

FARMERS' DAY PLANS READY; EVENTS VARIED

Dallas—The final touches are being added to the plans for the big Farmers' Day and Farmers' Union picnic set for July 18 and with something doing every minute the day should be an eventful one.

The morning program, with Mrs. Vern Alsop as general chairman will get under way at 10 o'clock. It will consist of talks by G. W. Poits of Jefferson, state president of the Farmers' Union and J. H. Jacobson of Hillsboro, member of the executive board.

Entertainment assured so far includes: Band selections by Salt Creek band, Ballston and Pisgah locals; Dutch dance, four little girls, Bridgeport local; vocal number, Claude Larkin's quartet, Greenwood local; vocal numbers, Branch girls, Luckanute local; Scotch songs, Jim Smart, Orchard Heights local; reading, Mrs. Harold Stapleton, Perrydale local; Swiss waltzing, Valley Junction local.

The chairman reports that Buena Vista, Liberty Bell and Spring Valley have not yet indicated what their entertainment will be. The sports program, open only to farmers and their families, will start at 1:30 o'clock. Three prizes are to be awarded in each event.

The horse shoe pitching contest will be held in the city park at 10 a.m. and will be in charge of Tom Bowman and Allan Dunn. There will be two prizes awarded in the contest. Evening activities will start at 7:15 o'clock with a water fight on Court street between the McMinville and local departments.

Grain Harvesting Is Coming Later
Silverton Hills—Grain harvesting is coming on later in this community than in other places near Silverton. The hay crops have been cared for this week with very little grain having been cut yet.

GOING TO CONFERENCE
Falls City—A number of people left the last of the week for the annual conference and camp meeting of the Free Methodist church at Portland.

West Stayton—Mrs. Hilbert Hanson and daughter, Olena, and Mrs. Hilda Carey of Reno, Nev., who have been guests at the home of T. Y. McClellan the past two months, are returning to their home this week.

Third Quarterly Session Saturday

Selo—The third quarterly convention of the Linn County Farmers' union will be held Saturday of this week at the Salt Lake school house near Lacombe.

BEER TRUCK DRIVER IS NEARLY KILLED

Woodburn—Melvin Engel, driver of a Heidelberg beer truck, received a scalp wound and injuries to his knee and narrowly escaped fatal injuries when the truck he was driving collided with the Oregon Electric freight train at the West Woodburn crossing Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

SERMON SERIES AT DALLAS CONTINUED

Dallas—"I Found a Sermon in the Dallas Machine and Locomotive Works," will be the sermon topic which Rev. K. E. Burke will discuss at the Dallas Christian church Sunday night. This is one in the series, "I Found a Sermon."

Jefferson Ladies' Aid Entertained

Jefferson—The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. G. Fontaine. Mrs. George C. Mason, president of the society, presided at the meeting.

Lawn Party Given

Falls City—Ben Enquist, who is leaving for the home of his parents in Montana Monday, was the inspiration for a lawn party at the W. L. Russell home Wednesday night. Present were Ben Enquist, the honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peterson and baby daughter, Evans and Allen Blake, Maure Newhouse, Lydia Goettman, Wanda Shade, Gilbert Morgan, Lawrence Goode, Billy Letterman, Hazel Ward Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Russell and Eugene, James and Barbara Russell.

Silverton Hills—Mr. and Mrs. John Tschantz are entertaining over the week-end at their home for the pleasure of Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Graf of Akron, Ohio, who are touring the west in the interest of their church work.

HARTLEY CLAN HOLD REUNION

Maclean—The old E. W. Hartley homestead now owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. C. Teckenburg (Jda Hartley, daughter of E. W.) was the scene of the annual reunion of the Hartley clan. At noon lunch was served at long tables set among the large maple trees in front of the house.

ALBANY FACED BY GAS FAMINE

Albany, Ore., July 13—A gasoline famine for Albany is seen within the strike situation is cleared up in Portland within the next week, it was announced by managers of local leading gasoline companies yesterday. They stated that their local supplies would not last longer than two weeks.

MILL CITY LODGE INSTALLS LEADERS

Mill City—Installation of officers was held at the meeting of the I. O. O. P. lodge Tuesday. The following officers were installed by District Deputy Grand Master Frank Blazek, assisted by Grand Marshal A. Youngberg: Noble grand, James E. Selin; vice grand, W. A. Yunker; secretary, M. J. Knerr; treasurer, R. A. Mason; warden, LeRoy E. Dike; conductor, George Berry; R.S. N.G., Frank Blazek; L.S. Charles W. Wilson; R.S.V.G., Frank Thomas; L.S., J. A. Simmonds; inside guardian, W. E. LaVine; outside guardian, Walter Leisy; right scene support, Sam Jorgensen; left scene support, A. T. Koencke, and chaplain, W. W. Mason.

Acreage Is Burned

Rickreall—Fire burned over ten acres of uncut oats and vetch and about 45 acres of grain Wednesday afternoon in a field north of town belonging to the S. T. Burch heirs. The fire is believed to have started from a spark from a tractor on a combine which was being operated by Jesse Ragsdale, who has the place rented. The fire started near the newly erected home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Pence and a strong wind drove it towards town. The combine outfit was run out of the path of the fire which with the help of a crowd of men and a strip of ploughed ground was finally extinguished.

PLAN CHURCH WORK

Falls City—A pot-luck supper will be held in the social room of the Methodist church Friday night. The purpose of the gathering is to plan the church work for the coming year. All members and those interested in the church are urged to attend.

STARTING TODAY BAER-CARNERA ROUND BY ROUND FIGHT PICTURES

BUCK JONES "The MAN TRAILER" with Cecilia Parker COMEDY "STRICTLY FRESH EGGS" CARTOON-NEWS

Joint Service Will Be Offered Sunday

Dallas—The sermon at the morning service of the Methodist church will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. George W. Bruce. His subject will be "Know and Serve." Plans for a joint meeting of the gospel team and the Epworth league have been completed and it will take place Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor will be the speaker and will help possible. It was found on arrival that the affair was not as serious as first thought but that a tragedy had only been narrowly averted.

ALBANY FACED BY GAS FAMINE

Albany, Ore., July 13—A gasoline famine for Albany is seen within the strike situation is cleared up in Portland within the next week, it was announced by managers of local leading gasoline companies yesterday. They stated that their local supplies would not last longer than two weeks.

EVERGREEN PEOPLE TO PICNIC SUNDAY

Silverton—The Silverton municipal park is being made ready for one of the largest picnics of the season, when the community homecoming of the Evergreen residents will have an all day affair Sunday, July 15 to 17 and August 12 and 13 were the dates for killing thistles and reported on the Montgomery Ward dairy in Wisconsin; Mrs. Magee, Mrs. J. L. Amort and Mrs. J. F. C. Teckenburg of the home economics committee gave reports. Mrs. Magee and Mrs. Amort reported on the work which will be served by the women of the grange to the Oregon mall carriers at Silver Creek falls, and Mrs. W. A. Jones reported on the paper plates for the dinner.

Scalp Is Slashed By Slipping Axe

Silverton Hills—Lewis Verbeck, who was employed at a mill near the Silver Creek falls park, met with a painful accident during the week. He and a working companion, Herman Strom, were cutting out underbrush and Verbeck stooped in the way of Strom's axe to remove a sapling without Strom knowing he was in the line of danger. The glancing blow of the bit of the axe was considered a freak of good luck in avoiding a fatal accident as the skull was only cut through and the skull was not injured. Many stitches were necessary to close the wound. Verbeck's condition was reported as very favorable Thursday forenoon. He is at his home near the mill.

SHIELDS ARE GUESTS

Mr. Angel—Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Shields and son George returned Thursday to their home at Cannon Beach, Ore., after spending several days visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. O. Appleby and family. They were accompanied on their return trip by Rex Appleby, who will spend a short vacation at the Shields home.

WEST STAYTON—DARREL ROYSE came home Wednesday from the CCC camp where he has been for 13 months at Reedsport. He was secretary for the officers of his camp.

RESCUE EFFORT IS SUCCESSFUL

Dallas—Reports of a double drowning accident in the LaCreole creek near Ellendale Thursday afternoon sent Dr. E. C. Bossatt and Walter Young, chief of the fire department, hurrying to the scene with the department's lung motor to render all help possible. It was found on arrival that the affair was not as serious as first thought but that a tragedy had only been narrowly averted.

THISTLE KILLING DATES ARE NAMED

Maclean—At the recent meeting of Maclean grange Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Slegmund were voted in as members. Frank Bowers and W. A. Jones of the legislative committee made reports; M. E. Magee of the agriculture committee reported that July 15 to 17 and August 12 and 13 were the dates for killing thistles and reported on the Montgomery Ward dairy in Wisconsin; Mrs. Magee, Mrs. J. L. Amort and Mrs. J. F. C. Teckenburg of the home economics committee gave reports. Mrs. Magee and Mrs. Amort reported on the work which will be served by the women of the grange to the Oregon mall carriers at Silver Creek falls, and Mrs. W. A. Jones reported on the paper plates for the dinner.

Mid-Week Affairs Proving Popular

Silverton—Mid-week affairs are most popular in the Silverton municipal park as the Sunday events. The Salem Friends Sunday school group with between 75 and 100 enjoying the picnic spent Wednesday all day at the local park, swimming, playing games and serving basket dinner. Forty-eight members of the Triple Link club and members of their families spent Wednesday evening at the park serving supper and enjoying an informal program of sports and other features as the last meeting of the club for the summer season. Mrs. Robert Goetz and Mrs. F. J. Roubal were in charge of arrangements.

Machines Are Taken

Rickreall—Thieves broke into the Bar-B-Q sometime Tuesday night and made away with two slot machines. They entered the place by breaking a window, first pasting it with fly paper. It is thought the machines contained about $30. No one sleeps in the building at night.

Henkle Clan Meets

Independence—Mrs. O. D. Butler, Mrs. W. H. Walker and J. M. Henkle attended the Henkle reunion held recently in the Presbyterian church at Corvallis. There were 104 members of the clan present, a number attending this year for the first time. Washington and Oregon were well represented, many relatives coming to renew old ties and to make new ones. As the years have passed the personnel of the group has undergone a change but a number of the old-timers still remain and enjoy the occasion.

Health Clinic Held For Younger Pupils

Selo—A health clinic for small children who expect to enter school this year was held at the high school building in Selo Wednesday of this week under direction of Miss Edna Flanagan, health nurse, and Mrs. Carl Connet, president of the county health association. A. G. Prill, pioneer physician and surgeon of Selo and J. P. Johnson, local dentist, cooperated in the clinic. Other local residents assisted in the work and several boys and girls were examined.

CLAN GATHERS FOR REUNION

Fairfield—The second annual reunion of the Ferschweiler clan was held in the St. Louis grove with an attendance of seventy. Due to the sudden illness of Mrs. John Vanderbeck, the Vanderbeck family was unable to attend. William Bowley was the oldest member present and little Patricia Ann Nusom was the youngest. The birthday anniversary of Albert Cannard was celebrated with a birthday cake and a keg of Hop-Gold.

CHANGES ARE MADE ON FAIR COMMITTEE

West Stayton—The fair committee held its regular meeting Wednesday evening with attendance from West Stayton and Stayton. Mr. Bentwater, head of all the 4-H department, assisting Mr. Harding, reported there were 230 members of the 4-H club in the immediate communities. Special prizes will be offered in each department for the best product. Mr. Lott says he will offer seven dozen choice gladiolus bulbs to the best "glad" display in his flower department. Other departments will have prizes that will be decided on later.

WEST STAYTON FAIR IS GIVEN SUPPORT

Stayton—At a special called meeting of the board directors of the Stayton chamber of commerce held at the Murphy-Gardner office it was voted to assist the West Stayton community in their annual Harvest Festival which will be held there for two days, September 15 and 16. The following committees were appointed: Program-speaking, Grant Murphy and E. C. Denny; literary-music, A. C. Van Nuy, Felix Wright, Stayton booth, L. H. Wright, E. J. Rowe, E. C. Denny will have charge of the barbecue and Edward J. Bell of the concessions.

MACHINES ARE TAKEN

Rickreall—Thieves broke into the Bar-B-Q sometime Tuesday night and made away with two slot machines. They entered the place by breaking a window, first pasting it with fly paper. It is thought the machines contained about $30. No one sleeps in the building at night.

Henkle Clan Meets

Independence—Mrs. O. D. Butler, Mrs. W. H. Walker and J. M. Henkle attended the Henkle reunion held recently in the Presbyterian church at Corvallis. There were 104 members of the clan present, a number attending this year for the first time. Washington and Oregon were well represented, many relatives coming to renew old ties and to make new ones. As the years have passed the personnel of the group has undergone a change but a number of the old-timers still remain and enjoy the occasion.

Health Clinic Held For Younger Pupils

Selo—A health clinic for small children who expect to enter school this year was held at the high school building in Selo Wednesday of this week under direction of Miss Edna Flanagan, health nurse, and Mrs. Carl Connet, president of the county health association. A. G. Prill, pioneer physician and surgeon of Selo and J. P. Johnson, local dentist, cooperated in the clinic. Other local residents assisted in the work and several boys and girls were examined.

CLAN GATHERS FOR REUNION

Fairfield—The second annual reunion of the Ferschweiler clan was held in the St. Louis grove with an attendance of seventy. Due to the sudden illness of Mrs. John Vanderbeck, the Vanderbeck family was unable to attend. William Bowley was the oldest member present and little Patricia Ann Nusom was the youngest. The birthday anniversary of Albert Cannard was celebrated with a birthday cake and a keg of Hop-Gold.

CHANGES ARE MADE ON FAIR COMMITTEE

West Stayton—The fair committee held its regular meeting Wednesday evening with attendance from West Stayton and Stayton. Mr. Bentwater, head of all the 4-H department, assisting Mr. Harding, reported there were 230 members of the 4-H club in the immediate communities. Special prizes will be offered in each department for the best product. Mr. Lott says he will offer seven dozen choice gladiolus bulbs to the best "glad" display in his flower department. Other departments will have prizes that will be decided on later.

WEST STAYTON FAIR IS GIVEN SUPPORT

Stayton—At a special called meeting of the board directors of the Stayton chamber of commerce held at the Murphy-Gardner office it was voted to assist the West Stayton community in their annual Harvest Festival which will be held there for two days, September 15 and 16. The following committees were appointed: Program-speaking, Grant Murphy and E. C. Denny; literary-music, A. C. Van Nuy, Felix Wright, Stayton booth, L. H. Wright, E. J. Rowe, E. C. Denny will have charge of the barbecue and Edward J. Bell of the concessions.

MACHINES ARE TAKEN

Rickreall—Thieves broke into the Bar-B-Q sometime Tuesday night and made away with two slot machines. They entered the place by breaking a window, first pasting it with fly paper. It is thought the machines contained about $30. No one sleeps in the building at night.

Henkle Clan Meets

Independence—Mrs. O. D. Butler, Mrs. W. H. Walker and J. M. Henkle attended the Henkle reunion held recently in the Presbyterian church at Corvallis. There were 104 members of the clan present, a number attending this year for the first time. Washington and Oregon were well represented, many relatives coming to renew old ties and to make new ones. As the years have passed the personnel of the group has undergone a change but a number of the old-timers still remain and enjoy the occasion.

Health Clinic Held For Younger Pupils

Selo—A health clinic for small children who expect to enter school this year was held at the high school building in Selo Wednesday of this week under direction of Miss Edna Flanagan, health nurse, and Mrs. Carl Connet, president of the county health association. A. G. Prill, pioneer physician and surgeon of Selo and J. P. Johnson, local dentist, cooperated in the clinic. Other local residents assisted in the work and several boys and girls were examined.

CLAN GATHERS FOR REUNION

Fairfield—The second annual reunion of the Ferschweiler clan was held in the St. Louis grove with an attendance of seventy. Due to the sudden illness of Mrs. John Vanderbeck, the Vanderbeck family was unable to attend. William Bowley was the oldest member present and little Patricia Ann Nusom was the youngest. The birthday anniversary of Albert Cannard was celebrated with a birthday cake and a keg of Hop-Gold.

CHANGES ARE MADE ON FAIR COMMITTEE

West Stayton—The fair committee held its regular meeting Wednesday evening with attendance from West Stayton and Stayton. Mr. Bentwater, head of all the 4-H department, assisting Mr. Harding, reported there were 230 members of the 4-H club in the immediate communities. Special prizes will be offered in each department for the best product. Mr. Lott says he will offer seven dozen choice gladiolus bulbs to the best "glad" display in his flower department. Other departments will have prizes that will be decided on later.

WEST STAYTON FAIR IS GIVEN SUPPORT

Stayton—At a special called meeting of the board directors of the Stayton chamber of commerce held at the Murphy-Gardner office it was voted to assist the West Stayton community in their annual Harvest Festival which will be held there for two days, September 15 and 16. The following committees were appointed: Program-speaking, Grant Murphy and E. C. Denny; literary-music, A. C. Van Nuy, Felix Wright, Stayton booth, L. H. Wright, E. J. Rowe, E. C. Denny will have charge of the barbecue and Edward J. Bell of the concessions.

MACHINES ARE TAKEN

Rickreall—Thieves broke into the Bar-B-Q sometime Tuesday night and made away with two slot machines. They entered the place by breaking a window, first pasting it with fly paper. It is thought the machines contained about $30. No one sleeps in the building at night.

Henkle Clan Meets

Independence—Mrs. O. D. Butler, Mrs. W. H. Walker and J. M. Henkle attended the Henkle reunion held recently in the Presbyterian church at Corvallis. There were 104 members of the clan present, a number attending this year for the first time. Washington and Oregon were well represented, many relatives coming to renew old ties and to make new ones. As the years have passed the personnel of the group has undergone a change but a number of the old-timers still remain and enjoy the occasion.

Health Clinic Held For Younger Pupils

Selo—A health clinic for small children who expect to enter school this year was held at the high school building in Selo Wednesday of this week under direction of Miss Edna Flanagan, health nurse, and Mrs. Carl Connet, president of the county health association. A. G. Prill, pioneer physician and surgeon of Selo and J. P. Johnson, local dentist, cooperated in the clinic. Other local residents assisted in the work and several boys and girls were examined.

THRESHING STARTED

Selo—One of the first threshing jobs in the Selo area was started at the Joe Rorer farm a few miles southeast of the city July 6. John Rorer near West Selo, also threshed some grain this week. This is the earliest threshing here for several years, farmers assert.

TROWN FROM LIMB

Selo—J. A. Demaree of Lebanon, timber operator for A. J. Stasek near Selo, sustained a serious injury a few days ago when he was thrown by a limb of a tree and lighted on a sharp knot which penetrated his body.

STATE THEATRE Last Times Today 2-Features-2 "Dangers of the Arctic" -PLUS- Walter Huston in "Keep 'Em Rolling"

CAPITOL Tonite and Sat. A picture that's lightning action-breathless romance Pat. O'Brien Glenda Farrell in "The Personality Kid" BIG FEATURES His guns roar defiance to a law that twists justice! ZANE GREY'S "MAN OF THE FOREST" Randolph Scott Noah Beery

WARNER BROS. EL SINORE! TODAY AND SATURDAY DRAMA... ACTION... ROMANCE! AGAINST THE BLAZING BACK-GROUND OF ERIN IN ARMS!

500 Seats 15c The Story of a Love Thief Who Was the Soul of Honor... Will Powell as a swashbuckling soldier of fortune who was a dare-devil in battle and a devil in love! POWELL THE KEY EDNA BEST COLIN CLIVE Plus Comedy Radio Revue News

The BEST in the WEST That's what they all say about GOOD OLD Goetz Beer Thousands of epicures who live in Salem and vicinity drink nothing but GOETZ. Because it is rich and creamy; mellow with age and has a delightful after taste. SERVED IN 5c and 10c SCHOONERS 1/2 GALLON 45c; 1 GALLON 90c QUART AND PINT BOTTLES ALSO CANDY - ICE CREAM - MILK NICKLES - NUT FREEZES - CIGARS - CIGARETTES - SANDWICHES THE DUTCH MILL 897 N. Commercial St. H. G. DAMON, Prop. WE CATER TO LADIES AND GENTLEMEN— This advertisement is not paid for by the Oregon Liquor Control Commission

Starting Today BAER-CARNERA ROUND BY ROUND FIGHT PICTURES and BUCK JONES "The MAN TRAILER" with Cecilia Parker COMEDY "STRICTLY FRESH EGGS" CARTOON-NEWS GRAND CONTINUOUS SHOW DAILY - 1 P. M. - 11 P. M.

Home Owned Theater HOLLYWOOD TODAY AND SATURDAY Two Big First Run Features, 15c Special Saturday 1:30 P. M. to 5 P. M., 15c "CITY LIMITS" WITH FRANK CRAVEN RAY WALKER SALLY BLANE AND SECOND BIG FEATURE MONOGRAM PICTURES Present EDGAR WALLACE'S "MY KERRY LINER" With Noah Beery and Ralph Lewis Also Comedy and News AND CHAPTER 2 OF "THE WOLF DOG" with Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.

500 Seats 15c The Story of a Love Thief Who Was the Soul of Honor... Will Powell as a swashbuckling soldier of fortune who was a dare-devil in battle and a devil in love! POWELL THE KEY EDNA BEST COLIN CLIVE Plus Comedy Radio Revue News