

INJURIES SEND VALLEY PEOPLE INTO HOSPITAL

Woodburn—An epidemic of broken bones seems to be abroad in the McKee district. Louis Kappel, who received a broken leg while working on the Pudding River bridge last April and has been home for a month on crutches with his leg in a cast, was taken back to the hospital in Portland last week to have the cast removed and another put on for a month longer. About six weeks after his leg was taken to be broken and reset, Leonard Obersinner, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Obersinner, recently suffered a fracture of his left arm just below the elbow in a fall from a shed roof. Two years ago this same boy broke his right leg while on his way home from school when he fell down a grade on the Hove hill.

Walter Beyer, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Beyer, recently fell and fractured his arm.

Williamina—The Union Oil company agent here is in the McMinnville hospital suffering from injuries received early Wednesday morning. Almond left his home at about 5 o'clock to unload a tank car of gasoline which was on the siding. About 7 o'clock he was returning home with injuries to his shoulders and back and so dazed that he could not tell what had happened or how he was hurt. Dr. Russell was called from Sheridan and advised that he be sent to the hospital for an X-ray examination. He was taken in an ambulance to the McMinnville hospital, where an examination revealed his left shoulder and ribs were fractured.

Stacy—Dale Champ received three deep cuts in his hand and neck early Tuesday morning when the car in which he was riding ran into a telephone pole on the corner of Third and Florence streets. His brother, Eldon, was driving the car and lost control due to a defective steering wheel. Dr. H. A. Beauchamp placed several stitches in the wounds. Eldon Champ was uninjured, although the car was completely wrecked.

School Basement Is Given Cement
Hazel Green—A much needed improvement has been added to the school with the completion of the cement floor in the basement. Heretofore the basement has been unusually dusty and as the scholars eat their lunches there, the new floor will be doubly appreciated.

School Will Commence
