Mitchell Clan Reunion Sunday

The eighth annual reunion of the descendants of David and Isabel Grievie Mitchell was held Sunday in the Dayton city park, Dayton. More than a hundred descendants gathered for a picnic dinner after which there was a dedication ceremony of a tree planted in the park in memory of David and Isabel Mitchell.

During the afternoon there was a business meeting and program with Leo Mitchell and Mrs. Geo. A. Ramp in charge. A program of Scotch numbers was given by the Klittle band of Salem.

Mrs. Isabel Mitchell, Turner, 85 years of age, was the oldest member of the clan present, and the twin daughters of Cap Mitchell, Portland, were the youngest.

New officers for the coming year are: W. Howard Ramp, president; Fred Mitchell, vice-president; Mrs. Fred Mitchell, secretary-treasurer.

Kenneth Cannoy's Feted at Dallas

Mrs. J. J. Tallman sang for the pleasure of the group. A similar affair will be held at the Tallman home on Friday, August 3.

Miss Marcile Love Charming Bride

Woodburn—A beautiful home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perle L. Love on Cupid's Court Wednesday evening when their only daughter, Gloria Marcile, became the bride of Arthur Stephenson Howatt of Salem.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. P. M. Hammond of the Methodist Episcopal church in front of a beautifully decorated alcove in the living room outlined with greenery and harmonizing shades of zinnias. On either side tall baskets of hydrangeas in pastel shades were placed with white streamers forming an aisle through which the bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Miss Wilma Morrison. Preceding the ceremony Dr. Ethel K. Riley sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Sunshine of Your Smile," accompanied by Miss Morrison.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, made a charming picture in the wedding gown of her mother, of old ivory satin, made in princess style with puffed sleeves, tiptoe length in front with a slight train in the back. Her full length veil of tulle was gathered into a frill in the back and held in place with bandeau of orange blossoms. The veil was worn by her aunt, Mrs. George Landon at her wedding and was also worn by the bride's mother. Her gloves were also a part of her mother's wedding costume and she carried the wedding handkerchief of the groom's mother. An old fashioned nosegay of pink and white rosebuds with the streamers from her mother's wedding bouquet completed the costume.
