CHARLES REYNOLDS BACK

Silverton — Charles Reynolds, in federal employment as receiver of a Pendleton bank, was a Silverton visitor with his family over Saturday and Sunday. Reynolds made the drive by automobile, leaving Pendleton at 2:30 a.m. because of the heat during the day. Reynolds was formerly connected with the Coolidge and McClaine bank here, was a member of the city council for a number of years and active in other social and civic movements.

DEATH CLAIMS LAST VETERAN

Dallas—Horatio P. Shriver, the last Civil war veteran in this vicinity, and organizer of the local unit of the G.A.R., passed away Friday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. B. Godolnton. He was 92 years 3 months 9 days old.

Horatio Shriver was born in Baltimore, Maryland, in 1843. Seventeen years later he came west to Yreka. The trip consumed 240 days and was full of lively incidents, including an attack by Indians at Bear River, Utah. After a year in California he came to Oregon. Cattle driving and farming occupied his attention until he enlisted in the Northern ranks where he remained until he was mustered out in 1868.

In 1867 he married Mary Jane Sebring and shortly after his marriage became the first marshal of the city of Dallas. During his eight year term of office he was never known to carry firearms, his only weapon being a loaded cane. His wife died in 1870.

Six years later he married Mandana S. Mills of Centralia, Wash., and again returned to Dallas where he once more assumed the duties of marshal. His roving spirit took him back up to Washington and while there he entered the service of the Northern Pacific as a painter. In 1897 he moved to Dallas and here he resided since.

A remarkable tribute to his active life is the fact that at the age of 80 years he was awarded the contract to paint the county buildings at the fairgrounds and did all the work himself. He is survived by three daughters.

Mrs. W. A. Boyd of Seattle, Mrs. W. A. Richards of Westport, Calif., and Mrs. C. B. Godolnton of Dallas; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. His last great-grandchild was born on his 91st birthday anniversary.

Funeral services were held Monday from the Henkle and Thomas funeral parlors with Rev. K. E. Burke officiating. The soloist for the service was Joe Gardner with Mrs. K. E. Burke accompanying. Interment was in the old Dallas cemetery.

WELFARE CONTINUED BY LODGE MEMBERS

Hubbard—One lodge which is doing considerable community and welfare work in Hubbard is Thalia lodge of the Rebekah order. One of their most recent bits of work was ordering a new cement walk put in front of the hall used by the band for rehearsals, contributing $30 to the congregational church and contributing also toward new equipment for the Odd Fellows' home in Portland. In addition the lodge is considering purchasing gold jewelry for all veteran members of the order.

New officers heading the lodge are Mrs. Marie Claypool, Mrs. Ethel Dahl, Mrs. Meta Friend, Miss Hazel Wells, Mrs. Marie Cooper, Mrs. Esther Moon, Mrs. Ave Malone, Mrs. A. J. Spangle, Mrs. Emma Grimps, Mrs. Ella Zeek, Mrs. Caroline Smolnisky, Mrs. Susie Ott, Mrs. Edith Painter, Mrs. Ida Garland. The latter was retiring noble grand, the position now held by Mrs. Claypool.

Stayton—The Methodist church people held their regular pot-luck supper at the home of J. R. Alexander.

FREE LUNCHEON BRINGS CROWD

Monmouth—There was a generous response in the way of attendance at the community luncheon donated to visitors, students and children by the Monmouth chamber of commerce Thursday afternoon. Watermelon, wieners, buns and coffee were dispensed from a stand in the center of the commons and handed out by willing waiters. People visited while they ate. The sun was shaded by clouds and a pleasant time was had by all. A number of signs called attention to the "goodwill" money and the idea was given a favorable impulse.

As a luncheon preliminary the Hollywood Buckeroo, boys' band of Salem discoursed some lively music. After the luncheon the people adjourned to the Normal school campus where the story of Robinhood and King Richard was given a dramatization by pupils of the Monmouth and Independence training schools. This was the climax of the summer session as far as the children are concerned for the training schools are operated only during the first half of the O. N. S. summer session.

MAKE NORTHERN TRIP

Silverton—Miss Frances Nelson is spending two weeks on a trip to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., and will visit friends and relatives in Tacoma and Seattle. Accompanying her is Miss Eleanor Strand of Portland, formerly of Silverton. The young women left by automobile Wednesday forenoon. They will take a number of trips from Seattle by boat.

Summer Vacation Is Voted by Club

Mill City—The Corn Cob Pipe club met at the residence of Albert Mill-sap near Niagara Thursday evening with 47 members present. A musical program was given by the club orchestra. The violinist and pianist presented to the club a new opening and closing song of their own composition, and the songs were adopted by the club.

The club voted unanimously for a summer vacation, so no more meetings will be held until the first Thursday in October. The members adjourned following a lunch served by the host.

LATTER DAY SAINTS END SERMON TOPICS

Silverton—The closing program of the series of sermons and lectures of members of the Church of the Latter Day Saints at the Modern Woodman hall and in the Silverton city park, were held Sunday. Rev. Harvey Morris organized a junior church at the morning services at the hall, with Mrs. Eibert Livingston of Portland assisting in a solo number. Mrs. Ruby Hunt of Portland accompanied at the piano.

Officials who spoke at the afternoon session in the park were Elder Albert Livingston who talked on the social program of the church; Elder George Hager on church organization, and Elder Harold I. Velt who sponsored the series, also told of the accomplishments of the work of the church. Elder A. L. DuVal, pastor of the Silverton church, gave a short talk on the church prophets.

POLK DOLLARS IN CIRCULATION

Monmouth—The Herald office has been a young mint this week gringing money in upper bracket totals. This money is not coin of the republic but good only in the jurisdiction of "Good Will" at special auction sales where the possessor may pit his possession and wits with those of his neighbors in bidding in various articles and goods designed for household use.

Starting immediately, if not sooner, merchants and establishments in Monmouth who have anything to sell will give with each cash purchase an equivalent amount of "Good Will" money. Money paid on back accounts will also return an equal amount in the "Good Will" coin.

As a preliminary, by circulating among Monmouth business men the customer can equip himself with 50 "Good Will" dollars free of cost and without any entanglement, or reservation whatever, providing the customer is an adult and does not pass more than one application card. These cards have been mailed out, but if you have been overlooked apply at the First National bank and receive one as long as the supply holds out.

These "Good Will" auction sales have been held at various points in the country. In Canby such sales have been held for more than a year. When Canby merchants first tried out the plan they arranged to hold a monthly sale but the idea proved so popular, "Good Will" auction sales are now held in Canby twice each month. In Monmouth the first sale date has been placed at Saturday, August 25 at 1 o'clock and preliminary plans are to hold the sales monthly on the fourth Saturday afternoon.

Jefferson—Mr. and Mrs. Eimer Thomson and two children of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Nora Norton of Portland visited their mother, Mrs. Ida Thomson and sister, Mrs. Edna Allen this week.
