

HILLS PEOPLE ARRANGE FOR ANNUAL SHOW

Silverton—An annual affair of rural folk that is attracting state wide attention each autumn is the fall festival, known as the Community fair, of the Silverton Hills district. For this fall the date has been set Saturday, Oct. 6.

The Home Economics club of the Silverton Hills grange is assuming the responsibility for the general arrangements, with no definite group claiming the honor, but every individual in the community, for miles around, urged to feel that this is his fair, and he is asked to bring along for exhibit numerous agricultural products, canned goods, fancy work, quilts, antiques, cutlery, in fact anything that will help boost the event and make a better fair than ever before. Schools or other organizations will be welcomed as exhibitors.

Mrs. E. S. Porter is president of the Home Economics club, which has been practically dormant during the busy summer season on the farms of the community, but the members state that the thought of preparations for the fair has put "kick" into the organization and they are coming to with a determination to make this a real success.

An afternoon program will be given with a noted speaker to be selected.

The evening will be given over to the young people with dancing and various amusements planned. Lunches, tea, cream, candies, cold soft drinks will be served. Day time admission will be 10 cents and those who return in the evening will be credited with the 10 cents on the 25 cents admission for the evening.

Santiam Highway Is Pleasure Drive

Stacyon—Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brown of Stacyon and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Smith of Lyons drove over the new Santiam highway through Detroit to Bend, then to Maupin and through the Wapinita cutoff to Government Camp up the Columbia highway to Bonneville and returning home by way of the Bridge of the Gods and Vancouver. The party left Friday evening and returned Sunday. The roads were all in fair condition they reported.

PETTY THEFTS IRK POLICEMAN

Independence—Several cases of petty thievery have been reported to the officers during the past few days and among them was the theft of several blankets and some bedding taken from cars parked along the streets.

One of the perpetrators has been landed in the city jail while the owners are identifying their blankets. Two of the blankets found in his possession belong to Don Dickenson and another was found on a nearby straw pallet in the jungles along the river front belonging to another.

The change in the weather the past few days has made it necessary for those sleeping out of doors to hunt for covers and those who are parking their cars on the streets during the next few weeks would do well to secure the car doors.

EVANGELISTS TO APPEAR FRIDAY

Silverton—An announcement of interest to many Silverton folk is that Clark singing evangelists, who held a series of many weeks' religious services here more than a year ago will be on the program Friday evening of this week, beginning at 8 o'clock in the Silverton city park when William H. Pope of the Calvary Tabernacle of Portland, known as the radio pastor of the great northwest, will give an address and sponsor a program of music.

Rev. Pope will have his gospel radio and broadcast car which is equipped with loud speakers and all facilities of open air programs. The side of the car is let down, making a platform, from which the services are conducted. Other artists of broadcast fame that will appear are the Boner singers, Mrs. Nellie Curtis is the piano accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark were in Silverton Tuesday arranging for the entertainment and made the trip to Tillamook by auto to arrange for a similar meeting there. The group will appear at Camas, Wash., Thursday evening.

The Clarks include Mrs. Edith M. Clark, lecturer and singer, her husband, S. K. Clark, soloist, and their daughter, Helen. Another daughter, Mary, is married and lives at Los Angeles.

The Clarks will be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Palmer Friday day.

Couple To Beach On 34th Anniversary

Silverton—In celebrating their 34th wedding anniversary Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bell of 312 Third Street drove to Culler City on the coast Friday for a three day trip. Rather unusual is the fact that this was the first time since their marriage that Mr. and Mrs. Bell had taken a vacation by themselves and the first definite celebration of the wedding anniversary that they had been privileged to observe. They returned home Sunday evening.

Miss Massie Better After Operation

Hazel Green—Miss Doris Massie, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Massie, who underwent a major operation at a local hospital recently has returned to her home. Miss Doris, who is a junior in high school will be able to resume her studies at the opening of school.

During her convalescence her sister, Mrs. Donald Parks of Seattle will remain at the Massie home as companion.

COME FROM YAKIMA

Hazel Green—Mr. and Mrs. George Teach of this community had as their houseguests recently Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller and children, Ruth, Walter and John and Evelyn Fry, all of Yakima, Wash. Mrs. Miller plan on visiting at various beach resorts and also other relatives at Gold Beach.

NOW AT KLAMATH

Lars Westby Fatally Hurt at Willamina

Willamina—While at work on the Cowlitz ranch, Lars Westby was fatally injured. He and Nathan Lue were pulling stumps with a team which Westby was driving. As they were making a heavy pull a root broke, snapping back and striking Westby on the head. Although partly dazed he walked about a half mile to his home where he soon became unconscious. A doctor was called, who immediately removed him to the McMinnville hospital where he passed away. Mr. Westby was born in Norway, was 44 years old, had lived in Grand Ronde for the past five years. He leaves one brother, August Westby, who lives at Douglas, N. D. Funeral services were held from the Sheridan funeral home with interment in the Sheridan cemetery.

Boys From School Enrolled In Band

Hubbard—Approximately 25 of the boys at the training school have enrolled in the music classes under Dr. A. F. de Lospinasse, musical director at the school. The musical program is one of the features of the school, at various times either a small band or orchestra as well as vocal choruses assisting in giving the students extra opportunities toward education.

GOOD WILL IDEA PUT OVER WITH DECISIVE VIGOR

Monmouth—An innovation in Monmouth, successfully carried off, was the goodwill money auction sale held Saturday afternoon. The auction for which "good will" money has been paid a customer the equivalent of a cash purchase or cash paid on a bill for the past month by the firms cooperating was sponsored by the chamber of commerce. Merchandise to the extent of $125 budget from these firms was cried by the auctioneer, F. C. Gillette and Phillip Schweizer on the city common.

Several hundred persons from adjacent areas and the town folk stood in the sun using their "good will" money as the medium in exchange for merchandise composed of groceries from a sack of sugar down to a can of beans; articles of clothing, hardware, a sack of mash, automotive specialties, chinaware, an lot of other articles which have been on display in the windows of the Odd Fellows building for a week.

A series of auctions to be held the planned by the sponsors.

Labor Day Cause of Deferred Concert

Woodburn—There will be no band concert this week, was the decision reached when the band met for practice Monday night. Instead, the final concert of the season will be given on Sunday evening, September 30.

On account of Labor day there will be no practice next Monday night but the regular practice will be held on Thursday night, September 6 in preparation for the concert on the following Sunday. The beginning's practice night will be resumed next week on Tuesday night. This has been omitted during the summer.

It is expected that a large crowd will be out for the final concert as most of the work in the hop yards and harvest fields will be completed by that date and the full membership of the band will be able to be present.
