

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by Geneva Kerr, Phone 1883

Rossmann Home Scene Of Dinner

Judge and Mrs. George Rossmann invited guests in for dinner Tuesday evening. Following the dinner hour Dr. David Bennett Hill showed several reels of moving pictures taken during the past summer on a trip to the middle west and Judge J. Hunt Hendrickson of Portland showed pictures taken in England. The attractively appointed dinner table was centered with red carnations and covers were placed for Judge and Mrs. Hendrickson of Portland, Judge and Mrs. J. U. Campbell, Judge and Mrs. Perry R. Kelly, Judge and Mrs. Harry Bell, Judge and Mrs. Henry J. Reed, Judge and Mrs. John L. Band, Judge and Mrs. J. O. Bailey, Dr. and Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mr. and Mrs. John Carkin and the hosts, Judge and Mrs. George Rossmann.

The Ladies' Aid of the Woman's Relief Corps will hold an all day meeting Thursday at the Fairgrounds. Pot luck luncheon will be served at noon.

B. and P. W. Meet Of Local Interest

Of interest to club women of this vicinity was the conference for the South Willamette district of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs held in Eugene Sunday. Visiting officials present were Mrs. Leda Parker of Klamath Falls, state president; Mrs. Winifred Herrick of Salem, first vice-president; Mrs. Dena Backes of Klamath Falls, corresponding secretary, and Miss Sadie Bruce of McMinnville, state recording secretary.

Club members were present from the following cities: Albany, eight members; Corvallis, 15 members; Coquille, four members; Klamath Falls, two members; McMinnville, eight members; Portland, five members; Roseburg, 11 members; Eugene, five members, and Eugene, 28 members.

Dr. Victor P. Morris of the University of Oregon economics department was the speaker for the dinner. He chose "Current Economic Trends" as the topic for his address.

Chemeketas To View Pictures

The Chemeketa Hiking club will hold its November social at the South Salem Heights community hall Saturday evening, November 24. Of particular interest during the evening's entertainment will be pictures shown by Dr. David Bennett Hill of the World's Fair and Yellowstone park, taken by him this summer. The committee promises an interesting evening and urges everyone to be there promptly at 8 o'clock.

Y. W. Membership Tea December 6

Announcement has been made by Elizabeth Gallaher, secretary of the local Y.W.C.A., that the annual membership tea will be held in the Liberty street club rooms on Thursday, December 6 from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. Milton L. Meyers will be in charge of the affair and Mrs. M. C. Pettys will arrange the decorations.

Band Benefit This Evening

The high school band boys will sponsor a benefit program at the Salem high school auditorium this evening, starting at 8 o'clock. A short band concert will be given and later in the evening Dr. David Bennett Hill will show motion pictures of his trip east last summer. Proceeds will go toward buying new instruments for the band, which hopes to enter the state contest to be held in Corvallis.

The Past Noble Rebekah association of Salem Rebekah lodge will meet for its monthly session Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Edith McElroy. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Carl McNeill, Mrs. Ida Hochstetler, Mrs. Blanche Saunders and Mrs. Vivienne Hubbard.

Miss Clara Engebretsen and Miss Lucille Avery returned to Salem Monday following a four days' visit in Roseburg. While in the southern part of the state Miss Engebretsen was a guest at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Engebretsen of Glide.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Stewart are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son at the Salem Deaconess hospital Tuesday morning. The little boy has been named Frederick Lee.

GOOD-BYE COLDS!

It's good-bye cold and no feeling when Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine gets on the job. This famous remedy breaks up a cold in five days because it gets right at the seat of the trouble and does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels, combats the cold, chills and fever in the system, relieves the headache and griping feeling and tones the entire system. 50¢ and 80¢ at all druggists. Accept no substitute.

Grove's LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE

Keep your windows dressed up with clean window shades. I specialize in cleaning and repairing old shades. Factory service on new shades.

Phone 8419 for FREE Estimates

REINHOLT—THE SHADE MAN at the Imperial Furn. Co.

Miss Donna Harlan Guest Of Honor

In compliment to Miss Donna Harlan, whose marriage to J. Frank Bashor will be an event of Thanksgiving high noon, Mrs. Harris Lietz and Mrs. W. Edward Rafferty entertained with a smartly arranged bridge party at the home of the former Tuesday night. Several hours of contract were in play with honors going to Miss Pauline Johnson and Miss Honora Reidy.

Mrs. Harry Crain Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. Harry N. Crain invited members of her contract bridge club in for luncheon and cards this afternoon in her South High street residence. Chrysanthemums in the pink and yellow tones centered the attractive luncheon table. Covers were placed for Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Tom Galloway, Mrs. Edwin Viesko, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. H. G. Malson, Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard, Mrs. E. T. Pierce and the hostess, Mrs. Harry N. Crain.

Birthday Party At Jennie Lind

The Jennie Lind was the scene of a dinner party Friday evening when Mrs. A. E. Wickert entertained in honor of the 16th birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Merle Lange. A large cake guarded by tall yellow candles formed the centerpiece for the table. Covers were placed for Miss Lange, Miss Carmela Ross, Miss Hilda Braun, Miss June Lind, Miss Marian Moore, Paul Koenig, William Gentskow, Albert Wickert, Cyril Jarvis and Herman Domogay.

A line party at a down town theater followed the dinner hour.

Leslie Executive Committee Meets

A Leslie P.T.A. executive meeting was held at the Y.M.C.A. Tuesday afternoon. Don Upjohn, president, appointed a committee to report on group wishes to purchase.

The regular group meeting will be held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Leslie junior high school. The following program will be given: Community singing led by Miss Gretchen Clark; talk by Mrs. La Moine R. Clark, principal, on "What Schools Do for the Spiritual Welfare of the Child"; solos by Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist; soft shoe tap dance, Jean Adams, pupil of Miss Barbara Barnes; play by Leslie Players, coached by Miss Vivian Carr, "The Teeth of the Gift Horse"; pupils taking part being Jean Victor, Anna Mae Grabenhorst, Margaret Sehon, Rowena Upjohn, Lloyd Sweet and Roger Penny.

A business meeting will follow. It is hoped more parents will become members of the organization and take an active part in the work. Now that the school board has taken over the first tennis court built on the school grounds and the remaining obligation, new projects for the benefit of the pupils and teachers will be decided upon.

U. S. Grant Circle No. 5, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, will meet at the armory Thursday afternoon, November 22, at 2 o'clock. The business meeting will be followed by a pot luck luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Forstra (Elizabeth Thacher) of Portland were Salem visitors Tuesday. They were en route north from Eugene where they spent the week-end with Mrs. Forstra's parents, Prof. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher.

United Artisans will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Fraternal Temple. Entertainment will follow nomination of officers.

Barbara Fritchie Tent No. 2, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, will hold its annual inspection and nomination of officers Friday, November 23, at 8 o'clock in the Woman's clubhouse. A special guest will be Mrs. Leiber of Eugene, department inspector. Supper will be served following the close of the meeting.

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard invited a few matrons to make up a luncheon party at the Tea House Tuesday afternoon. The hours following luncheon were spent informally in the Gibbard residence and a late tea was served. Covers were placed for Mrs. E. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. Charles Rullman and the hostess, Mrs. Gibbard.

Writers' Club Entertained

Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre entertained the members of the Writers' section of the Salem Arts League with an interesting affair at her home Tuesday evening. A program of creative work was enjoyed by the members and several additional guests.

War Mothers Entertained

Mrs. Mary Rauch entertained the American War Mothers with a delightful affair Tuesday afternoon. A birthday chart was made by the group and plans were made for the annual Christmas party to be held during December at the home of Mrs. Jennie Erickson.

Tea was served in the late afternoon with Mrs. Adles Bobb, Mrs. Jane Evans, Mrs. Edwina M. Bueh, Mrs. Ida Truglio and Mrs. Nettie Meyers assisting the hostess, Mrs. Mary Winn, Mrs. O. F. Olson and Mrs. Bryan Conley were special guests for the afternoon.

Rode-Gardner Vows Read in South

Friends of Miss Geraldine Gardner of Medford are receiving announcement of her marriage to John K. Rode, which was solemnized Saturday in San Francisco at the Calvary Presbyterian church. Mrs. Rode is the daughter of Mrs. George A. Gardner and the late Judge Gardner of Jacksonville.

The bride was graduated from the University of Oregon, where she took a prominent part in musical activities on the campus. Recently she has been conducting a studio in San Francisco. Mrs. Rode is an architect and engineer and is an architect in Stanford in the bay city. They are residing at 1906 Lyon street.

The principal speaker at the meeting of the Salem W.C.T.U. was William McGilchrist Sr., who spoke on subjects of interest to the organization as observed by him on a recent trip to the Orient. The program opened with community singing and closed with special music by Mrs. Edgar S. Portner who sang two solos.

At the business session Mrs. Eugene P. Prescott and Mrs. Rachel Reeder were elected trustees for a term of three years. Mrs. Fred Toose, Jr., gave an outline of young people's work for the year.

Teachers Honor New Superintendent

The Salem Teachers' association, engaged with an all-school reception in honor of Superintendent and Mrs. Silas Gaiser Monday evening at the Highland school. The new auditorium was decorated with palms and bouquets of chrysanthemums in yellow and rose tones. Mrs. Sylvia Krapps was chairman of the decorating committee.

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard invited a few matrons to make up a luncheon party at the Tea House Tuesday afternoon. The hours following luncheon were spent informally in the Gibbard residence and a late tea was served. Covers were placed for Mrs. E. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. Charles Rullman and the hostess, Mrs. Gibbard.

Press Club Has Dinner

The Salem Women's Press club entertained at dinner Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard in compliment to their husbands. Several hours of cards followed the dinner hour.

Christmas Seal Sale Starts Soon

On November 30 the tuberculosis Christmas Seal will make their appearance in every community of the state and thus usher in the Christmas spirit of good-will to others. Proceeds from the sales will be placed in every corner of Oregon under the direction of the Oregon Tuberculosis association. Twenty-six counties have public health associations which are handling their sales locally.

Red, blue and green are the predominant colors of this year's seal. The double barred Lorraine Cross, in red, is the emblem that appears on each seal to identify it as the tuberculosis seal. They sell for a penny each, the same price charged in the first sale in 1907.

Various methods are to be used in selling the seal, the association requesting that the seal be sold in some places children will serve as salesmen.

U. O. E. S. Chapter Hostess To Visitors

Over 200 local folk attended the meeting of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple last night, many from out-of-town. The matron, patron and officers of the chapter put on the obligation degree. Mrs. A. E. Utley, accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, sang for the pleasure of the group. Mrs. Wayne Henry told in an interesting manner of her recent trip east over the Canadian Rockies. A late supper was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated with fall flowers and the serving table was centered with lighted tapers and a low bowl of flowers.

Mrs. Virgil Burson will entertain the Leslie Gun Doe at her home, 155 East Wilson street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Teachers Honor New Superintendent

The Salem Teachers' association, engaged with an all-school reception in honor of Superintendent and Mrs. Silas Gaiser Monday evening at the Highland school. The new auditorium was decorated with palms and bouquets of chrysanthemums in yellow and rose tones. Mrs. Sylvia Krapps was chairman of the decorating committee.

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard invited a few matrons to make up a luncheon party at the Tea House Tuesday afternoon. The hours following luncheon were spent informally in the Gibbard residence and a late tea was served. Covers were placed for Mrs. E. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. Charles Rullman and the hostess, Mrs. Gibbard.

Press Club Has Dinner

The Salem Women's Press club entertained at dinner Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard in compliment to their husbands. Several hours of cards followed the dinner hour.

Christmas Seal Sale Starts Soon

On November 30 the tuberculosis Christmas Seal will make their appearance in every community of the state and thus usher in the Christmas spirit of good-will to others. Proceeds from the sales will be placed in every corner of Oregon under the direction of the Oregon Tuberculosis association. Twenty-six counties have public health associations which are handling their sales locally.

Red, blue and green are the predominant colors of this year's seal. The double barred Lorraine Cross, in red, is the emblem that appears on each seal to identify it as the tuberculosis seal. They sell for a penny each, the same price charged in the first sale in 1907.

Various methods are to be used in selling the seal, the association requesting that the seal be sold in some places children will serve as salesmen.

U. O. E. S. Chapter Hostess To Visitors

Over 200 local folk attended the meeting of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple last night, many from out-of-town. The matron, patron and officers of the chapter put on the obligation degree. Mrs. A. E. Utley, accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, sang for the pleasure of the group. Mrs. Wayne Henry told in an interesting manner of her recent trip east over the Canadian Rockies. A late supper was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated with fall flowers and the serving table was centered with lighted tapers and a low bowl of flowers.

Mrs. Virgil Burson will entertain the Leslie Gun Doe at her home, 155 East Wilson street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Teachers Honor New Superintendent

The Salem Teachers' association, engaged with an all-school reception in honor of Superintendent and Mrs. Silas Gaiser Monday evening at the Highland school. The new auditorium was decorated with palms and bouquets of chrysanthemums in yellow and rose tones. Mrs. Sylvia Krapps was chairman of the decorating committee.

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard invited a few matrons to make up a luncheon party at the Tea House Tuesday afternoon. The hours following luncheon were spent informally in the Gibbard residence and a late tea was served. Covers were placed for Mrs. E. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. Charles Rullman and the hostess, Mrs. Gibbard.

Press Club Has Dinner

The Salem Women's Press club entertained at dinner Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard in compliment to their husbands. Several hours of cards followed the dinner hour.

Christmas Seal Sale Starts Soon

On November 30 the tuberculosis Christmas Seal will make their appearance in every community of the state and thus usher in the Christmas spirit of good-will to others. Proceeds from the sales will be placed in every corner of Oregon under the direction of the Oregon Tuberculosis association. Twenty-six counties have public health associations which are handling their sales locally.

Red, blue and green are the predominant colors of this year's seal. The double barred Lorraine Cross, in red, is the emblem that appears on each seal to identify it as the tuberculosis seal. They sell for a penny each, the same price charged in the first sale in 1907.

Various methods are to be used in selling the seal, the association requesting that the seal be sold in some places children will serve as salesmen.

U. O. E. S. Chapter Hostess To Visitors

Over 200 local folk attended the meeting of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple last night, many from out-of-town. The matron, patron and officers of the chapter put on the obligation degree. Mrs. A. E. Utley, accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, sang for the pleasure of the group. Mrs. Wayne Henry told in an interesting manner of her recent trip east over the Canadian Rockies. A late supper was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated with fall flowers and the serving table was centered with lighted tapers and a low bowl of flowers.

Mrs. Virgil Burson will entertain the Leslie Gun Doe at her home, 155 East Wilson street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Teachers Honor New Superintendent

The Salem Teachers' association, engaged with an all-school reception in honor of Superintendent and Mrs. Silas Gaiser Monday evening at the Highland school. The new auditorium was decorated with palms and bouquets of chrysanthemums in yellow and rose tones. Mrs. Sylvia Krapps was chairman of the decorating committee.

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard invited a few matrons to make up a luncheon party at the Tea House Tuesday afternoon. The hours following luncheon were spent informally in the Gibbard residence and a late tea was served. Covers were placed for Mrs. E. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. Charles Rullman and the hostess, Mrs. Gibbard.

Press Club Has Dinner

The Salem Women's Press club entertained at dinner Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard in compliment to their husbands. Several hours of cards followed the dinner hour.

Christmas Seal Sale Starts Soon

On November 30 the tuberculosis Christmas Seal will make their appearance in every community of the state and thus usher in the Christmas spirit of good-will to others. Proceeds from the sales will be placed in every corner of Oregon under the direction of the Oregon Tuberculosis association. Twenty-six counties have public health associations which are handling their sales locally.

Red, blue and green are the predominant colors of this year's seal. The double barred Lorraine Cross, in red, is the emblem that appears on each seal to identify it as the tuberculosis seal. They sell for a penny each, the same price charged in the first sale in 1907.

Various methods are to be used in selling the seal, the association requesting that the seal be sold in some places children will serve as salesmen.

U. O. E. S. Chapter Hostess To Visitors

Over 200 local folk attended the meeting of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple last night, many from out-of-town. The matron, patron and officers of the chapter put on the obligation degree. Mrs. A. E. Utley, accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, sang for the pleasure of the group. Mrs. Wayne Henry told in an interesting manner of her recent trip east over the Canadian Rockies. A late supper was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated with fall flowers and the serving table was centered with lighted tapers and a low bowl of flowers.

Mrs. Virgil Burson will entertain the Leslie Gun Doe at her home, 155 East Wilson street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Teachers Honor New Superintendent

The Salem Teachers' association, engaged with an all-school reception in honor of Superintendent and Mrs. Silas Gaiser Monday evening at the Highland school. The new auditorium was decorated with palms and bouquets of chrysanthemums in yellow and rose tones. Mrs. Sylvia Krapps was chairman of the decorating committee.

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard invited a few matrons to make up a luncheon party at the Tea House Tuesday afternoon. The hours following luncheon were spent informally in the Gibbard residence and a late tea was served. Covers were placed for Mrs. E. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. Charles Rullman and the hostess, Mrs. Gibbard.

Press Club Has Dinner

The Salem Women's Press club entertained at dinner Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard in compliment to their husbands. Several hours of cards followed the dinner hour.

Christmas Seal Sale Starts Soon

On November 30 the tuberculosis Christmas Seal will make their appearance in every community of the state and thus usher in the Christmas spirit of good-will to others. Proceeds from the sales will be placed in every corner of Oregon under the direction of the Oregon Tuberculosis association. Twenty-six counties have public health associations which are handling their sales locally.

Red, blue and green are the predominant colors of this year's seal. The double barred Lorraine Cross, in red, is the emblem that appears on each seal to identify it as the tuberculosis seal. They sell for a penny each, the same price charged in the first sale in 1907.

Various methods are to be used in selling the seal, the association requesting that the seal be sold in some places children will serve as salesmen.

U. O. E. S. Chapter Hostess To Visitors

Over 200 local folk attended the meeting of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple last night, many from out-of-town. The matron, patron and officers of the chapter put on the obligation degree. Mrs. A. E. Utley, accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, sang for the pleasure of the group. Mrs. Wayne Henry told in an interesting manner of her recent trip east over the Canadian Rockies. A late supper was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated with fall flowers and the serving table was centered with lighted tapers and a low bowl of flowers.

Mrs. Virgil Burson will entertain the Leslie Gun Doe at her home, 155 East Wilson street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Teachers Honor New Superintendent

The Salem Teachers' association, engaged with an all-school reception in honor of Superintendent and Mrs. Silas Gaiser Monday evening at the Highland school. The new auditorium was decorated with palms and bouquets of chrysanthemums in yellow and rose tones. Mrs. Sylvia Krapps was chairman of the decorating committee.

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard invited a few matrons to make up a luncheon party at the Tea House Tuesday afternoon. The hours following luncheon were spent informally in the Gibbard residence and a late tea was served. Covers were placed for Mrs. E. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. Charles Rullman and the hostess, Mrs. Gibbard.

Press Club Has Dinner

The Salem Women's Press club entertained at dinner Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard in compliment to their husbands. Several hours of cards followed the dinner hour.

Christmas Seal Sale Starts Soon

On November 30 the tuberculosis Christmas Seal will make their appearance in every community of the state and thus usher in the Christmas spirit of good-will to others. Proceeds from the sales will be placed in every corner of Oregon under the direction of the Oregon Tuberculosis association. Twenty-six counties have public health associations which are handling their sales locally.

Red, blue and green are the predominant colors of this year's seal. The double barred Lorraine Cross, in red, is the emblem that appears on each seal to identify it as the tuberculosis seal. They sell for a penny each, the same price charged in the first sale in 1907.

Various methods are to be used in selling the seal, the association requesting that the seal be sold in some places children will serve as salesmen.

U. O. E. S. Chapter Hostess To Visitors

Over 200 local folk attended the meeting of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple last night, many from out-of-town. The matron, patron and officers of the chapter put on the obligation degree. Mrs. A. E. Utley, accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, sang for the pleasure of the group. Mrs. Wayne Henry told in an interesting manner of her recent trip east over the Canadian Rockies. A late supper was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated with fall flowers and the serving table was centered with lighted tapers and a low bowl of flowers.

Mrs. Virgil Burson will entertain the Leslie Gun Doe at her home, 155 East Wilson street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CITY Y LEAGUE OPENS DEC. 4

Play in the City-Y basketball league will likely get under way the evening of December 4 when the minor division clubs take the floor. It was decided last night when representatives of 12 quints met with Dwight Adams, physical director. The majors will probably start their part of the program December 6. Three games will probably be played each Tuesday and Thursday night with the minors utilizing the Y.M.C.A. floor and the majors the Parish court.

Womans' Club Meets Saturday

Prof. J. T. Bachelor, head of the school of mines at Oregon State college, will speak to the Salem Women's club at the clubhouse Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. His subject will be "Oregon Mines." Miss Ruthyn Thomas will give a group of violin solos. The board will meet at 2 o'clock.

Yarnell Defeats Hibbard in Sixth

Portland, Nov. 21 (AP)—Private Torchy Yarnell of Uncle Sam's army knocked out Jack Hibbard, Klamath Falls, just before the end of the sixth round with a devastating left hook to the chin here last night. The end came as Hibbard was coming along for a strong finish. Just previous to the knockout, Hibbard had rocked Torchy with a left to the chin. In the fifth round, Yarnell dropped Hibbard with lefts to the stomach for counts of four and five. Torchy weighed 160 pounds, Hibbard 155.

ASK BRONCS, GAELS TO TANGLE AGAIN

San Francisco, Nov. 21 (AP)—The San Francisco Knights of Columbus charity committee today announced word from St. Mary's College and University of Santa Clara that its proposal that the football eleven of the schools play another game here in December.

SHORTER COLDS VICKS

PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

ECZEMA..

To quickly relieve the itching and burning, and help nature clear up the disorder, freely apply Resinol

INVITATION SALE

Something New In Salem

Waconda—The turkey shoot held at the Bert L. Jones farm in Mission Bottom was well attended with members of the Salem Gun club attending in a group. Mrs. Bert Jones served lunch on the grounds. Jones plans another shoot in the near future.

A SERVICE... OF SILVERPLATE FOR THANKSGIVING

Here is an opportunity for those who love fine silverplate, but who can afford only a moderate outlay for its purchase. A 32-piece set in R. & B. A-1 Silverplate, made and guaranteed by International Silver Co., and in a handsome Patent-Tarnish Tuck-Away Case.

Only a limited time for we are privileged to offer this 32-piece service in this smart pattern at the opportune price of

$8.95

CARVING SETS $5.95

URN SETS $12.95

ELECTRIC PERCOLATORS $3.95

ELECTRIC TOASTERS $2.95

WAFFLE IRONS $3.95

TEA AND COFFEE SETS $15 to $50

TEA SPOONS—SET OF SIX 45c

WELL & TREE PLATTERS $7.50

SALTS AND PEPPERS 95c

SUGAR AND CREAM SETS $3.95

CASSEROLE $2.95

1.87

The above group also includes the newest silk pongee pajamas in plain and printed combinations. One and two piece.

A group of satins, slips, dance sets, panties and combinations. Tailored and lace trimmed.

2.87

French crepe, Crepe de Chine and satin pajamas and gowns. These are most exquisitely trimmed and would make an ultra fine gift for the most exacting. While any remain—

3.87

Gifts to men who buy for women Gifts wrapped without charge

R. C. AIKEN Jewelry Successors to Burnett Bros. 457 State St.

Pinelli to U