. D. J. Gillanders presided over the business meeting and Mrs. B. W. Dunn read the scripture lesson. The program was in charge of Mrs. Hiram Overton and the topic was "The Philippines." Papers and articles on the topic were read by Mrs. Overton, Mrs. Gillanders and Mrs. Mochel and short talks were given by several members. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Olive Smith.

Silverton—Mrs. C. J. Rosheim entertained at noon luncheon Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Russell G. Lake of Gates, and her mother, Mrs. F. M. Powell. Mrs. Lake and her baby daughter, Dorena Jo Ann, are remaining at the Powell home for a fortnight.

EL SINORE

LAST TIMES TODAY
IRENE DUNNE
IN This Man is Mine

500 SEATS
25c
FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Laughs—Thrills—Mystery—
It's every-thing you ever wanted on the screen!
Year's greatest detective thrill—now a grand film

WILLIAM POWELL
MYRNA LOY
The Thin Man

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL TONITE—FRIDAY—SATURDAY

500 SEATS
15c
No woman could resist him when his Adam's apple throbbled

Boinin' up wit passion, the divine Schnozzola runs the gamut of commotion in a drama that hurts the appendix!

STARRING
Jimmy DURANTE
Lupe VELEZ

Mills Brothers
NORMAN FOSTER
WILLIAM GARGAN
MARIAN NIXON

SERIAL
"Vanishing Shadow"
SONG CARTOON
Hollywood on Parade

STATE THEATRE

Today & Friday
Towering high above the ship, the monster lashed his tail three miles astern!

Back to the Island of King Kong... to search for buried gold! You'll see amazing things in KING OF KONG

COMING SUNDAY—FIRST SALEM SHOWING A THRILLER
Boris Karloff in "THE GHOUL"
Wet Events in a House of Mystery

Now!

Accompanied by OTESCO Eccentric Violinist and At the Piano The Phantom Genius

ON THE SCREEN
A MANHATTAN LOVE SONG
Admission 25c GRAND