MARTIAL LAW UNNEEDED SAYS HUGH JOHNSON

Los Angeles, July 21 (U)—General Hugh S. Johnson, NRA administrator, returned to San Francisco today after letting Los Angeles know how he stands on three matters—martial law, general strikes, and the gubernatorial candidacy of George Creel. Johnson referred to the possibility that Oregon may declare martial law because of the marine strike situation.

"I hear the national guard is organized in Oregon," he said. "It is not my function to interfere with the government of a state but with these strikes on the way to peaceful settlement, what I said before about martial law still stands.

"The matter should soon be in the hands of the president's mediation committee and there's where I belong—not on the points of amateur bayonets."

He credited California communities and the "true labor leaders, Mike Casey, Vandeleur and McLaughlin" with settling the San Francisco general strike.

"They were the shock troops who took their lives in their hands," he said.

He denounced the general strike sternly.

"When you must get permission to buy milk for your baby, you know the public has bowed to the will of a small group," the forceful general said. "It is tyranny and not to be tolerated for a minute by this free people."

Johnson endorsed Creel, former wartime director of propaganda, in his candidacy for the democratic nomination for governor of California.

"They tell me George Creel is running for governor," Johnson said. "He has been a faithful and effective public servant. He has proved himself under pressure. It is far better to take a proven tool than to embark on an experiment."

In addition, to assist with organization, government subscription to shares will match, in a ratio of three for one, all local share payments up to $100,000, then increasing rapidly funds to be available for home loans. Convict's Story perate attempt to win his freedom. If that were true, detectives pointed out, the comparatively low ransom demand of $50,000 which puzzled authorities might be explained.

Pawelczyk, sentenced in Chicago, is serving a one to 10 year term for manslaughter.

Washington, July 21 (U)—Federal secret agents who have run down every possible clue in the still unsolved Lindbergh kidnaping mystery will check fully every angle of the story tod by convict John Pawelczyk in Joliet prison naming Al Capone and Frank Nash as the master minds of the kidnaping.

Whether the convict's story holds any promise of developing a genuine clue to the mystery none could say.

Official reports from the warden of Joliet prison have not yet been received here. Officials believe they would be forwarded to the Chicago office of the department of justice.

It was pointed out that convicts often claim knowledge of sensational crimes and even confess to crimes in which they had no part in an effort to gain freedom or transfer from a prison that has especially rigid discipline.

Links between Al Capone and the Lindbergh case were run down long ago and nothing found in previous investigations to substantiate any connection with him.

It could not be learned whether federal authorities have any record on Pawelczyk or on Bob Sandvich who was named by the convict as the man who killed the Lindbergh child.

All that federal authorities could say on the Lindbergh case was that they had and will continue to go to the bottom of every conceivable clue in the hope of eventually turning up something that will solve the case.

CHIEF OF AF OF L SAYS GENERAL STRIKE MISTAKE

Washington, July 12 (AP)—A firm stand against general strike was maintained today by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Calling the San Francisco general strike a "grave mistake," and asserting labor leaders "acted wisely" in calling it off, President Green said:

"No sympathetic strike of any consequence or possessed of any national significance was ever won."

His words were interpreted as lessening the likelihood of another general strike in the United States, and striking a specific blow at any such sentiment in Portland and Minneapolis.

Government officials, though silent, seemed more hopeful today that the Pacific coast troubles will yield to arbitration. They awaited a definite "break" in the maritime situation.

Green's statement pointed to the dangers of workmen themselves as the result of sympathetic strikes.

"Workers who are organized into unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor," he said, "cannot afford to engage in a sympathetic strike when such action calls for the violation of contracts arrived at through collective bargaining and involves the possibility of losing all economic gains they have secured through years of sacrifice and effort."

In such a strike, he said, there arises a conflict between workers and the government in which the latter "must win," the strikers lose and the employers against whom the original strike was aimed "become the beneficiaries."

The San Francisco trouble did not reach that point, he said, and organized labor can demand that the disputes "responsible for the longshoremen's strike are all submitted to a fair tribunal."

Springfield, Ill.; 93 at Richmond, Va., with the prospect that the day might surpass the season's record of 100 degrees; and 99 degrees at Lincoln, Neb.

Omaha sweltered in a morning which opened at 91 degrees, the highest mark ever recorded in July so early, 8 a. m. Philadelphia found the day six degrees hotter than Friday.

The southwest's temperatures again headed for the plus 100 heights; it was 96 degrees in Kansas City, 85 degrees at Dallas. A reading of 105 degrees was recorded at Williamstown, Ky., and 90 was common many places.

In Iowa and other mid-west sections the water shortage continued acute. Chicago took steps to conserve its supply to prevent a fire hazard. All persons were asked to stop opening fire hydrants for use as outdoor showers.

At Fort Smith, Ark., hundreds of persons joined in a prayer meeting for rain.

The authorities at Fort Wayne, Ind., reported that while the temperature stood near 100 degrees, Ray Schoff tied two of his children, aged 6 and 4, to a post and in an unshaded spot as a punishment for getting paint on their clothes.

Neighbors called the Humane Society workers. They told Schoff there would be no prosecution because Schoff's wife pleaded in his behalf. She is ill.

Meanwhile the loss in livestock grew hourly. Horses were reported falling dead in the harvest fields and cattle, ill from thirst and hunger were perishing in the pastures.

New York, July 21 (U)—Sweltering New Yorkers hastened to seashores and forests today as the weather bureau predicted the present heat wave would continue through the week-end.

The mercury leaped from 75 to 80 degrees within one hour, soon after daybreak and temperatures above 90 were predicted for later. Two deaths directly due to heat were reported.

Des Moines, July 21 (AP) — Prospects for more than half a crop in southern Iowa faded today as the stifling heat continued.

One government official declared the triangular area between Des Moines, Shenandoah and Centerville to be the most seriously drought damaged area in Iowa's history.

The blistering heat of the last six days, said Leslie M. Carl, chief of the federal department of agriculture, is "firing" the corn from the top down instead of from the bottom up as is usually the case.

MUNICIPAL BOND MARKET IMPROVES

Bonds held by the state banking department for the accounts of the many state banks in liquidation, were fast being sold, and recently at 95 cents on the dollar as compared to 70 cents two years ago, the bank department reported.

Strength in the municipal bond market for the past six months has enabled the department to sell almost its entire holdings in municipals. The bulk of bonds still held were those of foreign countries, or of domestic industrial concerns whose securities there was no listing.

tion of the adjutant general of the national guard.

"If it is necessary to assume military control I will make the city of Minneapolis as quiet as a Sunday school."

The union labor leaders not directly involved in the strike of 6,000 members of the general truck driver's and helpers" union generally were optimistic organized labor would not go out in a general strike.

Taxicab service was stopped today. Union drivers kept a promise made at a general mass meeting last night to join in the strike.

The strike committee of drivers warned that all ice, milk and beer trucks, heretofore exempted from the embargo, would be halted today. There was, however, no move made to stop ice and milk trucks.

Employers announced in a letter to the drivers' union that they have set Monday as the final day on which the men may return to work.

"After Monday," the statement said, "any other qualified applicant will be considered for employment on a permanent basis."

This was interpreted as threat to use strikebreakers.

There appeared little hope of immediate settlement of the strike begun Monday midnight. Presence of national guardsmen ,however, probably will prevent spread of the strike to other unions, observers believed.
