

PROSSER HEADS MT. ANGEL POST FOR NEXT YEAR

Mr. Angel-American Legion post No. 89, Mt. Angel, held their election of officers at the meeting Tuesday evening at which a large number were present. After the meeting was called to order the chair was turned over to Commander Hanson of Silvertown, who presided during the election.

The following officers were elected: Fred Prosser, commander; Cletis Butsch, vice-commander; J. F. Sauvain, adjutant; finance officer, Dr. J. E. Webb; John Griesenauer, Sam Simms and Frank J. Walker, executive committee.

RATIONAL TEACHING METHOD FOR SCHOOL

Hazel Green—The school commenced activities this week with Mrs. Laura Miles as principal, and Miss Helen Ralph as primary instructor. Due to a number of families who are still picking hops the registration was lower than last year there being 27 in upper grades and 21 in primary room.

Beginners registered are Allen Schwengel, Rosalie Wacker, Roland Van Cleave, Dean Lowery, Marjorie Fukai, Betty Yarem and Roland Zielinski. Other new pupils are Andie Earl, second grade, John Earl, fourth grade, Charles Earl, fifth grade and Hubert Asplund, eighth grade.

The Pullerton rational system of rural teaching will be used this year in the school. This system which has been in use 10 years now is gradually replacing former methods and all teachers using it are enthusiastic over the results. Mrs. Miles attended the summer session of school which was conducted for the teachers who will use the rational system this year.

Money for Church Discussed by Aid

William—The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church held their monthly meeting in the community rooms in the clubhouse of the church. This meeting was a combination of the regular meeting and a farewell to Mrs. Richard Chendie who will be leaving soon for her new home at Monroe. A pot luck dinner was served to the members of the Aid, after which followed the usual business session and discussion as to ways and means of raising money for the church. The program following was in the nature of a sacred song service, led by Mrs. C. Styles, each lady naming her favorite song and telling something of its history and composer. The last number was by Mrs. Chendie who sang by request her favorite hymn, "Lead Kindly Light," accompanying herself on the piano.

RETURNS FROM WASHINGTON

Turner—Mrs. A. D. Hale has returned from an enjoyable motor trip to Seattle, Wash., and other points, accompanied by her son-in-law and daughter from Jefferson on a week's vacation. Mrs. Emma Cunningham stayed at the Hale farm south of town and took care of Mrs. Hale's sister-in-law who makes her home there. Since returning from the trip Mrs. Hale has had a light attack of the flu and is not so well.

RETURNS TO DENVER

Hazel Green—Harold Ryblom who has been a guest at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Shumate, has left for his home in Denver, Colo. His brother Charles will remain in Oregon. Both men plan to locate in Oregon, being delighted with their summer here. Harold will return to Oregon as soon as he can settle their affairs in Colorado.

Mill City—Mrs. W. F. Mickelham has returned from a week's vacation from her duties at the Hammond hotel and is again at work. Earl Roberts, timekeeper in Hammond Lumber company office, also returned this week from his vacation.

Club Entertained At Dean Residence

Gates—Mrs. Blanche Dean entertained her fellow members of the Gates Birthday club at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Bowers, during the week. Mrs. Gerald Heath scored first at cards. Miss Gwen Johnson won second honors and Mrs. Ferdinand Jones, low.

ANDREWS FAMILY VISITS OLD HOME

Silvertown—Mrs. Emil Andrews, her son, Charles, and her daughter, Miss LaVern Andrews, whose home is in Van Nuys, Calif., are spending a few days with Silvertown friends. The Andrews family were residents here for a number of years, leaving Silvertown 14 years ago. They are on the return trip from a vacation spent at the world's fair at Chicago and other mid-west points.

Among the entertainment pleasures being provided for the visitors was an informal affair Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Benton when a group of old-time friends enjoyed a social hour. Present were the honor guests, Mrs. Grace Palmer, Mrs. J. Kercher, Mrs. John Holbert, Mrs. George Hubbs, Mrs. L. C. Eastman, Mrs. M. C. DeGuire, Miss Olivia DeGuire and Mrs. Benton.

Miss Andrews was an overnight guest at the George Hubbs home on Coolidge street and Charles was a guest of Norman Eastman at the West Main street home of his paternal uncle, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Eastman. The same group of friends with Mrs. James Jenks (Dorothy Hubbs), and small son, James, Jr., of Albany, as additional guests, met with Mrs. George Hubbs at her home Thursday noon for a no-hostess luncheon visitors leave for California Saturday.

GATES BEGINNERS SET SCHOOL RECORD

Gates—The largest beginners class of youngsters is the record for the Gates schools of this school year. Miss Elsie Rose of Salem is the teacher, those attending their first term of school are Frederick Farnen, Ruth Barnes, Claire Hennes, Louis Ratzberg, Bennie Wrigglesworth and Bonnie Donnell.

The freshman class of the high school also has a number of additional registrants from out of the district. These include Lucille Fox of Nashville, living at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Hayward; Frieda Oakerman of Burns, whose parents are residing at Robinson Springs, just east of Gates; Vivian Shelton of Elkhorn, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lang Stafford, and Keith Moore of Detroit at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore.

Nebraska Stock Gets Oregon Hay

Scio—R. J. Simpson of Scio, who has cooperated with other buyers in the Willamette valley, during the last few weeks, has shipped several hundred tons of hay to drought-stricken states east of the Rockies. His old home state, Nebraska, has received the bulk of these shipments, which have brought several thousand dollars to farmers in this valley. In the vicinity of Scio, one alone Simpson purchased more than 500 tons. Under drought relief activities the government is assisting materially in a financial way in this movement. Large consignments have been sent from West Scio to mid-west states, and further shipments are contemplated.

CLEMENS IN COLLEGE

Hazel Green—Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Clemens have left for Corvallis where Clemens will attend Oregon State college. They have purchased a lot and plan to build a five room house. The Clemens will be greatly missed in all school and church activities. Clemens having been Four-H club leader, Community club president, etc., while Mrs. Clemens was president of the Christian Endeavor, church treasurer and pianist.

Lyons—George Hallock, a South Dakota resident, who has spent some time here with Frans Kinsman, went to Seattle Saturday.

Silvertown—Mrs. Oliver Steffen was able to be taken to her home in the Central Howell community Thursday after several days' illness at the local hospital.

FOREIGN MISSIONARY GROUP ENTERTAINED

Jefferson—The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Earl Lynes near the north city limits Wednesday afternoon. The Devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Earl Lynes, the topic being, "The Triple Light." The topic of the program led by Mrs. Grace Thurston was "Stewardship." Interesting reading on this subject was given by Miss Addie Libby. Other readings were given by Mrs. Geo. C. Mason, Mrs. E. B. Redmond, and Mrs. R. C. Thomas. The "Mystery Box Questions" were conducted by the leader, Mrs. Grace Thurston.

During the business meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing missionary year: President, Mrs. J. G. Fontaine; vice president, Mrs. Grace Thurston; secretary, Mrs. Geo. C. Mason; treasurer, Mrs. Earl Lynes. At the tea hour refreshments were served by the hostess.

WILLAMINA PUPILS SEE NEW TEACHERS

Willamina—School started here with the usual number of students and several new members of the teaching staff. They are as follows: High school, Rex D. Horton, principal; English teacher, Miss Mary Stevenson; science teacher, Miss Elizabeth Graham; commercial teacher and girls' athletic coach, Miss Ruth Stillings. The teachers in the grades will be D. H. Hiatt, seventh and eighth grades; Miss Althea Chandler, fifth and sixth grades; Miss N. T. Zysset, third and fourth grades; Mrs. Velene E. Ball, first and second grades.

Bus service on the Hillcrest route will include both high and grade school pupils, as the Hillcrest district was consolidated with the Willamina district some years ago. This route and the upper Willamina river route for non-high school district students has been let to Frank Smelser of this city. The Yamhill, Grand Ronde, Mountaineer route will be served by Lee L. Ladd of Clatskanie.

CASE DISMISSED; PROSECUTION LACKS

Woodburn—Bert Belien, arrested on a charge of assault and battery upon the person of Nick Yaschuk, appeared in Judge Overton's court for trial Wednesday afternoon but when Yaschuk, the prosecuting witness, failed to appear the case was dismissed.

Adolph Medinger, arrested for driving a motor vehicle on the highway with no operator's license, entered a plea of guilty to the charge and paid a fine of $2.50 and costs of $2.

Gordon West, charged with operating a motor vehicle while gainfully employed in the state without an Oregon license, after pleading guilty paid a fine of $5 and $2 costs.

Arnold Robertson, who was arrested by a state traffic officer September 14 for driving past a stop sign on the highway, appeared Wednesday to enter a plea of guilty and paid a fine of $5 and $2 costs.

SUMMONED TO BEDSIDE

Turner—Mrs. Lester Smith of Grass Valley and her daughter Mrs. Gerald Cumliffe of Moro arrived in Turner Thursday afternoon after being sent word of the serious illness of Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Alma Knight. Early Wednesday morning Mrs. Knight suffered the paralytic stroke at the home of her sister, Miss Alice Riches, and her condition is still reported as serious. Her entire right side is paralyzed. Miss Riches is aiding in the care of her sister, and Mrs. Smith and daughter will remain indefinitely at Mrs. Knight's bedside.

PARSONAGE IMPROVED

Brooks—Improvements are being made on the parsonage of the Methodist church here and include a new sink and pump being placed in the kitchen and also a garage. The work is being done by Rev. Pickering and son, Wayne, Charles Cutsinger, Mr. Gaiser and A. E. Harris.

Stayton—Miss Hannah Bowley has as her guests this week her father, Mr. Bowley, her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bowley, and Mrs. Garrett, all of Gervais. Miss Bowley operates the Stayton Beauty Parlor.

Parent-Teachers Meet At Stayton

Stayton—The first regular meeting of Stayton Parent Teachers' association will be held Monday evening in the high school auditorium. Mrs. Freda Roberts, newly elected president, will preside. All parents are urged to be present at the meeting to meet the new school teachers.

TRAVELING LIBRARY OFFERED AT BROOKS

Brooks—The grade school opened Monday with an enrollment of 70 pupils. Carl Steinhilber has charge of the upper grades and has 24 pupils in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. There are 28 pupils in the intermediate room, with Miss Ethel Grant as instructor. Miss Louise Andrus, primary teacher, has the following new pupils in the first grade: Henry Ogura, Wayne Lowery, George Morlock, Nobuko Kawata, Buri Pemberton, Ernest Gaub, Romona McKnight, Lois Lowry, Beverly McCoy, Harvey Lea, Michie Umenoto and Muriel Pitta. In the second grade are: Kenneth Reed, Deloris Miller, Toshie Tomiyasu, Hisako Kawata, Freddie Lea and Mary Phillips.

MONMOUTH GREET OUT OF TOWN FOLK

Monmouth—Numbered among recent out-of-town visitors and arrivals in Monmouth are: Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway Buell and son Dean of Tule Lake, Calif., visiting her mother, Mrs. Dora Tuttle and other relatives for several days. Other visitors at the Tuttle home this week have been Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hedges of Turner and the former's mother, Mrs. Hedges of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Oliver and Mr. and Mrs. George Reese from Palo Alto, Calif., house guests of Mr. Oliver's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Winston, J. H. Williams, Jr., and Mrs. D. N. McCracken and two children from Lebanon, recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Almgren of Portland are visitors at the N. A. Nelson home. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stone, Monmouth visitors from Seattle, who are staying at the Robinson cottages. Mr. and Mrs. George Ziegler of Aurora stopped off for several days the early part of the week with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Conkey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Berreman and two sons of Palo Alto, Calif., are making a ten days visit with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. Stebbins.

Mrs. Pieret, two daughters and a son from Vancouver, Wash., are away with no operator's license, entered a plea of guilty to the charge and paid a fine of $2.50 and costs of $2.

BECOMES INSTRUCTOR

Scio—Claire Wilkes, who has been farming on one of the Krumpl places near Scio for several years, has accepted a position as agricultural instructor in Albany high school. He formerly taught the same subject in the State college at Corvallis.

Bethel—Frank Kunciter and Roy Marshland have gone to the Lakeview district in eastern Oregon for the hunting season. Eugene and Junior Hamrick also left Tuesday for eastern Oregon to hunt.

MORE BLACK WIDOWS FOUND NEAR TURNER

Turner—Turner people thought nothing of the first few spiders found here, but since the number has jumped to twenty lively widows, it's only natural that persons should use caution. The favorite hide-outs of the spiders in this community seem to be around wood-piles and under rocks. The second black widow was found on the school playground this week, one being found a few days previous by a group of youths. One of the first was taken to Salem by Dr. W. M. Thome to be studied at the Willamette university. The two on display at the Turner drug store seem to be creating a great deal of interest, and one car load of people came from Independence just to see a live one of the dreaded spiders after reading of it in the paper. Mrs. Louis Hennies of the Cloverdale district found the latest to be reported and it was concealed in her curtain raps.

RECITAL PLANNED FOR YOUNG PUPILS

Silvertown—Mrs. Fern Davenport will present a few of her beginning pupils in piano that have been studying through the summer, Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. L. Stanton on 922 South Water street.

The affair is arranged in home recital style each member giving a short word description, then playing a selection which will show their summer work. The party will be managed and conducted entirely by the children themselves, under supervision of Mrs. Davenport.

PLANS FOR WINTER ARE MADE BY CLUB

Gates—The members of the local Improvement club met the latter part of the week and discussed plans for the winter's work and made arrangements for the reception to the new club rooms of the school.

Present were Mrs. Irvin Lawson, president of the club; Mrs. Arnold Syverson, secretary; Mrs. Roy Taylor, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. A. Carey, Mrs. A. B. Horner, Mrs. Lena Young, Mrs. Albert Millap, Mrs. Wes Houghton, Mrs. Ernest Wrigglesworth, Mrs. Lincoln Hennes, Mrs. Glenn Hennes, Mrs. Paul Brown, Mrs. E. V. Collins, Mrs. E. L. Collins, Mrs. Jewell Meyers, Mrs. Paul Ratzberg, Mrs. Tillman Raines, Mrs. Claude Sillard, Mrs. A. D. Scott, Mrs. Merle Devine, Mrs. Sam Donnell and Mrs. F. W. Jones.

Budget Prepared

Scio—The Scio city budget provides $200 for running expenses and interest payments for the calendar year 1935. The budget, prepared recently by a committee appointed by the council, is to have final consideration at the October meeting of the municipal board.

ADAMS IN PORTLAND

Stayton—Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Adams were called to Portland Wednesday evening on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Adams' brother, Jim Pong, of that place. He underwent a major operation at one of the Portland hospitals and at the last report was resting easier.

Horses Are Killed By Auto In Night

Dallas—Sheriff T. B. Hooker and Deputy Wilford Williams were called to a point about one mile west of New Grand Ronde Wednesday night where an automobile accident had taken place.

They report that a Chevrolet coupe, driven by Glen DeHaven of McMinnville, had crashed into two horses, strayed onto the highway and that DeHaven had been taken to the McMinnville hospital suffering from bad bruises and cuts. Both horses were killed. After striking the second horse, the car dove through a wire fence, went over a low embankment and telescoped on the railroad track.

CLOSING DISCUSSED BY CHURCH MEMBERS

Hazel Green—The executive committee of the Sunday school held a meeting at the United Brethren parsonage recently with Ross Miles, Sunday school superintendent presiding as chairman for the evening.

Plans were discussed for the closing exercises of the Sunday school. Teachers' day will be observed by the customary proceedings.

Rev. John Wortman was returned to Hazel Green as pastor for the coming year following the annual conference held recently at Portland.

Rev. Clark Smith and family who have been employed at the Tom Van Cleave boys' patch have been removed to the Englewood district in Salem. Rev. Smith was pastor at Hazel Green two years ago and had the Hopewell United Brethren church for the past year.

BARN AND CONTENTS BURNED TO GROUND

Mt. Angel—Fire from an undetermined source completely destroyed the large barn owned by Anton Plennart on his farm west of Mt. Angel. The barn was well filled with hay, machinery and a 15-ton stack of hay piled outside near the barn also went into flames.

A large granary filled with grain was also burned. The Mt. Angel fire department and the Silvertown fire department saved the Plennart and Henry Kirsch homes which were very close by. A strong wind blowing southwards kept the flames from the two farm houses.

The Plennart family were in the fields when the fire started and it gained such headway that the buildings could not be saved.

Fancy Work Bazaar Slated Thursday

Silvertown—Mrs. P. J. Roubal, chairman of the fancy work department of the bazaar to be sponsored by the women of the Methodist Episcopal church, is announcing an all-day meeting Thursday at the church, with pot-luck lunch at noon. The women will work on several different kinds of sale articles for the bazaar during the forenoon, and as the afternoon is the regular time for the meeting of the Ladies' Aid society, the members will contribute their services for a portion of the afternoon in assisting. The date of the annual bazaar has been set for Wednesday, November 21.

PARK POPULAR DALLAS FINDS AT YEAR'S END

Dallas—The popularity of the city park is strongly evidenced in a summary of the season's activities just prepared and drawn up by Jack Aligood, chairman of the park board. With the cooperation of Walter Bird, caretaker, a careful check was made of visitors and cars during the period June 3 to September 2, inclusive. No fewer than 32 clans or organizations made reservations for tables during the period with a total attendance of 2589.

No check was made of numerous family picnics which were in the evenings nor was any count made of a number of school get-togethers and picnic lunches held prior to June 1. A conservative estimate of the attendance mark for gatherings has been set at 5000.

Heavy demands were made upon the facilities of the swimming pool with an estimated total of 10,000 taking advantage of the cool water during the summer afternoons and evenings.

Out of state cars were listed from a total of 17 states in addition to a number from several of the Canadian provinces. The list included cars from Iowa, Georgia, Tennessee, Wyoming, Texas, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, California, Idaho, Kansas, Washington, Illinois, Oklahoma, Wisconsin, New York and Florida.

Clan and organizations meeting for their annual gatherings, many of the number having selected the park for their 1935 reunion, were Rempe, Dunn, Turnidge, Riggs, Shreve, Oklahoma state, Cubana club, Farmers' picnic, Christian church, LaCreole academy, Daughters of Nile, Women of Woodcraft, Presbyterian Sunday school, Hartnump family from Forest Grove, M. E. church services, Greenwood school, Woods clan, Evangelical Sunday school, Gilliam, Robinson, Morrison, Eastern Star, (Marion and Linn counties), and the Allen clan.

Sorghum Plant To Operate, Jefferson

Millersburg—Albert Jellison and his two sons who live on the Clyde Meeker farm near Morning Star grange hall, have almost completed building their sorghum mill and expect to begin manufacturing sorghum this week. They have raised about three acres of cane and have agreed to make sorghum for other cane raisers.

The Jellison family came here from Oklahoma several years ago and say that they are well pleased with the climate and the river bottom land for cane culture.

ACADEMY CLASSES STARTED THURSDAY

Mt. Angel—Mt. Angel Academy opened classes Thursday with a registration of 127 pupils, although some students are still employed in hop fields and canneries, the full class schedule has begun and all the pupils are expected to be present by Monday of next week. A number of new resident students have been received in the regular high school department and in the St. Gertrude's hall of aspirants.

Registration for Normal, college extension and preparatory nursing courses will take place September 23 and 24, with the formal opening of classes on Tuesday, September 25.

MORE ABOUT PENSIONS

Bethel—The old age revolving pension will be discussed and explained at a meeting to be held in Bethel school Monday night. Dr. C. Davis of Salem will be the principal speaker. The public is invited.

EL SINORE

TODAY & SAT.

A Merry Musical Romance
"DOWN TO THEIR LAST YACHT"
Ned Sparks
Mary Boland

BIG 2 FEATURES

Damon Runyon's Sensational Story
"MILLION DOLLAR RANSOM"
Mary Carlisle
Phillips Holmes
Edward Arnold

STARTING Tomorrow
MUSIC MADE THEM LOVERS!

LOVE TIME

with "PAT" PATERSON
NILS ASTHER

HERBERT MUNDIN
HARRY GREEN

A FOX PICTURE

---

ENDS TODAY
ROSEMARYMES
VICTOR JORY
Pursued

ALSO!
Walt Disney's Latest Colored
Silly Symphony
"THE WISE LITTLE HEN"

GRAND

BEST OF PICTURES
STATE
THEATRE
PERFECT SOUND

LAST TIMES TODAY
BING CROSBY in "COLLEGE HUMOR"
SATURDAY ONLY Don't Miss It!
BREATH-TAKING STAMPEDE

REX with Thousands of Thundering Hate-Maddened Horses.....
"The Wonder Horse"

KING OF THE WILD HORSES
William Janney · Dorothy Appleby and a Cast of Thousands

Another Painting Job Done By
Bill Dunsmoor

THE NEW AND BETTER
ECKERLEN'S

Today & Sat.
You've Never Seen Such Fun—
ADOLPH MENJOU
"THE HUMAN SIDE"
FEATURES
TOM KEENE
Rosco Ates
in "SCARLET RIVER"
500 SEATS ..... 15c

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

Today & Sat.
You've Never Seen Such Fun—
ADOLPH MENJOU
"THE HUMAN SIDE"
FEATURES
TOM KEENE
Rosco Ates
in "SCARLET RIVER"
500 SEATS ..... 15c

Home Owned Theater
HOLLYWOOD

First Showing
Salem 25c
Matinee Each Day 2 P. M.
Now Playing
Capacity Houses

MOBROGRAM PICTURES PRESENTS
GENE STRATTON-PORTER'S
A GIRL OF THE LIMBERLOST
LOUISE DRESSER
MARIAN MARSH
RALPH MORGAN

Opening of Greater Eckerlen's

CRAWFISH A SPECIALTY

NEW ADDITION FORMALLY OPENED TO PUBLIC

FRIDAY, Sept. 21

One-Fourth Mile North of Salem