

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by REYNOLD ERBE, Phone 4343

Birthday Party at Daugherty Home

Mrs. E. B. Daugherty entertained recently in compliment to the sixth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Bonnie Marie. Games were in play during the afternoon and at a late hour refreshments were served. A candle light birthday cake was a feature of the tea hour. The pink and green motif was carried out in the decorative theme. The hostess was assisted in serving by the Misses Eleanor Means, Florene and Alice Fay Daugherty.

Guests bidden to wish Miss Bonnie Marie a happy birthday were Charlotte Williams, Leona Belle Wallace, Clara Bell Roth, Evelyn Roseman, Donna Bonner, Frederick Lien, Robert Bonner, Myron Cavender and John Wallace.

Mrs. George Willig Guest of Honor

Mrs. Otto Mohring was hostess at a dinner in honor of Mrs. George Willig, Jr., on her birthday recently. A large cake with candles centered the table.

Present were the honor guest, Mrs. Willig and Mrs. Dora Mohring, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lucker of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Laurel Lamb of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Homan, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Goschie, George Willig, Jr., Otto Mohring, Viola, Irene, Leona, Florence and Violet Willig, Lucinda Homan, Herman Goschie, Elvira Moy, and George Otto Mohring and the hostess, Mrs. Otto Mohring.

Miss Cora Moore To Wed Thursday

An August wedding of interest to many in the city will be held Thursday morning in Eugene when Miss Cora Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Moore, will be married to Austin Frey, son of Mrs. Eula Frey of Clatsop, Cal., and formerly of Eugene.

The ceremony will be held at 8 o'clock Thursday morning in St. Mary's Catholic church, Rev. D. P. Curley officiating at the ceremony and mass.

Miss Irene Moore will be maid of honor for her sister and the bride's other two sisters, Misses Martha and Elaine Moore, will be bridesmaids.

Gerald E. McPeak is to be best man, Uehlers will be John McMullen and George H. Miller.

About one hundred have been invited to the wedding from Salem, Newport, Roseburg and Gardiner.

A reception will be held at the Moore home from nine until eleven o'clock.

The couple is to live in Eugene. Miss Moore has been very prominent in musical activities there, being particularly well known as accompanist for the Eugene Gleemen. She has often appeared in Salem and is popular in local circles.

Miss Jean David To Go East

Friends of Miss Jean David, popular Miami, Florida, debutante who has been spending the summer season in Salem, regret to learn that she will leave for her home this week-end. She will visit in Portland with the Harvard McIntires before proceeding across the continent.

Delta Phi Members Entertain At Gay Picnic For Debs

ONE of the gayest affairs of the week for the university contingent will be the picnic tonight at Paradise Isle with the members of Delta Phi acting as hostesses. The "Gypsy" idea will be carried out and in the late evening around a campfire a fortune teller will disclose the past, present and future of the guests. Arranging the affair are Miss Doris Unruh, Miss Claudia Buntin and Miss Gwendolyn Hunt.

Those bidden are the Misses Lois Burton, Virginia Pugh, Roberta McGilchrist, Margaret Hauser, Cathrin Hendrick, Betty Taylor, Cornelia Hulst, Carolyn Hunt, Neva Smith, Betty Abrams, Rosemary Huffman, June Lockeridge, Ruth Melson, and Irma Oehler.

The hostess group will include the Misses Gladys Hanson, Doris Unruh, Cynthia Delano, Bertha Babcock, Josephine McGilchrist, Viola Crozier, Helen Worth, Evelyn Haag, Dorothy Minnick, Frances Stewart, Esther Black, Naida Carroll, Claudia Buntin, Edith and Elizabeth Clement, Ruth Chapman, Theresa Ulrich, LaForest McDonald, Gwendolyn Hunt and Winifred Gardner.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore her mother's wedding dress of ivory satin, with a long train, which was trimmed with Duchesse lace. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, sweet peas and gardenias.

Mrs. Walter Kropp of Albany was her only attendant. She wore a dress of green silk crepe with a train and carried an arm bouquet of sweet peas and tulle. Dr. Millard Rosenblatt of Portland was best man.

Miss Henrietta Stewart of Albany sang preceding the ceremony, "O Promise Me," with Mrs. J. Fred Braly playing the wedding music.

White flowers, white candles, silver and green leaves were used for decorating throughout the rooms. The fireplace was banked with silver and green leaves, palms, white gladioli and tall wrought iron standards holding white candles.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The large supper table was placed in the gardens of the Scharbach home.

Following a wedding trip to northern points, Mr. and Mrs. Lang will make their home at 912 S.W. Vista avenue, Portland.

Mrs. Lang was graduated from Stanford university at Palo Alto. Mr. Lang was graduated from Oregon State college at Corvallis.

Return from Long Trip Mrs. Jessie Rains and Miss Venita Rains, both of Salem, accompanied by Miss Ruth Clark of Portland and Miss Moxie Hopkins of Banks, returned Saturday from an extended motor trip throughout the United States. The group traveled 4000 miles and visited 32 states. They visited extensively in San Francisco, Los Angeles, El Paso, New Orleans, Birmingham, Atlanta, Washington, D. C., Philadelphia and New York. Later they motored north to Montreal and Toronto. En route home they visited in Chicago, St. Louis, Denver and Salt Lake City.

Members of the Eugene Artisans will be coming to Salem Thursday evening to participate in a meeting and initiation here. The Eugene group will do the initiation work. Several neighboring lodges will also be in attendance.

Mrs. George Norman Campbell will preside as toastmistress and new officers of the western federation will be installed. Flowers and decorations will be in charge of Mrs. Rosine Walton, Mrs. Marie Morgan and Mrs. Edward Krebs. Mrs. Buland, Mrs. Olin J. Hosford, Mrs. E. E. Andrew and Mrs. Nettie Rankin Bolland will be in charge of reception of guests and seating. Reservations are being requested from individuals and clubs by September 4 and may be made with Mrs. Buland or Mrs. Andrew. Tickets may be obtained September 5 from Mrs. W. M. Hartford, in charge of the ticket sale at the Multnomah hotel. Many Salem women are making plans to be in attendance during the session.

Mrs. F. W. Lange entertained informally at dinner in compliment to the birthday anniversary of Dr. Lange in their residence on Belmont street, Saturday evening. Covers were placed for eight.

Salem friends of Mrs. Mary K. Logan will be happy to learn that she is moving from her country place near Astoria to Salem where she will make her home with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Logan. Mrs. Logan was state organizer of P.E.O. Sisterhood and former state president.

Mrs. Ira Jorgenson and Miss Iris Jorgenson are enjoying a motor trip in southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard and children are spending this week in Seattle.

Salem Folk At Jefferson

Jefferson—Mrs. Maude Blackwell and Mrs. Alma Henderson of Salem were hostesses Friday afternoon to members of the Capital auxiliary No. 11 of Patriots Millant, I. O. O. F. of Salem, who met in the attractive tea garden at the former's home at Camp Santiam across the river from Jefferson. The afternoon was spent informally with an interesting talk by the state president, Miss Anita Nicholson of Harrisburg. At the tea hour refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Present were Mrs. Victoria Siffler, Mrs. Alma Henderson, Mrs. Luella Engstrom, chaplain, Mrs. Ida Traglio, Mrs. Lila Green, Mrs. Hattie Cameron, Mrs. Inez Slegmund, Mrs. Grace Webber, Mrs. Linnie Simeral, Mrs. Pearl Formick, Mrs. Ividene Hubbard, Master Joe Formick of Salem, Mrs. Anna Jensen, sentinal of Junction City, Mrs. Louise King of Los Angeles, Miss Anita Nicholson, state president, Mrs. Nicholson and Mrs. Curtis of Harrisburg and the hostesses, Mrs. Alma Henderson, past state president, and Mrs. Maude Blackwell.

Luncheons To Feature Session Anticipated features of the convention of the Western Federation of Women's clubs, which will be held in Portland early next month, are the luncheons and dinners arranged for the program, at which officers of the general and western federations will appear as honor guests and speakers. The first of the series will be the state's luncheon planned for September 6 in the assembly room of the Multnomah hotel, at which Mrs. R. E. Brown of Montana will preside.

Music will be in charge of Mrs. William Horsfall of Marshfield, chairman of music for the Oregon state federation, and decorations will be arranged by members of Portland Sorosis, under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. F. Fulton.

The convention banquet will be held that night in the ballroom of the hotel, with Mrs. George Norman Campbell of Klama, Wash., president of the western federation, presiding and with Mrs. Saldie Orr Dunbar of Portland as toastmistress. Speakers will include Mrs. Roberta C. Lawson of Oklahoma, first vice-president, and Dr. Josephine L. Peirce of Ohio, second vice-president, of the general federation, and Mrs. David Erickson of Reno, Nev., president of the Nevada federation. Mrs. Charles E. Runyon and a committee from the Portland Woman's club will arrange the banquet decorations.

The "Poole" luncheon, at which Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole of Massachusetts, president of the general federation, will be honor guest, will be held Friday, September 7, also at the Multnomah hotel, and promises to be the high point of the convention session. Mrs. Poole, Mrs. Josephine Seaman of La Jolla, Cal., president of the California federation; Mrs. H. E. Malby of Seattle and Mrs. Overton G. Ellis of Tacoma, will be the speakers. Mrs. Roberta C. Lawson will sing. Members of the press will be presented by Mrs. G. L. Buland in a short feature, "The Dynamo That Runs Clubdom—the Press."

Mrs. George Norman Campbell will preside as toastmistress and new officers of the western federation will be installed. Flowers and decorations will be in charge of Mrs. Rosine Walton, Mrs. Marie Morgan and Mrs. Edward Krebs. Mrs. Buland, Mrs. Olin J. Hosford, Mrs. E. E. Andrew and Mrs. Nettie Rankin Bolland will be in charge of reception of guests and seating. Reservations are being requested from individuals and clubs by September 4 and may be made with Mrs. Buland or Mrs. Andrew. Tickets may be obtained September 5 from Mrs. W. M. Hartford, in charge of the ticket sale at the Multnomah hotel. Many Salem women are making plans to be in attendance during the session.

Mrs. F. W. Lange entertained informally at dinner in compliment to the birthday anniversary of Dr. Lange in their residence on Belmont street, Saturday evening. Covers were placed for eight.

Salem friends of Mrs. Mary K. Logan will be happy to learn that she is moving from her country place near Astoria to Salem where she will make her home with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Logan. Mrs. Logan was state organizer of P.E.O. Sisterhood and former state president.

Mrs. Ira Jorgenson and Miss Iris Jorgenson are enjoying a motor trip in southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard and children are spending this week in Seattle.

SEARS BUYER GOES BY PLANE

Across the continent and back by plane to bring an up-to-the-minute Fall showing of fashions and accessories with glamorous living models was the achievement of Nathan Ash, Northwestern apparel buyer for Sears, Roebuck retail stores.

Ash has recently returned to the northwest from New York where he spent ten days in fashion centers lining up details of the showing.

F. O. Bridgeman, manager of the Sears store, today announced that arrangements have been completed to hold the showing in the Salem store this evening at seven forty-five.

A Sears stylist will point out the new developments as the models parade along the runway. There will be orchestral music.

"There is no doubt," Bridgeman stated, "that this is the finest showing of its kind ever attempted by Sears in the northwest. It will give the women of Salem the opportunity to learn authentically what the important Fall fashion influences are."

"Simplicity, wearability, and luxuriousness of material are the high lights," he continued, "but there is nothing like seeing the costumes on professional models to get a true picture."

"Will you extend an invitation to every woman in Salem and vicinity to attend the showing," he asked the Capital Journal, "it will be decidedly worth their while."

Silverton—Mrs. J. W. Jordan entertained 20 members of the high school Sunday school class of the First Christian church at a picnic supper and swimming party Monday at the Morley grove on Butte creek. Mrs. W. O. Livingstone and Mrs. L. R. Sawyer assisted Mrs. Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Noth of Salem spent the past week in Medford visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hanby. They left Thursday for a motor trip in California.

The Marion auxiliary sewing club, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet at the home of Mrs. Ben Woelke, 701 North Church street, on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Miss Minetta Magers of Portland is registered at the Marion hotel this week. Miss Magers is a former Salem resident and prominent in musical affairs throughout the state. Several affairs are being planned for her pleasure.

Members of the Fortnightly club and Comrades of the Way, First Congregational church, will meet at the Leslie playground this evening for a pot-luck supper. Reports will be given on the recent Hillockburn camp session. From 8 to 9 o'clock club members will swim in the Leslie pool and all friends are invited to join them.

The Woman's Relief Corps and friends are invited to a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Rachel Ruth, 975 North 17th street, Thursday afternoon.

Friends of Mrs. Martha Martin, who has been in the Myrtle Point hospital for the past 11 days with blood poisoning, will be happy to learn that she is recovering.

Mrs. W. E. Delong has returned from Cutler City.

The Laurel Social Hour club will hold its annual picnic in the Glenn Adams grove on Glenn creek road Wednesday. A pot-luck dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. E. C. Gross returned Monday from a fortnight's stay in her summer place at Cananda.

Plans Are Made for Community Fair

Silverton Hills—At the regular session of the Silverton Hills grange Friday evening, the principal feature of business was the initial arrangements for the annual community fair that is held each year.

The committees in charge of the general plans are members of the Home Economics and agricultural committees and include Mrs. E. S. Porter, Mrs. C. V. Murray, Mrs. Elvin Hartley, Oscar Lee, John Tschantz and Clifton Hadley. The fair will be held October 6.

GAIL TRASK BADLY INJURED BY TREE

Silverton—Gail Trask, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Trask of Lyons, was injured Friday at the Matheny camp near Silverton when a split vine maple struck him on the head, causing a fracture. He was taken to the Salem General hospital, where he is reported in a serious condition.

FIVE TRANSIENTS HELD FOR LARCENY

Dallas—Business at the county jail took a sudden spurt Saturday when Officer Ross of the state police brought in five transients charged with petty larceny. The theft took place in the Pedee country although the men were arrested at Creswell in Lane county.

Their names were Lewis Quigley, Frank Quigley, Clayton Warner, George Leffey, and Carl Rich.

Sidney Grange Has Meeting Saturday

Sidney—The meeting of Ankeny Grange Saturday night, while poorly attended, was a busy one. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Colgan were given degrees, also five new names were taken in for membership. The next meeting will be held September 1, the program to be provided by married women, Lecturer Rex Hartley announced.

Dancing was enjoyed by all who wished. Miss Estie Morris, a visiting Granger from Rainier, was at the piano.

RETURN HOME Scotts Mills—Willard Kellis and son Donald who with the rest of the family have been visiting here for the past week, left for their home at Copio, Calif. Mrs. Kellis and two smaller children remained for a two weeks' longer visit, her mother, Mrs. Myra Sloan, plans on returning with her.

AT BROUGHTON HOME Scotts Mills—Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brougher Sunday afternoon were Dr. and Mrs. John Brougher and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stone of Vancouver, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. George Bauman of Portland.

Mrs. W. A. Denton has returned from a fortnight's visit in Seattle, Tacoma, Bremerton, Mt. Rainier and Victoria, B. C.

HOSPITAL BUSY WITH ACCIDENTS

Silverton—The Silverton General hospital has been a busy place during the past three days.

Norman Kirk was treated for a dislocation at the shoulder and a possible fracture of the right arm sustained in a fall while working at the Morley hop ranch.

Mrs. Marie Ingebreten was at the hospital with a fracture of the right arm as the result of a fall at her home Sunday.

Mrs. Ernest Cooper of Wilhoit was brought to the hospital Saturday for medical treatment.

Frank Davis, a OCC worker, was able to be taken to Cascadia Monday by ambulance after submitting to an appendectomy during last week.

Jefferson—Mrs. Kate Spragg of Salem and son Gilbert Spragg of Portland were visiting friends here Sunday.

Miss Coulson Has Vacation at Home

Scotts Mills—Miss Margaret Coulson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Coulson, is home for her vacation. After finishing Bible college in Portland in the spring Miss Coulson went to the Girls' Scout camp at Bull Run where she assisted in the Scout work.

Schilling

Buy pepper in the larger sizes.

8oz. pepper 25¢

4oz. pepper 15¢

2oz. pepper 10¢

Look what you save!

New Fashions In Hair for You!

$1.50

Phone 7953

Genuine "Hexol" Steam Oil Permanent Curls.....

You'll like this steam oil permanent curl because it lasts and really is good for the hair. Will not discolor... has no harmful chemicals! Make your appointment tomorrow for this special!

No Borax No Ammonia

FAMOUS "ZOTOS" METHOD OF PERMANENT WAVING HERE EXCLUSIVELY! ASK ABOUT IT

Miller's Beauty Shop

for that slim figure

Not alone is this refreshing lager beer non-fattening but it tones up the constitution, improves the complexion, clears the skin and puts roses in the cheeks.

CALIFORNIA BREWING ASSN. San Francisco Los Angeles *Physician's report FREE on request

Non Fattening ACME BEER

RAMAGES STAR BOTTLING CO. 810 N. Liberty St., Distributors

Let this wonder BOOK OF FASHIONS solve your FALL AND WINTER clothes problems at a minimum of cost and effort. It tells you how to make a smart coat as easily as a simple dress. There are clothes for elaborate occasions as well as many smart, trim designs for general wear. In fact it shows a complete line of styles for every type and age. There is a simple and well-planned layette for the new baby as well as youthful, becoming designs for the expectant mother. You'll enjoy reading about your favorite screen stars. You simply mustn't miss this issue. Send for your copy today, enclosing 10 cents, stamps or coin. Address Fashion Bureau, Salem Capital Journal, 200 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

48 Pages Brimful of Fashion News

Handiest thing in the house

10 CENTS

FINAL CLEARANCE DAYS OF SUMMER MERCHANDISE

SWIM SUITS 1/2 price!

Webfoot and Jantzen in This Special Close Out Sale!

We've collected a number of fine all wool swim suits in famous qualities to close out at half price!

Misses', children's, boys' and men's—many of which are Jantzen and Webfoot discontinued numbers.

Also men's and boys' wool swim trunks in this group. (Main floor)

Men's, Boy's, Misses' and Girls'

