

DALLAS LEGION WORKERS NAMED FOR THIS YEAR

Dallas—Following a meeting of the executive committee of Carl B. Fenton post of the American Legion, which was held Thursday night, Commander Fred Stinnette announces his committee chairman for the year as follows: Membership, John Cerny; hospitalization, W. P. Miller; Americanism, Burton Bell; child welfare, J. R. Beck; legislation, R. S. Kreson; publicity, W. Blackley; community service, Carl Bales; employment, Tracy Savery; Boy Scouts, Dale Smith; highway safety, Frank Davis; junior baseball, W. Blackley; C. W. P. C. Rev. Scott; fiscal, H. M. Smith; memorial, Ed Himes; entertainment, Ivan E. Warner; national defense, Clifford Helgeson; auxiliary liaison, R. S. Kreson; house committee, W. Himes; school award, S. E. Whitworth.

STAYTON PTA HAS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Stayton—The monthly meeting of the Stayton P. T. A. will be held Monday evening at the club building. The program for the evening will include a social hour, a play, and a song service. The membership drive is being conducted by the club.

HOCKEY CLUB WILL HOLD FALL SOCIAL

Hockey—The hockey opportunity club held its first meeting of the year at the school house Friday night. Officers for the year are: President, Mrs. M. A. Mages; vice president, Mrs. W. D. Horner; secretary, Mrs. E. B. Bess; treasurer, Mrs. E. B. Bess; and sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. E. B. Bess.

Dumb Dora Bridge Club Entertained

Woodburn—Members of the Dumb Dora bridge club and their husbands motored to Portland Saturday night where they were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rae T. Gibbons at 2416 SE 34th Avenue. Mrs. Mary E. Gibbons and Mr. Henryon of Portland were additional guests. Prizes for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Elburn T. Sims and Mrs. Helen A. and the consolation to Captain Sims. An elaborate lunch was served.

Prizes Discussed

Stayton—At the regular meeting of the Stayton chamber of commerce held at the offices of the Mt. States Power Co., considerable time was taken up with discussion of the awarding of prizes for the city beautifying contest, and the judges previously appointed were requested to make awards to be presented for approval at the next meeting. The contest has resulted in many improvements to yards and homes in Stayton.

GUESTS LYTLE FAMILY

Scio—Mrs. Lizzie Johnson and daughter, Miss Beth, and Mr. Cushman and daughter Elizabeth of Gresham called on the Lytle family here. The Johnsons and Mrs. Lytle's parents were neighbors in Iowa many years ago. Miss Beth Johnson was postmaster at Gresham for several years, retiring from the work July 1 this year.

STALLION WINS PRIZE

Dever—It is reported that Napoleon, Percheron stallion belonging to D. F. Burge of this district, was awarded the grand prize at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland. Burge has a fine bunch of horses and has made successful showings at fairs and exhibitions in Canada, Washington and Oregon this season.

ANKLE IS INJURED

Silverton Hills—Clifton E. Gley is taking a forced vacation from fall work for several days as the result of a deep wound of the right ankle made by a cut from an axe he was using. Seven stitches were necessary to close the wound.

CHURCH NEWS

Liberty—Sunday school at 9:45 with Frank Hauser superintendent. Preaching service at 11. Young people's hour 6:30 p. m. and 7:30 preaching by Rev. Judson Brown.

Pension Proposals Meet With Success

Silverton—The local organization of the Townsend old age pension plan met with the Monitor people Thursday night and met a very enthusiastic reception. Sixty signed the petition and a temporary chairman, C. V. Carmichael, was elected and J. D. Lenson was made secretary-treasurer. Rev. W. O. Livingston was the program speaker. The Silverton club will conduct a similar program at Marquam Tuesday evening, October 16. A meeting at Scotts Mills, earlier in the week, was also well attended.

DALLAS METHODISTS PRESENTING DRAMA

Dallas—The young people of the Methodist church are presenting the drama from Les Miserables, entitled "The Bishop's Candlesticks," Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. In this play the convict breaks into the bishop's house and is clothed and warmed. The benevolence of the bishop somewhat softens the convict, but when the bishop's candlesticks, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. In this play the convict breaks into the bishop's house and is clothed and warmed. The benevolence of the bishop somewhat softens the convict, but when the bishop's candlesticks, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. In this play the convict breaks into the bishop's house and is clothed and warmed.

MEN'S FORRESTERS SELECT OFFICERS

Mt. Angel—Installation of officers of the Catholic Order of Men's Forresters was held Wednesday evening in their club rooms. A large number of members were present. Officers are: Chief, Joseph Schmitt; vice chief, Joseph Schmitt; secretary, Joseph Schmitt; financial secretary, Joseph Schmitt; treasurer, Alois Kober; trustee, Leonard Fisher; senior conductor, Anton Miller; junior conductor, Hubert Schmitt; inside sentinel, Martin Buchholz; outside sentinel, Wilhelm Blom; speaker, Joseph Schmitt; past chief ranger, A. P. Kraemer; and trustees, John Stecklein and William A. Worley.

Fine Arts Prints Seen at Woodburn

Woodburn—An exhibit of fine arts prints is being sponsored by the Woodburn high school Home Economics club in room 210 of the high school building. The exhibition began Thursday of this week and will continue until October 17. The proceeds are being used by the club to buy pictures.

Four Tables Played At Scranton's Home

Stayton—Blanche Scranton and Mrs. Lillie Michels entertained with an evening at cards Thursday at the home of the latter. Four tables of "500" were in play with high scores awarded Mrs. Eleanor Stewart and Mrs. Frances Betzer. Guests present were Mesdames Marian Klecker, Ida Wourms, Eleanor Stewart, Dora Dogler, Sally Kilham, Aville Yeoman, Frank Walker, Louise Leaver, Alys Pooler, Marie Daves, Bertha Gehlen, Cecelia Mertz, Ames Rieker, Francis Betzer, Miss Hannah Bowley, and the hostesses, Mrs. Scranton and Mrs. Michels.

LODGE WILL MEET

Scio—It is announced that the Scio Rebekah lodge is to meet at 7:30 o'clock next Wednesday night instead of the usual hour, in order that an open meeting will be held following the closed business session. It is stated non-members will be present at the open meeting and that refreshments will be served.

FARM WORK HALTED

Bethel—Work on the land is almost at a standstill here on account of the dry weather. Rain is badly needed in order that plowing may be done. A little clover hulling and late wheat threshing was finished up the last of the week by Henry Ledeburs machines. The wood-sawing outfits are busy these days.

DAVIS IS HONORED

Monmouth—Mrs. Ina A. Davis entertained with a dinner in honor of Mr. Davis' birthday at their home east of town for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. John Patton, Captain and Mrs. James Thompson of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Davis and twin daughters, Jeanne and Joanne, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morrison and children, Bobby and Betty, Clyde Davis, George Dunn, all of Salem, Miss Davis and Mable Dutton of Monmouth.

CONVENTION SUNDAY

Scio—The quarterly convention of the Linn county farm union is to be held at the Riverview schoolhouse October 17. An open meeting with speaking and a program is to be held in the afternoon.

MANY PERSONS ATTEND FIRST CLUB MEETING

Turner—Turner community club met this week in the high school auditorium for the first meeting of the fall season with an approximate audience of 300 persons. The opening music was played by the Oregon Haymakers orchestra with the following members: C. E. Clark, pianist; Lawrence Robertson, Ray Myers and John Baker. Installation of officers in their new offices are, president, Eddie Ahrens; vice president, Carl Booth; and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Zella Webb. It was decided for cutting talent to give the program at the regular meeting in December followed by a Christmas program a week later with children and adults participating. The program committee for November announced by the new president are Mrs. Margaret Miller, chairman, Mrs. John Schifferer and Mrs. A. E. Kunkle.

Blue Blood Birds Stolen From Loft

Woodburn—With a team of 30 fancy pigeons, H. and B. Campbell of the Arroyo Loft at Silverton, secured 27 first prize ribbons at the International stock show. This was the highest score for premier awards secured by any exhibitor in the pigeon section. A few days prior to the show, thieves visited the loft and stole 10 of the birds, including many of the elite fair winners, making substitutions necessary to fill up the International entries.

Jefferson Reviews Of Early Vintages Attract Interest

Jefferson—Several of the first issues of the Jefferson Review have been brought to the review office by Mrs. Mary Denny and daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Pank of the Green's bridge district. Extracts from the papers are of great interest to people in this locality. The first issue of the paper, published January 18, 1890, gives an interesting account of the Jefferson Institute. Prof. W. T. Van Sooy was principal, Louis Barzee taught the intermediate grades, and Miss Carrie Shoemaker was teacher of the primary department. There was also a business course taught by J. C. Sigmund, and Miss Jessie Looney had a class of music students. The enrollment of the school was a little less than 200.

WEST SALEM CLUB RESUMES MEETINGS

West Salem—The West Salem Community club will hold its first meeting following the summer's vacation Monday evening in the basement of Ford Memorial church. The program is being arranged by the auxiliary of the Kingswood post of the American Legion. One of the features will be a talk by Miss Grace Allen of Salem who has just returned from a trip around the world. Musical numbers, readings and other attractions will have places on the program. There will be a candy booth under the auspices of the auxiliary and a sale of karnel kern by the club.

BLACK COMMANDER AT INDEPENDENCE

Independence—Independence post No. 33 American Legion, held election and installation of officers October 10 in Campbell's hall, the following being elected: Arthur Black, commander; Lynn Huntley, first vice commander; Jesse Sohn, second vice commander; Bert Piercy, adjutant; R. M. Walker, finance officer; Harry Keeney, chaplain; Roy Mitchell, mess sergeant; K. L. Williams and Greville Wells, sergeants-at-arms; Paul Robinson, historian; Homer McClain, Elmer Addison, Glen C. Smith, Dean Walker, Orville Wells, executive committee, District Adjutant O. E. Palmateer, was installing officer.

Noon Blaze Burns One Empty House

Independence—A fire about noon Tuesday destroyed a vacant house at 10th and D streets which was being prepared for occupancy by a family from Rainier, Wash., by name of Wilcox. The property had just changed hands from A. L. Aschroff to Wilcox in an exchange of properties and the latter had a bonfire in the rear clearing up some rubbish when embers caught in the dry roof of the dwelling and before water was applied the entire top was a blaze. The family effects had not been moved into the house. Close attention was given to grass fires to keep it from spreading to nearby dwellings. The Aschroff family had moved a few days ago to Rainier, Wash.

WARREN'S CAPITOL

Last Times Today 15c ZANE GREY'S "WAGON WHEELS" 7:15 P.M.

SUNDAY - MONDAY

The exciting story of a girl who wouldn't be run out of town by public opinion!

"READY TO LOVE"

with RICHARD ARLEN and IDA LUPINO

BIG 2 FEATURES

ADVENTURE IN THE FAR NORTH "KLONDIKE"

with LYLE TALBOT and THELMA TODD

CAPT. FRANK HAWKS

CHURCH HOLDS FALL HARVEST FOR INSTITUTE

Silverton—Rev. J. Harold Howard, pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance announces a harvest festival observance for Sunday in which members and friends of the church may bring canned goods, potatoes, squash, apples or other vegetables or fruit to be sent as a donation to the Simpson Bible Institute at Seattle. Offerings may be received during Saturday also. The regular Sunday school classes will convene at 10 o'clock, with a brief service of children's church at 10 o'clock, followed by the adult worship. The theme for the discussion will be "What God Requires." Evening sermon will follow a sacred concert and group singing and will be evangelistic in nature. Rev. Ernest G. Larson will conduct services in the Norwegian language at 11 o'clock at Calvary Lutheran church Sunday morning. Sunday school and Bible classes precede this service. The young people's society will meet at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

MACHINES COLLIDE; SCIO MAN INJURED

Albany—Three Albany men, Ralph Coleman, district federal re-employment administrator, Edwin Fortmiller and Jay Perdue escaped injury, but Gale Parrish of Scio suffered a badly bruised back Thursday when cars driven by Coleman and Parrish collided on the narrow North Santiam highway near Detroit. Parrish was coming from a CCC camp, where his enlistment had just expired. Coleman states that he saw the Parrish car coming and stopped his car and as Parrish came around the curve he was unable to stop in time to avoid a collision. His car hit Coleman's and ran into a bank, turning over on its side, according to Coleman's report. Parrish was thrown out between the two cars, he said. Parrish was returned to the camp for medical aid.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Blue Blood Birds Stolen From Loft

Woodburn—With a team of 30 fancy pigeons, H. and B. Campbell of the Arroyo Loft at Silverton, secured 27 first prize ribbons at the International stock show. This was the highest score for premier awards secured by any exhibitor in the pigeon section. A few days prior to the show, thieves visited the loft and stole 10 of the birds, including many of the elite fair winners, making substitutions necessary to fill up the International entries.

Jefferson Reviews Of Early Vintages Attract Interest

Jefferson—Several of the first issues of the Jefferson Review have been brought to the review office by Mrs. Mary Denny and daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Pank of the Green's bridge district. Extracts from the papers are of great interest to people in this locality. The first issue of the paper, published January 18, 1890, gives an interesting account of the Jefferson Institute. Prof. W. T. Van Sooy was principal, Louis Barzee taught the intermediate grades, and Miss Carrie Shoemaker was teacher of the primary department. There was also a business course taught by J. C. Sigmund, and Miss Jessie Looney had a class of music students. The enrollment of the school was a little less than 200.

WEST SALEM CLUB RESUMES MEETINGS

West Salem—The West Salem Community club will hold its first meeting following the summer's vacation Monday evening in the basement of Ford Memorial church. The program is being arranged by the auxiliary of the Kingswood post of the American Legion. One of the features will be a talk by Miss Grace Allen of Salem who has just returned from a trip around the world. Musical numbers, readings and other attractions will have places on the program. There will be a candy booth under the auspices of the auxiliary and a sale of karnel kern by the club.

BLACK COMMANDER AT INDEPENDENCE

Independence—Independence post No. 33 American Legion, held election and installation of officers October 10 in Campbell's hall, the following being elected: Arthur Black, commander; Lynn Huntley, first vice commander; Jesse Sohn, second vice commander; Bert Piercy, adjutant; R. M. Walker, finance officer; Harry Keeney, chaplain; Roy Mitchell, mess sergeant; K. L. Williams and Greville Wells, sergeants-at-arms; Paul Robinson, historian; Homer McClain, Elmer Addison, Glen C. Smith, Dean Walker, Orville Wells, executive committee, District Adjutant O. E. Palmateer, was installing officer.

Noon Blaze Burns One Empty House

Independence—A fire about noon Tuesday destroyed a vacant house at 10th and D streets which was being prepared for occupancy by a family from Rainier, Wash., by name of Wilcox. The property had just changed hands from A. L. Aschroff to Wilcox in an exchange of properties and the latter had a bonfire in the rear clearing up some rubbish when embers caught in the dry roof of the dwelling and before water was applied the entire top was a blaze. The family effects had not been moved into the house. Close attention was given to grass fires to keep it from spreading to nearby dwellings. The Aschroff family had moved a few days ago to Rainier, Wash.

WARREN'S CAPITOL

Last Times Today 15c ZANE GREY'S "WAGON WHEELS" 7:15 P.M.

SUNDAY - MONDAY

The exciting story of a girl who wouldn't be run out of town by public opinion!

"READY TO LOVE"

with RICHARD ARLEN and IDA LUPINO

BIG 2 FEATURES

ADVENTURE IN THE FAR NORTH "KLONDIKE"

with LYLE TALBOT and THELMA TODD

CAPT. FRANK HAWKS

CHURCH HOLDS FALL HARVEST FOR INSTITUTE

Silverton—Rev. J. Harold Howard, pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance announces a harvest festival observance for Sunday in which members and friends of the church may bring canned goods, potatoes, squash, apples or other vegetables or fruit to be sent as a donation to the Simpson Bible Institute at Seattle. Offerings may be received during Saturday also. The regular Sunday school classes will convene at 10 o'clock, with a brief service of children's church at 10 o'clock, followed by the adult worship. The theme for the discussion will be "What God Requires." Evening sermon will follow a sacred concert and group singing and will be evangelistic in nature. Rev. Ernest G. Larson will conduct services in the Norwegian language at 11 o'clock at Calvary Lutheran church Sunday morning. Sunday school and Bible classes precede this service. The young people's society will meet at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

MACHINES COLLIDE; SCIO MAN INJURED

Albany—Three Albany men, Ralph Coleman, district federal re-employment administrator, Edwin Fortmiller and Jay Perdue escaped injury, but Gale Parrish of Scio suffered a badly bruised back Thursday when cars driven by Coleman and Parrish collided on the narrow North Santiam highway near Detroit. Parrish was coming from a CCC camp, where his enlistment had just expired. Coleman states that he saw the Parrish car coming and stopped his car and as Parrish came around the curve he was unable to stop in time to avoid a collision. His car hit Coleman's and ran into a bank, turning over on its side, according to Coleman's report. Parrish was thrown out between the two cars, he said. Parrish was returned to the camp for medical aid.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

INDEPENDENCE HOST TO LODGE

Independence—A meeting of the Matron's and Patron's club, O.E.S. for this district, was held in Independence Thursday evening in the Masonic hall with a good attendance. A short business meeting was held after which a very interesting program was given under the direction of the worthy patron and associate matron of Adah chapter. At the business meeting discussion was held on amendments to be voted upon at the next session of Grand chapter. The program of entertainment consisted of piano selections by John Murdock, Mrs. R. D. Elliott, and a group of solos by Mrs. F. E. Chambers of Monmouth and a travesty on her trip through northern Africa by Mrs. Pearl Heath of the Oregon Normal school, art instructor. She also presented numerous articles which she brought back from that country also several interesting photos which she herself took. Following the program refreshments were served in the club room, cafeteria style. Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Wolverson and Mr. and Mrs. Schweizer served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crawford, Dr. and Mrs. Beecher, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rhoten, Mrs. Bernice Blodgett, Mrs. Lillian King, all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. John Voth, Mr. and Mrs. George Kurze, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb, of Dallas; Mrs. Pearl Heath, Mrs. R. D. Elliott, Mrs. F. E. Chambers, John Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Wolverson, Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh, Mrs. Crosby Davis, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Schweizer, Mrs. O. D. Butler, of Independence. It was announced that the next meeting of the club will be held in Salem.

MISS BEYER CHOSEN STUDY CLUB CHIEF

Mt. Angel—Miss Mathilda Beyer was elected president at a meeting of the teachers' club Tuesday evening in St. Mary's school. Other officers elected were Miss Grace Schwab, vice president; Miss Dorothy Schwab, treasurer, and Miss Florence Walker, secretary. Members of the club this year include: Miss Therese Dehler, Miss Florence Dehler, Miss Pauline Saalfeld, Miss Grace Smith, Miss Helen Kober, Miss Christine Schulte, Miss Estelle Bauman, Miss Dorothy Schwab, Miss Mathilda Beyer, Miss Florence Walker and Miss Geraldine Fry. The club will meet at the various homes during the year to study harmonica work. The next meeting will be held October 22 at the home of Miss Theresa Dehler.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Play Cast Picked

Silverton—The work of filling the thirty member list of the Playmakers class of the senior high school in charge of Guy W. DeLay, is under way. The number is kept at 30 with new ones making the drama group whose personnel is depleted by graduation of the previous year. A play will be an early in December at the Eugene Field auditorium.

MAGICIAN APPEARS WOODBURN SUNDAY

Woodburn—"Huntington the Great," magician extraordinary, will appear with his assistants at St. Luke's hall Sunday evening, October 14, beginning at 8:15 o'clock. The entertainment which is given as a benefit for St. Luke's church, is expected to draw a large crowd. Those who have seen the performance put on by Huntington and his assistants declare that during the course of the evening practically every law of nature and science is apparently defied.

OREGON CLAIMS MID-WEST FAMILY

Silverton—Among the recent arrivals from the mid-west who plan to reside in the Silverton community are Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Lee of Thompson, Iowa. They drove through by auto and report an enjoyable trip. A killing frost affected their section of Iowa on August 23 and